THE chief peculiarities of this edition of the Holy Scriptures are (1) A revision of the Authorised Version, and (2) An improved arrangement of the Text.

I. The revision of the English Bible has for many years engaged the attention of biblical scholars in this country; and some of the most eminent among them have not only strongly maintained the desirableness and need of such a work, but have, by Translations of various Books, and by the preparation of improved Grammars and Lexicons, afforded important help towards its execution. This publication is the completion of a work which was commenced sixteen years ago, and was partly carried into effect by the publication in parts (in 1868—71) of a quarto Bible, containing within brackets in the text what were regarded as the more important emendations required in the Authorised Version. The present more complete revision has been executed as follows:—The first five Books of the Old Testament (Genesis to Deuteronomy) by the Rev. F. W. GOTCH, M.A., LL.D. (Trin. Coll., Dub.); the remaining Books of the Old Testament (Joshua to Malachi) by the late Rev. BENJAMIN DAVIES, Ph.D., LL.D., Translator of Rödiger's Hebrew Grammar, and Author of a Hebrew Lexicon; and the New Testament, by the Rev. G. A. JACOB, D.D., late Head Master of Christ's Hospital, and the Rev. SAMUEL G. GREEN, D.D., Author of a Handbook of the Grammar of the Greek Testament.

This work does not profess to be such a complete revision of the Authorised Version as the English-speaking world will in due time receive from the two learned and able Companies of Revisers who are known to be zealously and harmoniously working together for the production of a Book which may, sooner or later, take the place of that which has been for more than two centuries the loved and honoured English Bible. Such a thorough and perfect revision as shall accord with the present advanced state of Hebrew and Greek scholarship will probably require a greater extent of alteration, minute as well as important, than English readers unacquainted with the original languages will be prepared to receive except from a body of competent Scholars possessing a weight of authority at least equal to that of the Translators to whom we owe our present Version. The design of the present work, so far as regards the revision, is to correct what may be considered indisputable errors and inadequate renderings in our present English Bible; and in the New Testament to give also the more important emendations of the text which have been adopted by the best Editors of the Greek Testament.

In the revision of the Old Testament the Received Hebrew Text has been adhered to; because although eminent Hebraists have proposed many emendations, more or less conjectural, (some of which will be found noticed in the margin), it is the general opinion of Hebrew scholars who have investigated the subject, that sufficient materials do not exist at present for a satisfactory revision of the Text. But in the New Testament, the labours of a long succession of eminent Critics, and especially of Lachmann, Tischendorf, Tregelles, and others, in recent times, in collating the most ancient manuscripts and versions, &c., have produced a general agreement on the part of the best scholars in favour of certain readings differing from those of the text which our Translators followed. Most of these readings, where they are sufficiently important as affecting the sense, have been adopted in this edition, the Received Text being given in the margin; and in like manner, words and clauses in the Received Text which the best authorities agree in regarding as spurious have been either transferred to the margin, if not too long to be placed there, or have been printed within brackets, with a marginal note. Some other readings of the Greek Text supported by good authorities, but without the same preponderating evidence in their favour, have been given in the margin.

In endeavouring to amend incorrect or inadequate renderings in the Authorised Version, the aim has been to express the meaning of the original as exactly as possible consistently with idiomatic English. Special attention has been devoted to the correction of grammatical and other inaccuracies; First, by giving their exact force to the different tenses of verbs, as well as to articles, and prepositions and other particles, upon which the meaning of connected sentences greatly depends; and Secondly, by introducing a greater uniformity in the translation of the same Hebrew and Greek words. Due regard, however, has been paid to the genius of the English language, which, aided by its duplicate system of words, of Saxon and of classical origin, generally prefers a synonymous expression to the repetition of the same word in a sentence, unless the repetition is required for emphasis or precision.

With regard to the diction, and the choice of words, in this Revision, it was felt that more than ordinary care was needed lest the charms of style and language of our highly-venerated Version should be impaired. Hence (1) the peculiar rhythm of the language of our English Bible has been as far as possible preserved; and to secure this, sometimes a certain amount of literal accuracy of translation has been sacrificed, by allowing expressions to remain for which a more verbally exact, but less harmonious, rendering might have been substituted. And (2) all words of a modern stamp have been, as a rule, excluded; only such being used as are found elsewhere in our Version, or in one of the earlier English translations, or in good English writers not later than the beginning of the 17th Century.

Words which have become obsolete, or have ceased to be understood in the sense in which they were formerly used, have been exchanged for others in present use. And proper names of persons and places have been spelt uniformly in the different passages where they occur; the Old Testament names which are used in the New Testament being printed in their original form, instead of the modifications to which the Greek language had subjected them.

In connection with the revision of the translation, the punctuation and orthography have been carefully attended to. And the text has been supplemented, in the margin, by (1) Alternative renderings of some words or clauses respecting which the best authorities differ; (2) Translations of certain Hebrew and Greek names; (3) Exact renderings of some words not literally translated in the text; and (4) Some explanatory notes on words or phrases which the English reader may find difficult or obscure.

Perhaps some notice should be taken of the objections which have been urged against any revision of the English Bible. These have been based chiefly on two opposite grounds. Some have objected to the correction of errors as tending to unsettle the minds of readers, and even to shake confidence in the Holy Scriptures. But the same objection might have been raised against our present Version of the English Bible, which was made after earlier translations had gained a great hold on the public mind; and it would apply equally to the revision of any generally received translation of the Bible, in any language, however greatly such revision might be needed. This objection is further met by the consideration, that a careful and scholarly revision of the Authorised Version, by removing defects and imperfections, brings out more clearly its substantial excellencies, while at the same time it shows how small an amount of important alteration is required. Others again say that revision is unnecessary, because the errors are trivial and unimportant. But Archbishop Trench has well observed that nothing is really small or unimportant which has to do with the Word of God, as either helping or hindering the exact setting forth of that Word; and the more deeply we are persuaded of its Divine inspiration, the more intolerant shall we be of any hindrances to arriving at a perfect understanding of it. And in setting forth that Word in a different language from that in which it was first written, we may justly desire such an approximation to perfection as the language will allow; and this not merely in the greatest things but in the smallest.

It seems hardly necessary to observe that a revision of the work which the Translators completed more than two centuries and a half ago implies no disrespect either for their scholarship or for their labours. It is only imitating their example by endeavouring to make a wise and faithful use of the accumulated stores of biblical knowledge which have been laboriously accumulated since their time. And those who reverently and with due qualifications undertake the task of revision in our day may well claim the benefit of the Translators' remarks concerning the work of their predecessors:—"As nothing is begun and perfected at the same time, and the later thoughts are thought to be the wiser, so if we, building upon the foundation of those who went before us, and being holpen by their labours, do endeavour to make that better which they left so good, no man, we are sure, hath cause to dislike us. They, we persuade ourselves, if they were alive, would thank us."

II. With respect to the new arrangement of the text here given, it is well known to biblical students that the peculiar manner in which the Bible is printed, in chapters and verses, was no part of the original form in which the Scriptures were given; but is of comparatively modern origin. Although some arrangement of this kind is convenient for reference, it must be confessed that the present division into verses often obscures the sense, sometimes seriously, by making arbitrary breaks of sentences; and the chapter-divisions frequently separate passages belonging to the same subject, and join together others which are wholly unconnected. The headings of the chapters also in many instances contain erroneous interpretations; and they afford little help to the reader.

In the present edition the text is divided into sections and paragraphs, according to the sense; (the numbering of the chapters and verses being retained, for the purpose of reference); and headings are prefixed to the several sections, indicating the contents of the section, and describing briefly the salient points of the narrative or argument. The poetical portions are arranged in parallelisms, in their various forms (simple or regular, compound, antithetical, &c.), in accordance with the rhythmical construction of Hebrew poetry. The force and beauty of many passages are in this way more clearly brought out; and help is afforded towards the right understanding of some which are obscure.

The dates which appear at the head of each page, are derived from the Chronological Tables of Usher and Hales; the difference between the two being caused by the former following the Hebrew Text, and the latter the Septuagint Version, of the Book of Genesis; in which different numbers of years are given in the two genealogical lists of the patriarchs before Abraham (ch. v. 3—32; xi. 10—26). Besides the information on this subject thus supplied throughout the Book, there are Chronological Tables of the Prophetical Books, and of the Gospel History, and a Chronological Summary of Bible History from the Creation of the World to the Destruction of Jerusalem.

The Selection of References to parallel and illustrative passages has been prepared with great care for this work. Many References which are commonly given have been omitted, as being of secondary importance, and many others more serviceable to the elucidation of the text have been added.

The Maps, which are placed together at the end, for convenience of reference, are founded upon the best geographical authorities.

This Volume has been prepared in the hope that it may, under the Divine blessing, contribute in some measure to the more extensive and more profitable study of Holy Scripture. By a more accurate rendering many passages become more intelligible and instructive, as well as more graphic and forcible. And it is hoped that a more correct and natural arrangement of the text, with appropriate headings to its several sections, will be found to remove some causes of obscurity, and to afford some help towards obtaining clearer apprehensions of the teaching of many portions of this Divine book, and more comprehensive views, both of its contents as a whole, and of the mutual bearings and relations of its several parts.

<sup>9</sup> And God blessed Noah and his sons, and he said unto them: <sup>t</sup> Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth. <sup>2</sup> And <sup>u</sup> the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered. <sup>3</sup> Every moving thing that liveth shall be food for you; even as the <sup>v</sup> green herb have I given you <sup>4</sup> all things. <sup>4</sup> <sup>a</sup> But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat. <sup>5</sup> And surely your blood of your lives will I require, <sup>b</sup> at the hand of every beast will I require it, and <sup>c</sup> at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man. <sup>6</sup> <sup>d</sup> Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed; <sup>e</sup> for in the image of God made he man. <sup>7</sup> And you, <sup>f</sup> be ye fruitful and multiply, bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

<sup>12</sup> And God said: <sup>h</sup> This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations. <sup>13</sup> I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth. <sup>14</sup> And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud: <sup>15</sup> and <sup>i</sup> I will remember my covenant which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh, and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh. <sup>16</sup> And the bow shall be in the cloud, and I will look upon it, that I may remember <sup>k</sup> the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth. <sup>17</sup> And God said unto Noah: This is the token of the covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem! And Canaan shall be his servant.

<sup>27</sup> God will enlarge Japheth,

And he shall dwell in the tents of Shem;

And Canaan shall be his servant.

<sup>28</sup> And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years; and all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

e Mic. 5. 6. <sup>8</sup>And Cush begat <sup>e</sup>Nimrod. He began to be a mighty one in the earth; <sup>9</sup>he was a mighty hunter before the LORD; wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod a mighty hunter before the LORD. <sup>10</sup>And <sup>f</sup>the beginning of his kingdom was Babel and Erech and Accad and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

f ch. 11. 9. <sup>11</sup>Out of that land he went forth to Assyria; and he built <sup>g</sup>Nineveh and Rehoboth-Ir and Calah, <sup>12</sup>and Resen between Nineveh and Calah; that is the great city.

<sup>13</sup>And Mizraim begat the Ludim and the Anamim, and the Lehabim and the Naphtuhim <sup>14</sup>and the Pathrusim and the Caslubim <sup>h</sup>(from whom came the Philistim) and the Caphtorim.

<sup>15</sup>And <sup>i</sup>Canaan begat Sidon his firstborn, and Heth, <sup>16</sup>and the Jebusite and the Amorite and the Girgashite <sup>17</sup>and the Hivite and the Arkite and the Sinite <sup>18</sup>and the Arvadite and the Zemarite and the Hamathite. And afterwards were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad. <sup>19</sup><sup>k</sup>And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou goest to Gerar, unto Gaza, as thou goest unto Sodom and Gomorrah and Admah and Zeboim, even unto Lasha.

<sup>26</sup>And Joktan begat Almodad and Sheleph and Hazarmaveth and Jerah <sup>27</sup>and Hadoram and Uzal and Diklah <sup>28</sup>and Obal and Abimael and Sheba <sup>29</sup>and Ophir and Havilah and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan. <sup>30</sup>And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest unto Sephar, a mountain of the east.

<sup>31</sup>These are the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands, according to their nations.

Building of Babel; (5) confusion of tongues, and (8) consequent dispersion of nations.

11. AND the whole earth was of one language and of one speech. <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass, as they journeyed eastward, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they dwelt there.

<sup>3</sup>And they said one to another: Go to, let us make bricks and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and bitumen had they for mortar. And they said: Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, <sup>a</sup>lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

<sup>5</sup>And <sup>b</sup>the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the children of men built. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD said: Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do; and now nothing will be restrained from them which <sup>d</sup>they have imagined to do. <sup>7</sup>Go to, <sup>e</sup>let us go down, and there confound their language, <sup>f</sup>that they may not understand one another's speech.

<sup>8</sup>So <sup>g</sup>the LORD scattered them abroad from thence, upon the face of all the earth; and they left off to build the city. <sup>9</sup>Therefore is the name of it called Babel [i. e. Confusion], because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth. And from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

Shem's descendants down to Terah, the father of Abram.

<sup>12</sup>And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah; <sup>13</sup>Arphaxad lived after he begat Salah four hundred and three years; and he begat sons and daughters.

And <sup>l</sup> the Canaanite was then in the land. <sup>7</sup> And <sup>m</sup> the LORD appeared unto Abram, and said: <sup>n</sup> Unto thy seed will I give this land. And there built he an <sup>o</sup> altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.	<sup>h</sup> Gen. 14.14, 21. <sup>i</sup> Gen. 11.31.

Abram's return from Egypt to Canaan; (5) his separation from Lot; (14) God's renewed promise to him.

13. AND Abram went up out of Egypt, he and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, <sup>a</sup>into the south. <sup>2</sup> And <sup>b</sup>Abram was very rich, in cattle, in silver and in gold. <sup>3</sup> And he went on his journeys from the south even to Beth-el, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hai; <sup>4</sup> to the <sup>c</sup>place of the altar which he had made there at the first. And there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> And Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks and herds and tents. <sup>6</sup> And <sup>d</sup>the land was not able to bear them that they might dwell together; for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

<sup>7</sup> And there was <sup>e</sup>strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle. And the <sup>f</sup>Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelt then in the land. <sup>8</sup> And Abram said unto Lot: <sup>g</sup>Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, or between my herdmen and thy herdmen; <sup>h</sup>for we are brethren. <sup>i</sup>Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me. <sup>k</sup>If thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

earth, <sup>v</sup>then shall thy seed also be numbered. <sup>17</sup> Arise, walk through the land, in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.

Invasion and plundering of Canaan and adjoining countries by allied kings from the Euphrates valley; (14) Abram's rescue of Lot and recapture of the spoil; (18) Melchizedek.

taken captive, he led forth his trained servants, <sup>1</sup>born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto <sup>15</sup>Dan. <sup>15</sup>And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them; and he pursued them unto Hobah, (which is on the left hand of Damascus). <sup>16</sup>And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people. <sup>17</sup>And the king of Sodom went out to meet him, after his return from smiting Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shaveh, (which is the <sup>20</sup>King's dale).

<sup>5</sup>And He brought him forth abroad, and said: Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars if thou be able to number them. And he said unto him: <sup>6</sup>So shall thy seed be.

<sup>8</sup>And he said: O LORD JEHOVAH, <sup>9</sup>whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

<sup>9</sup>And He said unto him: Take me a heifer of three years old and a she-goat of three years old and a ram of three years old and a turtle-dove and a young pigeon.

behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and <sup>9</sup>will multiply him exceedingly; <sup>10</sup>twelve princes shall he beget, and I <sup>11</sup>will make him a great nation. <sup>12</sup>But <sup>13</sup>my covenant will I establish with Isaac, <sup>14</sup>whom Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year.

<sup>23</sup>And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin on the selfsame day, as God had said unto him. <sup>24</sup>And Abraham was ninety years old and nine when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin; <sup>25</sup>and Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>26</sup>On the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son. <sup>27</sup>And <sup>28</sup>all the men of his house, born in the house or bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

The promise to Abraham and Sarah repeated.

18. AND the LORD appeared unto him at <sup>a</sup>the oaks of Mamre. And he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day; <sup>2</sup>and he lifted up his eyes and looked, and lo, three men stood before him. And <sup>b</sup>when he saw them he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground. <sup>3</sup>And he said: My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant. <sup>4</sup>Let <sup>c</sup>a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree; <sup>5</sup>and <sup>d</sup>I will fetch a morsel of bread; and <sup>e</sup>comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on; <sup>f</sup>for therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said: So do, as thou hast said.

<sup>6</sup>And Abraham hastened into the tent, unto Sarah, and said: Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth. <sup>7</sup>And Abraham ran to the herd, and fetched a calf tender and good, and gave it to a young man; and he hastened to dress it. <sup>8</sup>And <sup>9</sup>he took butter and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

<sup>9</sup>And they said unto him: Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said: Behold, in the tent. <sup>10</sup>And He said: I will certainly return unto thee <sup>h</sup>according to the time of life; *and lo, <sup>i</sup>Sarah thy wife shall have a son.

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD said unto Abraham: Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, who am old? <sup>14</sup>Is any thing too hard for the LORD? <sup>15</sup>At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life; and Sarah shall have a son. <sup>16</sup>Then Sarah denied, saying: I laughed not; for she was afraid. And He said: Nay, but thou didst laugh.

<sup>16</sup>AND the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom; and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

19. AND <sup>a</sup>the two angels came to Sodom at even; and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom: and <sup>b</sup>Lot seeing them rose up to meet them: and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground. <sup>2</sup> And he said: Behold now, my lords, <sup>c</sup>turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and <sup>d</sup>wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said: Nay, but we will abide in the street all night. <sup>3</sup> And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house. <sup>4</sup> And he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

them, and shut the door after him. <sup>7</sup> And he said: I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly. <sup>8</sup> Behold now, I have two daughters who have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out to you, and do ye to them as <sup>g</sup>is good in your eyes; only to these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof. <sup>9</sup> And they said: Stand back. And they said again: This one man <sup>h</sup>came in to sojourn, and <sup>i</sup>he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, <sup>j</sup>even Lot, and came near to break the door. <sup>10</sup> But the men put forth their hand and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door. <sup>11</sup> And <sup>k</sup>they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great; so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

<sup>15</sup> And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying: <sup>r</sup>Arise, take thy wife and thy two daughters who are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city. <sup>16</sup> And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and <sup>s</sup>they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

<sup>17</sup> And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said: Escape for thy life; <sup>t</sup>look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

<sup>18</sup> And Lot said to them: Oh, not so, my Lord. <sup>19</sup> Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy which thou hast showed to me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest the evil overtake me, and I die. <sup>20</sup> Behold now, this city <sup>u</sup>is near to flee to, and it <sup>v</sup>is a little one. Oh, let me escape thither, (<sup>is</sup> it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

 21 And He said unto him: See, <sup>a</sup> I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city for the which thou hast spoken. 22 Haste thee, escape thither, for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore <sup>a</sup> the name of the city was called Zoar [i. e. Little].

23 The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.
 24 Then <sup>a</sup> the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven; <sup>a</sup> and he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

25 But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became <sup>a</sup> a pillar of salt.
 27 And Abraham gat up early in the morning to <sup>a</sup> the place where he stood before the LORD; <sup>a</sup> and he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

28 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God <sup>b</sup> remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot dwelt.
 30 And Lot went up out of Zoar, and <sup>c</sup> dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar. And he dwelt in a cave, and he and his two daughters.

31 And <sup>d</sup> the firstborn said to the younger: Our father <sup>a</sup> is old, and <sup>a</sup> there is not a man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth; <sup>a</sup> come, let us make our father <sup>e</sup> drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed by our father. 33 And they made their father drink wine that night; and the firstborn went in and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down nor when she arose. 34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger: Behold, I lay yesternight with my father; let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in and lie with him, that we may preserve seed by our father. 35 And they made their father drink wine that night also; and the younger arose and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down nor when she arose. 36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Moab; <sup>f</sup> the same <sup>a</sup> is the father of the Moabites unto this day. 38 And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Ben-ammi; the same <sup>a</sup> is the father of <sup>g</sup> the children of Ammon unto this day.

20. AND Abraham journeyed from thence toward the south country; and he dwelt between <sup>a</sup> Kadesh and Shur; and he <sup>b</sup> sojourned in Gerar. 2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife: <sup>c</sup> She is my sister. And <sup>d</sup> Abimelech king of Gerar sent and <sup>e</sup> took Sarah.

3 But <sup>f</sup> God came to Abimelech <sup>g</sup> in a dream by night, and said to him: Behold, thou art but a dead man, for the woman whom thou hast taken; for she <sup>a</sup> is a man's wife. 4 But Abimelech had not come near her; and he said: Lord, <sup>a</sup> wilt thou slay even a righteous nation? 5 Said he not unto me, She <sup>a</sup> is my sister? And she, even she herself said, He <sup>a</sup> is my brother. 6 In the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this.

7 And God said unto him in a dream: Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for <sup>k</sup> I also withheld thee from sinning against me; therefore suffered I thee not to touch her. 7 Now therefore restore the man <sup>a</sup> his wife; for he <sup>a</sup> is a prophet, and he <sup>a</sup> shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live. And if thou restore <sup>a</sup> her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that <sup>a</sup> are thine.

8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him: <sup>m</sup> What hast thou done unto us? And what have I offended thee, <sup>n</sup> that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? Thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done. 10 And Abimelech said to Abraham: What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said: Because I thought, Surely <sup>o</sup> the fear of God <sup>a</sup> is not in this place; and <sup>p</sup> they will slay me for my wife's sake. 12 And yet indeed <sup>q</sup> she <sup>a</sup> is my sister; she <sup>a</sup> is the daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife. 13 And it came to pass, when <sup>r</sup> God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, This <sup>a</sup> is thy kindness which thou shalt show unto me; at every place whither we shall come, <sup>s</sup> say of me, He <sup>a</sup> is my brother.

and men-servants and women-servants, and gave them to Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife. <sup>15</sup> And Abimelech said: Behold, "my land is before thee; dwell where it pleaseth thee. <sup>16</sup> And to Sarah he said: Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver; behold, it is to thee <sup>a</sup> a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee and with all other: thus she received satisfaction.

<sup>6</sup> And Sarah said: <sup>h</sup> God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear <sup>i</sup> will laugh with me. <sup>7</sup> And she said: Who would have said unto Abraham that Sarah should give children suck? <sup>k</sup> For I have borne him a son in his old age.

<sup>12</sup> And God said unto Abraham: Let it not be grievous in thy sight, because of the lad and because of thy bond-woman. In all that Sarah hath said to thee, hearken to her voice; for <sup>n</sup> in Isaac shall thy seed be called. <sup>13</sup> And also of the son of the bond-woman will I make <sup>o</sup> a nation, because he is thy seed.

<sup>14</sup> And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba. <sup>15</sup> And the water was spent in the skin; and she put the child under one of <sup>p</sup> the shrubs. <sup>16</sup> And she went and sat her down over against him, a good way off, as it were a bow-shot; for she said: Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice and wept.

<sup>24</sup> And Abraham said: I will swear. <sup>25</sup> And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water which Abimelech's servants <sup>e</sup> had violently taken away. <sup>26</sup> And Abimelech said: I know not who hath done this thing; nor didst thou tell me, nor yet heard I of it, but to-day.

Then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned unto the land of the Philistines.

Abraham, being tried, offers up Isaac, and (15) receives new promises.

22. AND it came to pass after these things that <sup>a</sup>God did prove Abraham; and he said unto him: Abraham! And he said: Behold, here am I. <sup>2</sup>And he said: Take now thy son, <sup>b</sup>thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into <sup>c</sup>the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt-offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

<sup>3</sup>And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt-offering; and he rose up, and went to the place of which God had told him. <sup>4</sup>Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place afar off. <sup>5</sup>And Abraham said to his young men: Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, <sup>d</sup>and come again to you. <sup>6</sup>And Abraham took the wood for the burnt-offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife; and they went both of them together.

<sup>7</sup>And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father! And he said, Here am I, my son. And he said: Behold the fire and the wood; but where is the lamb for a burnt-offering? <sup>8</sup>And Abraham said: My son, <sup>e</sup>God will provide himself the lamb for a burnt-offering. So they went both of them together.

<sup>9</sup>And they came to the place which God had told him of. And Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood. <sup>10</sup>And Abraham stretched forth his hand and took the knife to slay his son. <sup>11</sup>And the angel of the LORD called to him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham! And he said: Here am I. <sup>12</sup>And he said: Lay not thy hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him; for <sup>f</sup>now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me. <sup>13</sup>And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, behind him <sup>h</sup>a ram caught in a thicket by his horns; and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt-offering, in the stead of his son.

<sup>14</sup>And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh [i. e. The LORD will provide]; as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be provided.

<sup>15</sup>And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, <sup>16</sup>and said: By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, <sup>17</sup>that in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed <sup>k</sup>as the stars of heaven, and <sup>l</sup>as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and <sup>m</sup>thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; <sup>18</sup>and <sup>n</sup>in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; <sup>o</sup>because thou hast obeyed my voice.

23. AND Sarah was a hundred and seven and twenty years old, these were the years of the life of Sarah. <sup>2</sup>And Sarah died in <sup>a</sup>Kirjath-arba; (the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan). And Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

<sup>6</sup>And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him: <sup>7</sup>Hear us, my lord. Thou art <sup>a</sup>a mighty prince among us. In the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead; none of us will withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.

<sup>7</sup> And Abraham stood up and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the sons of Heth. <sup>8</sup> And he communed with them, saying: If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and intreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar, <sup>9</sup> that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field; for as much money as it is worth he shall give it me for a possession of a burying-place amongst you.

<sup>10</sup> And Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth: and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of the sons of Heth, even of all that <sup>e</sup> went in at the gate of his city, saying: <sup>11</sup> Nay, my lord, hear me. The field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee; in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee. Bury thy dead.

<sup>12</sup> And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land. <sup>13</sup> And he spake to Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying: But if thou wilt, I pray thee, hear me: I will give thee money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there.

24. AND Abraham <sup>a</sup> was old and well stricken in age. And the LORD <sup>b</sup> had blessed Abraham in all things. <sup>2</sup> And Abraham said <sup>c</sup> unto his eldest servant of his house, that <sup>d</sup> ruled over all that he had: <sup>e</sup> Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, <sup>3</sup> and I will make thee <sup>f</sup> swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that <sup>g</sup> thou wilt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell; <sup>4</sup> but thou shalt go to my country and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

<sup>5</sup> And the servant said to him: Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land; must I needs bring thy son again to the land from whence thou camest?

<sup>6</sup> And Abraham said to him: Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again. <sup>7</sup> The LORD God of heaven, who <sup>i</sup> took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and who spake unto me and who swore unto me, saying, <sup>8</sup> Unto thy seed will I give this land, <sup>9</sup> he will send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence. <sup>10</sup> And if the woman shall not be willing to follow thee, then <sup>m</sup> thou shalt be clear from this my oath; only bring not my son thither again.

Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother,) with her pitcher upon her shoulder. <sup>16</sup> And the damsel <sup>z</sup> was very fair to look upon, a virgin; neither had any man known her. And she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher and came up. <sup>17</sup> And the servant ran to meet her, and said: Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher. <sup>18</sup> And she said: Drink, my lord. And she hastened and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink. <sup>19</sup> And when she had done giving him drink, she said: I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking. <sup>20</sup> And she hastened and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again to the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels. <sup>21</sup> And the man, wondering at her, held his peace, to know whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

with him. <sup>33</sup> And there was set food before him to eat; but he said: <sup>h</sup> I will not eat until I have told mine errand. And he said: Speak on.

<sup>34</sup> And he said: I am Abraham's servant; <sup>35</sup> and the LORD <sup>i</sup> hath blessed my master greatly, and he is become great; and he hath given him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and men-servants and maid-servants, and camels and asses. <sup>36</sup> And Sarah my master's wife <sup>k</sup> bare a son to my master when she was old; and <sup>l</sup> unto him hath he given all that he hath. <sup>37</sup> And <sup>m</sup> my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell; <sup>38</sup> but thou shalt go to my father's house and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son. <sup>39</sup> And I said to my master: Peradventure the woman will not follow me. <sup>40</sup> And he said to me: The LORD, <sup>n</sup> before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house; <sup>41</sup> then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

<sup>42</sup> And I came this day unto the well; and I said: <sup>o</sup> O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, If now thou do prosper my way which I go; <sup>43</sup> behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass that the virgin who cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink; <sup>44</sup> and she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels; let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son. <sup>45</sup> And before I had done <sup>p</sup> speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water; and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee. <sup>46</sup> And she made haste and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also. So I drank, and she made the camels drink also. <sup>47</sup> And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him. Family history of Isaac; Esau sells his birth-right to Jacob.

And <sup>e</sup> the one people shall be stronger than the other people,

And <sup>f</sup> the elder shall serve the younger.

<sup>29</sup> And Jacob seethed pottage; and Esau came from the field, and he was faint; <sup>30</sup> and Esau said to Jacob: Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage, for I am faint. Therefore was his name called Edom [i. e. Red]. <sup>31</sup> And Jacob said: Sell me this day <sup>n</sup> thy birthright. <sup>32</sup> And Esau said: Behold, I am at the point to die; and what profit shall this birthright do to me? <sup>33</sup> And Jacob said: Swear to me this day; and he swore unto him; and <sup>o</sup> he sold his birthright to Jacob. <sup>34</sup> Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Isaac's stay, by Divine command, in the land of the Philistines; (6) Divine protection of Rebekah; (12) Isaac's increasing wealth; (24) God's renewed promises to him; (34) Esau's Canaanitish wives.

<sup>26</sup> AND there was a famine in the land, besides <sup>a</sup> the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to <sup>b</sup> Abimelech king of the Philistines, to Gerar.

<sup>8</sup> And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife. <sup>9</sup> And Abimelech called Isaac, and said: Behold, of a surety she is thy wife; and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him: Because I said, Lest I die for her. <sup>10</sup> And Abimelech said: <sup>q</sup> What is this thou hast done unto us? One of the people might lightly have lain with thy wife, and <sup>r</sup> thou shouldst have brought guiltiness upon us. <sup>11</sup> And Abimelech charged all his people, saying: He that <sup>s</sup> toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

<sup>17</sup> And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there. <sup>18</sup> And Isaac digged again the wells of water which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines

<sup>18</sup>And he came to his father, and said: My father! And he said: Here am I; who art thou, my son? <sup>19</sup>And Jacob said to his father: I am Esau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me. Arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.

<sup>20</sup>And Isaac said to his son: How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said: Because the LORD thy God brought it to me.

<sup>21</sup>And Isaac said to Jacob: Come near, I pray thee, that I <sup>1</sup>may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not. <sup>22</sup>And Jacob went near to Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said: The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. <sup>23</sup>And he discerned him not, because <sup>2</sup>his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands; <sup>3</sup>so he blessed him.

<sup>24</sup>And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, I am. <sup>25</sup>And he said: Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, <sup>26</sup>that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat; and he brought him wine, and he drank.

<sup>26</sup>And his father Isaac said to him: Come near now, and kiss me, my son: <sup>27</sup>and he came near, and kissed him. And he smelled the smell of his raiment; and he blessed him, and said:

See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field Which the LORD hath blessed.

And nations bow down to thee:

Be lord over thy brethren,

And <sup>7</sup>let thy mother's sons bow down to thee.

Cursed <sup>8</sup>be every one that curseth thee, And blessed be he that blesseth thee.

<sup>30</sup>And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. <sup>31</sup>And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it to his father. And he said unto his father: Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me. <sup>32</sup>And Isaac his father said to him: Who art thou? And he said: I am thy son, thy first-born Esau. <sup>33</sup>And Isaac trembled very exceedingly; and he said:

Who then is he that hath taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? Yea, <sup>4</sup>and he shall be blessed.

<sup>34</sup>And when Esau heard the words of his father, <sup>4</sup>he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry. <sup>38</sup>And Esau said to his father: Hast thou but one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, O my father! And <sup>5</sup>Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

Behold, <sup>6</sup>thy dwelling shall be from the fatness of the earth, should I be deprived also of you both in one day?

<sup>5</sup> And Isaac sent away Jacob: and he went to Padan-aram, unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

<sup>6</sup> And Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padan-aram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan; <sup>7</sup> and that Jacob obeyed his father <sup>n</sup> and his mother, and was gone to Padan-aram. <sup>8</sup> And Esau saw <sup>o</sup> that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father; <sup>9</sup> then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had <sup>p</sup> Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of <sup>q</sup> Nebajoth, to be his wife.

<sup>10</sup> AND Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward Haran. <sup>11</sup> And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set. And he took of the stones of that place, and put <sup>a</sup> them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

shalt spread abroad, to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south. And in thee and <sup>h</sup> in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. <sup>15</sup> And behold, <sup>i</sup> I am with thee, and will <sup>k</sup> keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will <sup>l</sup> bring thee again to this land; for <sup>m</sup> I will not leave thee until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

<sup>29</sup> THEN Jacob went on his journey, and came to <sup>a</sup> the land of the people of the east. <sup>2</sup> And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth. <sup>3</sup> And thither were all the flocks gathered; and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in its place.

<sup>4</sup> And Jacob said to them: My brethren, whence are ye? And they said: Of Haran are we. <sup>5</sup> And he said to them: Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said: We know him. <sup>6</sup> And he said to them: Is he well? And they said: He is well; and behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

<sup>7</sup> And he said: Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together; water ye the sheep, and go and feed them. <sup>8</sup> And they said: We cannot until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

<sup>25</sup> AND it came to pass, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban: Send me away, that I may go to mine own place and to my country. <sup>26</sup> Give me my wives and my children, <sup>a</sup> for whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.

<sup>27</sup> And Laban said to him: I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes, tarry; for I have divined that <sup>b</sup> the LORD hath blessed me for thy sake. <sup>28</sup> And he said: <sup>c</sup> Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it. <sup>29</sup> And he said to him: <sup>d</sup> Thou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle have been with me. <sup>30</sup> For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude; and the LORD hath blessed thee since my coming: and now when shall I provide for mine own house also?

<sup>31</sup> And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said: Thou shalt not give me any thing; if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock. <sup>32</sup> I will pass through all thy flock to-day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and <sup>e</sup> of such shall be my wages. <sup>33</sup> And my righteousness shall answer for me before thy face in time to come, when thou comest concerning my wages. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and brown among the sheep that shall be counted stolen with me.

<sup>35</sup> And he removed that day the he-goats that were ring-straked and spotted and all the she-goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons. <sup>36</sup> And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob; and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

<sup>37</sup> And Jacob took him green rods of poplar and of almond and of plane, and peeled white streaks in them, making the white which was in the rods to appear. <sup>38</sup> And he set the rods which he had peeled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering-troughs when the flocks came to drink, and they conceived when they came to drink. <sup>39</sup> And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ring-straked, speckled, and spotted. <sup>40</sup> And Jacob separated the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ring-straked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's flock. <sup>41</sup> And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger flocks did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the flocks in the troughs, that they might conceive by the rods: <sup>42</sup> but when the flocks were feeble, he put them not in. So the feebler were Laban's and the stronger Jacob's.

that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory. <sup>2</sup> And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and behold, it was not toward him as before.

<sup>3</sup> AND the LORD said unto Jacob: <sup>a</sup> Return to the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee.

<sup>4</sup> And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock. <sup>5</sup> And he said to them: I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God <sup>6</sup> of my father hath been with me.

<sup>6</sup> And <sup>b</sup> ye know that with all my power I have served your father; <sup>7</sup> and your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages <sup>c</sup> ten times; but God <sup>d</sup> suffered him not to hurt me. <sup>8</sup> If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages, then all the flock bare speckled; and if he said thus, The ring-straked shall be thy hire, then bare all the flock ring-straked. <sup>9</sup> Thus God hath <sup>e</sup> taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me. <sup>10</sup> And it came to pass at the time that the flock conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes and saw in a dream, and behold, the rams which leaped upon the flock were ring-straked, speckled and grisdled. <sup>11</sup> And the angel of God spake to me in a dream, saying: Jacob! And I said: Here am I. <sup>12</sup> And he said: Lift up now thine eyes and see, all the rams which leap upon the flock are ring-straked, speckled and grisdled; for <sup>f</sup> I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee. <sup>13</sup> I am the God of Beth-el, <sup>g</sup> where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me; now <sup>h</sup> arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.

<sup>17</sup> Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon the camels; <sup>18</sup> and he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, <sup>l</sup> to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan. <sup>19</sup> And Laban went to shear his sheep. And Rachel stole the <sup>m</sup> teraphim that were her father's. <sup>20</sup> And Jacob stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled. <sup>21</sup> So he fled, with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, * and set his face towards the mountain of Gilead.

<sup>26</sup> And Laban said to Jacob: What hast thou done that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword? <sup>27</sup> Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth and with songs, with tabret and with harp; <sup>28</sup> and hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? Thou hast now done foolishly in so doing. <sup>29</sup> It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt; but the <sup>p</sup> God of your father spake to me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. <sup>30</sup> And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longest after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou <sup>q</sup> stolen my gods?

<sup>31</sup> And Jacob answered and said to Laban: Because I was afraid; for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me. <sup>32</sup> With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, <sup>r</sup> let him not live. Before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

<sup>33</sup> And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maid-servants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. <sup>34</sup> Now Rachel had taken the teraphim and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban searched all the tent, but found them not. <sup>35</sup> And she said to her father: Let it not displease my lord that I cannot <sup>s</sup> rise up before thee; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the teraphim.

<sup>36</sup> And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban; and Jacob answered and said to Laban: What is my trespass, what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me? <sup>37</sup> Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? Set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both. <sup>38</sup> These twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she-goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten. <sup>39</sup> That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night. <sup>40</sup> Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes. <sup>41</sup> Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; I <sup>1</sup> served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy flock; and thou hast changed my wages ten times. <sup>42</sup> Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham and <sup>11</sup> the Fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. <sup>2</sup> God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and <sup>6</sup> rebuked thee yesternight.

<sup>43</sup> And Laban answered and said to Jacob: These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these flocks are my flocks, and all that thou seest is mine. And what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have borne? <sup>44</sup> Now therefore come thou, <sup>7</sup> let us make a covenant, I and thou; <sup>2</sup> and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee. <sup>52</sup> This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm. <sup>53</sup> The God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge betwixt us. And Jacob <sup>e</sup> sware by <sup>f</sup> the Fear of his father Isaac.

<sup>54</sup> Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mountain, and called his brethren to eat bread, and they did eat bread; and they tarried all night in the mountain.

Jacob's vision, prayer, and wrestling with the Angel; and his preparations for meeting Esau.

32. AND Jacob went on his way, and <sup>a</sup> the angels of God met him. <sup>2</sup> And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's <sup>b</sup> camp. And he called the name of that place <sup>c</sup> Mahanaim [i. e. Two camps].

<sup>6</sup> And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying: We came to thy brother Esau; and also <sup>g</sup> he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

<sup>7</sup> Then Jacob was <sup>h</sup> greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks and herds and the camels, into two bands; <sup>8</sup> and he said: If Esau come to the one company and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

<sup>9</sup> And <sup>i</sup> Jacob said: <sup>k</sup> O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD <sup>l</sup> who saidst unto me, Return unto thy country and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee! <sup>10</sup> <sup>m</sup> I am not worthy of the least of all <sup>n</sup> the mercies and of all the truth which thou hast showed unto thy servant; for with <sup>o</sup> my staff I passed over this Jordan, <sup>p</sup> and now I am become two bands. <sup>11</sup> Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for <sup>q</sup> I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children. <sup>12</sup> And <sup>r</sup> thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

<sup>13</sup> And he lodged there that same night. And he took of that which came to his hand a present for Esau his brother; <sup>14</sup> two hundred she-goats and twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, <sup>15</sup> thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine and ten bulls, twenty she-asses and ten foals. <sup>16</sup> And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and he said to his servants: Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

<sup>17</sup> And he commanded the foremost, saying: When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? And whither goest thou? And whose are these before thee? <sup>18</sup> Then thou shalt say: They are thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent to my lord Esau; and behold, also he is behind us. <sup>19</sup> And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying: In this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him. <sup>20</sup> And say ye moreover: Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us.

For he said: I will <sup>s</sup> appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me. <sup>21</sup> So went the present over before him; and he himself lodged that night in the company.

<sup>27</sup> And he said unto him: What is thy name? And he said: Jacob. <sup>28</sup> And he said: <sup>z</sup> Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel [i. e. Prince of God]; for as a prince hast thou <sup>a</sup> power with God and <sup>b</sup> with men, and hast prevailed.

<sup>29</sup> And Jacob asked him and said: Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said:

<sup>c</sup> Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there.

<sup>30</sup> And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel [i. e. The face of God]; for <sup>d</sup> I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

<sup>31</sup> And as he passed over Penuel the sun rose upon him; and he halted upon his thigh. <sup>32</sup> Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day; because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

Reconciliation of Jacob and Esau.

33. AND Jacob lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, <sup>e</sup> Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids. <sup>2</sup> And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindmost.

<sup>13</sup> And he said: Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee. <sup>14</sup> And he said unto him: My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the milch flocks and herds are with me; and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die. <sup>14</sup> Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant; and I will lead on softly, according as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to go, until I come unto my lord, <sup>k</sup> unto Seir.

<sup>15</sup> And Esau said: Let me now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said: What needeth it? <sup>1</sup> Let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

Jacob's return to Canaan; (19) purchase of a piece of land; (20) erection of an altar to the God of Israel.

34. AND <sup>a</sup> Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land. <sup>2</sup> And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, a prince of the country, saw her, <sup>b</sup> he took her, and lay with her and defiled her. <sup>3</sup> And his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake kindly to the damsel. <sup>4</sup> And Shechem <sup>c</sup> spake to his father Hamor, saying: Get me this damsel to wife. <sup>5</sup> And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field; and Jacob held his peace until they were come.

<sup>6</sup> And Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to commune with him. <sup>7</sup> And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and <sup>d</sup> they were very wroth, because <sup>e</sup> he had wrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; <sup>f</sup> which thing ought not to be done.

<sup>8</sup> And Hamor communed with them, saying: The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter; I pray you give her him to wife. <sup>9</sup> And make ye marriages with us; give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you. <sup>10</sup> And ye shall dwell with us; and <sup>2</sup> the land shall be before you; dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein.

<sup>11</sup> And Shechem said to her father and to her brethren: Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me, I will give. <sup>12</sup> Ask me never so much <sup>a</sup> dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me; but give me the damsel to wife.

<sup>24</sup> And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that <sup>m</sup> went out of the gate of his city.

<sup>25</sup> And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, <sup>n</sup> Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males. <sup>26</sup> And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword. And they took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out. <sup>27</sup> The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister. <sup>28</sup> They took their sheep and their oxen and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field; <sup>29</sup> and all their wealth, and all their little ones and their wives, took they captive and spoiled, even all that was in the house.

<sup>30</sup> And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi: Ye have troubled me <sup>o</sup> to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites; and I being few in number, they will gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house. <sup>31</sup> And they said: Should he deal with our sister as with a harlot?

Jacob's visit to Beth-el by God's command; (9) God's renewed promise to him; (16) death of Rachel.

35. AND God said unto Jacob: Arise, go up to <sup>a</sup> Beth-el, and dwell there: and <sup>b</sup> make there an altar unto God, <sup>c</sup> who appeared unto thee <sup>d</sup> when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

<sup>2</sup> Then Jacob said to his <sup>e</sup> household and to all that were with him: Put away <sup>f</sup> the strange gods that are among you, and <sup>g</sup> purify yourselves, and change your garments; <sup>3</sup> and let us arise and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, <sup>h</sup> who answered me in the day of my distress, and <sup>i</sup> was with me in the way which I went. <sup>4</sup> And they gave to Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand and all their earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under <sup>k</sup> the oak which was by Shechem.

<sup>5</sup> And they journeyed; and <sup>l</sup> the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

<sup>6</sup> So Jacob came to <sup>m</sup> Luz, which is in the land of Canaan (that is, Beth-el), he and all the people that were with him. <sup>7</sup> And <sup>n</sup> he built there an altar, and called the place El-beth-el [i.e. The God of Beth-el]; because <sup>o</sup> there God appeared unto him when he fled from the face of his brother.

<sup>8</sup> And <sup>p</sup> Deborah, Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el under an oak; and the name of it was called The oak of weeping.

<sup>9</sup> And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him. <sup>10</sup> And God said unto him: Thy name is Jacob; <sup>q</sup> thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel. <sup>11</sup> And God said unto him: <sup>r</sup> I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply; <sup>s</sup> a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins. <sup>12</sup> And the land <sup>t</sup> which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

<sup>13</sup> And God <sup>u</sup> went up from him in the place where he talked with him. <sup>14</sup> And Jacob <sup>v</sup> set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone; and he poured a drink-offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon. <sup>15</sup> And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, <sup>w</sup> Beth-el.

<sup>16</sup> And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was yet a length of way to come to <sup>x</sup> Ephrath; and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour. <sup>17</sup> And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; <sup>y</sup> thou shalt have this son also. <sup>18</sup> And it came to pass, as her soul was in departing, (<sup>z</sup> for she died), that she called his name Ben-oni [i.e. Son of my sorrow]; but his father called him Benjamin [i.e. Son of the right hand]. <sup>19</sup> And Rachel died; and she was buried in the way to <sup>a</sup> Ephrath (which is Beth-lehem). <sup>20</sup> And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave; (that is <sup>b</sup> the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day).

NOW the sons of Jacob were twelve: <sup>23</sup> The sons of Leah; <sup>a</sup> Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issachar and Zebulun: <sup>24</sup> the sons of Rachel; Joseph and Benjamin: <sup>25</sup> and the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan and Naphtali: <sup>26</sup> and the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid; Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Padan-aram.

<sup>15</sup> THESE are dukes* of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz the firstborn son of Esau: duke Teman, duke Omar, duke Zepho, duke Kenaz, <sup>16</sup> duke Korah, duke Gatam, and duke Amalek; these are the dukes that came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Adah.

the dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom. These are the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife.

<sup>2</sup> THESE are the generations of Jacob. Joseph being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and he was a lad with the sons of Bilhah and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives: and Joseph brought to his father an evil report concerning them. <sup>3</sup> Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he made him a coat of many colours.* <sup>4</sup> And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they <sup>b</sup> hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

<sup>5</sup> And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren; and they hated him yet the more. <sup>6</sup> And he said to them: Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed; <sup>7</sup> for behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and lo, <sup>c</sup> my sheaf arose and also stood upright, and behold, your sheaves stood round about and made obeisance to my sheaf. <sup>8</sup> And his brethren said to him: Shalt thou indeed reign over us? Or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams and for his words.

<sup>9</sup> And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren; and he said: Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me. <sup>10</sup> And he told it to his father and to his brethren; and his father rebuked him, and said unto him: What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth? <sup>11</sup> And <sup>d</sup> his brethren envied him; but his father <sup>e</sup> observed the saying.

<sup>12</sup> And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. <sup>13</sup> And Israel said to Joseph: Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him: Here am I. <sup>14</sup> And he said to him: Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again.

So he sent him out of the vale of <sup>f</sup> Hebron, and he came to Shechem. <sup>15</sup> And a certain man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field; and the man asked him, saying: What seekest thou? <sup>16</sup> And he said: I seek my brethren; tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks. <sup>17</sup> And the man said: They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in <sup>g</sup> Dothan.

<sup>18</sup> And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to slay him. <sup>19</sup> And they said one to another: Behold, this dreamer cometh. <sup>20</sup> Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

<sup>21</sup> And <sup>h</sup> Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and he said: Let us not kill him. <sup>22</sup> And Reuben said to them: Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

<sup>23</sup> And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, <sup>i</sup> that they stripped Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many colours that was on him; <sup>24</sup> and they took him and cast him into the pit; and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

And she said: Wilt thou give me a pledge till thou send it? <sup>18</sup> And he said: What pledge shall I give thee? And she said: Thy signet and thy bracelets,* and thy staff that is in thine hand. Bring her forth, <sup>m</sup> and let her be burnt.
<sup>25</sup> When she was brought forth, she sent to her father-in-law, saying: By the man

<sup>27</sup> And it came to pass in the time of her travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came drew back his hand, that behold, his brother came out; and she said, How hast

Joseph's faithful and prosperous service, (7) his temptation, and (20) imprisonment.

39. AND Joseph was brought down to Egypt. And <sup>a</sup> Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, <sup>b</sup> bought him of the hands of the Ishmaelites, who had brought him down thither. <sup>2</sup> And <sup>c</sup> <sup>e</sup> the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian. <sup>3</sup> And <sup>d</sup> his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD <sup>e</sup> made all that he did to prosper in his hand. <sup>4</sup> And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him; and he made him <sup>f</sup> overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.

<sup>5</sup> And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that <sup>g</sup> the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house and in the field. <sup>6</sup> And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not aught he had, save the bread which he did eat.
And Joseph was a goodly person, and well-favoured.

<sup>7</sup> And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said: Lie with me. <sup>8</sup> But <sup>a</sup> he refused, and said unto his master's wife: Behold, my master knoweth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand; <sup>9</sup> there is none greater in this house than I;

neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife.
How then can I do <sup>e</sup> this great wickedness, and sin against God?

<sup>10</sup> And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that <sup>k</sup> he hearkened not to her, to lie by her or to be with her.
<sup>11</sup> And it came to pass about this time that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within. <sup>12</sup> And <sup>l</sup> she caught him by his garment, saying: Lie with me.
And he left his garment in her hand, and fled and got him out. <sup>13</sup> And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth, <sup>14</sup> that she called to the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying: See, he hath brought in a Hebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice; <sup>15</sup> and it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled and got him out. <sup>16</sup> And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home. <sup>17</sup> And she spake to him according to these words, saying: The Hebrew servant which thou hast brought unto us came in unto me to mock me; <sup>18</sup> and it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

<sup>19</sup> And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife which she spake to him, saying: After this manner did thy servant to me, that his <sup>m</sup> wrath was kindled. <sup>20</sup> And Joseph's master took him and <sup>n</sup> put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound.
And he was there in the prison.

<sup>21</sup> But <sup>o</sup> the LORD was with Joseph, and showed him mercy, and <sup>p</sup> gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.
<sup>22</sup> And the keeper of the prison <sup>q</sup> committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it. <sup>23</sup> The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because <sup>r</sup> the LORD was with him, and that which he did the LORD made to prosper.

Egypt and his baker had offended their

was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers. <sup>3</sup>And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound. <sup>4</sup>And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them; and they continued a season in ward.

<sup>5</sup>And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were bound in the prison. <sup>6</sup>And Joseph came in to them in the morning, and looked upon them, and behold, they were sad. <sup>7</sup>And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying: Wherefore look ye so sadly to-day? <sup>8</sup>And they said to him: We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said to them: <sup>b</sup>Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me them, I pray you.

<sup>9</sup>And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him: In my dream, behold, a vine was before me, <sup>10</sup>and in the vine were three branches; and it was as though it budded, and its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes; <sup>11</sup>and Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

<sup>12</sup>And Joseph said unto him: This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days; <sup>13</sup>yet within three days will Pharaoh <sup>c</sup>lift up thy head, and restore thee to thy place; and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler. <sup>14</sup>But think on me when it shall be well with thee, and show kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house. <sup>15</sup>For indeed <sup>d</sup>I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews; and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

<sup>16</sup>When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph: I also was in my dream, and behold, I had three baskets of white bread on my head: <sup>17</sup>and in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of food prepared by the baker for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

<sup>18</sup>And Joseph answered and said: This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days; <sup>19</sup>yet within three days will Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and will hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

41. AND it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed; and behold, he stood by <sup>a</sup>the river: <sup>2</sup>and behold, there came up out of the river seven well-favoured kine and fat-fleshed; and they fed on the marsh-grass; <sup>3</sup>and behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill-favoured and lean-fleshed; and they stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river; <sup>4</sup>and the ill-favoured and lean-fleshed kine did eat up the seven well-favoured and fat kine. And Pharaoh awoke.

<sup>17</sup> And Pharaoh said to Joseph: In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river; <sup>18</sup> and behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fat-fleshed and well-favoured; and they fed on the marsh-grass; <sup>19</sup> and behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill-favoured and lean-fleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness; <sup>20</sup> and the lean and the ill-favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine; <sup>21</sup> and when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill-favoured, as at the beginning. <sup>25</sup> And Joseph said to Pharaoh: The dream of Pharaoh is one; <sup>n</sup> God hath showed Pharaoh what he is about to do. <sup>26</sup> The seven good kine are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years; the dream is one. <sup>27</sup> And the seven thin and ill-favoured kine that came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be <sup>n</sup> seven years of famine. <sup>28</sup> This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh. <sup>29</sup> Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt; <sup>30</sup> and there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land; <sup>31</sup> and the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous. <sup>32</sup> And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice, it is because <sup>o</sup> the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt. <sup>46</sup> And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

<sup>47</sup> And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls. <sup>48</sup> And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities; the food of the field which was round about every city, laid he up in the same. <sup>49</sup> And Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left off numbering; for it was without number.

	the name of the firstborn Manasseh [i. e. Forgetting]; For God, said he , hath made me forget all my trouble, and all my father's house. <sup>52</sup> And the name of the second called he Ephraim [i. e. Fruitful]; For God hath caused me to be <sup>k</sup> fruitful in the land of my affliction.	<sup>12</sup> And he said to them: Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.
E ch. 49. 22.	<sup>53</sup> And the seven years of plenteousness that was in the land of Egypt were ended.	<sup>13</sup> And they said: Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and <sup>l</sup> one is not.	f ch. 37. 30; 41. 20.
I Ps. 105. 16; Ac. 7. 11.	<sup>54</sup> And <sup>l</sup> the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said. And the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.	<sup>14</sup> And Joseph said to them: That is what I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies. <sup>15</sup> Hereby ye shall be proved: By the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence except your youngest brother come hither. <sup>16</sup> Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother; and ye shall be kept in prison; that your words may be proved, whether there be truth in you: or else by the life of Pharaoh surely ye are spies.
	<sup>55</sup> And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians: Go unto Joseph; what he saith to you, do. <sup>56</sup> And the famine was over all the face of the earth; and Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt. <sup>57</sup> And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph to buy corn, because the famine was sore in all lands.	<sup>17</sup> And he put them all together into ward three days.

And thus did he unto them. <sup>26</sup> And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.
e ch. 37. 5, 9.	<sup>11</sup> We are all one man's sons; we are true men, thy servants are no spies.	<sup>27</sup> And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the lodging-place, he espied his money; for behold, it was in his sack's mouth. <sup>28</sup> And he said to his brethren: My money is restored, and lo, it is even in my sack. And their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?
		<sup>29</sup> And they came to Jacob their father, unto the land of Canaan; and they told him all that befell unto them; saying, <sup>30</sup>The man who is the lord of the land spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country. <sup>31</sup>And we said to him: We are true men; we are no spies; <sup>32</sup>we are twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan. <sup>33</sup>And the man, the lord of the country, said to us: Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and go; <sup>34</sup>and bring your youngest brother unto me; then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men; so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffic in the land.

<sup>35</sup>And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack. And when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

<sup>36</sup>And Jacob their father said to them: Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away. All these things are against me.

<sup>37</sup>And Reuben spake to his father, saying: Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee. Deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

<sup>38</sup>And he said: My son shall not go down with you; for <sup>a</sup>his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

Second journey of Jacob's sons, with Benjamin; when Joseph, (16) after severely testing them, (ch. 45. 1) makes himself known.

<sup>43.</sup> AND the famine was <sup>a</sup>sore in the land. <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them: Go again, buy us a little food.

<sup>3</sup>And Judah spake unto him, saying: The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face except your brother be with you. <sup>4</sup>If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food: <sup>5</sup>but if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said to us: Ye shall not see my face except your brother be with you.

<sup>6</sup>And Israel said: Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother? <sup>7</sup>And they said: The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? Have ye another brother? And we told him according to the tenor of these words. Could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

<sup>8</sup>And Judah said to Israel his father: Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones. <sup>9</sup>I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him; if I bring him not unto thee and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever. <sup>10</sup>For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time.

<sup>11</sup>And their father Israel said to them: If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits of the land in your vessels, and <sup>b</sup>carry down the man a present, a little <sup>c</sup>balm, and a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts and almonds: <sup>12</sup>and take double money in your hand; and the money <sup>d</sup>that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight. <sup>13</sup>Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man. <sup>14</sup>And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved!

<sup>15</sup>And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin: and they rose up, and went down to Egypt; and they stood before Joseph.

<sup>16</sup>And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the <sup>e</sup>ruler of his house: Bring these men home, and slay, and make ready; for these men shall dine with me at noon. <sup>17</sup>And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

<sup>18</sup>And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said: Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses.

<sup>19</sup>And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house. <sup>20</sup>And they said: O sir, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food; <sup>21</sup>and it came to pass, when we came to the lodging-place, that we opened our sacks, and behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; and we have brought it again in our hand; <sup>22</sup>and other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food. <sup>23</sup> And he said; Peace be to you, fear not. Your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks; I had your money. And he brought Simeon out to them.

<sup>30</sup> And Joseph made haste, for <sup>k</sup>his bowels did yearn upon his brother; and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and wept there.

<sup>31</sup> And he washed his face, and went out; and he refrained himself, and said: Set on bread. <sup>32</sup> And they set on, for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians who did eat with him by themselves; because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that <sup>l</sup>is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

<sup>3</sup> As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses. <sup>4</sup> And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward: Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say to them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good? <sup>5</sup>Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he divineth? Ye have done evil in so doing.

<sup>6</sup> And he overtook them, and he spake to them these same words. <sup>7</sup> And they said to him: Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing. <sup>8</sup> Behold, the money which we found in our sacks' mouths we brought again to thee out of the land of Canaan; how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold? <sup>9</sup> With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

<sup>10</sup> And he said: Now also let it be according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my servant, and ye shall be blameless.

<sup>16</sup> And Judah said: What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? <sup>o</sup>God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants. Behold, <sup>p</sup>we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found.

<sup>17</sup> And he said: God forbid that I should do so; but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

my lord: The lad cannot leave his father; for if he should leave his father, his father would die. <sup>23</sup> And thou saidst to thy servants: Except your youngest brother come down with you ye shall see my face no more. <sup>24</sup> And it came to pass when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. <sup>25</sup> And our father said: Go again, and buy us a little food. <sup>26</sup> And we said: We cannot go down. If our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down; for we may not see the man's face except our youngest brother be with us. <sup>27</sup> And thy servant my father said to us: Ye know that <sup>a</sup> my wife bare me two sons; <sup>28</sup> and the one went out from me, and I said, <sup>c</sup> Surely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since; <sup>29</sup> and if ye <sup>e</sup> take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave. <sup>30</sup> Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us, seeing that <sup>2</sup> his life is bound up in the lad's life, <sup>31</sup> it shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die; and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave. <sup>32</sup> For thy servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying: If I bring him not unto thee, then I will bear the blame to my father for ever. <sup>33</sup> Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren. <sup>34</sup> For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad not with me? Lest peradventure I see the evil that shall come on my father.

45. Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried: Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren. <sup>2</sup> And he wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard. <sup>3</sup> And Joseph said to his brethren: <sup>a</sup> I am Joseph. Doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were troubled at his presence.

you to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. <sup>8</sup> So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God; and he hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say to him, Thus saith thy son Joseph: God hath made me lord of all Egypt; come down unto me, tarry not; <sup>10</sup> and <sup>b</sup> thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children and thy children's children, and thy flocks and thy herds, and all that thou hast: <sup>11</sup> and there will I nourish thee, for yet there are five years of famine; lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty. <sup>12</sup> And behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you. <sup>13</sup> And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and bring down my father hither.

Jacob, at the king's invitation, goes to Egypt with all his family and possessions—(ch. 46. 1.) On leaving the promised land he receives assurances of Divine protection and blessing.

<sup>16</sup> AND the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying: Joseph's brethren are come. And it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

<sup>17</sup> And Pharaoh said unto Joseph: Say to thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan; <sup>18</sup> and take your father and your households, and come unto me; and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat <sup>a</sup> the fat of the land. <sup>19</sup> Now thou art commanded; this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and bring your father, and come. <sup>20</sup> Also regard not your stuff, for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.

<sup>21</sup> And the sons of Israel did so. And Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way. <sup>22</sup> To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; <sup>b</sup> but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of raiment. <sup>23</sup> And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way. <sup>24</sup> So he sent his brethren away, and they departed. And he said to them: See that ye fall not out by the way.

<sup>25</sup> And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan to Jacob their father. <sup>26</sup> And they told him, saying: Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. But Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not. <sup>27</sup> And they told him all the words of Joseph which he had said to them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived; <sup>28</sup> and Israel said: It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive; I will go and see him before I die.

<sup>46</sup> And Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beer-sheba; and he offered sacrifices <sup>4</sup> unto the God of his father Isaac.

<sup>2</sup> And God spake unto Israel <sup>e</sup> in the visions of the night, and said: Jacob, Jacob! <sup>3</sup> And he said: Here am I. And he said: *I am God, the God of thy father. Fear not to go down into Egypt; for I will there make of thee a great nation; <sup>o</sup> I will go down with thee into Egypt, and I will also surely bring thee up again. List of the house of Israel at the time of their going down to Egypt.

<sup>26</sup> All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were threescore and six; <sup>27</sup> and the sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt were two souls. <sup>a</sup> All the souls of the house of Jacob who came into Egypt were threescore and ten.

<sup>31</sup> And Joseph said to his brethren and to his father's house: I will go up and show Pharaoh, and say to him: My brethren, and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, are come to me; <sup>32</sup> and the men are shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks and their herds, and all that they have. <sup>33</sup> And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation? <sup>34</sup> that ye shall say: Thy servants' trade hath been about cattle, from our youth even until now, both we and also our fathers; that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen. For every shepherd is <sup>c</sup> an abomination unto the Egyptians.

<sup>47</sup> Then Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said: My father and my brethren, and their flocks and their herds and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in <sup>a</sup> the land of Goshen.

<sup>5</sup> And Pharaoh spake to Joseph, saying: Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee; <sup>6</sup> the land of Egypt is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle.

<sup>8</sup> And Pharaoh said unto Jacob: How many are the days of the years of thy life?

<sup>9</sup> And Jacob said unto Pharaoh: The days of the years of my <sup>g</sup> pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty years. <sup>h</sup> Few and evil have the days of the years of my life been; and <sup>i</sup> they have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage. <sup>10</sup> And Jacob blessed Pharaoh; and he went out from before Pharaoh.

<sup>11</sup> And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of <sup>k</sup> Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. <sup>12</sup> And Joseph nourished his father and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families.

<sup>13</sup> AND there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, <sup>a</sup> so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. <sup>14</sup> <sup>b</sup> And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought; and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

<sup>15</sup> And when money failed in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, and said: Give us bread; for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth. <sup>16</sup> And Joseph said: Give your cattle; and I will give <sup>c</sup> it you for your cattle, if money fail. <sup>17</sup> And they brought their cattle to Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses; and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

<sup>18</sup> When that year was ended, they came to him the second year, and said to him: We will not hide <sup>d</sup> it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not aught left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands; <sup>19</sup> wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? <sup>e</sup> Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh; and give <sup>f</sup> us seed, that we may live and not die, that the land be not desolate.

<sup>23</sup> Then Joseph said to the people: Behold, I have this day bought you and your land for Pharaoh. Lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land; <sup>24</sup> and it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the <sup>e</sup> fifth part unto Pharaoh and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones. <sup>25</sup> And they said: Thou hast saved our lives; let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.

<sup>26</sup> And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's.

<sup>27</sup> AND Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen, and they had possessions therein, and grew and multiplied exceedingly.

<sup>28</sup> And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years; so the whole age of Jacob was a hundred forty and seven years.

<sup>29</sup> And the time drew nigh that Israel must die; and he called his son Joseph, and said to him: If now I have found grace in thy sight, <sup>a</sup> put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me. <sup>b</sup> Bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt; <sup>30</sup> but <sup>c</sup> I will lie with my fathers; and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and <sup>d</sup> bury me in their burying-place. And he said: I will do as thou hast said. <sup>31</sup> And he said: Swear unto me; and he sware unto him. And <sup>e</sup> Israel bowed himself upon the bed's head.

48. AND it came to pass after these things that one told Joseph: Behold, thy father is sick. And he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>2</sup> And one told Jacob and said: Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee; and Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed.

<sup>3</sup> And Jacob said unto Joseph: God Almighty appeared unto me at <sup>a</sup> Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me, <sup>4</sup> and said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of peoples; and I will give this land to thy seed after thee <sup>b</sup> for an everlasting possession. <sup>5</sup> And now <sup>c</sup> thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born to thee in the land of Egypt before I came to thee into Egypt, they are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine. <sup>6</sup> And thy issue which thou begettest after them shall be thine, and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance. <sup>7</sup> And as for me, when I came from Padan, <sup>d</sup> Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when yet there was a length of way to come unto Ephrath; and I buried her there in the way to Ephrath, (the same is Bethlehem.)

<sup>8</sup> And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said: Who are these? <sup>9</sup> And Joseph said to his father: They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place. And he said: Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless them. <sup>10</sup> Now <sup>e</sup> the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near to him; and <sup>f</sup> he kissed them and embraced them. <sup>11</sup> And Israel said unto Joseph: <sup>g</sup> I had not thought to see thy face, and lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed. <sup>12</sup> And Joseph brought them out from between his knees. And he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

<sup>17</sup> And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him; and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. <sup>18</sup> And Joseph said to his father: Not so, my father, for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head. <sup>19</sup> And his father refused and said: <sup>m</sup> I know it, my son, I know it; he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great; but truly <sup>n</sup> his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.

<sup>21</sup> And Israel said to Joseph: Behold, I die; but <sup>q</sup> God will be with you, and bring

THE SECOND BOOK OF MOSES,

EXODUS.

Great increase of the Israelites; (8) their hard service and oppressed state in Egypt.

<sup>15</sup> And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of the one was Shiprah and the name of the other Puah, <sup>16</sup> and he said: When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools, if it be a son, then ye shall kill him; but if it be a daughter, then she shall live. <sup>17</sup> But the midwives feared God, and <sup>n</sup> did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men-children alive.

<sup>18</sup> And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said to them: Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men-children alive? <sup>19</sup> And the midwives said unto Pharaoh: Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them. <sup>20</sup> Therefore God dealt well with the midwives. And the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty. <sup>21</sup> And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, <sup>o</sup> that he made them families.

2. AND there went <sup>a</sup> a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi. <sup>2</sup> And the woman conceived, and bare a son; and <sup>b</sup> when she saw him that he was a goodly child she hid him three months. <sup>3</sup> And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of papyrus, and daubed it with bitumen and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink. <sup>4</sup> And <sup>c</sup> his sister stood afar off, to know what would be done to him.

<sup>5</sup> And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it. <sup>6</sup> And when she had opened it, she saw the child; and behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said: This is one of the Hebrews' children.

*Moses' sympathy with and zeal for his people;
(15) his flight from Egypt to Midian.*

<sup>11</sup> AND it came to pass in those days, <sup>a</sup> when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their <sup>b</sup> burdens. And he saw an Egyptian smiting a Hebrew, one of his brethren. <sup>12</sup> And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, <sup>c</sup> he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

<sup>18</sup> And when they came to <sup>m</sup> Reuel their father, he said: How is it that ye are come so soon to-day? <sup>19</sup> And they said: An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock. <sup>20</sup> And he said to his daughters: And where is he? Why is it that ye have left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread.

Divine manifestation to Moses, and (ch. 3. 10) call to deliver Israel—(12) God answers his difficulties, and (ch. 4. 2.) promises to attest his mission by miraculous signs.

<sup>3</sup> Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian; and he led the flock to the back of the desert; and he came to the mountain of God, towards Horeb. <sup>2</sup> And the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush; and he looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

<sup>3</sup> And Moses said: I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt. <sup>4</sup> And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him <sup>f</sup> out of the midst of the bush, and said: Moses, Moses! And he said: Here am I.

<sup>5</sup> And he said: Draw not nigh hither; <sup>g</sup> put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. <sup>6</sup> Moreover he said: <sup>h</sup> I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face, for <sup>i</sup> he was afraid to look upon God.

<sup>11</sup> And Moses said unto God: <sup>r</sup> Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that

And the LORD spake unto Moses: Go unto Pharaoh and say to him, Thus saith the LORD: Let my people go that they may serve me; <sup>2</sup> and if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs; <sup>3</sup> and the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thy house, and into <sup>4</sup> thy bedchamber and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens and into thy kneading-troughs; <sup>4</sup> and the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people and upon all thy servants.

<sup>8</sup> Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said: <sup>8</sup> Intreat the LORD that he may take away the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> And Moses said unto Pharaoh: Glory over me. For what time shall I intreat for thee and for thy servants and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, that they may remain in the river only? <sup>10</sup> And he said: For to-morrow. And he said: Be it according to thy word; that thou mayest know that <sup>11</sup> there is none like unto the LORD our God. <sup>11</sup> And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses and from thy servants and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.

<sup>12</sup> And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup> And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died, out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields: <sup>14</sup> and they gathered them together upon heaps; and the land stank. <sup>15</sup> But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

<sup>17</sup> And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and <sup>18</sup> it became lice, on man and on beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

Lo, shall we sacrifice <sup>27</sup> the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us? <sup>27</sup> We will go <sup>28</sup> three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as <sup>29</sup> he shall command us.

Israel's march towards Sinai—(22) They travel three days in the desert without finding water; and (23) when found, its bitterness causes murmuring; but (25) it is miraculously sweetened—(26) God gives them a solemn charge, with a promise—After (27) a long stay in a fertile valley (ch. 16. 1) they complain, in the desert, for want of food; and (5) the Lord sends quails and manna, and (23) a double supply of manna on the sixth day.

There he <sup>c</sup> made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there <sup>f</sup> he proved them. <sup>26</sup> And he said: <sup>o</sup> If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these <sup>h</sup> diseases upon thee which I have brought upon the Egyptians; for I am the LORD that <sup>i</sup> healeth thee.

<sup>4</sup> Then said the LORD unto Moses: Behold, I will rain <sup>p</sup> bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a daily portion every day; that I may <sup>q</sup> prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or not. <sup>5</sup> And it shall come to pass, that <sup>r</sup> on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

<sup>6</sup> And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel: In the evening, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt; <sup>7</sup> and in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the LORD; because he heareth your murmurings against the LORD; and <sup>8</sup> what are we, that ye murmur against us? <sup>8</sup> And Moses said: This shall be when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full. For <sup>t</sup> the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him; and what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but <sup>u</sup> against the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>12</sup> I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Speak unto them, saying: In the evening ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread. And ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

And Moses said unto them: <sup>c</sup> This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat. <sup>16</sup> This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded: Gather of it every man according to his eating, <sup>d</sup> an omer for every man, according to the number of your persons; take ye every man for them that are in his tents. <sup>17</sup> And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less. <sup>18</sup> And when they measured it with an omer, <sup>e</sup> he that had gathered much had nothing over, and he that had gathered little had no lack; they gathered every man according to his eating.

of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank; and Moses was wroth with them.

<sup>21</sup> And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating; and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

<sup>22</sup> And it came to pass that <sup>4</sup> on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man. And all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. <sup>23</sup> And he said unto them: This is that which the LORD hath said, To-morrow is "a rest, a holy sabbath unto the LORD. Bake that which ye will bake to-day, and seethe that which ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

<sup>27</sup> And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day to gather, and they found none. <sup>28</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses: How long <sup>2</sup> refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws? <sup>29</sup> See, because the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days. Abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day. <sup>30</sup> So the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>31</sup> And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna. And <sup>7</sup> it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

<sup>32</sup> And Moses said: This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt. <sup>33</sup> And Moses said unto Aaron: Take a pot and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up <sup>2</sup> before the LORD, to be kept for your generations. <sup>34</sup> As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before <sup>a</sup> the Testimony, to be kept.

The people murmur for water; (5) God gives them a supply out of the rock.

<sup>17</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD; and they encamped in Rephidim. And there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup> Wherefore the people did strive with Moses, and said: Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them: Why strive ye with me? Wherefore do ye <sup>c</sup> tempt the LORD?

<sup>3</sup> And the people thirsted there for water; and the people <sup>d</sup> murmured against Moses, and said: Wherefore is that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

<sup>11</sup> And it came to pass, when Moses <sup>d</sup> held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. <sup>12</sup> But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. <sup>13</sup> And Joshua discom-

<sup>14</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses: <sup>15</sup> Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua; for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

<sup>15</sup> And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it JEHOUAH-nissi [i. e. The LORD my <sup>o</sup> banner]; <sup>16</sup> for he said, Because the LORD hath sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

Jethro's visit and advice.

18. WHEN <sup>a</sup> Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that <sup>b</sup> God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt, <sup>2</sup> then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back, <sup>3</sup> and her <sup>c</sup> two sons, of whom the <sup>d</sup> name of the one was Gershom *; for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land; <sup>4</sup> and the name of the other was Eliezer [i. e. My God is a help]; for the God of my father, said he, was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh. <sup>5</sup> And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses, into the wilderness, where he encamped at <sup>e</sup> the mount of God. <sup>6</sup> And he said to Moses: I, thy father-in-law Jethro, am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

<sup>7</sup> And Moses <sup>f</sup> went out to meet his father-in-law, and did obeisance, and <sup>g</sup> kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare, and they came into the tent.

<sup>8</sup> And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD had <sup>h</sup> delivered them.

<sup>9</sup> And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>10</sup> And Jethro said: <sup>i</sup> Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>11</sup> Now I know that <sup>k</sup> the LORD is greater than all gods; <sup>l</sup> for in the thing wherein they dealt <sup>m</sup> proudly he was above them.

<sup>12</sup> And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt-offering and sacrifices for God. And Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law <sup>n</sup> before God.

<sup>13</sup> And it came to pass on the morrow that Moses sat to judge the people; and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening. <sup>14</sup> And when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said: What is this thing that thou doest to the people? Why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto evening? <sup>15</sup> And Moses said to his father-in-law: Because the people come to me to inquire of God; <sup>16</sup> <sup>o</sup> when they have a matter, they come to me; and I judge between one and another, and <sup>p</sup> I make them know the statutes of God, and his laws.

19. IN the third month after the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, on the same day <sup>a</sup>came they into the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>2</sup> For they were departed from <sup>b</sup>Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel encamped before <sup>c</sup>the mountain.

<sup>7</sup> And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

<sup>8</sup> And <sup>m</sup>all the people answered together and said: All that the LORD hath spoken we will do.

And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

Preparations for the giving of the Law.

<sup>9</sup> AND the LORD said unto Moses: Lo, I come unto thee <sup>a</sup>in a thick cloud, <sup>b</sup>that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever.

And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses: Go unto the people, and <sup>c</sup>sanctify them to-day and to-morrow, and let them wash their clothes, <sup>11</sup>and be ready against the third day; for on <sup>d</sup>the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai. <sup>12</sup> And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves that ye go not up into the mountain, or touch the border of it. <sup>e</sup>Whosoever toucheth the mountain shall be surely put to death; <sup>13</sup>there shall not a hand touch it but he shall surely be stoned or shot through; whether it be beast or man it shall not live. When the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mountain.

tain unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. <sup>15</sup> And he said unto the people: Be ready against the third day; <sup>f</sup>come not at your wives.

<sup>16</sup> And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were <sup>g</sup>thunders and lightnings, and a <sup>h</sup>thick cloud upon the mountain, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that were in the camp <sup>i</sup>trembled. <sup>17</sup> And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the lower part of the mountain. <sup>18</sup> And <sup>k</sup>mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it <sup>l</sup>in fire; and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace; and <sup>m</sup>the whole mountain quaked greatly.

<sup>20</sup> And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

The Ten Commandments.

20. AND <sup>a</sup>God spake all these words, saying:

<sup>2</sup> I am the LORD thy God, who have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. <sup>3</sup> Thou shalt have no other gods before me.*

<sup>4</sup> Thou <sup>d</sup>shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: <sup>5</sup> thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them. For I the LORD thy God am <sup>f</sup>a jealous God, <sup>g</sup>visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth

<sup>28</sup> If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die, then <sup>29</sup> the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit.

<sup>29</sup> But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death. <sup>30</sup> If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him. <sup>31</sup> Whether he have gored a son or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done to him. <sup>32</sup> If the ox shall push a man-servant or a maid-servant, he shall give to their master <sup>33</sup> thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

<sup>35</sup> And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die, then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide. <sup>36</sup> Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in, he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own.

<sup>6</sup> If fire break out and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith, he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

<sup>7</sup> If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house, if the thief be found, let him pay double. <sup>8</sup> If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the <sup>k</sup> judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods.

<sup>14</sup> And if a man borrow aught of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof not being with it, he shall surely make it good. <sup>15</sup> But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good. If it be a hired thing, it came for the hire of it.

*Ratification of the covenant, by (3) the people's promise of obedience, (4) the offering of sacri-

24. AND he said unto Moses: Come up unto the LORD, thou and Aaron, <sup>a</sup> Nadab and Abihu, <sup>b</sup> and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off. <sup>2</sup> And Moses <sup>c</sup> alone shall come near the LORD:
but they shall not come nigh; neither shall they the people go up with him.

all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments.

And all the people answered with one voice and said: <sup>d</sup> All the words which the LORD hath said will we do.

LORD.

And he rose up early in the morning and built an altar under the mountain, and twelve <sup>f</sup> pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>5</sup> And he sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt-offerings and sacrificed peace-offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

put <sup>g</sup> it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. <sup>7</sup> And he took the book of the covenant and read in the audience of the people.

And they said: All that the LORD hath said will we do, and will be obedient.

blood of the covenant which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

<sup>9</sup> Then went up Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup> And they <sup>k</sup> saw the God of Israel: and <sup>l</sup> there was under his feet as it were a paved work of <sup>m</sup> sapphire stone, and as it were heaven itself for brightness. <sup>11</sup> And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also <sup>n</sup> they saw God, and did eat and drink.

elders: Tarry ye here for us until we come again unto you: and behold, Aaron and Hur are with you; if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

<sup>15</sup> And Moses went up into the mountain;
<sup>e</sup> the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days.
And on the seventh day he called unto was like <sup>f</sup> devouring fire on the top of the

25. AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>Speak unto the children of Israel that they bring me an offering: <sup>a</sup>of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering. <sup>3</sup>And this is the offering which ye shall take of them; gold and silver and brass* <sup>4</sup>and blue and purple and scarlet and fine linen and goats' hair <sup>5</sup>and rams' skins dyed red and badgers' skins, and acacia wood, <sup>6</sup>b oil for the light, <sup>c</sup>spices for the anointing-oil and for the <sup>d</sup>sweet incense, <sup>e</sup>onyx stones and stones to be set, in the <sup>f</sup>ephod and in the <sup>g</sup>breast-plate.

shall look one to another; toward the mercy-seat shall the faces of the cherubim be. <sup>21</sup>And <sup>s</sup>thou shalt put the mercy-seat above upon the ark. And in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee. <sup>22</sup>And <sup>t</sup>there I will meet with thee; and I will commune with thee from above the mercy-seat, from <sup>u</sup>between the two cherubim which are upon the ark of the testimony, concerning all <sup>v</sup>things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

<sup>31</sup>And <sup>z</sup>thou shalt make a lampstand of pure gold. Of beaten work shall the lampstand be made: its base, its stem, its bowls, its knops, and its flowers, shall be of the same. <sup>32</sup>And six branches shall come out of the sides of it; three branches of the lampstand out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side thereof: <sup>33</sup>three bowls made like almond-flowers in one branch, a knop and a flower, and three bowls made like almond-flowers in the other branch, a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the lampstand. <sup>34</sup>And in the lampstand shall be four bowls made like almond-flowers, their knops and their flowers. <sup>35</sup>And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that come out of the lampstand. <sup>36</sup>Their knops and their branches shall be of the same; all of it shall be one beaten work of pure gold. <sup>37</sup>And thou shalt make its seven lamps; and <sup>a</sup>they shall light its lamps, that they may <sup>b</sup>give light towards the front thereof.

The veil to screen off the Most holy place; the holy things to be placed (32) within, and (34) without the veil; (36) the curtain for the entrance of the tent.

fine linen; and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen; and thou shalt make the girdle, the work of the embroiderer.

for a wave-offering before the LORD; and it shall be thy part. <sup>27</sup> And thou shalt sanctify <sup>e</sup> the breast of the wave-offering, and the shoulder of the heave-offering, which is waved and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron and of that which is for his sons; <sup>28</sup> and it shall be Aaron's and his sons <sup>d</sup> by a statute for ever from the children of Israel; for it is a heave-offering; and it shall be a heave-offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace-offerings, even their heave-offering unto the LORD.

the meal-offering of the morning, and according to its drink-offering, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

<sup>45</sup> And <sup>g</sup> I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. <sup>46</sup> And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them; I am the LORD their God.

<sup>10</sup> And <sup>f</sup> Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it, once in a year, with the blood of the sin-offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it, throughout your generations; it is most holy unto the LORD.

11 AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>12</sup> When <sup>a</sup> thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then shall they give every man <sup>b</sup> a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that there be no plague among them when thou numberest them. <sup>13</sup> This <sup>c</sup> they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered: half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary (<sup>d</sup> a shekel is twenty gerahs) <sup>e</sup> a half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD. <sup>14</sup> Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD. <sup>15</sup> The rich shall not give more and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

<sup>16</sup> And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and <sup>f</sup> shalt appoint it for the service of the tent of meeting; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

mony, <sup>27</sup> and the table and all its vessels, and the lampstand and its vessels, and the altar of incense, <sup>28</sup> and the altar of burnt-offering with all its vessels, and the laver and its foot. <sup>29</sup> And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: <sup>30</sup> whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy. <sup>30</sup> And <sup>n</sup> thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

31. AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup> See, <sup>a</sup> I have called by name Bezaleel the <sup>b</sup> son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; <sup>3</sup> and I have <sup>c</sup> filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom and in understanding and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship, <sup>4</sup> to devise curious works, to work in gold and in silver and in brass, <sup>5</sup> and in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to work in all manner of workmanship.

<sup>12</sup> AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>13</sup> Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying: Verily <sup>a</sup> my sabbaths ye shall keep; for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations: that ye may know that I am the LORD who doth sanctify you. <sup>14</sup> Ye shall <sup>b</sup> keep the sabbath therefore, for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death; for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>15</sup> <sup>c</sup> Six days may work be done, but on the <sup>d</sup> seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD: <sup>e</sup> whosoever doeth any work on the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. <sup>16</sup> Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations for a perpetual covenant. <sup>17</sup> It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever. For <sup>f</sup> in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed.

The two tables of the Law given.

<sup>18</sup> AND He gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, <sup>a</sup> two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

<sup>32</sup> AND when the people saw that Moses <sup>a</sup> delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron, and said to him: <sup>b</sup> Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him.

<sup>2</sup> And Aaron said unto them: Break off the <sup>c</sup> golden ear-rings which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons and of your daughters, and bring them to me. <sup>3</sup> And all the people brake off the golden ear-rings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup> And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving-tool, after he had made it a molten calf. And they said: This is thy god, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>15</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> Moses turned and went down from the mountain, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides, on the one side and on the other were they written. <sup>16</sup> And the <sup>b</sup> tables were the work of God,

17 And when <sup>c</sup>Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses: There is a noise of war in the camp. <sup>18</sup> And he said: It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being overcome; but the noise of them that sing do I hear.

<sup>19</sup> And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that <sup>d</sup>he saw the calf and the dancing. And Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mountain.

<sup>20</sup> And <sup>e</sup>he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strewed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

<sup>22</sup> And Aaron said: Let not the anger of my lord wax hot. <sup>g</sup>Thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief. <sup>23</sup> For they said to me, Make us gods which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him. <sup>24</sup> And I said to them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me; then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

<sup>25</sup> And when Moses saw that the people were let loose* (for Aaron had let them loose† unto their shame among their enemies,) <sup>26</sup> then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said: Who is on the LORD's side? Let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him. <sup>27</sup> And he said to them: Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and <sup>h</sup>slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

<sup>28</sup> And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

<sup>29</sup> For Moses had said: <sup>i</sup>Consecrate yourselves to-day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

Moses' persevering intercession; (ch. 33. 4) penitence of the people; (7) the temporary sanctuary set up outside the camp.

<sup>30</sup> AND it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people: <sup>a</sup>Ye have sinned a great sin; but now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I shall <sup>b</sup>make an atonement for your sin.

<sup>33</sup>. And the LORD said unto Moses: Depart, and go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swear to Abraham to Isaac and to Jacob, saying, <sup>k</sup>Unto thy seed will I give it. <sup>2</sup> And <sup>l</sup>I will send an angel before thee; <sup>m</sup>and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite; <sup>3</sup> <sup>n</sup>unto a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>o</sup>For I will not go up in the midst of thee, for thou <sup>p</sup>art a stiffnecked people; lest I consume thee in the way.

<sup>4</sup> And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned; and no man did put on him his ornaments. <sup>5</sup> For the LORD had said unto Moses: Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffnecked people: if I <sup>q</sup>came up in the midst of thee for a moment, I should consume thee; therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee. <sup>6</sup> And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb.

<sup>7</sup> And Moses took the tent and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, <sup>r</sup>and called it the Tent of meeting. And it came to pass, that every one who sought the LORD went out unto the tent of meeting which was without the camp.

<sup>8</sup> And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tent, that all the people rose up and stood <sup>s</sup>every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tent. <sup>9</sup> And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tent, the cloudy

Moses is directed to write the words of God; (29) he comes down with supernatural glory on his face, and delivers the commandments to the people.

<sup>27</sup>AND the LORD said unto Moses: Write thou these words; for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel.

<sup>28</sup>And <sup>a</sup>he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread nor drink water.

And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

<sup>29</sup>And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the <sup>b</sup>two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mountain, that Moses knew not that <sup>c</sup>the skin of his face shone* while he talked with Him. <sup>30</sup>And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him. <sup>31</sup>And Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him, and Moses talked with them; <sup>32</sup>and afterward all the children of Israel came nigh. And <sup>d</sup>he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him on mount Sinai.

35. AND Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them: These are the words which the LORD hath commanded that ye should do them. <sup>2</sup>Six <sup>a</sup>days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you a holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD; <sup>b</sup>whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death. <sup>3</sup><sup>c</sup>Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the sabbath day.

<sup>4</sup>AND Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying: This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying, <sup>5</sup>Take ye from among you an offering unto the LORD; <sup>a</sup>whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, the offering of the LORD; gold and silver and brass, <sup>b</sup>and blue and purple and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, <sup>c</sup>and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' <sup>d</sup>skins, and acacia wood, <sup>e</sup>and oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense, <sup>f</sup>and onyx stones and stones to be set, for the ephod and for the breast-plate.

And they brought unto him yet more free offerings every morning. <sup>4</sup> And all the wise men that wrought all the work of the sanctuary came every man from his work which they made, <sup>5</sup> and they spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>d</sup> The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded to make. <sup>6</sup> And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying: Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. all of one size. <sup>10</sup> And he coupled the five curtains one to another, and the other five curtains he coupled one to another. <sup>11</sup> And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling; likewise he made in the outermost edge of another curtain, in the second coupling.

f ch. 23. 5. <sup>12</sup> Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the second coupling; the loops held one curtain to another. <sup>13</sup> And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one to another with the taches: so it became one tabernacle.

g ch. 26. 7. <sup>14</sup> And <sup>o</sup> he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle; eleven curtains he made them. <sup>15</sup> The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain; the eleven curtains were of one size. <sup>16</sup> And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. <sup>17</sup> And he made fifty loops upon the outermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain of the second coupling. <sup>18</sup> And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

k ch. 26. 14. <sup>19</sup> And <sup>h</sup> he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that.

k ch. 26. 25. <sup>31</sup> And he made <sup>k</sup> bars of acacia-wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, <sup>32</sup> and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the back, westward. <sup>33</sup> And he made the middle bar to reach in the midst of the boards from end to end. <sup>34</sup> And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

<sup>37</sup>. And Bezaceel made <sup>n</sup> the ark of acacia-wood. Two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it: <sup>2</sup> and he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a rim of gold upon it round about. <sup>3</sup> And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set upon the four corners of it; even two rings upon the one side of it and two rings upon the other side of it. <sup>4</sup> And he made staves of acacia-wood, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>5</sup> And he put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

<sup>10</sup> And he made <sup>q</sup> the table of acacia-wood. Two cubits was its length, and a cubit its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height: <sup>11</sup> and he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a rim of gold round about. <sup>12</sup> Also he made thereunto a border of a hand-breadth round about; and he made a rim of gold for its border round about. <sup>13</sup> And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were in its four feet. <sup>14</sup> Near the border were the rings, the places for the staves to bear the table. <sup>15</sup> And he made the staves of acacia-wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table. <sup>16</sup> And he made the vessels which were upon the table, its dishes and its spoons and its bowls, and its cups to pour out withal, of pure gold.

<sup>17</sup> And he made the <sup>7</sup> lampstand of pure gold. Of beaten work made he the lampstand; its base and its stem, its bowls, its knops and its flowers, were of the same; <sup>18</sup> and six branches going out of its sides; three branches of the lampstand out of its one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of its other side: <sup>19</sup> three bowls made like almond-flowers in one branch, a knop and a flower; and three bowls made like almond-flowers in the other branch, a knop and a flower; so in the six branches that came out of the lampstand. <sup>20</sup> And in the lampstand were four bowls made like almond-flowers, their knops and their flowers; <sup>21</sup> and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that came out of it. <sup>22</sup> Their knops and their branches were of the same; all of it was one beaten work of pure gold. <sup>23</sup> And he made its seven lamps and its snuffers and its snuff-dishes of pure gold; <sup>24</sup> of a talent of pure gold made he it and all its vessels.

<sup>25</sup> And <sup>8</sup> he made the incense altar of acacia-wood. Its length was a cubit, and its breadth a cubit; it was foursquare; and two cubits was its height; its horns were of the same. <sup>26</sup> And he overlaid it with pure gold, both its top and its sides round about, and its horns; also he made unto it a rim of gold round about. <sup>27</sup> And he made two rings of gold to it under the rim thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal. <sup>28</sup> And he made the staves of acacia-wood, and overlaid them with gold.

<sup>38</sup> And <sup>9</sup> he made the altar of burnt-offering of acacia-wood. Five cubits was its length, and five cubits its breadth; it was foursquare; and three cubits its height. <sup>2</sup> And he made its horns on its four corners; its horns were of the same. And he overlaid it with brass. <sup>3</sup> And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pans and the shovels and the basins and the fleshhooks, and the firepans; all the vessels thereof made he of brass. <sup>4</sup> And he made for the altar a brazen grate of net-work under the compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it. <sup>5</sup> And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, to be places for the staves. <sup>6</sup> And he made the staves of acacia-wood, and overlaid them with brass. <sup>7</sup> And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal; he made the altar hollow with boards.

	<sup>9</sup> And thou shalt take the anointing oil and <sup>g</sup> anoint the tabernacle and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it and all the vessels thereof; and it shall be holy. <sup>10</sup> And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt-offering and all its vessels, and sanctify the altar: and <sup>h</sup> it shall be an altar most holy. <sup>11</sup> And thou shalt anoint the laver and its foot, and sanctify it.		l Num. 23. 13; Ps. 110. 4.
	<sup>16</sup> Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he. <sup>17</sup> And it came to pass in the first month, in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the <sup>m</sup> tabernacle was reared up.

<sup>18</sup> And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened its sockets, and set up its boards, and put in its bars, and reared up its pillars. <sup>19</sup> And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and <sup>y</sup> offered upon it the burnt-offering and the meal-offering; as the LORD commanded Moses.

LEVITICUS.

Law of sacrifice—The burnt-offerings.

namely of the sheep or of the goats, for a burnt-offering, he shall bring it a male without blemish. <sup>11</sup> And he shall kill it on the side of the altar, northward, before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle its blood round about upon the altar. <sup>12</sup> And he shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar; <sup>13</sup> but he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water. And the priest shall bring it all and burn it upon the altar; it is a burnt-offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> And if the burnt-offering for his offering to the LORD be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of <sup>n</sup> turtle-doves or of young pigeons. <sup>15</sup> And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and <sup>o</sup> wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be wrung out at the side of the altar: <sup>16</sup> and he shall pluck away its crop with its feathers, and cast it <sup>p</sup> beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes: <sup>17</sup> and he shall cleave it at its wings, but <sup>q</sup> shall not divide it asunder. And the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt-offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

Law of sacrifice—The meal offerings, (1) of flour, (4) of cakes and wafers, and (14) of first-fruits.

2. AND when any will offer <sup>a</sup> a meal-offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon; <sup>2</sup> and he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests. And he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn <sup>b</sup> the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. <sup>3</sup> And <sup>c</sup> the remnant of the meal-offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'; <sup>d</sup> it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

<sup>5</sup> And if thy oblation be a meal-offering baken on a flat plate, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil. <sup>6</sup> Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a meal-offering.

<sup>7</sup> And if thy oblation be a meal-offering baken in the pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. <sup>8</sup> And thou shalt bring the meal-offering that is made of these things to the LORD: and when it is presented to the priest, he shall bring it to the altar. <sup>9</sup> And the priest shall take from the meal-offering <sup>f</sup> a memorial thereof, and shall burn it upon the altar: it is an <sup>g</sup> offering made by fire, of a <sup>h</sup> sweet savour unto the LORD. <sup>10</sup> And that which is left of the meal-offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

3. AND if his oblation be a <sup>a</sup> sacrifice of peace-offering, if he offer it of the herd, whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it <sup>b</sup> without blemish before the LORD. <sup>2</sup> And <sup>c</sup> he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tent of meeting: and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about. <sup>3</sup> And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace-offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; <sup>d</sup> the fat that covereth the inwards and all the fat that is upon the inwards, <sup>4</sup> and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away: <sup>5</sup> and Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt-sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

peace-offering unto the LORD be of the flock, male or female, he shall offer it without blemish. <sup>7</sup>If he offer a sheep for his offering, then shall he offer it before the LORD. <sup>8</sup>And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it before the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar. <sup>9</sup>And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace-offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat thereof, and the whole of the fat tail, it shall he take off hard by the backbone; and the fat that covereth the inwards and all the fat that is upon the inwards, <sup>10</sup>and the two kidneys and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys; it shall he take away: <sup>11</sup>and the priest shall burn it upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire unto the LORD.

Law of sacrifice—The sin-offerings, for sins of ignorance, (3) for the high-priest, (13) for the whole congregation, (22) for a ruler, (27) for one of the people, and (ch. 5. 1.) for special cases.

4. AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, <sup>a</sup>If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them; <sup>3</sup>if b the priest that is anointed do sin so as to bring guilt upon the people, then let him bring for his sin which he hath sinned <sup>c</sup>a young bullock without blemish unto the LORD for a sin offering. <sup>4</sup>And he shall bring the bullock <sup>a</sup>to the door of the tent of meeting before the LORD; and he shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD. <sup>5</sup>And the priest that is anointed

<sup>13</sup>And <sup>m</sup>if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and <sup>n</sup>the thing be hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty; <sup>14</sup>when the sin which they have sinned against it is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring it before the tent of meeting. <sup>15</sup>And the elders of the congregation <sup>o</sup>shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD; and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>And <sup>p</sup>the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tent of meeting; <sup>17</sup>and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, even before the veil. <sup>18</sup>And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the tent of meeting; and he shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt-offering, which is at the door of the tent of meeting. <sup>19</sup>And he shall take all its fat from it, and burn it upon the altar. <sup>20</sup>And he shall do with the bullock as he did with <sup>q</sup>the bullock for a sin-offering, so shall he do with this: and <sup>r</sup>the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them. <sup>21</sup> And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bullock: it is a sin-offering for the congregation.

<sup>27</sup> And <sup>a</sup>if any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he doeth somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty; <sup>28</sup> or <sup>b</sup>if his sin which he hath sinned come to his knowledge; then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned. <sup>29</sup> And <sup>c</sup>he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin-offering, and slay the sin-offering in the place of the burnt-offering. <sup>30</sup> And the priest shall take of its blood with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt-offering; and he shall pour out all its blood at the bottom of the altar. <sup>31</sup> And <sup>a</sup>he shall take away all its fat, <sup>e</sup>as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace-offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a <sup>f</sup>sweet savour unto the LORD; <sup>g</sup>and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>32</sup> And if he bring a lamb for a sin-offering, <sup>h</sup>he shall bring it a female without blemish. <sup>33</sup> And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin-offering, and slay it for a sin-offering in the place where they kill the burnt-offering. <sup>34</sup> And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt-offering; and he shall pour out all its blood at the bottom of the altar. <sup>35</sup> And he shall take away all its fat, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace-offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar, upon the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: and <sup>i</sup>the priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>7</sup> And <sup>k</sup>if he be not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass which he hath committed two <sup>l</sup>turtle-doves or two young pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a sin-offering and the other for a burnt-offering. <sup>8</sup> And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin-offering first, and <sup>m</sup>wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it asunder: <sup>9</sup>and he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin-offering upon the side of the altar; and <sup>n</sup>the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sin-offering. <sup>10</sup> And he shall offer the second for a burnt-offering, according to the ordinance. And <sup>o</sup>the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>11</sup> But if he be not able to bring two turtle-doves or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin-offering; <sup>p</sup>he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon; for it is a sin-offering. <sup>12</sup>Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, even <sup>q</sup>a memorial thereof, and burn it on the altar, <sup>r</sup>upon the offerings made by fire unto the LORD; it is a sin-offering. <sup>13</sup>And <sup>s</sup>the priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these things, and it shall be forgiven him. And <sup>t</sup>the remnant shall be the priest's as a meal-offering.

<sup>a</sup>AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>15</sup>If a soul <sup>a</sup>commit a wrong, and sin through ignorance in the holy things of the LORD; then <sup>b</sup>he shall bring for his trespass unto the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, according to thy estimation by shekels of silver, after <sup>c</sup>the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass-offering; <sup>16</sup>and he shall make amends for the harm that he hath done in the holy thing, and <sup>d</sup>shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it unto the priest. And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass-offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>17</sup>And if a soul sin, and commit any of the things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; though he knew it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. <sup>18</sup>And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, according to thy estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest. And the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and knew it not, and it shall be forgiven him. <sup>19</sup>It is a trespass-offering: he hath certainly trespassed against the LORD.

to him to whom it appertaineth, in the day of his trespass-offering. <sup>6</sup>And he shall bring his trespass-offering unto the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, according to thy estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest. <sup>7</sup>And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD, and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

<sup>8</sup>AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>9</sup>Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt-offering: It is the burnt-offering upon the hearth which is upon the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it. <sup>10</sup>And <sup>a</sup>the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, and he shall take up the ashes to which the fire hath consumed the burnt-offering on the altar, and he shall put them <sup>b</sup>beside the altar. <sup>11</sup>And <sup>c</sup>he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp, <sup>d</sup>unto a clean place. <sup>12</sup>And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it, it shall not be put out; and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt-offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon <sup>e</sup>the fat of the peace-offerings. <sup>13</sup>The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar, it shall never go out.

<sup>10</sup> And Moses took <sup>i</sup> the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them. <sup>11</sup> And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its vessels, both the laver and its foot, to sanctify them. <sup>12</sup> And <sup>k</sup> he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.

Moses burnt the head and the pieces and the fat, <sup>21</sup> And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt-sacrifice for a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup> And <sup>z</sup> Moses took of the anointing oil and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron and upon his garments, and upon his sons and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron and his garments, and his sons and his sons' garments with him.

<sup>31</sup> And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons: <sup>a</sup> Boil the flesh at the door of the tent of meeting; and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it. <sup>32</sup> And <sup>b</sup> that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire. <sup>33</sup> And ye shall not go out of the door of the tent of meeting seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for <sup>c</sup> seven days shall he consecrate you. <sup>34</sup> As he hath done

this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you. <sup>35</sup> Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tent of meeting day and night seven days, and <sup>d</sup> keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not; for so I am commanded.

9. AND it came to pass <sup>a</sup> on the eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel; <sup>2</sup> and he said unto Aaron: <sup>b</sup> Take thee a young calf for a sin-offering, and <sup>c</sup> a ram for a burnt-offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD. <sup>3</sup> And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, <sup>d</sup> Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin-offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt-offering; <sup>4</sup> also a bullock and a ram for peace-offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and <sup>e</sup> a meal-offering mingled with oil; for to-day <sup>f</sup> the LORD will appear unto you.

<sup>5</sup> And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tent of meeting; and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. <sup>6</sup> And Moses said: This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded that ye should do; and <sup>g</sup> the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

And <sup>ak</sup> the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people. <sup>32</sup> And <sup>al</sup> there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt-offering and the fat; which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

And <sup>am</sup> the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people. <sup>33</sup> And <sup>an</sup> there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt-offering and the fat; which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

out of the camp. <sup>5</sup> So they went near and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.

<sup>13</sup> And f these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: The eagle and the ossifrage and the ospray <sup>14</sup> and the vulture, and the kite after its kind, <sup>15</sup> every raven after its kind, <sup>16</sup> and the ostrich and the night-hawk and the cuckow, and the hawk after its kind, <sup>17</sup> and the little owl and the cormorant and the great owl <sup>18</sup> and the ibis and the pelican and the gier eagle <sup>19</sup> and the stork, the heron after its kind, and the lapwing and the bat.

all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

Mk. 1. 6.

<sup>26</sup> The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof and is not cloven-footed, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you; every one that toucheth them shall be unclean. <sup>27</sup> And whatsoever goeth upon its paws, among all manner of animals that go on all four, those are unclean unto you. Whoso toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the evening; <sup>28</sup> and he that beareth the carcase of them shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean unto you.

<sup>29</sup> These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth: The mole and the mouse, and the great lizard after its kind, <sup>30</sup> and the crying lizard and the strong lizard and the red lizard and the sand lizard and the chameleon. <sup>31</sup> These are unclean to you among all that creep. Whosoever doth touch them when they are dead shall be unclean until the evening.

<sup>32</sup> And upon whatsoever any of them when they are dead doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be wherein any work is done; it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening; so it shall be cleansed. <sup>33</sup> And every earthen vessel wherinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and ye shall break it. <sup>34</sup> Of all food which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean; and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean. <sup>35</sup> And every thing whereupon any part of their carcase falleth shall be unclean; whether it be oven or stewpan, they shall be broken down; for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you. <sup>36</sup> Nevertheless a fountain or a pit wherein there is plenty of water shall be clean; but that which toucheth their carcase shall be unclean. <sup>37</sup> And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing-seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean. <sup>38</sup> But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.

<sup>39</sup> And if any beast of which ye may eat die, he that toucheth its carcase shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>40</sup> And <sup>a</sup> he that eateth of its carcase shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening; he also that beareth its carcase shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>41</sup> And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth shall be an abomination; it shall not be eaten. <sup>42</sup> Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination. <sup>43</sup> Ye <sup>e</sup> shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby. <sup>44</sup> For I am the LORD your God; ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and <sup>k</sup> ye shall be holy; for I am holy; and ye shall not defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

Purification after child-birth.

12. AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup> Speak unto the children of Israel, saying: If a woman have conceived seed, and borne a man-child, then <sup>a</sup> she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean. <sup>3</sup> And on the <sup>b</sup> eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. <sup>4</sup> And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled. <sup>5</sup> But if she bear a maid-child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation; and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days. <sup>6</sup> And <sup>c</sup> when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt-offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle-dove for a sin-offering, to the door of the tent of meeting, unto the priest; <sup>7</sup> who shall offer it before the LORD, and make an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath borne a male or a female. <sup>8</sup> And <sup>d</sup> if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt-offering and the other for a sin-offering; and <sup>e</sup> the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

Laws concerning leprosy and its cleansing.

13. AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying: <sup>2</sup> When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, <sup>a</sup> a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy, then <sup>b</sup> he shall be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons the priests: <sup>3</sup> and the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh. And if the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight is deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and shall pronounce him unclean. <sup>4</sup> If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white, then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague seven days. <sup>5</sup> And the priest shall look on him on the seventh day; and behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague be not spread in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven days more. <sup>6</sup> And the priest shall look on him again on the seventh day; and behold, if the plague be faded, and the plague be not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is but a scab: and he <sup>c</sup> shall wash his clothes, and be clean. <sup>7</sup> But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin after that he hath been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again. <sup>8</sup> And if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprosy.

<sup>9</sup> When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest. <sup>10</sup> And <sup>d</sup> the priest shall see him; and behold, if there be a white rising in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be living raw flesh in the rising, <sup>11</sup> it is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up; for he is unclean. <sup>12</sup>And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, whosoever the priest looketh, <sup>13</sup>then the priest shall look and behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague; it is all turned white; he is clean. <sup>14</sup>But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean; <sup>15</sup>and the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean; for the raw flesh is unclean; it is a leprosy. <sup>16</sup>Or if the raw flesh turn again and be changed to white, he shall come to the priest; <sup>17</sup>and the priest shall see him; and behold, if the plague be turned into white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.

<sup>18</sup>The flesh also in which, even in the skin thereof, was a boil, and is healed, <sup>19</sup>and in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white and somewhat reddish, and it be showed to the priest; <sup>20</sup>and if when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil. <sup>21</sup>But if the priest look on it, and behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, and be faded, then the priest shall shut him up seven days. <sup>22</sup>And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a plague: <sup>23</sup>but if the bright spot stay in its place, and spread not, it is the inflammation of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

<sup>24</sup>Or if there be any flesh in the skin whereof there is a hot burning, and the living flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish or white, <sup>25</sup>then the priest shall look upon it; and behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin, it is a leprosy broken out of the burning. Wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the plague of leprosy. <sup>26</sup>But if the priest look on it, and behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, and be faded, then the priest shall shut him up seven days. <sup>27</sup>And the priest shall look upon him on the seventh day; and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy. <sup>28</sup>And if the bright spot stay in its place, and spread not in the skin, and it be faded, it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is the scar of the burning.

<sup>29</sup>If a man or woman have a plague upon the head or the beard, <sup>30</sup>then the priest shall see the plague; and behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin, and there be in it a yellow thin hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a dry scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard. <sup>31</sup>And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and there be no black hair in it, then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague of the scall seven days. <sup>32</sup>And on the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague; and behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not in sight deeper than the skin, <sup>33</sup>he shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave. And the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall seven days more. <sup>34</sup>And on the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall; and behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. <sup>35</sup>But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing, <sup>36</sup>then the priest shall look on him; and behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean. <sup>37</sup>But if the scall be in his sight at a stay, and there be black hair grown up therein, the scall is healed, he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

<sup>47</sup> The <sup>h</sup>garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment or a linen garment, <sup>48</sup> whether it be in the warp or woof, of linen or of woollen, whether in skin or in anything made of skin, <sup>49</sup> and if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment or in the skin, either in the warp or in the woof, or in any thing of skin, it is a plague of leprosy; and it shall be showed to the priest. <sup>50</sup> And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up that which hath the plague seven days. <sup>51</sup> And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day; if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in a skin or in any work that is made of skin, the plague is <sup>i</sup>a fretting leprosy; it is unclean. <sup>52</sup> He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is; for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire.

15. AND the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying: <sup>2</sup>Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them:

and be unclean until the evening. <sup>9</sup>And what saddle soever he that hath the issue rideth upon shall be unclean. <sup>10</sup>And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the evening.

And he that beareth any of those things shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>11</sup>And whosoever he that hath the issue toucheth, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>12</sup>And the <sup>c</sup>vessel of earth that he who hath the issue toucheth shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

<sup>16</sup>And <sup>h</sup>if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>17</sup>And every garment and every skin whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>18</sup>The woman also with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>19</sup>And <sup>i</sup>if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days; and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>20</sup>And every thing that she lieth upon in her separation shall be unclean; every thing also that she sitteth upon shall be unclean. <sup>21</sup>And whosoever toucheth her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>22</sup>And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>23</sup>And if it be on her bed or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>24</sup>And <sup>k</sup>if any man lie with her at all, and her flowers be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and all the bed whereon he lieth shall be unclean.

<sup>32</sup> This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith, <sup>33</sup> and of her that is sick of her flowers, and of him that hath an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lieth with her that is unclean.

16. AND the LORD spake unto Moses after <sup>a</sup>the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD, and died; <sup>2</sup>and the LORD said unto Moses: Speak unto Aaron thy brother that he come not at all times into <sup>b</sup>the holy place within the veil before the mercy-seat, which is upon the ark, that he die not; for <sup>c</sup>I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy-seat. <sup>3</sup>Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: <sup>d</sup>with a young bullock for a sin-offering and a ram for a burnt-offering. <sup>4</sup>He shall put on <sup>e</sup>the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore <sup>f</sup>shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on.

<sup>5</sup> And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin-offering and one ram for a burnt-offering.

<sup>11</sup> And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin-offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin-offering which is for himself. <sup>12</sup> And he shall take <sup>k</sup>a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of <sup>s</sup>sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the veil; <sup>13</sup> and he shall <sup>m</sup>put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the <sup>n</sup>mercy-seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not. <sup>14</sup> And <sup>o</sup>he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy-seat eastward; and before the mercy-seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.

<sup>15</sup> Then <sup>7</sup> shall he kill the goat of thesin-offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood <sup>9</sup> within the veil, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy-seat and before the mercy-seat. <sup>16</sup> And he shall <sup>7</sup> make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins. And so shall he do for the tent of meeting, that dwelleth among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 And there shall be <sup>s</sup> no man in the tent of meeting when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> And <sup>q</sup> every soul that eateth that which died of itself or that which was torn by beasts, whether it be one of your own country or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening; then shall he be clean. <sup>16</sup> But if he wash them not nor bathe his flesh, then <sup>r</sup> he shall bear his iniquity.

father, she is thy sister, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. <sup>12</sup> Thou <sup>i</sup> shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's sister; she is thy father's near kinswoman. <sup>13</sup> Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister; for she is thy mother's near kinswoman. <sup>14</sup> Thou <sup>k</sup> shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife; she is thine aunt. <sup>15</sup> Thou <sup>l</sup> shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter-in-law; she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. <sup>16</sup> Thou <sup>m</sup> shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's wife; it is thy brother's nakedness. <sup>17</sup> Thou shalt <sup>n</sup> not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near kinswomen; it is wickedness. <sup>18</sup> Neither shalt thou take a wife to her sister, to <sup>o</sup> vex her, to uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her life time.

<sup>e</sup> that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs which were committed before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein : I am the LORD your God.

19. AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup> Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them : <sup>3</sup> Ye shall be holy ; for I the LORD your God am holy.

Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a diverse kind : <sup>a</sup> thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed : neither shall a garment mingled of linen and woollen come upon thee.

<sup>34</sup> But <sup>o</sup> the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou <sup>p</sup> shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>36</sup> Just <sup>q</sup> balances, just weights, a just ephah and a just hin, shall ye have. I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt. <sup>37</sup> Therefore <sup>r</sup> shall ye observe all my statutes and all my judgments, and do them: I am the LORD.

20. AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup> Again thou shalt say to the children of Israel: <sup>a</sup> Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that giveth any of his seed unto Molech, he shall surely be put to death; <sup>b</sup> the people of the land shall stone him with stones. <sup>3</sup> And <sup>c</sup> I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people, because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to <sup>d</sup> defile my sanctuary, and <sup>e</sup> to profane my holy name. <sup>4</sup> And if the people of the land do at all hide their eyes from the man when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and <sup>f</sup> kill him not, <sup>5</sup> then I will set my face against that man and <sup>g</sup> against his family, and will cut him off, and all that <sup>h</sup> go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death; <sup>r</sup> they have wrought confusion; their blood shall be upon them.

<sup>13</sup> If <sup>s</sup> a man also lie with mankind as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

<sup>14</sup> And <sup>t</sup> if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness; they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.

21. AND the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them: "There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people; <sup>2</sup> but for his kin that is near unto him, that is, for his mother and for his father, and for his son and for his daughter, and for his brother, <sup>3</sup> and for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, who hath had no husband, for her may he be defiled. <sup>4</sup> But he shall not defile himself, being a chief man * among his people, to profane himself. <sup>5</sup> They <sup>b</sup> shall not make baldness upon their head, nor shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh. <sup>6</sup> They <sup>c</sup> shall be holy unto their God, and <sup>d</sup> not profane the name of their God; for the offerings of the LORD made by fire and <sup>e</sup> the bread of their God they do offer; therefore they shall be holy.

22. AND the LORD spake unto Moses saying: <sup>2</sup> Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they <sup>a</sup> profane not my holy name in those things which they <sup>b</sup> hallow unto me: I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup> Say unto them: Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations that goeth unto the holy things which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD <sup>c</sup> having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD. <sup>4</sup> Whatsoever man of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath <sup>d</sup> a running issue, he shall not eat of the holy things <sup>e</sup> until he be clean. And <sup>f</sup> whoso toucheth any thing that is unclean <sup>g</sup> by the dead, or <sup>h</sup> a man whose seed goeth from him; <sup>i</sup> or <sup>j</sup> whosoever toucheth any creeping thing whereby he may be made unclean, or <sup>k</sup> a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath; <sup>6</sup> the soul who hath touched any such shall be unclean until the evening, and shall not eat of the holy things unless he <sup>l</sup> wash his flesh with water. <sup>7</sup> And when the sun is down he shall be clean, and shall afterwards eat of the holy things; because <sup>m</sup> it is his food. <sup>8</sup> That

<sup>17</sup>AND the LORD spake unto Moses saying, <sup>18</sup>Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: <sup>a</sup>Whosoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his vows and for all his freewill offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt-offering, <sup>19</sup>that ye may be accepted ye <sup>b</sup>shall offer a male without blemish, of the beeves, <sup>c</sup>of the sheep or of the goats; <sup>20</sup>but <sup>d</sup>whatsoever hath a blemish that shall ye not offer, for it shall not be acceptable for you. <sup>21</sup>And <sup>e</sup>whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the LORD <sup>f</sup>to accomplish his vow or a freewill-offering, of the beeves or of the flock, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein. <sup>22</sup>Blind <sup>g</sup>or broken or maimed, or having a wen or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make <sup>h</sup>a offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD. <sup>23</sup>Either a bullock or a lamb that hath any thing <sup>i</sup>superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a freewill offering, but for a vow it shall not be accepted. <sup>24</sup>Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised or crushed or broken or cut, neither shall ye make any offering thereof in your land. <sup>25</sup>Neither <sup>k</sup>from a stranger's hand shall ye offer <sup>l</sup>any of these as the bread of your God, because their <sup>m</sup>corruption is in them and blemishes are in them; they shall not be accepted for you.

The holy festivals—(3) The weekly sabbath; and six yearly festivals; viz. (5) the Passover, (9) the Offering of first-fruits, (15) the Pentecost, (23) the Blowing of trumpets, (26) the Day of Atonement, and (33) the Feast of Tabernacles.

<sup>23</sup> And Moses spake to the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Sabbatical years, and (8) years of Jubilee; (39) the law of servitude for Hebrew servants.

25. AND the LORD spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying, <sup>2</sup> Speak unto the children of Israel and say unto them: When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep <sup>a</sup> a sabbath unto the LORD. <sup>3</sup> Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard and gather in the fruit thereof; <sup>4</sup> but in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the LORD; thou shalt neither sow thy field nor prune thy vineyard. <sup>5</sup> That <sup>b</sup> which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of thy vine undressed; for it is a year of rest unto the land. <sup>6</sup> And the sabbath of the land shall be food for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee; <sup>7</sup> and for thy cattle, and for the beasts that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be food.

<sup>21</sup> And if ye walk contrary to me, and will not hearken unto me, I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins. <sup>22</sup> I will also send wild beasts among you, <sup>d</sup> which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and <sup>e</sup> your ways shall be desolate.
<sup>23</sup> And if ye <sup>f</sup> will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary to me, <sup>24</sup> then <sup>g</sup> will I also walk contrary to you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins. <sup>25</sup> And <sup>h</sup> I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant. And when ye are gathered together within your cities, <sup>i</sup> I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. <sup>26</sup> And <sup>k</sup> when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight; and <sup>l</sup> ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.
<sup>27</sup> And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary to me, <sup>28</sup> then I will walk contrary to you also <sup>m</sup> in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins. <sup>29</sup> And <sup>n</sup> ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat. <sup>30</sup> And <sup>o</sup> I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols; and my soul shall <sup>p</sup> abhor you. <sup>31</sup> And <sup>q</sup> I will make your cities waste, and <sup>r</sup> bring your sanctuaries to desolation; and <sup>s</sup> I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours. <sup>32</sup> And <sup>t</sup> I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies who dwell therein shall be <sup>u</sup> astonished at it. <sup>33</sup> And <sup>z</sup> I will scatter you among the nations, and will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth. <sup>37</sup> And <sup>a</sup> they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth; and <sup>b</sup> ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies. <sup>38</sup> And ye shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. <sup>39</sup> And they that are left of you <sup>c</sup> shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also <sup>d</sup> in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

<sup>40</sup> If <sup>e</sup> they shall confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary to me, <sup>41</sup> and I also have walked contrary to them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their <sup>f</sup> uncircumcised hearts be <sup>g</sup> humbled, and they then <sup>h</sup> accept of the punishment of their iniquity; <sup>42</sup> then will I <sup>i</sup> remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will <sup>k</sup> remember the land. <sup>43</sup> The <sup>l</sup> land also shall be left by them, and shall enjoy its sabbaths, while it lieth desolate without them. And they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity; because, even because, they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

<sup>44</sup> And yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, <sup>m</sup> I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and <sup>n</sup> to break my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their God. <sup>45</sup> But I will for their sakes <sup>o</sup> remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt <sup>p</sup> in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.

shall be thirty shekels. <sup>5</sup> And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then thy estimation shall be for the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels. <sup>6</sup> And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be for the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver. <sup>7</sup> And if it be from sixty years old and above, if it be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels. <sup>8</sup> But if he be too poor to pay thy estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to the ability of him that vowed shall the priest value him.

<sup>9</sup> And if it be a beast whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy. <sup>10</sup> He shall not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad or a bad for a good; and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then both it and the exchange thereof shall be holy. <sup>11</sup> And if it be any unclean beast of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest, <sup>12</sup> and the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as thou valuest it who art the priest, so shall it be. <sup>13</sup> But <sup>c</sup> if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

<sup>14</sup> And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it; whether it be good or bad, as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand. <sup>15</sup> And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation to it, and it shall be his.

<sup>16</sup> And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of the field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: a homer* of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver. <sup>17</sup> If he sanctify his field from the year of Jubilee, according to thy estimation it shall stand. <sup>18</sup> But if he sanctify his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall <sup>d</sup> reckon to him the money according to the years that remain, even to the year of the Jubilee, and it shall be abated from thy estimation. <sup>19</sup> And <sup>e</sup> if he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation to it, and it shall be assured to him. <sup>20</sup> And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more: <sup>21</sup> but the field <sup>f</sup> when it goeth out in the Jubilee shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field devoted; <sup>g</sup> the possession thereof shall be the priest's.

<sup>34</sup>And Moses and Aaron and the chief of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, <sup>35</sup>from thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tent of meeting: <sup>36</sup>and those that were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty. <sup>37</sup>These were they that were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron did number, according to the commandment of the LORD, by the hand of Moses.

<sup>38</sup>And those that were numbered of the sons of Gershon, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, <sup>39</sup>from thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tent of meeting, <sup>40</sup>even those that were numbered of them, by their families, by the houses of their fathers, were two thousand and six hundred and thirty. <sup>41</sup>These are they that were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the LORD.

<sup>42</sup>And those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families, by the houses of their fathers, <sup>43</sup>from thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tent of meeting, <sup>44</sup>even those that were numbered of them by their families, were three thousand and two hundred. <sup>45</sup>These were those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

<sup>46</sup>All those that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the chief of Israel numbered, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, <sup>47</sup>from thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that came to do the service of the ministry, and the service of the burden in the tent of meeting, <sup>48</sup>even those that were numbered of them, were eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore. <sup>49</sup>According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service, and according to his burden: thus were they numbered of him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Law of restitution.

a Le. 6. 2, <sup>a</sup> When a man or woman shall commit any
 3. sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be b Le. 5. 5 ; guilty, <sup>7</sup> then <sup>b</sup> they shall confess their sin 26, 40 ; which they have done ; and he shall rec Le. 6. 5 ; thereof, and add to it the fifth part thereof, Lk. 19. 8. and give it to him against whom he hath trespessed. <sup>8</sup> But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass to, let the trespass be recompensed to the LORD, even to the priest ; besides <sup>d</sup> the ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him.

Trial of jealousy.

<sup>16</sup> And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD. <sup>17</sup> And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel ; and of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water. <sup>18</sup> And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy offering. And the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse ; <sup>19</sup> and the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman : If no man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness with another instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse. <sup>20</sup> But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man have lain with thee besides thy husband ; <sup>21</sup> then the priest shall <sup>c</sup> charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman : <sup>d</sup> The LORD make thee a curse and an oath among thy people, when the LORD doth make thy thigh to rot and thy belly to swell ; <sup>22</sup> and this water which causeth the curse <sup>e</sup> shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell and thy thigh to rot. And f the woman shall say : Amen, amen.

<sup>25</sup> Then the priest shall take the jealousy-offering out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar ; <sup>26</sup> and <sup>g</sup> the priest shall take a handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterwards shall cause the woman to drink the water.

<sup>29</sup> This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled ; <sup>30</sup> or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law. <sup>31</sup> Then shall the man be free from iniquity, and this woman <sup>i</sup> shall bear her iniquity.

6, AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup> Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: When either man or woman shall <sup>a</sup> separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the LORD, <sup>3</sup> he <sup>b</sup> shall separate himself from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes or dried. <sup>4</sup> All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine-tree, from the kernels even to the husk. <sup>5</sup> All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no <sup>c</sup> razor come upon his head; until the days be fulfilled in which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow. <sup>6</sup> All the days that he separateth himself unto the LORD <sup>d</sup> he shall come at no dead body. <sup>7</sup> He <sup>e</sup> shall not make himself unclean for his father or for his mother, for his brother or for his sister, when they die; because the separation of his God is upon his head. <sup>8</sup> All the days of his separation he is holy unto the LORD.

offering and their <sup>o</sup> drink-offerings. <sup>16</sup> And the priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin-offering and his burnt-offering. <sup>17</sup> And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread. The priest shall offer also his meal-offering and his drink-offering.

<sup>21</sup> This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD for his separation, besides that which his hand shall get; according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.

<sup>4</sup> And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>5</sup> Take it of them, that they may be to do the service of the tent of meeting; and thou shalt give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service.

<sup>6</sup> And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites. <sup>7</sup> Two wagons and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, <sup>8</sup> according to their service; <sup>9</sup> and four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, <sup>10</sup> according to their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. <sup>11</sup> But to the sons of Kohath he gave none; because <sup>12</sup> the service of the sanctuary belonging to them was that <sup>13</sup> they should bear upon their shoulders.

<sup>14</sup> And the princes offered for the <sup>15</sup> dedicating of the altar on the day that it was anointed; even the princes offered their offering before the altar. <sup>16</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses: They shall offer their offering, each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar.

his offering was one silver charger, of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, <sup>20</sup> after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a <sup>21</sup> meal-offering; <sup>22</sup> one spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of <sup>23</sup> incense; <sup>24</sup> one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt-offering; <sup>25</sup> one kid of the goats for a <sup>26</sup> sin-offering; <sup>27</sup> and for a <sup>28</sup> sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab. <sup>29</sup> On the second day <sup>30</sup> Nathaneel the son of Zuar, prince of Issachar, offered. <sup>31</sup> He offered for his offering one silver charger of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal-offering; <sup>32</sup> one spoon of gold of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>33</sup> one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt-offering; <sup>34</sup> one kid of the goats for a sin-offering; <sup>35</sup> and for a sacrifice of <sup>36</sup> peace-offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Nathaneel the son of Zuar.

charger of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal-offering; <sup>40</sup> one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>41</sup> one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt-offering; <sup>42</sup> one kid of the goats for a sin-offering; <sup>43</sup> and for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

<sup>89</sup> AND when Moses was gone into the tent of meeting <sup>a</sup> to speak with Him, then he heard <sup>b</sup> the voice speaking unto him from off the mercy-seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubim; and He spake unto him.

The lamps of the sanctuary.

and <sup>i</sup> offer them for an offering. <sup>16</sup> For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; instead of such as open every womb, even instead of the first-born of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me. <sup>17</sup> For <sup>k</sup> all the first-born of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast; <sup>l</sup> on the day that I smote every first-born in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself. <sup>18</sup> And I have taken the Levites for all the first-born of the children of Israel. <sup>19</sup> And <sup>m</sup> I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tent of meeting, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel; <sup>n</sup> that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the sanctuary.

9. <sup>26</sup> But there remained two of the men in the camp; the name of the one <sup>was</sup> Eldad, and the name of the other Medad; and the spirit rested upon them; and they <sup>were</sup> of them that were written, but they went not out unto the tent; and they prophesied in the camp. <sup>27</sup> And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said: Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

<sup>31</sup> And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and <sup>m</sup> brought quails from the sea, and let <sup>n</sup> them fall over the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits above the face of the earth.

<sup>5</sup> And <sup>e</sup> the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forth.

<sup>6</sup> And he said: Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him <sup>f</sup> in a vision, and will speak unto him <sup>g</sup> in a dream. <sup>7</sup> Not so with my servant Moses; <sup>h</sup> he is faithful in all <sup>i</sup> my house; <sup>8</sup> with <sup>j</sup> him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and <sup>k</sup> the similitude of the LORD shall he behold. Wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

<sup>9</sup> And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed; <sup>10</sup> and the cloud departed from off the tent. And behold, Miriam <sup>m</sup> became leprous, white as snow; and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.

<sup>11</sup> And Aaron said unto Moses: Alas! my lord, I beseech thee, <sup>n</sup> lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly and wherein we have sinned. <sup>12</sup> Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb.

<sup>13</sup> And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying: Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee. <sup>14</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses: If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? Let her be <sup>o</sup> shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again. <sup>15</sup> And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days; and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again.

Mission of the Spies, and their report; (ch. 14. 1) despair and rebellion of the people; (6) remonstrance of the two faithful Spies; (10) appearance of the glory of God at the tabernacle.

<sup>17</sup> And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan; and he said unto them: Get you up this way into the south, and go up to <sup>f</sup> the mountain: <sup>18</sup> and see the land, what it is; and the people that dwell therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many; <sup>19</sup> and what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in camps or in strong holds; <sup>20</sup> and what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein or not. And <sup>g</sup> be ye of good courage; and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first-ripe grapes.

brought of the pomegranates and of the figs. <sup>24</sup>The place was called the valley of Eshecol [i. e. Cluster of grapes], because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

<sup>25</sup>And they returned from searching the land after forty days. <sup>26</sup>And they went and came to Moses and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to <sup>27</sup>Kadesh; and they brought back word to them and to all the congregation; and they showed them the fruit of the land.

<sup>27</sup>And they told him and said: We came to the land whither thou sentest us, and surely <sup>28</sup>it floweth with milk and honey; and <sup>29</sup>this is the fruit of it. <sup>28</sup>Nevertheless <sup>30</sup>the people are strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled and very great; and moreover we saw the sons of Anak there. <sup>29</sup>The <sup>30</sup>Amalekites dwell in the land of the south; and the Hittites and the Jebusites and the Amorites dwell in the mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the Sea, and by the side of the Jordan.

them that searched the land, <sup>8</sup>rent their clothes; <sup>7</sup>and they spake to all the company of the children of Israel, saying: The land which we passed through to search it is an exceeding good land. <sup>8</sup>If <sup>9</sup>the LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey. <sup>9</sup>Only rebel not ye against the LORD; <sup>10</sup>neither fear ye the people of the land; for <sup>11</sup>they are bread for us; their defence is departed from them, and <sup>12</sup>the LORD is with us; fear them not. <sup>10</sup>But <sup>13</sup>all the congregation bade stone them with stones.

And <sup>14</sup>the glory of the LORD appeared in the tent of meeting before all the children of Israel.

<sup>11</sup>AND the LORD said unto Moses: How long will this people <sup>12</sup>provoke me? And how long will it be ere they <sup>13</sup>believe me, for all the signs which I have showed among them? <sup>12</sup>I <sup>14</sup>will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and <sup>15</sup>will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

<sup>13</sup>And Moses said unto the LORD: <sup>14</sup>Then the Egyptians will hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people by thy might from among them,) <sup>15</sup>and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land; <sup>16</sup>for they have heard that thou the LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that <sup>17</sup>thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night. <sup>15</sup>Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying, <sup>16</sup>Because the LORD <sup>17</sup>is not able to bring this people into the land which he swore unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness. <sup>17</sup>And now, I beseech thee, let the power of the LORD be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying, <sup>18</sup>The <sup>19</sup>LORD is long-suffering and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, <sup>20</sup>visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation. <sup>19</sup>Pardon, <sup>21</sup>I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people, according to the greatness of thy mercy, and <sup>22</sup>as thou hast forgiven this people from Egypt even until now.

with the glory of the LORD, <sup>22</sup>as for all the men who have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and <sup>23</sup>have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice, <sup>24</sup>surely <sup>25</sup>they shall not see the land which I swear unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it; <sup>26</sup>but my servant <sup>27</sup>Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and <sup>28</sup>hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereto he went; and his seed shall possess it. <sup>29</sup>Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valley. To-morrow turn you, and <sup>30</sup>get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.

murings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me. <sup>23</sup> Say unto them, As truly as I live, saith the LORD, <sup>b</sup> as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you. <sup>29</sup> Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and <sup>c</sup> all that were numbered surely do it unto all this evil congregation that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

36 And the men whom Moses sent to search the land, who returned and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land, 37 even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, <sup>m</sup>died by the plague before the LORD. 38 But <sup>n</sup>Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were of the men that went to search the land, lived still.

Ordinances respecting the meal and drink-offerings accompanying the burnt-offerings.

15. AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: When ye are come into the land of your habitations, which I give to you, <sup>3</sup>and <sup>a</sup>will make an offering by fire unto the LORD, a burnt-offering, or a sacrifice <sup>b</sup>in performing a vow, or in a freewill-offering, or <sup>c</sup>in your solemn feasts, to make a <sup>d</sup>sweet savour unto the LORD, of the herd or of the flock, <sup>4</sup>then shall he that offereth his offering unto the LORD bring a meal-offering of a tenth <sup>e</sup>part of flour mingled <sup>f</sup>with the fourth <sup>part</sup> of a hin of oil; <sup>5</sup>and <sup>g</sup>the fourth <sup>part</sup> of a hin of wine for a drink-offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt-offering or sacrifice, for each lamb. <sup>6</sup>Or <sup>h</sup>for a ram, thou shalt prepare <sup>i</sup>for a meal-offering two tenth parts of flour mingled with the third <sup>part</sup> of a hin of oil; <sup>7</sup>and for a drink-offering thou shalt offer the third <sup>part</sup> of a hin of wine, <sup>j</sup>for a sweet savour unto the LORD. <sup>8</sup>And when thou preparest a bullock for a burnt-offering, or <sup>k</sup>for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or <sup>l</sup>peace-offerings unto the LORD, <sup>9</sup>then shall he bring <sup>m</sup>with a bullock a meal-offering of three tenth parts of flour mingled with half a hin of oil; <sup>10</sup>and thou shalt bring for a drink-offering half a hin of wine, <sup>n</sup>for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

And they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin-offering before the LORD, for their ignorance. <sup>26</sup> And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.

rance, then he shall bring a she-goat of the first year for a sin-offering. <sup>28</sup> And <sup>l</sup> the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him. <sup>29</sup> Ye <sup>m</sup> shall have one law for him that sinneth through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Israel and for the stranger that sojourneth among them.

son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took counsel; <sup>2</sup> and they rose up before Moses, with two hundred and fifty men of the children of Israel, princes of the assembly, <sup>b</sup> famous in the congregation, men of name: <sup>3</sup> and <sup>c</sup> they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them: Ye take too much upon you, seeing <sup>d</sup> all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and <sup>e</sup> the LORD is among them; wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD?

<sup>n</sup> And Moses said unto Korah: Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi! <sup>o</sup> Seemeth it but <sup>p</sup> a small thing to you that the God of Israel hath <sup>q</sup> separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them? <sup>r</sup> And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee. And seek ye the priesthood also? <sup>s</sup> For which cause both thou and all thy company are <sup>t</sup> gathered together against the LORD. <sup>u</sup> And what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

<sup>v</sup> And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; and they said: We will not come up. <sup>w</sup> Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou <sup>x</sup> make thyself altogether a prince over us? <sup>y</sup> Moreover thou hast not brought us into <sup>z</sup> a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up.

36 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: 37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning; and scatter thou the fire yonder; for they are hallowed. 38 The censers of these n sinners against their own souls, let them be made broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed; and o they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel.

39 And Eleazar the priest took the brazen censers wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar; 40 to be a memorial unto the children of Israel, p that no stranger who is not of the seed of Aaron come near to offer incense before the LORD; that he be not as Korah, and as his company; as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 BUT on the morrow a all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying: Ye have killed the people of the LORD.

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tent of meeting, and behold, b the clond covered it, and c the glory of the LORD appeared. 43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tent of meeting.

44 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: 45 Get d yon up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And e they fell upon their faces.

46 And Moses said unto Aaron: Take the censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and f put on incense, and go quickly to the congregation, and make an atone*ment* for them; for g there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun. 47 And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and behold, the plague was begun among the people; and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people; 48 and he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed.

49 Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides those that died about the matter of Korah.

50 And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the door of the tent of meeting; and the plague was stayed.

17. AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take from every one of them a rod according to the house of their fathers, from all their princes according to the house of their fathers twelve rods. Write thou every man's name upon his rod; 3 and thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi; for one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers. 4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tent of meeting, before the testimony, a where I will meet with you. 5 And it shall come to pass that the man's rod b whom I shall choose shall blossom. And I will make to cease from me c the murmurings of the children of Israel, whereby they murmur against you.

6 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel; and every one of their princes gave him a rod apiece; for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods; and the rod of Aaron was among their rods. 7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD, in d the tent of the testimony.

8 And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tent of the testimony; and behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds and bloomed blossoms and yielded almonds. 9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the children of Israel; and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 And the LORD said unto Moses: Bring e Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept f for a token against the rebels; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not. 11 And Moses did so; as the LORD commanded him, so did he.

18. And the LORD said unto Aaron: Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall <sup>b</sup>bear the iniquity of the sanctuary; and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD spake unto Aaron: Behold, <sup>l</sup>I also have given thee the charge of my heave-offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them <sup>m</sup>by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever. <sup>9</sup>This shall be thine of the most holy things reserved from the fire: every oblation of theirs, every <sup>n</sup>meal-offering of theirs, and every <sup>o</sup>sin-offering of theirs, and every <sup>p</sup>trespass-offering of theirs, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons. <sup>10</sup>In <sup>q</sup>the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it; it shall be holy unto thee. <sup>11</sup>And this is thine: <sup>r</sup>the heave-offering of their gift, with all the wave-offerings of the children of Israel; I have given them unto <sup>s</sup>thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever; <sup>t</sup>every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. <sup>12</sup>All <sup>u</sup>the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine and of the wheat, the first-fruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee. <sup>13</sup>And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, <sup>x</sup>which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. <sup>14</sup>Every <sup>y</sup>thing devoted in Israel shall be thine. <sup>15</sup>Every <sup>z</sup>thing that openeth the womb in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine. Nevertheless <sup>a</sup>the first-born of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem. <sup>16</sup>And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem <sup>b</sup>according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, <sup>c</sup>after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs. <sup>17</sup>But <sup>d</sup>the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy. <sup>e</sup>Thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the <sup>f</sup>wave-breast and as the right shoulder are thine. <sup>19</sup>All the heave-offerings of the holy things which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given to thee, and to thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever. <sup>20</sup>It is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD to thee and to thy seed with thee.

19. AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying: <sup>2</sup> This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer, without spot, wherein is no blemish, and <sup>a</sup>upon which never came yoke. <sup>3</sup> And ye shall give her to Eleazar the priest, that he may <sup>b</sup>bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face. <sup>4</sup> And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and <sup>c</sup>sprinkle of her blood directly before the tent of meeting seven times. <sup>5</sup> And one shall burn the heifer in his sight; <sup>d</sup>her skin and her flesh and her blood, with her dung, shall be burn; <sup>e</sup>and the priest shall take <sup>f</sup>cedar wood and hyssop and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

separation; it is a purification for sin. <sup>10</sup> And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening. And it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

<sup>11</sup> He <sup>i</sup>that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. <sup>12</sup> He <sup>k</sup>shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean; but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean. <sup>13</sup> Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, <sup>l</sup>defileth the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel; because <sup>m</sup>the Water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; <sup>n</sup>his uncleanness is yet upon him.

<sup>14</sup> This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent; all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days. <sup>15</sup> And every open vessel which hath no covering bound upon it is unclean.

<sup>16</sup> And whosoever in the open field <sup>o</sup>toucheth one that is slain with a sword, or a dead body or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days. <sup>17</sup> And for the unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel. <sup>18</sup> And a clean person shall take <sup>p</sup>hyssop and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched the bone, or the one slain, or the dead body, or the grave; <sup>19</sup> and the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day; and <sup>q</sup>on the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at evening. <sup>20</sup> But <sup>r</sup>the man that shall be unclean and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he hath defiled the sanctuary of the LORD; the Water of separation hath not been sprinkled upon him; he is unclean. <sup>21</sup> And it shall be a perpetual statute unto them, that he that sprinkleth the water of separation shall wash his clothes; and he that toucheth the Water of separation shall be unclean until the evening; <sup>22</sup> and <sup>s</sup>whatsoever the unclean person toucheth shall be unclean; and <sup>t</sup>the soul that toucheth it shall be unclean until the evening.

Encampment at Kadesh a second time, at the beginning of the fortieth year—(2) Murmuring of the people for water; its miraculous supply from a rock; (12) God's displeasure with Moses and Aaron.

20. THEN came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into <sup>a</sup> the desert of Zin, in the first month; and the people abode in Kadesh. And <sup>b</sup> Miriam died there, and was buried there.

Thus saith <sup>b</sup> thy brother Israel: Thou knowest all the travail that hath befallen us; <sup>15</sup> how our fathers went down into Egypt, and <sup>c</sup> we have dwelt in Egypt a long time; and <sup>d</sup> the Egyptians vexed us and our fathers: <sup>16</sup> and <sup>e</sup> when we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and <sup>f</sup> sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt; and behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border. <sup>17</sup> Let <sup>g</sup> us pass, I pray thee, through thy country. We will not pass through the fields or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells; we will go by the king's high-way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left until we have passed thy borders.

<sup>18</sup> And Edom said unto him: Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

<sup>19</sup> And the children of Israel said unto him: We will go by the high-way; and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, <sup>h</sup> then I will pay for it: I will only, without doing any thing else, go through on my feet.

Victory over the Canaanitish king of Arad.

21. AND <sup>a</sup> the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who dwelt in the South, heard tell that Israel came <sup>b</sup> by the way of the Spies*; and he fought against Israel, and took some of them prisoners.

2 AND <sup>c</sup> Israel vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said: If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities. 3 And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities. And he called the name of the place Hormah.

The people complaining are visited with fiery serpents—(7) On their confession of sin and prayer, (9) God commands a brazen serpent to be set up, and all who look at it are healed.

4 AND <sup>a</sup> they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to compass the land of Edom. And the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way; <sup>b</sup> and the people <sup>b</sup> spake against God and against Moses: <sup>c</sup> Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, neither is there any water; and <sup>d</sup> our soul loatheth this light bread.

6 AND <sup>e</sup> the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died.

7 Therefore <sup>f</sup> the people came to Moses, and said: We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against thee. <sup>g</sup> Pray unto the LORD that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people.

8 AND the LORD said unto Moses: Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole; and it shall come to pass that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live. 9 AND <sup>h</sup> Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

Passage of the Israelites along the frontier of Moab; (21) conquest of the kingdoms of Heshbon and Bashan.

14 Wherefore it is said in the Book of the wars of the LORD:

15 Vaheb in <sup>e</sup> Suphah, And the brooks of Arnon, And the stream of the brooks, That goeth down to the dwelling of <sup>f</sup> Ar, And <sup>g</sup> lieth upon the border of Moab.

16 And from thence they went <sup>h</sup> to Beer [i. e. the Well]: that is the well whereof the LORD said unto Moses: Gather the people together, and <sup>i</sup> I will give them water. 17 Then Israel sang this song:—

Spring up, O well! Sing ye unto it!

18 The princes digged the well, The nobles of the people digged it, By the direction of the lawgiver, with their staves.

And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah; <sup>i</sup> and from Mattanah to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bamoth; <sup>j</sup> and from Bamoth in the valley that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgab, which looketh <sup>k</sup> toward the desert.

21 AND <sup>l</sup> Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying: <sup>m</sup> Let me pass through thy land. We will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's high-way, until we be past thy borders.

23 AND Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness. And <sup>n</sup> he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel. 24 AND <sup>o</sup> Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon; for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 AND Israel took all these cities; and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon and in all the villages thereof. 26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon. 27 Wherefore they that speak in songs say:

Come ye to Heshbon, Let the city of Sihon be built and established;

28 For there is <sup>p</sup> a fire gone out of Heshbon, A flame from the city of Sihon; It hath consumed <sup>q</sup> Ar of Moab, The lords of the high places of Arnon.

 Now will this company lick up all that are

And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time. <sup>5</sup>He sent messengers therefore unto <sup>f</sup>Balaam the son of Beor, to <sup>g</sup>Pethor, which is by the river, in the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying: Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt; behold, <sup>h</sup>they cover thee, <sup>i</sup>curse me this people; for they are prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land. For I know that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed.

<sup>j</sup>1 Sam. 9. 7; Mic. 3. 11; Jude 11. <sup>7</sup>And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed, with <sup>k</sup>the rewards of to Balaam, and spake to him the words of Balak. <sup>8</sup>And he said to them: <sup>i</sup>Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak to me. And the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

 What men are these with thee? <sup>10</sup>And Balaam said unto God: Balak the son saying, <sup>11</sup>Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt which covereth the face of the and said to the princes of Balak: Get you give me leave to go with you. <sup>14</sup>And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went to Balak, and said: Balaam refuseth to come more, and more honourable than they.

 him: Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming to me; <sup>17</sup>for I will promote thee to very great honour, and I will do whatsoever

<sup>13</sup> And Balak said to him: Come, I pray thee, with me to another place, from whence thou mayest see them; thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all; and curse me them from thence.

<sup>14</sup> And he brought him into the field of Zophim,* to the top of Pisgah; and he built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar. <sup>15</sup> And he said to Balak: Stand here by thy burnt-offering, while I meet the Lord yonder.

<sup>16</sup> And the Lord met Balaam, and *put a word in his mouth, and said: Go again to Balak, and say thus. <sup>17</sup> And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt-offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him: What hath the Lord spoken? <sup>18</sup> And he took up his parable, and said:

Rise up, Balak, and hear!

Hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor!

<sup>19</sup> God <sup>t</sup> is not a man, that he should lie, Neither the son of man, that he should repent:

Hath he said, and shall he not do it?

Or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

<sup>20</sup> Behold, I have received commandment to bless;

And * he hath blessed; and <sup>x</sup> I cannot reverse it.

Neither is there any divination in <sup>t</sup> Israel: At this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel,

And lift up himself as a young lion:

He shall not lie down until he eat <sup>g</sup> of the prey.

And drink the blood of the slain.

<sup>26</sup> But Balaam answered and said to Balak: Told not I thee, saying, <sup>h</sup> All that the Lord speaketh, that I must do?

Balaam's prophecies continued — He foretells Israel's future greatness and glory, and the destruction of their enemies.

<sup>27</sup> AND Balak said to Balaam: Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee to another place; peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from thence.

<sup>29</sup> And Balaam said to Balak: Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams. <sup>30</sup> And Balak did as Balaam had said; and he offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

<sup>24</sup>. And when Balaam saw that it pleased the Lord to bless Israel, he went not, as at <sup>b</sup> other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness. <sup>2</sup> And Balaam lifted up his eyes and he saw Israel <sup>c</sup> abiding in his tents according to their tribes. And <sup>d</sup> the Spirit of God came upon him; <sup>3</sup> and he took up his parable and said:—

Balaam the son of Beor hath said, And the man whose eyes were closed hath said:

As the lign-aloes <sup>f</sup> which the Lord hath planted,

As cedar trees <sup>g</sup> beside the waters.

And his seed shall be in many waters;

He hath as it were the strength of a buffalo.

Blessed <sup>o</sup> is he that blesseth thee, And cursed is he that curseth thee.

<sup>10</sup> And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he <sup>p</sup> smote his hands together. give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the LORD to do either good or bad of mine own mind; but what the LORD saith that will I speak? <sup>14</sup> And now behold, I go unto my people. Come therefore, and I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days. <sup>15</sup> And he took up his parable, and said:—

Balaam the son of Beor hath said,
And the man <sup>t</sup> whose eyes were closed hath said:

<sup>16</sup> He hath said who heard the words of God,

And knew the knowledge of <sup>u</sup> the Most High,

Who saw the vision of the Almighty,
Falling to the ground, and having his eyes opened:

<sup>17</sup> I see it, but not now,
I behold it, but not nigh.

There shall come <sup>z</sup> a Star out of Jacob,
And <sup>v</sup> a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel;

And Seir shall be a possession for his enemies;

And Israel shall do valiantly.

And shall destroy the remnant from the city.

Amalek was the beginning of nations,
<sup>c</sup> But his latter end shall be that he perish for ever.

Strong is thy dwelling-place,
And thou puttest thy nest in a rock.

Until Asshur shall carry thee away captive.

<sup>23</sup> And he took up his parable and said:
Alas, who shall live when God doeth this?

And shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict <sup>f</sup> Eber,

And he also shall perish for ever.

<sup>25</sup> And Balaam rose up and went and returned to his place; and Balak also went his way.

The idolatry and licentiousness of the Israelites, and their punishment.

25. AND Israel abode in <sup>g</sup> Shittim; and

And <sup>d</sup> the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel. <sup>4</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses: Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, <sup>e</sup> that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel. <sup>5</sup> And Moses said unto the judges of Israel: Slay <sup>f</sup> every one his men that were joined to Baal-peor.

<sup>10</sup> And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>11</sup> Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, in that he was zealous for my sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Israel in <sup>m</sup> my jealousy. <sup>12</sup> Wherefore say: <sup>n</sup> Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace; <sup>13</sup> and he shall have it, and his seed after him, <sup>o</sup> even the covenant of <sup>p</sup> an everlasting priesthood; because he was <sup>q</sup> zealous for his God, and <sup>r</sup> made an atonement for the children of Israel.

bered of the Levites after their families: Of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites. <sup>58</sup> These are the families of the Levites: The family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korathites. And Kohath begat Amram. <sup>59</sup> And the name of Amram's wife was <sup>s</sup> Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bare to Levi in Egypt; and she bare to Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. <sup>60</sup> And <sup>t</sup> unto Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>61</sup> And <sup>u</sup> Nadab and Abihu died when they offered strange fire before the LORD. <sup>62</sup> And <sup>v</sup> those that were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand, all males from a month old and upward. For <sup>w</sup> they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was <sup>x</sup> no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

27. THEN came the daughters of <sup>a</sup> Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh, the son of Joseph; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah and Hoglah and Milcah and Tirzah. <sup>2</sup> And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, at the door of the tent of meeting, saying: <sup>3</sup> Our father <sup>b</sup> died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of them that gathered themselves together against the LORD <sup>c</sup> in the company of Korah; <sup>d</sup> but he died in his own sin, and he had no sons. <sup>4</sup> Why should the name of our father be done away from among his family, because he hath no son? <sup>e</sup> Give unto us therefore a possession among the brethren of our father.

the LORD. <sup>6</sup> And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying: <sup>7</sup> The daughters of Zelophehad speak right; <sup>8</sup> thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them. <sup>8</sup> And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying: If a man die and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter. <sup>9</sup> And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance to his brethren. <sup>10</sup> And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance to his father's brethren. <sup>11</sup> And if his father have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance to his <sup>k</sup> kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it. And it shall be unto the children of Israel <sup>i</sup> a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

manded him: and he took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; <sup>23</sup> and he laid his hands upon him, and <sup>7</sup> gave him a charge, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

<sup>3</sup> And thou shalt say to them: <sup>c</sup> This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot day by day, for a continual burnt-offering. <sup>4</sup> The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning and the other lamb shalt thou offer in the evening; <sup>5</sup> and <sup>d</sup> a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a meal-offering, mingled with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil. <sup>6</sup> It is <sup>e</sup> a continual burnt-offering, which was ordained * at mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD. <sup>7</sup> And its drink-offering shall be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb. <sup>9</sup> And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth parts of flour for a meal-offering, mingled with oil, and the drink-offering thereof. <sup>10</sup> This is <sup>g</sup> the burnt-offering of every sabbath, beside the continual burnt-offering and the drink-offering thereof.

<sup>3</sup> And Moses spake unto the people, saying: Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of Midian. <sup>4</sup> Of every tribe <sup>c</sup> a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

<sup>5</sup> So there were set apart out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. <sup>6</sup> And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and <sup>d</sup> the trumpets to blow in his hand.

<sup>14</sup> And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, who came from the battle. <sup>15</sup> And Moses said unto them: Have ye saved all the women alive? <sup>16</sup> Behold, <sup>k</sup> these caused the children of Israel, through the <sup>l</sup> counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor; and <sup>m</sup> there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore <sup>n</sup> kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him. <sup>18</sup> But all the women-children that have not known man by lying with him, <sup>o</sup> keep alive for yourselves. <sup>19</sup> And <sup>p</sup> do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and <sup>q</sup> whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives, on the third day and on the seventh day. <sup>20</sup> And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

<sup>32</sup> And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had taken was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep, <sup>33</sup> and threescore and twelve thousand beeves, <sup>34</sup> and threescore and one thousand asses, <sup>35</sup> and thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him.

<sup>36</sup> And the half which was the portion of them that went out to war was in number three hundred thousand and seven-and-thirty thousand and five hundred sheep; <sup>37</sup> and the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen. <sup>38</sup> And the beeves were thirty-and-six thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and twelve. <sup>39</sup> And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and one. <sup>40</sup> And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was thirty and two persons. <sup>41</sup> And Moses gave the tribute, which was the LORD's heave-offering, unto Eleazar the priest; <sup>b</sup> as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>48</sup> And the officers who were over the thousands of the host, the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, came near to Moses; <sup>49</sup> and they said to Moses: Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war who are under our charge, and there lacketh not one man of us; <sup>50</sup> we have therefore brought an oblation for the LORD, what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains and bracelets, rings, earrings and tablets, <sup>d</sup> to make an atonement for our souls before the LORD.

32. NOW the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle; and when they saw the land of <sup>a</sup> Jazer and the land of Gilead, that behold, the place was a place for cattle, <sup>2</sup> the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spake to Moses and to Eleazar the priest, and to the princes of the congregation, saying: <sup>3</sup> Ataroth and Dibon and Jazer and <sup>b</sup> Nimrah and Heshbon and Elealeh and <sup>c</sup> Shebam and Nebo and <sup>d</sup> Beon, <sup>4</sup> even the country <sup>e</sup> which the LORD hath smitten before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle. <sup>5</sup> Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given to thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over the Jordan.

<sup>16</sup> And they came near to him, and said: We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones; <sup>17</sup> but <sup>n</sup> we ourselves will go ready armed before the children of Israel until we have brought them unto their place; and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities, because of the inhabitants of the land. <sup>18</sup> We <sup>o</sup> will not return to our houses until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance. <sup>19</sup> For we will not inherit with them on yonder side the Jordan, or forward; because <sup>p</sup> our inheritance is fallen to us on this side the Jordan eastward.

<sup>32</sup> And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying: As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so will we do. <sup>33</sup> We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side the Jordan may be ours.

who shall divide the land unto you: <sup>p</sup>Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>18</sup>And ye shall take one <sup>q</sup>prince of every tribe, to divide the land for inheritance. <sup>19</sup>And the names of the men are these: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. <sup>20</sup>And of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud. <sup>21</sup>Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon. <sup>22</sup>And the prince of the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli. <sup>23</sup>The prince of the children of Joseph, for the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod. <sup>24</sup>And the prince of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan. <sup>25</sup>And the prince of the tribe of the children of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach. <sup>26</sup>And the prince of the tribe of the children of Issachar, Paltiel the son of Azzan. <sup>27</sup>And the prince of the tribe of the children of Asher, Ahihud the son of Shelomi. <sup>28</sup>And the prince of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.

The Levitical cities, and (6) Cities of refuge; (16) Laws respecting the punishment of murder; and the distinction between murder and manslaughter.

35. AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho, saying: <sup>2</sup>Command <sup>a</sup>the children of Israel that they give to the Levites out of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in; and ye shall give also to the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them. <sup>3</sup>And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and the suburbs of them shall be for their cattle and for their goods and for all their beasts. <sup>4</sup>And the suburbs of the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall reach from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits round about. <sup>5</sup>And ye shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the midst; this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.

THE FIFTH BOOK OF MOSES,

DEUTERONOMY.

Introduction, connecting this book with the preceding—(3) The time and place of the following addresses by Moses to the people—(6) The first address, beginning with a review of the Divine leading of Israel from Sinai to the border of the Promised Land.

<sup>3</sup> And it came to pass <sup>c</sup> in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according to all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them; <sup>d</sup> after <sup>d</sup> he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who dwelt at Astaroth <sup>e</sup> in Edrei. <sup>5</sup> Beyond the Jordan in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying:

Recital of the march round Edom, and along the borders of Moab, and Ammon; (24) conquest of the kingdoms of Heshbon, and (ch. 3. 1) Bashan; (12) division of the conquered countries; (22) Moses' exhortation to Joshua thereupon; (23) his prayer to be permitted to enter Canaan, and (26) the Lord's answer.

2, THEN we turned and took our journey into the wilderness, by the way of the Red Sea, <sup>a</sup>as the LORD spake unto me. And we compassed mount Seir many days.

were wasted out from among the host, <sup>x</sup>as the LORD sware unto them. <sup>15</sup>For indeed <sup>y</sup>the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed.

<sup>3</sup> Then we turned and went up the way to Bashan. And <sup>y</sup> Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. <sup>2</sup> And the LORD said unto me: Fear him not; for I will deliver him and all his people and his land into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto <sup>z</sup> Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.

<sup>3</sup> So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people; and <sup>a</sup> we smote him until none was left to him remaining. <sup>4</sup> And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them: threescore cities, <sup>b</sup> all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. <sup>5</sup> All these cities were <sup>c</sup> fenced with high walls, gates and bars; beside unvalled towns a great many. <sup>6</sup> And <sup>d</sup> we utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women and children of every city. <sup>7</sup> But all the cattle and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.

bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in <sup>h</sup> Rabbath of the children of Ammon? Nine cubits was its length, and four cubits its breadth, after the cubit of a man.)

<sup>21</sup> And I commanded Joshua at that time saying: Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings; <sup>y</sup> so will the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest. <sup>22</sup> Ye shall not fear them, for <sup>z</sup> the LORD your God he will fight for you.

your sakes, and would not hear me and the LORD said unto me : Let it suffice thee ; speak no more unto me of this matter. <sup>c</sup> 27 Get <sup>a</sup> thee up unto the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward and northward and southward and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes ; for thou shalt not go over this Jordan. <sup>f</sup> 28 But <sup>a</sup> I charge Joshua, and encourage him and strengthen him ; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.

<sup>c</sup> 3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of <sup>c</sup> Baal-peor : for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you. <sup>d</sup> 4 But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day.

<sup>e</sup> 5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me ; that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it. <sup>f</sup> 6 Keep therefore and do them ; for <sup>d</sup> this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, who will hear all these statutes, and will say : Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people. <sup>g</sup> 7 For <sup>e</sup> what great nation is there that hath <sup>f</sup> God so high unto them as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for ? <sup>h</sup> 8 And what great nation is there that hath <sup>g</sup> statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law which I set before you this day ?

they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. <sup>l</sup> 11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain ; and <sup>m</sup> the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds and thick darkness. <sup>n</sup> 12 And <sup>n</sup> the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire ; ye heard the voice of the words, but ye saw no form ; <sup>o</sup> only ye heard a voice. <sup>p</sup> 13 And <sup>p</sup> he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even <sup>q</sup> Ten Commandments ; and <sup>r</sup> he wrote them upon two tables of stone. <sup>s</sup> 14 And <sup>s</sup> the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments ; that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

yourselves, and make a graven image or the likeness of any thing, and <sup>k</sup> shall do evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger, <sup>26</sup> I <sup>l</sup> call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land wherunto ye go over the Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed. <sup>27</sup> And the LORD <sup>m</sup> will scatter you among the peoples; and ye shall be left few in number among the nations, whither the LORD shall lead you. <sup>28</sup> And <sup>n</sup> there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, <sup>o</sup> which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

<sup>32</sup> For <sup>v</sup> ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been heard like it? <sup>33</sup> Did <sup>w</sup> ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live? <sup>34</sup> Or hath God assayed to go and <sup>z</sup> take him a nation from the midst of another nation, <sup>a</sup> by trials, <sup>b</sup> by signs and by wonders, and by war, and <sup>c</sup> by a mighty hand and by a stretched-out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

it in thy heart, that <sup>i</sup> the LORD he is God in heaven above and upon the earth beneath; there is none else. <sup>40</sup> Thou shalt therefore keep his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee this day, <sup>k</sup> that it may go well with thee and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest <sup>l</sup> prolong thy days upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.

Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep and do them. <sup>2</sup> The <sup>g</sup> LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. <sup>3</sup> The LORD <sup>h</sup> made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us who are all of us here alive this day. <sup>4</sup> The <sup>i</sup> LORD talked with you face to face in the mountain out of the midst of the fire, <sup>5</sup> (<sup>k</sup> I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to show you the word of the LORD; for <sup>l</sup> ye were afraid

<sup>25</sup> Thus I fell down before the LORD the forty days and the forty nights which I fell down, because the LORD had said he would destroy you. <sup>26</sup> I <sup>m</sup> prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said: O Lord JEHOVAH, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed by thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>27</sup> Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin; <sup>28</sup> lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say: <sup>n</sup> Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he brought them out to slay them in the wilderness. <sup>29</sup> Yet <sup>o</sup> they are thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power and by thy stretched-out arm.

<sup>10.</sup> At that time the LORD said unto me: <sup>a</sup> Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mountain, and <sup>b</sup> make thee an ark of wood; <sup>2</sup> and I will write on the tables the words that were on the first tables which thou brakest, and <sup>c</sup> thou shalt put them into the ark. <sup>3</sup> And I made an ark of <sup>d</sup> acacia wood; and I <sup>e</sup> hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and I went up into the mountain, having the two tables in my hand. <sup>4</sup> And <sup>f</sup> He wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, <sup>g</sup> the Ten Commandments, which the LORD spake unto you in the mountain, out of the midst of the fire, <sup>h</sup> on the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them unto me. <sup>5</sup> And I turned myself and came down from the mountain; and I <sup>i</sup> put the tables into the ark which I had made; and <sup>k</sup> there they are, as the LORD commanded me.

<sup>12</sup> AND now, O Israel, <sup>a</sup> what doth the LORD thy God require of thee but <sup>b</sup> to fear the LORD thy God, to walk in all his ways, and <sup>c</sup> to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, <sup>13</sup> to keep the commandments of the LORD and his statutes, which I command thee this day; for thy good? <sup>14</sup> Behold, <sup>d</sup> the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the LORD's thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is. <sup>15</sup> Only <sup>e</sup> the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all the peoples, as it is this day. <sup>16</sup> Circumcise <sup>f</sup> therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked. <sup>17</sup> For the LORD your God is <sup>g</sup> God of gods and <sup>h</sup> Lord of lords, the great God, the mighty and the terrible, who <sup>i</sup> regardeth not persons nor taketh reward. <sup>18</sup> He <sup>j</sup> executeth the judgment of the fatherless and widow, <sup>29</sup> And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God hath brought thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put <sup>o</sup> the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Ebal. <sup>30</sup> Are they not on the other side of the Jordan, by the way where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the plain over against Gilgal, beside <sup>p</sup> the oaks of Moreh?

<sup>31</sup> For <sup>q</sup> ye shall pass over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein. <sup>32</sup> And ye shall observe <sup>r</sup> to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

Repetition and exposition of some laws and regulations to be observed in Canaan; beginning with (2) the destruction of idolatry, and (5) the worship of God, at the appointed place, and in the prescribed manner; and (15) permission to slay animals for food in any place.

God giveth you to inherit, and when he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety, <sup>11</sup> then there shall be <sup>m</sup> a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there. Thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt-offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and the heave-offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD. <sup>12</sup> And ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye and your sons and your daughters, and your men-servants and your maid-servants, and the Levite that <sup>n</sup> is within your gates, forasmuch as <sup>o</sup> he hath no portion or inheritance with you.

14 WHEN thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, <sup>a</sup> I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me; <sup>b</sup> thou shalt surely set him king over thee whom the LORD thy God shall choose; <sup>c</sup> one <sup>c</sup> from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee; thou mayest not set a stranger over thee who is not thy brother.

15 But he shall not multiply <sup>d</sup> horses to himself, nor cause the people <sup>e</sup> to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses; forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you: <sup>f</sup> Ye shall henceforth return no more that way. 17 Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that <sup>g</sup> his heart turn not away. Neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

18 And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book, out of <sup>h</sup> that which is before the priests the Levites; <sup>i</sup> and <sup>j</sup> it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life; <sup>k</sup> that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them; <sup>l</sup> that his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he <sup>m</sup> turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand or to the left; to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children, in the midst of Israel.

18. THE priests the Levites and all the tribe of Levi <sup>a</sup> shall have no portion or inheritance with Israel; they <sup>b</sup> shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance. 2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren; the LORD is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

3 And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and <sup>c</sup> they shall give to the priest the shoulder and the two cheeks and the maw. 4 The <sup>d</sup> firstfruit also of thy corn, of thy wine and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep shalt thou give him. 5 For <sup>e</sup> the LORD thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, <sup>f</sup> to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

6 And if a Levite come from <sup>g</sup> any of thy gates out of all Israel, where he sojournd, and come with all the desire of his mind <sup>h</sup> to the place which the LORD shall choose; <sup>i</sup> then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, <sup>j</sup> as all his brethren the Levites do who stand there before the LORD; <sup>k</sup> they shall have like portions to eat, besides that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

Prohibitions of divination and witchcraft—(15) Promise of a prophet like unto Moses—(21) How false prophets may be known.

9 WHEN thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, <sup>a</sup> thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. 10 There shall not be found among you <sup>b</sup> any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or <sup>c</sup> a witch, <sup>d</sup> or a charmer, or a consulter with <sup>e</sup> familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. 12 For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD; and <sup>f</sup> because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee. 13 Thou shalt be perfect with the LORD thy God. 14 For these nations which thou shalt possess hearkened unto observers of times and unto diviners; but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath not suffered thee so to do.

15 The <sup>g</sup> LORD thy God will raise up unto thee a prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken. 16 According to all that thou desiredst of the LORD thy God in Horeb on the day of the assembly saying, <sup>h</sup> Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not; <sup>i</sup> and the LORD said unto me, They have well spoken that which they have spoken; <sup>j</sup> I will raise them up a prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and <sup>k</sup> will put my words in his mouth; and <sup>l</sup> he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him. 19 And <sup>m</sup> it shall come to pass that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him.

20 But <sup>n</sup> the prophet who shall presume to speak a word in my name which I have not commanded him to speak, or who shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

21 And if thou say in thy heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken? 22 When <sup>o</sup> a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, with longing for them all the day long; and there shall be no might in thy hand.

show favour to the young; <sup>51</sup> and he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed; which also shall not leave thee either corn, wine or oil, or the increase of thy kine or the breeding of thy flocks, until he have destroyed thee. <sup>52</sup> And he shall <sup>o</sup>besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls wherein thou trustedst come down, throughout all thy land; and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

29. THESE are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides <sup>a</sup> the covenant which he made with them at Horeb.

<sup>7</sup> And when ye came to this place, <sup>f</sup> Sihon the king of Heshbon and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us to battle: and we smote them; <sup>8</sup> and we took their land, and <sup>g</sup> gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to the half tribe of Manasseh.

nant, and do them; that ye may prosper in all that ye do.

<sup>22</sup> So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, will say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD hath laid upon it; <sup>23</sup> and that the whole land thereof is <sup>u</sup> brimstone <sup>v</sup> and salt and burning; that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein; <sup>24</sup> ye like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, <sup>25</sup> Admah and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in his anger and in his

cometh to appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose,

<sup>u</sup> thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing. <sup>12</sup> Gather <sup>v</sup> the people together, men and women and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law;

<sup>13</sup> and that <sup>w</sup> their children who have not known any thing <sup>x</sup> may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over the Jordan to possess it.

Joshua receives his charge of office in the Tabernacle. (16) The future apostasy of the nation is revealed to Moses; and (19) he is directed to write a Song, testifying of God's mercies to his people, and foretelling their defection and its sad consequences.

<sup>14</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses: <sup>a</sup> Behold, thy days approach that thou must die; call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, that <sup>b</sup> I may give him a charge.

And Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tent of meeting. <sup>15</sup> And <sup>c</sup> the LORD appeared in the tent in a pillar of a cloud; and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tent.

<sup>24</sup> And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, <sup>25</sup> that Moses commanded the Levites who bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying: <sup>26</sup> Take this book of the law, and <sup>q</sup> put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God; that it may be there for a witness against thee. <sup>27</sup> For I know thy rebellion and thy <sup>r</sup> stiff neck. Behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death!

 28 Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and <sup>a</sup> call heaven and earth to witness against them. 29 For I know that after my death <sup>t</sup> ye will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and <sup>u</sup> evil shall befall you <sup>z</sup> in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

Moses' prophetic Song.—He contrasts the faithfulness of God with the faithlessness of Israel; and (19) foretells God's chastisement of his people, and (34) punishment of his enemies; and (45) Israel's future union with the Gentiles in His service.

30 AND Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended.

32. Give <sup>a</sup> ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak,

And hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.
 2 My doctrine <sup>b</sup> shall drop as the rain,

My speech shall distil as the dew,
 As <sup>c</sup> the small rain upon the tender herb,

And as the showers upon the grass:
 3 Because I will publish <sup>d</sup> the name of the LORD.

Ascribe <sup>e</sup> ye greatness unto our God.
 4 He is <sup>f</sup> the Rock, <sup>g</sup> his work is perfect;

For <sup>h</sup> all his ways are judgment:
 A God of truth and <sup>i</sup> without iniquity,

Just and right is he.
 5 They have dealt corruptly with him,

They are not his children, but their blot:
 A <sup>k</sup> perverse and crooked generation.

6 Do ye thus requite the LORD?
 O foolish people and unwise!

Is not he <sup>l</sup> thy father, that hath <sup>m</sup> bought thee?

Hath he not <sup>n</sup> made thee, and established thee?

7 Remember <sup>o</sup> the days of old,
 Consider the years of many generations:

Ask <sup>p</sup> thy father, and he will show thee;
 Thy elders, and they will tell thee.

8 When the Most High <sup>q</sup> divided to the nations their inheritance,

When he <sup>r</sup> separated the sons of Adam,
 He set the bounds of the peoples

According to the number of the children of Israel.

9 For <sup>s</sup> the LORD's portion is his people,
 Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

10 He found him <sup>t</sup> in a desert land,
 And in the waste howling wilderness;

He led him about, he instructed him,
 He <sup>u</sup> kept him as the apple of his eye.

11 As <sup>z</sup> an eagle stirreth up her nest, Fluttereth over her young,

Spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them,
 Beareth them on her wings;

12 So <sup>v</sup> the LORD alone did lead him,
 And <sup>z</sup> there was no strange god with him.

13 He <sup>a</sup> made him ride on the high places of the earth,

That he might eat the increase of the fields;
 And he made him to suck <sup>b</sup> honey out of the rock,

And <sup>c</sup> oil out of the flinty rock;
 14 Butter of kine and milk of sheep,

With the fat of lambs,
 And rams of the breed of <sup>d</sup> Bashan, and goats,

With <sup>e</sup> the fat of kidneys of wheat;

15 But <sup>g</sup> Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked:
 Thou <sup>h</sup> art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness.

 Then he <sup>i</sup> forsook God who made him,

And lightly esteemed the <sup>k</sup> Rock of his salvation.

16 They <sup>l</sup> provoked him to jealousy with strange gods,

With abominations provoked they him to anger.

17 They <sup>m</sup> sacrificed unto devils, not to God;

To gods whom they knew not,
 To new gods that came newly up,

Whom your fathers feared not.
 18 Of <sup>n</sup> the Rock that begat thee thou art unmindful,

And hast <sup>o</sup> forgotten God who formed thee.

19 And <sup>p</sup> when the LORD saw it, he abhorred them, Because <sup>q</sup> of the provocation of his sons and of his daughters.

20 And he said: <sup>r</sup> I will hide my face from them,

I will see what their end will be;
 For they are a very froward generation,

Children <sup>s</sup> in whom is no faith.

21 They <sup>t</sup> have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God,

They <sup>u</sup> have provoked me to anger with <sup>z</sup> their vanities;

And <sup>v</sup> I will move them to jealousy with those who are not a people,

I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 For <sup>a</sup> a fire is kindled in mine anger,
 And it shall burn unto the lowest hell;<sup>a</sup>

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA.

Preparations for the conquest of Canaan—(1) God's command and promise to Joshua; Joshua's commands (10) to the leaders of the people, and (12) to the two tribes and a half settled East of the Jordan.

1. NOW after the death of Moses, the servant of the LORD, it came to pass that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' <sup>a</sup> minister, saying:

As I was with Moses, so <sup>h</sup> I will be with thee; <sup>i</sup> I will not fail thee nor forsake thee.

For the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

For the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

For the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

<sup>12</sup> And to the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to half the tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying: <sup>13</sup> Remember <sup>u</sup> the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying: The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land. <sup>14</sup> Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side of the Jordan; but ye shall pass over before your brethren <sup>v</sup> in battle array, all the mighty men of valour, and help them, <sup>15</sup> until <sup>w</sup> the LORD have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them. <sup>16</sup> Then ye shall return unto <sup>x</sup> the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD's servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sunrise.

And they went, and <sup>a</sup> came into a harlot's house, named <sup>b</sup> Rahab, and lodged there. <sup>2</sup> And it was told the king of Jericho, saying: Behold, there came men in hither to-night of the children of Israel to search out the country. <sup>3</sup> And the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying: Bring forth the men that are come to thee, who are entered into thy house; for they are come to search out all the country.

<sup>5</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>6</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>7</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>8</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>9</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>10</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>11</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>12</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>13</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>14</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>15</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>16</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>17</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>18</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>19</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>20</sup> And she said: As ye see, I have hid them from the king's messengers: for they came to me, and I hid them from the king's messengers.

<sup>4</sup> And <sup>a</sup> the woman took the two men and hid them, and said thus: There came men unto me, but I knew not whence they were; <sup>5</sup> and it came to pass at the shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out; whither the men went I know not. Pursue after them quickly, for ye shall overtake them. <sup>6</sup> But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hidden them with stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof. <sup>7</sup> And the men pursued after them on the way to the Jordan, unto the fords. And as soon as they who pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.

<sup>8</sup> And before they were laid down she came up to them upon the roof; <sup>9</sup> and she said to the men: I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that <sup>e</sup> your terror is fallen upon us, and that <sup>f</sup> all the inhabitants of the land <sup>g</sup> faint because of you. <sup>10</sup> For we have heard how the LORD <sup>h</sup> dried up the water of the Red Sea before you, when ye came out of Egypt; and <sup>i</sup> what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that <sup>j</sup> were on the other side of the Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed. <sup>11</sup> And <sup>k</sup> when we <sup>l</sup> heard these things <sup>m</sup> our heart melted, and there remained no more courage in any man, because of you. For <sup>n</sup> the LORD your God, he <sup>o</sup> is God in heaven above and in earth beneath. <sup>12</sup> Now therefore, I pray you, <sup>p</sup> swear unto me by the LORD, since I have showed you kindness, that ye will also show kindness unto my father's house; and give me a true token; <sup>13</sup> that ye will save alive my father and my mother, and my brethren and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.

<sup>14</sup> And the men answered her: Our life for yours, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that <sup>q</sup> we will deal kindly and truly with thee.

<sup>15</sup> Then she <sup>r</sup> let them down by a cord through the window; for her house <sup>s</sup> was upon the town-wall, and she dwelt upon the wall. <sup>16</sup> And she said to them: Get you to the mountains, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned; and afterwards may ye go your way.

<sup>17</sup> And the men said to her: We will be <sup>t</sup> blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear. <sup>18</sup> Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by; <sup>u</sup> and thou shalt bring thy father and thy mother and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee. <sup>19</sup> And it shall be <sup>v</sup> that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we <sup>w</sup> shall be blameless; and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head if <sup>x</sup> any hand be upon him. <sup>20</sup> But if thou utter this our business, then we will be blameless of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear.

<sup>21</sup> And she said: According unto your words, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed. And she bound the scarlet line in the window.

<sup>22</sup> And they went, and came to the mountains, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned. And the pursuers sought throughout all the way, but found <sup>y</sup> them not.

<sup>23</sup> So the two men returned, and descended from the mountains, and passed over; and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all that had befallen them. <sup>24</sup> And they said to Joshua: Truly <sup>z</sup> the LORD hath delivered into our hands all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the country do <sup>a</sup> faint because of us.

sight of all Israel, that they may know that <sup>h</sup>as I was with Moses I will be with thee. <sup>i</sup>And thou shalt command <sup>j</sup>the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying: When ye are come to the brink of the water of the Jordan, ye shall stand still at the Jordan.

<sup>9</sup>And Joshua said unto the children of Israel: Come hither, and hear the words of the LORD your God. <sup>10</sup>And Joshua said: <sup>k</sup>Hereby ye shall know that the living God is <sup>l</sup>among you, and <sup>m</sup>that he will without fail <sup>n</sup>drive out from before you the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Hivites and the Perizzites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Jebusites. <sup>11</sup>Behold, the ark of the covenant of <sup>n</sup>the Lord of all the earth passeth over before you into the Jordan. <sup>12</sup>And now <sup>o</sup>take you twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe a man. <sup>13</sup>And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests that bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off (the waters that come down from above) and they <sup>p</sup>shall stand up in a heap.

<sup>14</sup>And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents, to pass over the Jordan, and the priests bearing the <sup>q</sup>ark of the covenant before the people, <sup>15</sup>and as they that bare the ark were come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for <sup>r</sup>the Jordan overfloweth all its banks all the time of harvest,) <sup>16</sup>that the waters which came down from above stood; they rose up in a heap very far off, by the city Adam, that is beside <sup>s</sup>Zaretan; and those that came down <sup>t</sup>toward the Sea of the Plain, <sup>u</sup>the Salt Sea, failed, and were cut off. And the people passed over right against Jericho. <sup>17</sup>And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan. <sup>18</sup>And all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over the Jordan.

<sup>4</sup>. And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over the Jordan, that the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying: <sup>2</sup>Take <sup>v</sup>you twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man, <sup>3</sup>and command ye them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of the Jordan, out of the place where <sup>2</sup>the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones, and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging-place where ye shall lodge this night.

<sup>4</sup>Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man; <sup>5</sup>and Joshua said unto them: Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and take you up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel; <sup>6</sup>that this may be <sup>a</sup>a sign among you, <sup>b</sup>when your children ask in time to come, saying, What <sup>c</sup>mean these stones for you? <sup>7</sup>then ye shall say to them, that <sup>c</sup>the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. And these stones shall be for <sup>d</sup>a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever.

<sup>8</sup>And the children of Israel did so, as Joshua commanded; and they took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

<sup>9</sup>And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bare the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there unto this day.

<sup>10</sup>And the priests who bare the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan until every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua. And the people <sup>e</sup>hasted and passed over. <sup>11</sup>And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that <sup>f</sup>the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, in the presence of the people.

the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of the Jordan <sup>1</sup> returned to their place, and <sup>2a</sup> flowed over all its banks, as before.

<sup>4</sup> And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: <sup>c</sup> All the people that came out of Egypt, the males, all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt. <sup>5</sup> Now all the people that came out were circumcised; but all the people born in the wilderness, by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, <sup>d</sup> they had not circumcised. <sup>6</sup> For the children of Israel walked <sup>e</sup> forty years in the wilderness, till all the nation, the men of war, who came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD sware that he would not show them the land which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would give us, <sup>9</sup> a land that floweth with milk and honey.

<sup>7</sup> And <sup>8</sup> their children whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way. <sup>8</sup> And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp till they were whole.

<sup>9</sup> And the LORD said unto Joshua: This day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you. Wherefore the name of the place is called Gilgal [i. e. Rolling †] unto this day.

<sup>13</sup> AND it came to pass when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, there stood <sup>a</sup> a man over against him <sup>b</sup> with his sword drawn in his hand. And Joshua went unto him and said to him: Art thou for us, or for our adversaries? <sup>14</sup> And he said: Nay; but the Captain * of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua <sup>c</sup> fell on his face to the earth and worshipped, and said unto him: What saith my lord to his servant?

<sup>4</sup> And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven trumpets of rams' horns. † And the seventh day ye shall compass the city

seven times, and <sup>A</sup>the priests shall blow with the trumpets. <sup>6</sup>And it shall come to pass when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up, every man straight before him.

<sup>6</sup>And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them: Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And he said unto the people: Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that is armed pass on before the ark of the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken to the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. <sup>9</sup>And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, going on, and blowing with the trumpets; <sup>10</sup>and the rearward came after the ark. <sup>10</sup>And Joshua commanded the people, saying: Ye shall not shout or make any noise with your voice, neither shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout. <sup>11</sup>So the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going around once. And they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.

<sup>15</sup>And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early, about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times; <sup>l</sup>only on that day they compassed the city seven times. <sup>16</sup>And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said to the people: <sup>m</sup>Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city. <sup>17</sup>And the city shall be <sup>n</sup>accursed,* it and all that are therein, to the LORD. Only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because <sup>o</sup>she hid the messengers that we sent. <sup>18</sup>And ye <sup>p</sup>in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse,* and <sup>q</sup>trouble it. <sup>19</sup>But all the <sup>r</sup>silver and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated to the LORD; they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>So the people shouted, and the priests blew with the trumpets. And it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that <sup>s</sup>the wall fell down flat; so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. <sup>21</sup>And they <sup>t</sup>utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox and sheep and ass, with the edge of the sword.

<sup>22</sup>But Joshua had said to the two men that had spied out the country: Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman and all that she hath, <sup>u</sup>as ye swear unto her. <sup>23</sup>And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, <sup>v</sup>and her father and her mother and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them <sup>w</sup>without the camp of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>And <sup>x</sup>they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein; only the silver and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was throughout all the country.

Achan's sin; (2) the consequent defeat of Israel before Ai; (6) Joshua's prayer, and God's answer; (16) the detection and punishment of Achan.

BUT the children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing; for <sup>a</sup>Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of <sup>b</sup>Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, <sup>c</sup>took of the accursed thing. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> And Joshua sent men from Jericho to <sup>a</sup> Ai, which is beside Beth-aven, on the east side of Beth-el, and spake to them, saying: Go up and spy out the country. And the men went up and spied out Ai; <sup>3</sup> and they returned to Joshua, and said to him: Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; make not all the people to labour thither, for they are few.

<sup>4</sup> So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men. And they fled before the men of Ai; <sup>5</sup> and the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men; and they chased them before the gate as far as Shebarim, and smote them on the descent. Wherefore <sup>e</sup> the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.

8. AND the LORD said unto Joshua: <sup>a</sup> Fear not nor be dismayed. Take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai. See, <sup>b</sup> I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people and his city and his land; <sup>2</sup> and thou shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst to <sup>c</sup> Jericho and her king: only <sup>d</sup> the spoil thereof and the cattle thereof shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves. Lay thee an ambush for the city behind it.

<sup>3</sup> So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai. And Joshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night. <sup>4</sup> And he commanded them, saying: Behold, <sup>e</sup> ye shall lie in wait against the city, behind the city; go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready. <sup>5</sup> And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city. And it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them, <sup>6</sup> and <sup>f</sup> they will come out after us, till we have drawn them from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before them. <sup>7</sup> Then ye shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city; for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. <sup>8</sup> And it shall be, when ye have taken the city, ye shall <sup>g</sup> set the city on fire: according to the commandment of the LORD shall ye do. See, I have commanded you.

<sup>9</sup> And Joshua sent them forth; and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai. But Joshua lodged that night among the people.

<sup>10</sup> And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. <sup>11</sup> And all the people, the men of war that were with him, went up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and encamped on the north side of Ai. And the valley was between them and Ai. <sup>12</sup> And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of the city. <sup>13</sup> And when they had set the people, all the camp that was on the north of the city, and their liers in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

<sup>14</sup> And it came to pass, when the king of Ai saw it, that they hastened and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at the place appointed, before the plain; but he <sup>h</sup> knew not that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

<sup>15</sup> And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. <sup>16</sup> And all the people that were in Ai were called together to pursue after them; and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. <sup>17</sup> And there was not a man left in Ai or Beth-el that went not out after Israel; and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

<sup>18</sup> And the LORD said unto Joshua: Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thy hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that was in his hand toward the city. <sup>19</sup> And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand; and they entered into the city, and took it, and hastened and set the city on fire. <sup>20</sup> And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven; and they had no power to flee this way or that way. And the people that had fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers.

<sup>21</sup> And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and slew the men of Ai. <sup>22</sup> And the others issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side. And they smote them, so that they <sup>i</sup> let none of them remain or escape. <sup>23</sup> And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup> And it came to pass, when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen by the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned to Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword. <sup>25</sup> And all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, all the men of Ai. <sup>26</sup> For Joshua drew not his hand back wherewith he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. <sup>27</sup> Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according to the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.

day. <sup>29</sup> And <sup>i</sup> the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until eventide : <sup>m</sup> and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and <sup>n</sup> raise thereon a great heap of stones, standing unto this day.

<sup>34</sup> And afterwards <sup>g</sup> he read all the words of the law, <sup>h</sup> the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the law. <sup>35</sup> There was not a word of all that Moses commanded which Joshua read not before all the congregation of Israel, <sup>i</sup> with the women and the little ones, and the strangers that were conversant among them.

League of Canaanitish kings against Israel; (3) stratagem of the Gibeonites to obtain a treaty of peace, and (6) its results.

9. AND it came to pass, when all the kings who were on this side of the Jordan, in the hills and in the valleys, and on all the coasts of <sup>a</sup> the Great Sea over against Lebanon, (the <sup>b</sup> Hittite and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite), heard thereof, <sup>2</sup> that they <sup>c</sup> gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.

<sup>3</sup> And when the inhabitants of <sup>d</sup> Gibeon <sup>e</sup> heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai, <sup>4</sup> they did work willy, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine-skins, old and rent and bound up, <sup>5</sup> and old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy.* <sup>6</sup> And they went to Joshua, <sup>f</sup> unto the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel: We are come from a far country; now therefore make ye a league with us.

<sup>7</sup> And the men of Israel said to the <sup>g</sup> Hivites: Peradventure ye dwell among us; and <sup>h</sup> how shall we make a league with you? <sup>8</sup> And they said to Joshua: <sup>i</sup> We are thy servants.

And Joshua said to them: Who are ye; and from whence come ye? <sup>9</sup> And they said to him: <sup>k</sup> From a very far country thy servants are come, <sup>l</sup> because of the name of the LORD thy God. For we have <sup>m</sup> heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt, <sup>10</sup> and <sup>n</sup> all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth. <sup>11</sup> Wherefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spake to us, saying, Take victuals with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them: We are your servants; and now make ye a league with us. <sup>12</sup> This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go to you; but now, behold, it is dry and mouldy; <sup>13</sup> and these wine-skins which we filled, were new; and behold, they are rent; and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey.

<sup>16</sup> And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours and dwelt among them. <sup>17</sup> And the children of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were <sup>q</sup> Gibeon and Chephirah and Beeroth and Kirjath-jearim. <sup>18</sup> And the children of Israel smote them not, <sup>r</sup> because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD, the God of Israel.

sworn unto them by the LORD, the God of Israel; now therefore we may not touch them. <sup>20</sup> This we will do to them; we will even let them live, lest <sup>a</sup> wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we swear unto them. <sup>21</sup> And the princes said to them: Let them live; but let them be <sup>c</sup> hewers of wood and drawers of water to all the congregation; as the princes had promised them.

<sup>22</sup> And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying: Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you; when ye dwell among us? <sup>23</sup> Now therefore ye are <sup>u</sup> cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God.

<sup>10</sup>, AND it came to pass, when Adonizedec king of Jerusalem had heard that Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it (<sup>a</sup> as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to <sup>b</sup> Ai and her king); and <sup>c</sup> that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them; <sup>2</sup> that they <sup>d</sup> feared greatly; because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men there of were mighty.

five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, <sup>g</sup> gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

<sup>11</sup> And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, they being on the descent of Beth-horon, <sup>p</sup> that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them, unto Azekah, and they died: more were they who died with the hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

<sup>12</sup> Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel:

So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day. <sup>14</sup> And <sup>t</sup> there was no day like that, before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for <sup>u</sup> the LORD fought for Israel. <sup>15</sup> And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp, to Gilgal.

<sup>25</sup> And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war who went with him: Come near, <sup>a</sup> put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them. <sup>26</sup> And Joshua said unto them: <sup>a</sup> Fear not, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage; for <sup>b</sup> thus will the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

<sup>29</sup> AND that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he <sup>e</sup> utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining: and he did to the king of Makkedah <sup>f</sup> as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>30</sup> Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah: <sup>31</sup> and the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining in it; but he did to the king thereof as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>32</sup> And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it. <sup>33</sup> And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, who took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

<sup>35</sup> And from Lachish Joshua passed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it: <sup>36</sup> and they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword; and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

General review of the conquest of Canaan.

All the kings thirty and one.

God's command to Joshua to distribute the lands West of the Jordan—(8) The territory already granted East of the Jordan, to the tribes of (15) Reuben, (24) Gad, and (29) half of Manasseh.

<sup>13</sup> AND Joshua <sup>a</sup> was old, stricken in years; and the LORD said unto him: Thou art old, stricken in years, and there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed. <sup>2</sup> This <sup>b</sup> is the land that yet remaineth: <sup>c</sup> All the borders of the Philistines, and <sup>d</sup> all the Geshurites, <sup>3</sup> from <sup>e</sup> Sihor, which is before Egypt, even to the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: <sup>4</sup> five lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites, the Ashdodites, the Eshkalonites, the Gittites and the Ekronites; also <sup>5</sup> the Avites <sup>4</sup> on the south; <sup>6</sup> all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah,* which is to the <sup>f</sup> Sidonians, <sup>h</sup> unto Aphek, to the borders of <sup>i</sup> the Amorites; <sup>5</sup> and the land of <sup>k</sup> the Gibleites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrising, <sup>l</sup> from Baal-gad under mount Hermon to the entering into Hamath; <sup>6</sup> all the inhabitants of the hill-country from Lebanon to <sup>m</sup> Misrephoth-maim, all the Sidonians. Them <sup>n</sup> will I drive out from before the children of Israel; only <sup>o</sup> divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>14</sup> Only <sup>v</sup> to the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD, the God of Israel, made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto them.

This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and the villages thereof.

14, AND these are what the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan,

17. And there was a lot for the tribe of Manasseh, (for he was the <sup>m</sup> firstborn of Joseph); for <sup>n</sup> Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead; because he was a man of war; and he had <sup>o</sup> Gilead and Bashan. <sup>2</sup> There was also for <sup>p</sup> the rest of the children of Manasseh by their families; <sup>q</sup> for the children of <sup>r</sup> Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hephher, and for the children of Shemida. These were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families.

<sup>5</sup> And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side of the Jordan: <sup>6</sup> because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons. And the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

<sup>15</sup> And Joshua answered them: If thou be a great people, get thee up to the forest, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the <sup>h</sup> Rephaim, because the hill-country of Ephraim is too narrow for thee.

<sup>16</sup> And the children of Joseph said: The hill-country is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have <sup>i</sup> chariots of iron; they who are in Beth-shean and her towns and they who are <sup>k</sup> in the valley of Jezreel.

<sup>17</sup> And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying: Thou art a great people and hast great power; thou shalt not have one lot, <sup>18</sup> but the hill-country shall be thine; for it is a forest, and thou shalt cut it down; and the outgoings of it shall be thine. For thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, <sup>1</sup> though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.

18. AND the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together <sup>a</sup> at Shiloh, and <sup>b</sup> set up the Tent of meeting there. And the land was subdued before them.

<sup>8</sup> And the men arose and went away. And Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying: Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.

<sup>9</sup> And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by the cities into seven parts in a book; and they came to Joshua, to the host, at Shiloh. <sup>10</sup> And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD; and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel, according to their divisions.

And the outgoings of the border were at the north bay of the Salt Sea at the south end of the Jordan. This was the south border.

This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the borders thereof round about, according to their families. <sup>21</sup> And the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz, <sup>22</sup> and Beth-arabah and Zemaraim and Beth-el <sup>23</sup> and Avim and Parah and Ophrah <sup>24</sup> and Chephar-haammonai and Ophni and Gaba; twelve cities with their villages: <sup>25</sup> Gibeon and Ramah and Beeroth <sup>26</sup> and Mizpeh and Chephirah and Mozah <sup>27</sup> and Rekem and Irpeel and Taralah <sup>28</sup> and Zelah, Eleph, and <sup>k</sup> Jebusi, (which is Jerusalem), Gibeath and Kirjath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

Alammelech and Amad and Misheal; and it reached to Carmel westward, and to Shihor-libnath; <sup>27</sup> and it turned toward the sunrising to Beth-dagon, and reached to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah-el toward the north side of Beth-emeq, and Neiel; and it went out to Cabul on the left hand, <sup>28</sup> and Hebron and Rehob and Hammon and Kanah, <sup>29</sup> unto great Zidon. <sup>29</sup> And the border turned to Ramah, and to the strong city <sup>30</sup> Tyre; and the border turned to Hosah; and the outgoings thereof were at the sea, from the coast to <sup>31</sup> Achzib; <sup>30</sup> Ummah also, and Aphek and Rehob. Twenty and two cities with their villages. <sup>31</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher, according to their families; these cities with their villages.

<sup>49</sup> When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance according to the borders thereof, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them. <sup>50</sup> According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, <sup>51</sup> Timnath-serah in the hill-country of Ephraim. And he built the city, and dwelt therein.

Appointment of the Cities of Refuge.

20. AND the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying, <sup>2</sup> Speak to the children of Israel, saying: <sup>3</sup> Appoint for you the Cities of Refuge, whercof I spake unto you by the hand of Moses: <sup>4</sup> that the slayer that killeth a person without intent, unwittingly, may flee thither; and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

21. THEN came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto <sup>a</sup>Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel: <sup>2</sup>and they spake unto them at <sup>b</sup>Shiloh, in the land of Canaan, saying: <sup>c</sup>The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle. <sup>3</sup>And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.

<sup>4</sup>And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And the children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities. <sup>5</sup>And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

<sup>6</sup>And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

and Jahazah with its suburbs, <sup>37</sup> Kedemoth with its suburbs, and Mephaath with its suburbs; four cities. <sup>38</sup> And out of the tribe of Gad, <sup>6</sup> Ramoth in Gilead with its suburbs, a City of Refuge for the slayer; and Mahanaim with its suburbs, <sup>39</sup> Heshbon with its suburbs, Jazer with its suburbs; four cities in all. <sup>40</sup> All the cities for the children of Merari by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

<sup>43</sup> AND the LORD gave unto Israel a all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. <sup>44</sup> And b the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers. And c there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. <sup>45</sup> There d failed not aught of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

Dismissal of the warriors of the two tribes and a half to their homes beyond the Jordan; (10) their erection of an altar at the river; (11) the charge brought against them; and (23) their defence.

<sup>22</sup> THEN Joshua called the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, <sup>2</sup> and said unto them: Ye have kept a all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and b have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you. <sup>3</sup> Ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God. <sup>4</sup> And now the LORD your God c hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them. So now return ye, and get you unto your tents, unto the land of your possession d which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan. <sup>5</sup> But e take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, f to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and g to cleave unto him, and h to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.

them away: and they went to their tents. <sup>7</sup> (And to the half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given possession in Bashan; k but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on the other side of the Jordan westward.) And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them, <sup>8</sup> and he spake unto them, saying: Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver and with gold and with brass and with iron, and with very much raiment. <sup>1</sup> Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

<sup>9</sup> And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel, out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to m the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

<sup>10</sup> And when they came to the borders of the Jordan that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh n built there an altar, by the Jordan, a great altar to see to.

<sup>13</sup> And the children of Israel q sent to the children of Reuben and to the children of Gad and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, r Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, <sup>14</sup> and with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince for all the tribes of Israel; and s each one was a head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> And they came to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying:

<sup>16</sup> Thus saith the whole congregation of the LORD: What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have built you an altar, t that ye might rebel this day against the

But rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar besides the altar of the LORD our God. <sup>20</sup> Did <sup>2</sup> not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed* thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? <sup>22</sup> O LORD, the <sup>a</sup> God of gods, O LORD, the God of gods, (he <sup>b</sup> knoweth, and <sup>c</sup> Israel he shall know); if it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, save thou us not this day, <sup>23</sup> that we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD; or if to offer thereon burnt-offering and meal-offering, or if to offer peace-offerings thereon, let the LORD himself <sup>d</sup> require it; <sup>24</sup> and if we have not done it for fear of a dispute, saying, In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have ye to do with the LORD, the God of Israel? <sup>25</sup> For the LORD hath made the Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad, ye have no part in the LORD. Joshua's farewell address to the people; (16) renewal of the covenant between God and Israel.

24. AND Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to <sup>a</sup> Shechem, and <sup>b</sup> called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they <sup>c</sup> presented themselves before God. <sup>2</sup> And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel:

Your <sup>d</sup> fathers dwelt on the other side of the river <sup>e</sup> in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nachor; and <sup>f</sup> they served other gods. <sup>3</sup> And <sup>f</sup> I took your father Abraham from the other side of the river, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan; and I multiplied his seed, and <sup>g</sup> gave him Isaac. <sup>4</sup> And I gave unto Isaac <sup>h</sup> Jacob and Esau. And I gave unto <sup>i</sup> Esau mount Seir, to possess it; <sup>k</sup> and Jacob and his children went down into Egypt. <sup>5</sup> And <sup>l</sup> I sent Moses and Aaron; and <sup>m</sup> I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them; and afterwards I brought you out.

<sup>8</sup> And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt on the other side of the Jordan; <sup>u</sup> and they fought with you; and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you. <sup>9</sup> Then <sup>v</sup> Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel; and he <sup>w</sup> sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you: <sup>10</sup> but <sup>x</sup> I would not hearken unto Balaam; <sup>y</sup> therefore he blessed you still; so I delivered you out of his hand.

<sup>14</sup> Now <sup>g</sup> therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth; and <sup>h</sup> put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the river, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD. <sup>15</sup> And if it seem evil to you to serve the LORD, <sup>k</sup> choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the river, or <sup>l</sup> the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell. <sup>m</sup> But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> And the people answered and said: Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods. <sup>17</sup> For the LORD our God, he brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and he it is who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the nations through whom we passed: <sup>18</sup> and the LORD drove out from before us all the nations, even the Amorites who dwelt in the land. We also will serve the LORD, for he is our God.

And they said: We are witnesses.

<sup>23</sup> And now <sup>u</sup> put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> And the people said unto Joshua: The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

<sup>33</sup> And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in the hill that pertained to <sup>g</sup> Phinehas his son, which was given him, in the hill-country of Ephraim.

THE ## BOOK OF JUDGES.

By Divine command Judah takes the lead in war against the Canaanites, and (2) Judah and Simeon together conquer their allotted lands—
(21) Of the other tribes some fail through disobedience.

1. NOW after <sup>a</sup> the death of Joshua it came to pass that the children of Israel <sup>b</sup> asked the LORD, saying: Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them? <sup>2</sup> And the LORD said: <sup>c</sup> Judah shall go up; behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

<sup>3</sup> And Judah said to Simeon his brother: Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Simeon went with him.

and he possessed the mountains; <sup>s</sup> but he could not drive out the inhabitants of the lowlands, because they had <sup>t</sup> chariots of iron.

<sup>33</sup> Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath; but he dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; and the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became tributaries unto them.

of Dan into the mountains; for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley: <sup>35</sup> and the Amorites would dwell in mount Heres, in <sup>a</sup> Aijalon, and in Shaalbim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became tributaries. <sup>36</sup> And the border of the Amorites was <sup>1</sup> from the ascent of Akrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

God's rebuke and threatening to the people for their disobedience; (4) their repentance.

2. AND <sup>a</sup> the angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said: <sup>b</sup> I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land <sup>c</sup> which I swore unto your fathers; and <sup>d</sup> I said, I will never break my covenant with you; <sup>2</sup> and <sup>e</sup> ye shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; <sup>f</sup> ye shall throw down their altars. But <sup>g</sup> ye have not obeyed my voice. Why have ye done this? <sup>3</sup> Wherefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be for adversaries; and their gods shall be a <sup>h</sup> snare unto you.

<sup>4</sup> And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice and wept. <sup>5</sup> And they called the name of that place Bochim [i.e. Weepers]. And they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6 AND <sup>a</sup> Joshua let the people go, and the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance, to possess the land.

7 AND <sup>b</sup> the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD that he did for Israel.

11 And the children of Israel <sup>g</sup> did evil in the sight of the LORD, and <sup>h</sup> served Baalim. <sup>12</sup> And they <sup>i</sup> forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed <sup>k</sup> other gods, of the gods of the nations that were round about them, and <sup>l</sup> bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger. <sup>13</sup> And they forsook the LORD, <sup>m</sup> and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

16 Nevertheless <sup>u</sup> the LORD raised up judges, who delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them. <sup>17</sup> And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they <sup>v</sup> went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them. <sup>18</sup> They turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not so.

18 AND when the LORD raised them up judges, then <sup>w</sup> the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; <sup>a</sup> for it repented the LORD because of their <sup>b</sup> groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

19 But it came to pass, <sup>c</sup> when the judge was dead, <sup>d</sup> that they turned back, and acted corruptly, more than their fathers, in following other gods, to serve them and to bow down unto them; they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their <sup>e</sup> stubborn way.

20 AND the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and he said: Because this people have <sup>f</sup> transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice, <sup>21</sup> I also will not henceforth drive out from before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died; <sup>22</sup> that <sup>g</sup> through them I may <sup>h</sup> prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not. <sup>23</sup> Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out hastily, and he did not deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

3. Now these are <sup>i</sup> the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them, all who had not known all the wars of Canaan; <sup>2</sup> only that the generations of the were without number; and they entered into the land to destroy it.

6 And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites. And the children of Israel <sup>h</sup> cried unto the LORD.

7 And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites, <sup>8</sup> that the LORD sent a prophet unto the children of Israel, who said unto them; <sup>i</sup> Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondmen; <sup>9</sup> and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and <sup>k</sup> drove them out from before you, and gave you their land. <sup>10</sup> And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; <sup>m</sup> fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell. <sup>n</sup> But ye have not obeyed my voice.

11 And <sup>o</sup> the angel of the LORD came and sat under the oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the <sup>p</sup> Abi-ezrite.

And his son Gideon was threshing wheat in the wine-press, to save it from the Midianites. <sup>12</sup> And the <sup>q</sup> angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him: The LORD is <sup>r</sup> with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13 And Gideon said unto him: Oh my LORD, If the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? And <sup>s</sup> where are all his miracles <sup>t</sup> which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? But now the LORD hath <sup>u</sup> rejected us, and delivered us into the hand of the Midianites.

14 And the LORD looked upon him, and said: Go now in thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. <sup>v</sup> Have not I sent thee?

15 And he said unto Him: Oh my LORD,
<sup>x</sup> my family* is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

16 And the LORD said unto him: <sup>y</sup> I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

17 And he said unto Him: <sup>z</sup> If now I have found grace in thy sight, then <sup>a</sup> do for me a sign that it is Thou who talkest with me. <sup>18</sup> Depart <sup>b</sup> not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my offering, and set it before thee. And he said: I will tarry until thou come again.

19 And <sup>c</sup> Gideon went in, and made ready a kid of the goats, and an ephah of flour in unleavened cakes. The flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in the pot; and he brought them out to him under the oak, and presented them. <sup>20</sup> And the angel of God said unto him: Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes and <sup>d</sup> lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so.

21 Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and <sup>e</sup> there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. And the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 And Gideon <sup>f</sup> perceived that he was the angel of the LORD; and Gideon said:
Alas, O Lord God! For because <sup>g</sup> I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face.
23 And the LORD said unto him: <sup>h</sup> Peace be to thee! Fear not; thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom [i.e. The LORD in peace]. Unto this day it is yet <sup>m</sup> in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>25</sup> And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him: Take thy father's young bullock, and the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and <sup>n</sup> cut down the Asherah* that is upon it.

<sup>26</sup> And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this strong place, in the ordered <sup>o</sup> manner; and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt-sacrifice with the wood of the Asherah which thou shalt cut down.

<sup>27</sup> And Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him; and so it was, because he feared his father's house and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

<sup>28</sup> And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah was cut down that was upon it; and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built. <sup>29</sup> And they said one to another: Who hath done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said: Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

<sup>30</sup> Then the men of the city said to Joash: Bring out thy son, that he may die; because he hath broken down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the Asherah that was upon it.

<sup>31</sup> And Joash said unto all that stood near him: Will ye plead for Baal; will ye save him? He that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning. <sup>p</sup> If he be a god, let him plead for himself, because his altar hath been broken down.

<sup>36</sup> And Gideon said unto God: <sup>u</sup> If thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as thou hast said, <sup>37</sup> behold, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing-floor; and if dew be on the fleece only and it be dry upon all the ground, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as thou hast said. <sup>38</sup> And it was so; and when he rose up early on the morrow, he pressed the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

<sup>39</sup> And Gideon said unto God: <sup>v</sup> Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once. Let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it, I pray, be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew. <sup>40</sup> And God did so that night; and it was dry upon the fleece only, but on all the ground there was dew.

Gideon's victory over the Midianites; (ch. 8. 1) his forbearance towards the proud Ephraimites; (5) punishment of traitorous Israelites, and (18) the conquered kings; (22) his subsequent history.

<sup>7. THEN</sup> <sup>a</sup> Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and encamped beside the well of Harod; and the camp of the Midianites was on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

<sup>3</sup> Now therefore, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, <sup>d</sup> Who is fearful and afraid? Let him return and depart from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.

<sup>4</sup> And the LORD said unto Gideon: Still the people are many; bring them down to the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

<sup>5</sup> So he brought down the people to the water. And the LORD said unto Gideon: Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink. <sup>6</sup> And the number of them that lapped, with their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men; but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

save you, and deliver the Midianites into thy hand; and let all the people go every man to his place. <sup>8</sup> So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets. And he sent all Israel every man to his tent, but retained the three hundred men. And the camp of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

<sup>9</sup> And it came to pass in that night, that the LORD said unto him: Arise, get thee down unto the camp; <sup>10</sup> for I have delivered it into thy hand. <sup>10</sup> But if thou fear to go down, go thou, with Phurah thy servant, down to the camp; <sup>11</sup> and <sup>12</sup> thou shalt hear what they say; and afterwards shall thy <sup>13</sup> hands be strengthened, and thou shalt go down unto the camp.

Then went he down, with Phurah his servant, unto the outside of the armed men that were in the camp. <sup>12</sup> And the Midianites and the Amalekites and <sup>13</sup> all the children of the East lay along in the valley, like the locusts for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea-side for multitude.

<sup>13</sup> And Gideon came, and behold, a man was telling a dream unto his fellow, and said: Behold, I dreamed a dream, and lo, a cake of barley-bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, and came unto the tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it; and the tent lay along. <sup>14</sup> And his fellow answered and said: This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, the man of Israel; into his hand God hath delivered Midian and all the camp.

<sup>15</sup> And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped. And he returned into the camp of Israel, and said: Arise, for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the camp of Midian. <sup>16</sup> And he divided the three hundred men into three companies; and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, also empty pitchers, and torches within the pitchers. <sup>17</sup> And he said unto them: Look on me, and do likewise; and behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be that as I do so shall ye do. <sup>18</sup> When I blow with the trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also yourselves on every side of all the camp, and say, For the LORD and for Gideon!

<sup>19</sup> And Gideon and the hundred men that were with him came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; they had but newly set the watch. And they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands. <sup>20</sup> And the three companies blew the trumpets and brake the pitchers, and held the torches in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow with. And they cried, Sword of the LORD and of Gideon! <sup>21</sup> And they stood every man in his place round about the camp. <sup>22</sup> And all the host ran, and cried out, and fled. <sup>23</sup> And the three hundred <sup>24</sup> blew the trumpets. And the LORD set <sup>25</sup> every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the camp. And the camp fled to Beth-shittah in Zererah, to the border of Abelmeholah, unto Tabbath.

Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and <sup>27</sup> took the waters, unto Beth-barah and the Jordan. <sup>28</sup> And they took the <sup>29</sup> two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb at <sup>30</sup> the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb; and they pursued Midian; and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, on the <sup>31</sup> other side of the Jordan.

<sup>8</sup> And <sup>9</sup> the men of Ephraim said unto him: Why hast thou served us thus, that thou caldest us not when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply. <sup>2</sup> And he said to them: What have I done now in comparison with you? Are not the gleanings of Ephraim better than the vintage of <sup>3</sup> Abi-ezer? <sup>4</sup> God <sup>5</sup> hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and what was I able to do in comparison with you? Then their <sup>6</sup> anger was abated toward him, when he said that word.

<sup>4</sup> And Gideon came to the Jordan, and passed over, he and the three hundred men that were with him, <sup>5</sup> faint yet pursuing.

<sup>5</sup> And he said to the men of <sup>6</sup> Succoth: Give, I pray you, loaves of bread to the people that follow me; for they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian. <sup>6</sup> And the princes of Succoth said: Are the hands* of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thy hand, that we should give bread to thine army? <sup>7</sup> And Gideon said: Therefore when the LORD hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will thresh your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with the briers. <sup>8</sup> And he went up thence to <sup>b</sup> Penuei, and spake unto them in like manner. And the men of Penuei answered him as the men of Succoth had answered him. <sup>9</sup> And he spake also unto the men of Penuei, saying: When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.

<sup>13</sup> And Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle, from the ascent of Heres. <sup>14</sup> And he caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him; and he described to him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, seventy and seven men. <sup>15</sup> And he came to the men of Succoth, and said: Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thy hand, that we should give bread to thy weary men? <sup>16</sup> And he took the elders of the city, and the thorns of the wilderness and the briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth. <sup>17</sup> And he beat down the tower of <sup>m</sup> Penuei, and slew the men of the city.

<sup>18</sup> Then said he to Zebah and Zalmunna: What manner of men were they whom ye slew at Tabor? And they answered: As thou art so were they; each one resembled the sons of a king. <sup>19</sup> And he said: They were my brethren, the sons of my mother. As the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you. <sup>20</sup> And he said to Jether his firstborn: Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword; for he feared, because he was yet a youth. <sup>21</sup> Then Zebah and Zalmunna said: Rise thou and fall upon us; for as the man is so is his strength. And Gideon arose and slew Zebah and Zalmunna; and he took away the half-moons that were on their camels' necks.

<sup>22</sup> And the men of Israel said unto Gideon: Rule thou over us, both thou and thy son and thy son's son also; for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian. <sup>23</sup> And Gideon said unto them: I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; <sup>n</sup> the LORD shall rule over you.

<sup>24</sup> And Gideon said unto them: Let me desire a request of you, that ye give me every man the earrings of his prey. For they had golden earrings, <sup>o</sup> because they were Ishmaelites. <sup>25</sup> And they answered: We will willingly give them. And they readily spread a garment, and cast therein every man the earrings of his prey. <sup>26</sup> And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold; besides the half-moons and the drops and the purple raiment, that were on the kings of Midian, and besides the collars that were about their camels' necks. <sup>27</sup> And Gideon <sup>p</sup> made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, <sup>q</sup> in Ophrah: and all Israel <sup>r</sup> went a whoring after it there; which thing became <sup>s</sup> a snare to Gideon, and to his house.

<sup>32</sup> And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abi-czrites.

all the citizens* of Shechem, Which is better for you, whether that all the sons of Jerubbaal, <sup>o</sup> threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? Remember also that I am <sup>a</sup> your bone and your flesh.

<sup>3</sup> And his mother's brethren spake of him in the ears of all the citizens of Shechem all these words. And their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, He is our brother. <sup>4</sup> And they gave him threescore and ten shekels of silver out of the house of <sup>i</sup> Baal-berith; wherewith Abimelech hired <sup>k</sup> vain and light persons, and they followed him. <sup>5</sup> And he went to his father's house at Ophrah, and <sup>l</sup> slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself.

<sup>7</sup> And they told it to Jotham; and he went and stood on the top of <sup>n</sup> mount Gerizim; and he lifted up his voice and cried, and said to them:

Hearken unto me, ye citizens of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

<sup>8</sup> The <sup>o</sup> trees went forth to anoint a king over them. And they said to the olive-tree, <sup>p</sup> Reign thou over us. <sup>9</sup> But the olive-tree said to them, Shall I leave my fatness, <sup>q</sup> which in me gods and men honour, and shall I go to wave over the trees? <sup>10</sup> And the trees said to the fig-tree, Come thou, reign over us. <sup>11</sup> But the fig-tree said to them, Shall I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to wave over the trees? <sup>12</sup> Then said the trees to the vine, Come thou, reign over us. <sup>13</sup> And the vine said to them, Should I leave my wine, <sup>r</sup> which cheereth gods and men, and go to wave over the trees? <sup>14</sup> Then said all the trees to the thorn-bush, Come thou, reign over us. <sup>15</sup> And the thorn-bush said to the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, come, put your trust in my shadow; and if not, let fire come out of the thorn-bush, and devour the <sup>s</sup> cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>16</sup> And now, if ye have done truly and sincerely, in that ye have made Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done unto him <sup>t</sup> according to the deserving of his hands; <sup>17</sup> (for my father <sup>u</sup> fought for you, and adventured his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian; <sup>18</sup> and ye have risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maid-servant, king over the citizens of Shechem, because he is your brother;) <sup>19</sup> if then ye have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, rejoice ye in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you. <sup>20</sup> But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the citizens of Shechem, and the house of the fort*; and let fire come out from the citizens of Shechem, and from the house of the fort*, and devour Abimelech.

<sup>26</sup> And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem. And the citizens of Shechem put confidence in him. <sup>27</sup> And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made rejoicings; <sup>28</sup> and they went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

<sup>31</sup> And Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed; and his anger was kindled. <sup>32</sup> And he sent messengers unto Abimelech deceitfully, saying: Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren are come to Shechem; and behold, they shut up the city against thee. <sup>33</sup> Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that are with thee, and lie in wait in the field. <sup>33</sup> And it shall be, in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and spread out against the city; and behold, he and the people that are with him will come out against thee, and thou shalt do to them as thou shalt find occasion.

<sup>34</sup> And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies. <sup>35</sup> And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city; and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait. <sup>36</sup> And Gaal saw the people, and he said to Zebul: Behold, the people come down from the tops of the mountains. And Zebul said to him: Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as men. <sup>37</sup> And Gaal spake again and said: Behold, people come down from the height of the land; and one company are coming by the way of the Magicians Oak.

<sup>38</sup> Then said Zebul to him: Where is now thy mouth wherewith thou saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Go out, I pray now, and fight with them. <sup>39</sup> And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech. <sup>40</sup> And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him; and many were overthrown and wounded, unto the entering of the gate. <sup>41</sup> And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah. And Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

<sup>42</sup> And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech. <sup>43</sup> And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field. And he looked, and behold, the people coming out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them. <sup>44</sup> And Abimelech and the company that was with him spread out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two companies spread out against all that were in the fields, and slew them. <sup>45</sup> And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and slew the people that was therein; and he broke down the city, and sowed it with salt.

mount <sup>a</sup> Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him. And Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and lifted it up and laid it on his shoulder, and said to the people that were with him: What ye have seen me do, make haste, do ye as I did. <sup>49</sup> And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put it against the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them. And all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

<sup>50</sup> And Abimelech went to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it. <sup>51</sup> But there was a strong tower within the city; and thither fled all the men and women, and all the citizens of the city; and they shut it behind them, and went up to the roof of the tower. <sup>52</sup> And Abimelech came up to the tower, and fought against it, and went near to the entrance of the tower, to burn it with fire. <sup>53</sup> And a certain woman <sup>i</sup> cast an upper millstone upon Abimelech's head, and broke his skull. <sup>54</sup> Then <sup>k</sup> he called hastily to the young man his armourbearer, and said to him: Draw thy sword, and slay me; lest they say of me, A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

<sup>3</sup> And after him arose Jair, a Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty and two years. <sup>4</sup> And he had thirty sons that <sup>b</sup> rode on thirty ass colts; and they had thirty cities, which are called the <sup>c</sup> villages of Jair unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead. <sup>5</sup> And Jair died, and was buried in Camon.

the Baals and the Ashtoreths, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of <sup>b</sup> Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and forsook the LORD, and served him not.

<sup>15</sup>And the children of Israel said unto the LORD: We have sinned. <sup>o</sup>Do thou unto us according to all that is good in thine eyes; only deliver us, we pray, this day. <sup>16</sup>And <sup>p</sup>they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the LORD. And <sup>q</sup>his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

Election of Jephthah as leader and judge; (12) his negotiations with the king of Ammon; (29) his vow; (32) victory over the Ammonites, and (34) fulfilment of his vow; (ch. 12. 1) Ephraim's proud jealousy, and its punishment—(7) Administrations of Ibazan, Eton, and Abdon.

<sup>d</sup>a mighty man of valour, and he was the son of a harlot; and Gilead begat Jephthah. <sup>2</sup>And Gilead's wife bare him sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said to him: Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of another woman. <sup>3</sup>Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there were gathered <sup>e</sup>vain men to Jephthah, and they went out with him.

<sup>4</sup>And it came to pass after some time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel. <sup>5</sup>And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob. <sup>6</sup>And they said unto Jephthah: Come, and become our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon. <sup>7</sup>And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead: I did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father's house; and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distress? <sup>8</sup>And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah: Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and become <sup>g</sup>our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

<sup>9</sup>And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead: If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, I shall become your head. <sup>10</sup>And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah: <sup>h</sup>The LORD be witness between us if we do not so according to thy words.

Thus saith Jephthah: <sup>n</sup>Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon. <sup>16</sup>For when they came up from Egypt, then Israel <sup>o</sup>walked through the wilderness unto the Red Sea, and <sup>r</sup> came to Kadesh. <sup>17</sup> And <sup>q</sup> Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land; but the king of Edom would not hearken. And in like manner they sent to the king of Moab; but he would not consent. And Israel <sup>r</sup> abode in Kadesh. <sup>18</sup> And they went through the wilderness, and <sup>s</sup> compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab; and they <sup>t</sup> came by the east side of the land of Moab, <sup>u</sup> and encamped on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab; for Arnon was the border of Moab. <sup>19</sup> And <sup>z</sup> Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, <sup>y</sup> Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land into my place. <sup>20</sup> But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his border; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel. <sup>21</sup> And the LORD, the God of Israel, delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they <sup>z</sup> smote them. <sup>a</sup> And Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country: <sup>22</sup> and they possessed <sup>b</sup> all the borders of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto the Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto the Jordan. <sup>23</sup> So now the LORD, the God of Israel, hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel; and shouldst thou possess it? <sup>24</sup> Wilt not thou possess that which <sup>c</sup> Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? And whomsoever <sup>d</sup> the LORD our God shall dispossess from before us, them will we possess. <sup>25</sup> And now art thou indeed better than <sup>e</sup> Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them? <sup>26</sup> While Israel hath dwelt in <sup>f</sup> Heshbon and her towns, and in <sup>g</sup> Aroer and her towns, and in all the cities that are along by the banks of Arnon, for three hundred years, why have ye not recovered them within that time? <sup>27</sup> Wherefore I have not sinned against thee; but thou doest me wrong to war against me. The LORD the <sup>h</sup> Judge be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

<sup>i</sup> ch. 3, 10. <sup>29</sup> Then <sup>i</sup> the spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead and Manassah, and passed over Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed over to the children of Ammon.

<sup>36</sup> And she said unto him: My father, thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD; do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth, forasmuch as <sup>u</sup> the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon. <sup>37</sup> And she said unto her father: Let this thing be done for me; let me alone two months; that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions. <sup>38</sup> And he said, Go; and he sent her away for two months. And she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains. <sup>39</sup> And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned to her father; and he <sup>v</sup> did to her according to his vow which he had vowed; and she knew no man. And it became a custom in Israel <sup>w</sup> that the daughters of Israel went yearly to celebrate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in the year.

<sup>12.</sup> And <sup>x</sup> the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and went northward, and said unto Jephthah: Wherefore passedst thou over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? We will burn thy house upon thee with fire. <sup>2</sup> And Jephthah said unto them: <sup>y</sup> I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and I called you, but ye delivered me not out of their hands. <sup>3</sup> And when I saw that ye delivered me not, I <sup>2</sup> put my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me?

<sup>8</sup> And after him Ibzan of Beth-lehem judged Israel. <sup>9</sup> And he had thirty sons; and thirty daughters he sent abroad, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years. <sup>10</sup> And Ibzan died, and was buried at Beth-lehem.

<sup>11</sup> And after him Elon, a Zebulonite, judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years. <sup>12</sup> And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the country of Zebulun.

<sup>13</sup> And after him Abdon the son of Hillel, a Pirathonite, judged Israel. <sup>14</sup> And he had forty sons and thirty grandsons that <sup>b</sup> rode on threescore and ten ass colts. And he judged Israel eight years. <sup>15</sup> And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, <sup>c</sup> in the hill-country of the Amalekites.

Renewed apostacy, and punishment by servitude to the Philistines; (2) birth of Samson.

13, AND the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

<sup>2</sup> And there was a certain man of <sup>a</sup> Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and bare not. <sup>3</sup> And the <sup>b</sup> angel of the LORD appeared to the woman, and said to her: Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not; but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son. <sup>4</sup> And now beware, I pray thee, and <sup>c</sup> drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing. <sup>5</sup> For lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son: and no <sup>d</sup> razor shall come on his head; for the child shall be <sup>e</sup> a Nazarite unto God from the womb: and he shall <sup>f</sup> begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.

<sup>6</sup> Then the woman came and told her husband, saying: <sup>g</sup> A man of God came unto me, and his countenance was like the countenance of the angel of God, very terrible; but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name. <sup>7</sup> And he said to me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine or strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death. <sup>8</sup> Then Manoah intreated the LORD, and said: O my Lord, let the man of God whom thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born.

<sup>9</sup> And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her. <sup>10</sup> And the woman made haste and ran, and told her husband, and said unto him: Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me on that day. <sup>11</sup> And Manoah arose and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said to him: Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said: I am. <sup>12</sup> And Manoah said: Now let thy words come to pass. What shall be the child's manner, and his doing? <sup>13</sup> And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah: Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware. <sup>14</sup> She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing. All that I commanded her let her observe.

<sup>15</sup> And Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, <sup>h</sup> Let us, I pray, detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid of the goats for thee. <sup>16</sup> And the angel of the LORD said to Manoah: If thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread; and if thou wilt offer a burnt-offering, thou shalt offer it unto the LORD. For Manoah knew not that he was the angel of the LORD.

LORD: What is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour? <sup>18</sup> And the angel of the LORD said to him: <sup>o</sup> Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is <sup>p</sup> wonderful?

<sup>19</sup> And Manoah took the kid and the meal-offering, <sup>q</sup> and offered it upon the rock unto the LORD. And He <sup>r</sup> did wonderfully; and Manoah and his wife looked on. <sup>20</sup> For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife looked on; and they <sup>s</sup> fell on their faces to the ground. <sup>21</sup> But the angel of the LORD did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife.

Then <sup>t</sup> Manoah knew that he was the angel of the LORD. <sup>22</sup> And Manoah said to his wife: <sup>u</sup> We shall surely die, because we have seen God. <sup>23</sup> But his wife said to him: If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt-offering and a meal-offering at our hands, nor have showed us all these things; neither would he, at this time, have made us hear a thing like this.

14. AND Samson went down to <sup>a</sup> Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup> And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said: I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines; and now get her for me to wife. <sup>3</sup> And his father and his mother said to him: Is there never a woman among the daughters of <sup>b</sup> thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife from the <sup>c</sup> uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said to his father: Get her for me; for she pleaseth me well. <sup>4</sup> And his father and his mother knew not that it was <sup>d</sup> of the LORD, that he sought an occasion against the Philistines; for at that time <sup>e</sup> the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

<sup>5</sup> And Samson went down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath. And behold, a young lion roared against him; <sup>f</sup> and <sup>g</sup> the spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and <sup>g</sup> he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and he had nothing in his hand. But he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

<sup>7</sup> And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well. <sup>8</sup> And after a time he returned to take her; and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion; and behold, there was a swarm of bees in the carcase of the lion, and honey. <sup>9</sup> And he took it out in his hands, and went on eating; and he came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat. But he told them not that he had taken the honey out of the carcase of the lion.

<sup>10</sup> And his father went down to the woman. And Samson made there a feast; for so used the young men to do. <sup>11</sup> And it came to pass, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him. <sup>12</sup> And Samson said to them: I will now <sup>h</sup> put forth a riddle unto you. If ye can certainly declare it to me <sup>i</sup> within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty shirts and thirty <sup>k</sup> changes of garments; <sup>13</sup> but if ye cannot declare it to me, then shall ye give me thirty shirts and thirty changes of garments. And they said to him: Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it. <sup>14</sup> And he said unto them:

Out of the eater came forth food,
And out of a strong one came forth sweetness.

And they could not in three days expound the riddle. <sup>15</sup> And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said to Samson's wife: <sup>l</sup> Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, <sup>m</sup> lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire. Have ye invited us to take what we have; <sup>n</sup> is it not so? <sup>16</sup> And Samson's wife wept before him, and said: <sup>o</sup> Surely thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not. Thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said to her: Behold, I have not told my father nor my mother, and shall I tell thee? <sup>17</sup> And she wept before him the seven days while their feast lasted. And it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she pressed him. And she told the riddle to the children of her people. <sup>18</sup> And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down:

What is sweeter than honey?
And what is stronger than a lion?

And he said to them: If ye had not ploughed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

<sup>19</sup> And <sup>a</sup> the spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their spoils, and gave the changes of garments to them who expounded the riddle.

And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house. <sup>20</sup> And <sup>b</sup> Samson's wife became his <sup>a</sup> companion's, whom he had made his friend.

<sup>15</sup> But it came to pass after a while in the time of the wheat-harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid of the goats; and he said: I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in. <sup>2</sup> And her father said: I verily thought that thou hadst utterly <sup>7</sup> hated her; therefore I gave her to thy companion. Is not her younger sister fairer than she? Let her, I pray thee, be thine, instead of her. <sup>3</sup> And Samson said concerning them: This time I shall be blameless from the Philistines, though I do them harm.

<sup>4</sup> And Samson went and caught three hundred jackals, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put a torch in the midst between the two tails. <sup>5</sup> And he set the torches on fire, and let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks and the standing corn, and the olive-gardens.

<sup>6</sup> Then the Philistines said: Who hath done this? And they answered: Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and gave her to his companion. <sup>8</sup> And the Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire.

<sup>7</sup> And Samson said to them: If ye act thus, surely I will be avenged of you; and after that I will cease. <sup>8</sup> And he smote them hip and thigh* with a great slaughter. And he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock† of Etam.

<sup>9</sup> And the Philistines went up, and encamped in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi. <sup>10</sup> And the men of Judah said: Why are ye come up against us? And they answered: To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us. <sup>11</sup> Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson: Knowest thou not that the Philistines are <sup>4</sup> ruling over us? What is this <sup>that</sup> thou hast done unto us? And he said to them: As they did unto me, so have I done unto them. <sup>12</sup> And they said to him: We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said to them: Swear unto me that ye will not fall upon me yourselves. <sup>13</sup> And they spake to him, saying: No, but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand; but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

With the jaw-bone of an ass,
Heaps upon heaps,*

With the jaw-bone of an ass,
I have smitten a thousand men.

<sup>17</sup> And it came to pass, when he had finished speaking, that he cast away the jaw-bone out of his hand. And he called that place Ramath-lehi.†

<sup>18</sup> And he was sore athirst; and he called on the LORD, and said: Thou <sup>2</sup> hast given this great deliverance by the hand of thy servant, and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised? <sup>19</sup> And God clave the hollow place that is in Lehi, and water came thereout. And when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived. Wherefore he called the name thereof En-hakkore [i. e. The fountain of him that called], which is in Lehi unto this day.

<sup>16</sup> AND SAMSON went to <sup>a</sup> Gaza, and saw there a harlot, and went in unto her. <sup>2</sup> And it was told the Gazites, saying: Samson is come hither. And they compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying: In the morning, when it is day, we shall kill him. <sup>3</sup> And Samson lay till midnight; and he arose at midnight, and took hold on the doors of the gate of the city, and on the two posts, and plucked them up, together with the bar; and he put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the hill that is before Hebron.

whose name was Delilah. <sup>6</sup> And the princes of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her: <sup>6</sup> Entice him, and see wherein his great strength is, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and we will give thee, every one of us, eleven hundred shekels of silver.

<sup>6</sup> And Delilah said to Samson: Tell me, I pray thee, wherein is thy great strength, and wherewith thou mayest be bound to afflict thee. <sup>7</sup> And Samson said to her: If they bind me with seven fresh withs that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. <sup>8</sup> Then the princes of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh withs which had not been dried; and she bound him with them. <sup>9</sup> And she had liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And she said to him: The Philistines are upon thee, Samson! And he brake the withs, as a thread of tow is broken when it smelleth the fire. So his strength was not known.

<sup>10</sup> And Delilah said to Samson: Behold, thou hast mocked me and told me lies; now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mayest be bound. <sup>11</sup> And he said unto her: If they bind me fast with new ropes wherewith no work hath been done, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. <sup>12</sup> Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith; and she said unto him: The Philistines are upon thee, Samson! And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread.

<sup>13</sup> And Delilah said to Samson: Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies; tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said to her: If thou weavest the seven locks of my head with the web. <sup>14</sup> And she fastened it with the pin; and she said to him: The Philistines are upon thee, Samson! And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam and with the web.

<sup>15</sup> And she said to him: How sayest thou I love thee, when thy heart is not with me? Thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength is. <sup>16</sup> And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, that his soul was vexed unto death, <sup>17</sup> and he told her all his heart; and he said to her: <sup>a</sup> There hath not come a razor upon my head; for I am a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb. If I be shaven then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like all men.

<sup>18</sup> And Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart; and she sent and called for the princes of the Philistines, saying: Come up this once, for he hath showed me all his heart. Then the princes of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought the money in their hand. <sup>19</sup> And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head. And she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. <sup>20</sup> And she said: The Philistines are upon thee, Samson! And he awoke out of his sleep, and said: I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he knew not that the LORD <sup>e</sup> was departed from him.

<sup>21</sup> And the Philistines took him, and pricked out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass.* And he was grinding in the prison-house. <sup>22</sup> Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaven.

<sup>23</sup> Then the princes of the Philistines gathered themselves together, to offer a great sacrifice unto <sup>f</sup> Dagon their god, and to rejoice; for they said: Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand. <sup>24</sup> And when the people saw him, they <sup>g</sup> praised their god; for they said: Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, him who multiplied our slain.

<sup>25</sup> And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said: Call for Samson, that he may make sport for us. And they called for Samson out of the prison-house; and he made sport for them. And they caused him to stand between the pillars. <sup>26</sup> And Samson said to the lad that held him by the hand: Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them. <sup>27</sup> Now the house was full of men and women; and all the princes of the Philistines were there; and there were upon the <sup>h</sup> roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport.

<sup>28</sup> And Samson called unto the LORD, and said: O Lord God, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may take one vengeance upon the Philistines for my two eyes. <sup>29</sup> And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and he leaned upon them, the one with his right hand and the other with his left. <sup>30</sup> And Samson said: Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with might; and the house fell upon the princes and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead whom he slew at his death were more than those whom he slew in his life.

Earlier histories, showing evils caused by the want of a settled government—(1) Micah, an Ephraimite, sets up in his house image-worship and a private sanctuary.

17. AND there was a man of the hill-country of Ephraim whose name was Micah. <sup>2</sup> And he said to his mother: The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from thee, about which thou didst curse, and also spake of in mine ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said: Blessed <sup>a</sup> be thou of the LORD, my son. <sup>3</sup> And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said: I had wholly dedicated the silver unto the LORD from my hand for my son, to <sup>b</sup> make a graven image and a molten image; and now I will restore it unto thee. <sup>4</sup> So he restored the money to his mother; and his mother <sup>c</sup> took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image; and they were in the house of Micah. <sup>5</sup> And the man Micah had a house of gods; * and he made an <sup>d</sup>ephod and <sup>e</sup>teraphim, and <sup>f</sup> consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. <sup>6</sup> In <sup>g</sup> those days there was no king in Israel; <sup>h</sup> every man did what was right in his own eyes.

<sup>7</sup> And there was a young man, out of <sup>i</sup> Beth-lehem-judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there. <sup>8</sup> And the man departed from the city, from Beth-lehem-judah, to sojourn where he might find a place. And he came as he journeyed to the hill-country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah. <sup>9</sup> And Micah said to him: Whence comest thou? And he said to him: I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place. <sup>10</sup> And Micah said to him: Dwell with me, and be unto me a <sup>k</sup> father and a priest; and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year and a set of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went. <sup>11</sup> And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons. <sup>12</sup> And Micah consecrated † the Levite; and the young man <sup>1</sup> became his priest, and was in the house of Micah. <sup>13</sup> Then said Micah: <sup>m</sup> Now know I that the LORD will do me good, because the Levite is my priest.

The Danites send forth an exploring party; (11) followed by an armed expedition, which (14) robs Micah, and (27) captures and destroys Laish—(80) The Danites make the rebuilt city a seat of image-worship.

18. IN <sup>a</sup> those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days <sup>b</sup> the tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for <sup>c</sup> unto that day it had not fallen to them among the tribes of Israel by lot. <sup>2</sup> And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their borders, men of valour, from <sup>d</sup> Zorah and from Eshtaol, <sup>e</sup> to spy out the land and to search it; and they said to them: Go, search the land. And they came to the hill-country of Ephraim, to the <sup>f</sup> house of Micah; and they lodged there.

<sup>3</sup> When they were near the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite; and they turned in thither, and said to him: Who brought thee hither? And what doest thou in this place? And what hast thou here? <sup>4</sup> And he said to them: Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and he hath <sup>g</sup> hired me, and I am his priest. <sup>5</sup> And they said to him: <sup>h</sup> Inquire, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way on which we go shall be prosperous. <sup>6</sup> And the priest said to them: Go <sup>i</sup> in peace; before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

<sup>7</sup> Then the five men departed; and they came to <sup>k</sup> Laish. And they saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt securely, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; and there was no magistrate in the land that might put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with other men.

<sup>8</sup> And they came unto their brethren, at Zorah and Eshtaol. And their brethren said to them: What say ye? <sup>9</sup> And they said: Arise, and let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good. And are ye still? <sup>10</sup> Be not slothful to go, to enter to possess the land. <sup>11</sup> When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

<sup>12</sup> And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men girded

<sup>14</sup> Then the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, answered and said to their brethren: Do ye know that <sup>o</sup> there is in these houses an ephod and teraphim and a graven image and a molten image? Now therefore consider what ye shall do. <sup>15</sup> And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, the house of Micah, and saluted him.

<sup>16</sup> And the six hundred men girded with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate. <sup>17</sup> And the five men that went to spy out the land went up, and came in thither, and took <sup>p</sup> the graven image and the ephod and the teraphim and the molten image. And the priest stood at the entering of the gate, with the six hundred men, girded with weapons of war. <sup>18</sup> And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod and the teraphim and the molten image. And the priest said to them: What do ye?

<sup>19</sup> And they said to him: Hold thy peace, <sup>q</sup> lay thy hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, <sup>r</sup> and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for thee to be a priest to the house of one man, or that thou be a priest to a tribe and a family in Israel? <sup>20</sup> And the priest's heart was glad; and he took the ephod and the teraphim and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people. <sup>21</sup> So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the costly things in front of them.

<sup>22</sup> And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan; <sup>23</sup> and they cried to the children of Dan; and they turned their faces, and said to Micah: What aileth thee that thou comest with such a company? <sup>24</sup> And he said: Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away; and what have I more? And how now do ye say to me, What aileth thee? <sup>25</sup> And the sons of Dan said to him: Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows run upon you, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy household.

<sup>26</sup> And the children of Dan went their way. And when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house. <sup>27</sup> And they took that which Micah had made, and the priest whom he had.

And they <sup>s</sup> came upon Laish, upon a people quiet and secure. And <sup>t</sup> they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire. <sup>28</sup> And there was no deliverer; because it was far from Zidon, and they had no business with other men. And it was in the valley that is by <sup>u</sup> Beth-rehob.

And they built the city, and dwelt therein. <sup>29</sup> And they called the name of the city <sup>v</sup> Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel; howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the first.

<sup>30</sup> And the children of Dan set up the graven image. And Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land. <sup>31</sup> And they set up for themselves Micah's graven image, which he made, all the time that <sup>y</sup> the house of God was in Shiloh.

Infamous deeds having been done in a Benjaminite city, (ch. 20. 1) the rest of the nation require the offenders to be given up; this being refused (14) the other tribes go to war with Benjamin, (37) destroy the guilty city, and nearly exterminate the tribe; (ch. 21. 1) but afterwards take measures to save it from extinction.

<sup>19.</sup> AND it came to pass in those days, <sup>a</sup> when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of the hill-country of Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of <sup>b</sup> Beth-lehem-judah. <sup>2</sup> And his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house, to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there four whole months. <sup>3</sup> And her husband arose and went after her, to speak kindly to her, to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses. And she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him. <sup>4</sup> And his father-in-law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days; so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

<sup>5</sup> And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart; and the damsel's father said to his son-in-law: <sup>c</sup> Support thy heart with a morsel of bread, and afterwards go your way. <sup>6</sup> And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together; for the damsel's father said to the man: Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thy heart be merry. <sup>7</sup> And when the man rose up to depart, his father-in-law urged him: and again he lodged there.

<sup>8</sup> And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart; and the damsel's father said: Support thy heart, I pray thee. And they tarried until afternoon, and they did eat both of them. <sup>9</sup> And when the man rose up to depart, he and his concubine and his servant, his father-in-law, the damsel's father, said to him: Behold, now the day draweth toward evening, I pray you, tarry all night; behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, and let thy heart be merry; and to-morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go home. <sup>10</sup> But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed.

And he came over against <sup>d</sup> Jebus, (which is Jerusalem;) and there were with him two asses saddled; his concubine also was with him. <sup>11</sup> And when they were near Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master: Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in into this city <sup>e</sup> of the Jebusites, and lodge in it. <sup>12</sup> And his master said to him: We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger that is not of the children of Israel; we will pass over to Gibeah. <sup>13</sup> And he said to his servant: Come, and let us draw near to one of these places, that we may lodge, in Gibeah or in <sup>f</sup> Ramah. <sup>14</sup> And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them when they were near Gibeah, which belongeth to Benjamin. <sup>15</sup> And they turned aside thither, to go in, to lodge in Gibeah. And when he went in, he sat him down in the street <sup>g</sup> of the city; for there was no man that took them into his house to lodging.

<sup>16</sup> And behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field in the evening, who was also of the hill-country of Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeah; but the men of the place were Benjamites. <sup>17</sup> And he lifted up his eyes and saw the way-faring man in the street of the city. And the old man said: Whither goest thou; and whence comest thou? <sup>18</sup> And he said to him: We are passing from Beth-lehem-judah, toward the side of the hill-country of Ephraim; from thence am I. And I went to Beth-lehem-judah, but I am going to <sup>h</sup> the house of the LORD; and there is no man that receiveth me to his house. <sup>19</sup> Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and also there is bread and wine for me and for thy hand-maid, and for the young man with thy servants; there is no lack of anything. <sup>20</sup> And the old man said: Peace be with thee; but <sup>i</sup> let all thy wants be upon me; <sup>j</sup> only lodge not in the street. <sup>21</sup> So <sup>m</sup> he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses. And they washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

<sup>29</sup> And when he was come into his house, he took a knife and laid hold on his concubine, and <sup>v</sup> divided her, according to her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the borders of Israel. <sup>30</sup> And it was so, that all that saw it said: There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day. Consider ye it, <sup>w</sup> take advice, and speak.

even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the LORD in Mizpah. <sup>2</sup> And the chiefs of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen <sup>3</sup> that drew sword. (And the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpah). Then said the children of Israel: Tell us, how was this wickedness? <sup>4</sup> And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said: I came unto Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge. <sup>5</sup> And the citizens of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night; they thought to slay me; and my concubine they forced, so that she died. <sup>6</sup> And I took my concubine and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel; for they <sup>d</sup> have committed lewdness and folly in Israel. <sup>7</sup> Behold, all ye are children of Israel. Give here your word and counsel.

<sup>8</sup> And all the people arose as one man, saying: We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his house. <sup>9</sup> But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up by lot against it; <sup>10</sup> and we will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch provision for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel. <sup>11</sup> So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

<sup>14</sup> And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel. <sup>15</sup> And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, who were numbered seven hundred chosen men. <sup>16</sup> Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men <sup>h</sup> left-handed; all these could sling stones at a hair-breadth, and not miss. <sup>17</sup> And the men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.

<sup>22</sup> But the people, the men of Israel, <sup>m</sup> encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day. <sup>23</sup> And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until the evening. And they inquired of the LORD, saying: Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said: Go ye up against him. <sup>24</sup> And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day. <sup>25</sup> And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

<sup>26</sup> Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came to Beth-el, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted on that day until the evening; and they offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before the LORD. <sup>27</sup> And the children of Israel inquired of the LORD, (for <sup>n</sup> the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, <sup>28</sup> and <sup>o</sup> Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying: <sup>p</sup> Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said: Go ye up; for to-morrow I will deliver them into thy hand.

from the city; and they began to smite some of the people, who were wounded, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goeth up to Beth-el and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel. <sup>32</sup> And the children of Benjamin said: They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said: Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways. <sup>33</sup> And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar. And the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their place, out of the meadows of Gibeah. <sup>34</sup> And there came from opposite Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel; and the battle was sore; but they knew not that evil was near them. <sup>35</sup> And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel; and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and a hundred men; all these drew the sword. <sup>36</sup> And the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten; <sup>37</sup> and the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted to the liers in wait whom they had set against Gibeah. <sup>38</sup> And the liers in wait hastened and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait seized and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

<sup>39</sup> Now the appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait was that they should make a great rising of smoke mount up out of the city. <sup>40</sup> And when the men of Israel turned again in the battle, Benjamin began to smite among the men of Israel about thirty persons; for they said: Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle. <sup>41</sup> But when the rising began to mount up out of the city in the pillar of smoke, the Benjamites <sup>42</sup> looked behind them, and behold, the whole of the city mounted up to heaven. <sup>43</sup> And the men of Israel turned again; and the men of Benjamin were alarmed, for they saw that evil was come upon them. <sup>44</sup> Therefore they turned before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and those who were out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them. <sup>45</sup> They inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them; and trod them down with ease over against Gibeah toward the sun-rising.

<sup>46</sup> And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all of them men of valour. <sup>47</sup> And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock* of Rimmon. And they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and they pursued hard after them unto Gidom; and slew two thousand men of them. <sup>48</sup> So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all of them men of valour. <sup>49</sup> But <sup>50</sup> six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon; and they abode at the rock of Rimmon four months.

<sup>51</sup> And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men of every city as the cattle,* even all that were found; also they set on fire all the cities that were found.

<sup>52</sup> Now <sup>53</sup> the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpeh, saying: There shall not any of us give his daughter unto Benjamin to wife. <sup>54</sup> And the people came to Beth-el and abode there till the evening before God; and they lifted up their voices and wept a great weeping. <sup>55</sup> And they said: O LORD, the God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be to-day one tribe lacking in Israel? <sup>56</sup> And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and <sup>57</sup> built there an altar, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings.

<sup>58</sup> And the children of Israel said: Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the congregation unto the LORD? (For <sup>59</sup> they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying: He shall surely be put to death.) <sup>60</sup> And the children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother; and they said: There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. <sup>61</sup> How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives? <sup>62</sup> And they said: What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to the LORD? And behold, there came none to the camp from <sup>63</sup> Jabesh-gilead, to the assembly. <sup>64</sup> For the people were numbered, and behold, not a man of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead was there.

<sup>15</sup> And the people repented them for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel. <sup>16</sup> And the elders of the congregation said: How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin? <sup>17</sup> And they said: The inheritance of them that are escaped is for Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel. <sup>18</sup> Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters; for the children of Israel have sworn, saying: Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

THE BOOK OF RUTH.

An Israelitish family driven to Moab by famine, lose there the father and his two sons; (7) the widow returns to Beth-lehem accompanied by one of her foreign daughters-in-law.

<sup>1</sup> NOW it came to pass in the days when <sup>a</sup> the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a man from <sup>b</sup> Beth-lehem-judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he and his wife, and his two sons. <sup>2</sup> And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, <sup>c</sup> Ephrathites of Beth-lehem-judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.

<sup>3</sup> And Elimelech Naomi's husband died; and she was left and her two sons. <sup>4</sup> And they took them Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth. And they dwelt there about ten years. <sup>5</sup> And Mahlon and Chilion died also, both of them; and the woman was left of her two sons and her husband.

<sup>6</sup> And she arose with her daughters-in-law that she might return from the country of Moab; for she heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had <sup>d</sup> visited his people in giving them bread. <sup>7</sup> And she went forth from the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law: Go ye, return each to her mother's house. The LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me. <sup>9</sup> The LORD grant you that ye may find <sup>e</sup> a resting-place, each in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them. And they lifted up their voice and wept. <sup>10</sup> And they said to her: We will return with thee unto thy people.

f Deu. 25. 3. daughters. Why will ye go with me? Are there yet sons for me in my womb, <sup>f</sup> that they may become your husbands? <sup>12</sup> Turn again, my daughters, go; for I am too old to have a husband. For should I say, I have hope, yea, should I have a husband to-night, and should also bear sons, <sup>13</sup> would ye therefore tarry till they were grown; would ye therefore stay from having husbands? Nay, my daughters! For it grieveth me much more than you; for against me <sup>o</sup> is the hand of the LORD gone out. <sup>14</sup> And they lifted up their voice and wept again. And Orpah kissed her mother-in-law; but Ruth clave unto her.

<sup>15</sup> And she said: Behold, thy sister-in-law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods; return thou after thy sister-in-law. <sup>16</sup> And Ruth said: <sup>a</sup> Intreat me not to leave thee, to return from following after thee; for <sup>r</sup> whither thou goest, I will go, and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God: <sup>17</sup> where thou diest will I die, and there will I be buried. <sup>k</sup> The LORD do so to me and more also if aught but death part thee and me.

<sup>18</sup> And when she saw that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, she left off speaking to her. <sup>19</sup> So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass when they were come to Beth-lehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they said: Is this Naomi? <sup>20</sup> And she said unto them: Call me not Naomi [i. e. Pleasant], call me Mara [i. e. Bitter]; for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me. <sup>21</sup> I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty. Why call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath <sup>t</sup> testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?

<sup>22</sup> So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned out of the country of Moab. And they came to Beth-lehem, in the beginning of the barley-harvest.

Ruth's faithful love to her mother-in-law attracts the kindness of a wealthy kinsman; (ch. 3. 1.) in obedience to Naomi, she claims from him the fulfilment of a kinsman's duty.

2. AND Naomi had an acquaintance of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech, and his name was <sup>a</sup> Boaz.

a ch. 4. 21; Boaz, Mt. 1. 5; Lk. 3. 32. b Le. 19. 9, 10; 25. 22; Deu. 24. 13.

<sup>a</sup> And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi: Let me, I pray, go to the field, and <sup>b</sup> glean among the ears after him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her:

Go, my daughter. <sup>8</sup> And she went; and she came and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And her hap was to light on part of the field of Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

<sup>4</sup> And behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem; and he said to the reapers: <sup>c</sup> The LORD be with you! And they answered him, The LORD bless thee!

<sup>6</sup> And Boaz said unto his servant that was set over the reapers: Whose damsel is this? <sup>6</sup> And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said: She is a Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab; <sup>7</sup> and she said, Let me, I pray, glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves; and she came, and hath continued from the morning even until now; her stay in the house was little.

<sup>11</sup> And Boaz answered and said unto her: It hath fully been showed to me, <sup>f</sup> all that thou hast done to thy mother-in-law since the death of thy husband; and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come to a people whom thou knewest not heretofore. <sup>12</sup> The <sup>g</sup> LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee by the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>h</sup> under whose wings thou art come to trust. <sup>13</sup> Then she said: <sup>i</sup> Let me find favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thy handmaid, though I am not like unto one of thy handmaidens.

<sup>14</sup> And Boaz said unto her: At meal-time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers; and he reached her <sup>k</sup> parched corn, and she did eat and was sufficed, and she had to spare.

some of the handfuls on purpose for her, and leave them that she may glean, and rebuke her not.

<sup>17</sup> So she gleaned in the field until the evening; and she beat out that which she had gleaned; and it was about an <sup>p</sup>ephah of barley. <sup>18</sup> And she took it up, and went into the city; and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned; and she brought forth and gave to her that which she had reserved after she was sufficed. <sup>19</sup> And her mother-in-law said to her: Where hast thou gleaned to-day; and where wroughtest thou? Blessed be he that took knowledge of thee. And she told her mother-in-law with whom she had wrought, and said: The man's name with whom I wrought to-day is Boaz.

<sup>21</sup> And Ruth the Moabitess said: He said to me also, Thou shalt keep fast by my young men until they have ended all my harvest. <sup>22</sup> And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter-in-law: It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, that they meet thee not in any other field.

<sup>6</sup> And she went down to the threshing-floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law bade her. <sup>7</sup> And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and <sup>u</sup> his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn; and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down. <sup>8</sup> And it came to pass at midnight that the man was afraid; and he turned himself and beheld, a woman lay at his feet. <sup>9</sup> And he said: Who art thou? And she answered: I am Ruth thy handmaid: <sup>x</sup> spread therefore thy skirt over thy handmaid; for thou art <sup>y</sup> one that hath the right of redemption.

<sup>10</sup> And he said: Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter. Thou hast showed more kindness in the latter end than <sup>z</sup> at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or rich. <sup>11</sup> And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman. <sup>12</sup> And now it is true that I am one that hath the right of redemption. <sup>12</sup> Howbeit <sup>a</sup> there is one that hath the right of redemption nearer than I. <sup>13</sup> Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, <sup>b</sup> if he will redeem thee, well, let him redeem thee: but if he like not to redeem thee, then will I redeem thee, as the LORD liveth. Lie down until the morning.

<sup>14</sup> And she lay at his feet until the morning; and she rose up before one could know another. And he said: Let it not be known that a woman came into the threshing-floor. <sup>15</sup> Also he said: Bring the veil that is upon thee and hold it. And when she held it he measured six <sup>t</sup> measures of barley, and laid it on her.

And he went into the city; <sup>16</sup> and she went to her mother-in-law; and she said: Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her. <sup>17</sup> And she said: These six <sup>t</sup> measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother-in-law. <sup>18</sup> Then said she: Sit still, my daughter until thou know how the matter will fall; for the man will not rest until he have finished the thing this day.

out of the country of Moab, selleth a parcel of land which was our brother * Elinlech's; † and I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it † before the inhabitants † and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it; but if thou wilt not redeem it, tell me, that I may know; † for there is none to redeem it beside thee, and I am after thee. And he said: I will redeem it. † Then said Boaz: What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, † to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance. † And † he that had the right of redemption said: I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance. Redeem thou my right to thyself; for I cannot redeem it.

‡ Now † this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning exchanging, to confirm all things: a man drew off his shoe and gave it to his neighbour; and this was a testimony in Israel. † And he that had the right of redemption said to Boaz: Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe.

§ And Boaz said to the elders and to all the people: Ye are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi. † Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, † that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place. Ye are witnesses this day. † And all the people that were in the gate and the elders said: We are witnesses. † The LORD make the woman that is come into thy house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel. And do thou worthily in † Ephratah, and be famous in Beth-lehem. † And let thy house be like the house of Pharez, † whom Tamar bare unto Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman.

‡ So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife; and when he went in unto her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son. † And the women said unto Naomi: Blessed be the LORD, who hath not left thee this day without a redeemer; and his name shall be famous in Israel. † And he shall be unto thee a restorer of thy life, and † a nourisher of thine old age: for thy daughter-in-law, who loveth thee, who is † better to thee than seven sons, hath borne him.

§ And Naomi took the child and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it. † And † the women her neighbours gave it a name, saying: There is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

‡ Now these are the generations of Pharez: † Pharez begat Hezron, † and Hezron begat Ram, and Ram begat Amminadab, † and Amminadab begat † Nahshon, and Nahshon begat Salmon, † and Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed, † and Obed begat Jesse, and Jesse begat David.

THE

FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL,

OTHERWISE CALLED

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS.

Samuel's birth, and dedication to the service of God.

1. NOW there was a certain man of Ramthaim-zophim, of the hill-country of Ephraim, and his name was † Elkanah; the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, † an Ephrathite. † And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. And Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

‡ And this man went up out of his city yearly, † to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in † Shiloh. And there were the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests to the LORD. † And when the time was that Elkanah † offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions; † but to Hannah he gave a double portion; for he loved Hannah: † but the LORD had shut up her womb. † And her rival also provoked her sore, to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb. <sup>7</sup> And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat. <sup>8</sup> Then said Elkanah her husband to her: Hannah, why weepest thou? And why eatest thou not? And why is thy heart grieved? Am not I <sup>h</sup> better to thee than ten sons?

<sup>19</sup> And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD; and they returned, and came to their house at Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and <sup>v</sup> the LORD remembered her. <sup>20</sup> And it came to pass when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son; and called his name Samuel [i. e. Heard by God], saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> And the man Elkanah and all his house went up, to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice and his vow. <sup>22</sup> But Hannah went not up; for she said to her husband:

I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and <sup>z</sup> abide there for ever. <sup>23</sup> And <sup>a</sup> Elkanah her husband said to her: Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; <sup>b</sup> only the LORD establish his word. So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

<sup>26</sup> And she said: Oh my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD. <sup>27</sup> For this boy I prayed, and <sup>f</sup> the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him. <sup>28</sup> Therefore also I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the LORD. And he worshipped the LORD there.

2. AND Hannah prayed and said: My <sup>a</sup> heart rejoiceth in the LORD, My <sup>b</sup> horn is exalted in the LORD; My mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; Because <sup>c</sup> I rejoice in thy salvation.

He bringeth low, also he <sup>s</sup> lifteth up.

<sup>8</sup> He <sup>t</sup> raiseth up the poor out of the dust, He lifteth up the beggar from the dung-

To <sup>u</sup> set them among princes,

For <sup>g</sup> the pillars of the earth are the LORD's,

<sup>9</sup> He <sup>h</sup> will keep the feet of his saints, And the wicked shall be silent in darkness;

<sup>13</sup> And the priests' custom with the people was that when any man offered a sacrifice, the priests' servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a flesh-hook of three teeth in his hand; <sup>14</sup> and he struck it into the pan or kettle or caldron or pot; <sup>c</sup> all that the flesh-hook brought up the priest took of it. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither. <sup>15</sup> Also before they <sup>d</sup> burnt the fat, the priests' servant came and said to the man that sacrificed: Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not take sodden flesh of thee, but raw. <sup>16</sup> And if any man said unto him: Let them not fail <sup>e</sup> to burn the fat immediately, and then take according to thy soul's desire, then he would answer him: Nay, but thou shalt give it now; and if not, I will take it by force. <sup>17</sup> Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD; for the men caused the offering of the LORD to be abhorred.

<sup>20</sup> And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said: The LORD give thee seed of this woman, in place of the loan which is <sup>g</sup> lent to the LORD. And they went to their own home. <sup>21</sup> And the LORD <sup>h</sup> visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel <sup>i</sup> grew before the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> Now Eli was very old; and he heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with <sup>k</sup> the women that served at the door of the Tent of meeting. <sup>23</sup> And he said to them: Why do ye such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all this people. <sup>24</sup> Nay, my sons, for the report that I hear is not good. <sup>l</sup> Ye make the LORD's people to transgress. <sup>25</sup> If a man sin against a man, God shall judge him; but if a man <sup>m</sup> sin against the LORD, who shall intreat for him? Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, <sup>n</sup> because the LORD willed to slay them.

<sup>26</sup> And the boy Samuel grew on, and was <sup>o</sup> in favour both with the LORD and also with men.

Thus saith the LORD: <sup>q</sup> Did I plainly appear unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house? <sup>28</sup> And <sup>r</sup> I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me; and <sup>s</sup> I gave unto the house of thy father all the sacrifices made by fire of the children of Israel? <sup>29</sup> Wherefore <sup>t</sup> kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded in my <sup>u</sup> habitation; and honourst thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

<sup>30</sup> Wherefore the LORD, the God of Israel saith: <sup>v</sup> I said indeed: Thy house and the house of thy father shall walk before me for ever: but now the LORD saith, <sup>w</sup> Be it far from me; for <sup>x</sup> them that honour me I will honour, but <sup>y</sup> they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed. <sup>31</sup> Behold, <sup>z</sup> the days come, that I will cut off thine arm and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thy house. <sup>32</sup> And thou shalt see adversity <sup>a</sup> in my habitation, amidst all the good that shall be done to Israel. And there shall not be an old man in thy house for ever. <sup>33</sup> And the man of thine <sup>b</sup> whom I shall not cut off from mine altar shall be to consume thine eyes and to grieve thy heart; and all the increase of thy house shall die in the flower of their age. <sup>34</sup> And this shall be <sup>c</sup> the sign unto thee that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas; <sup>d</sup> in one day they shall die both of them.

faithful priest, who shall do according to what is in my heart and in my mind. <sup>3</sup> And <sup>h</sup> the boy Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And <sup>4</sup> the word of the LORD was precious in those days; *there was no open vision.**

<sup>2</sup> And it came to pass at that time, that Eli was sleeping in his place, and <sup>h</sup> his eyes had begun to wax dim, he could not see; and <sup>3</sup> the lamp of God was not yet out; <sup>m</sup> and Samuel was sleeping in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was; <sup>4</sup> and the LORD called to Samuel. And he answered: Here am I. <sup>5</sup> And he ran to Eli, and said: Here am I, for thou calledst me. And he said: I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

<sup>6</sup> And the LORD called yet again, Samuel! And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said: Here am I, for thou didst call me. And he answered: I called not, <sup>n</sup> my son; lie down again. <sup>7</sup> Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed to him.

<sup>8</sup> And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said: Here am I, for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called to the boy. <sup>9</sup> Therefore Eli said unto Samuel: Go, lie down; and it shall be, if He call to thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD, for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

<sup>15</sup> And Samuel lay until the morning; and he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to show Eli the vision. <sup>16</sup> Then Eli called Samuel, and said: Samuel, my son! And he answered, Here am I. <sup>17</sup> And he said: What is the thing that He hath said unto thee? I pray thee, hide it not from me. <sup>u</sup> God do so to thee and more also, if thou hide aught from me of all the things that he said unto thee. <sup>18</sup> And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said: <sup>v</sup> It is the LORD; <sup>w</sup> let him do what seemeth him good.

The Israelites attack the Philistines, and (2) being smitten, (3) send for the ark of God into their camp; (10) they are defeated again, with great slaughter, and the ark is captured—(18) Death of Eli and his sons.

And the elders of Israel said: Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to-day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that when it cometh among us it may save us out of the hand of our enemies. <sup>4</sup> So the people sent to Shiloh, and they brought from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, <sup>d</sup> who sitteth upon the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there <sup>e</sup> with the ark of the covenant of God. <sup>5</sup> And it came to pass when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp that all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

<sup>6</sup> And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said: What is the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp. <sup>7</sup> And the Philistines were afraid, for they said: God is come into the camp. And they said: Woe unto us! For there hath not been such a thing heretofore.

<sup>18</sup> And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died; for the man was old and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

<sup>19</sup> And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered. And when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for her pains came upon her. <sup>20</sup> And about the time of her death <sup>21</sup> the women that stood by her said unto her: Fear not, for thou hast borne a son; but she answered not, neither did she regard. <sup>21</sup> And she named the child <sup>22</sup> I-chabod, [i. e. No glory] saying: <sup>23</sup> The glory is departed from Israel; because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. <sup>22</sup> And she said: The glory is departed from Israel, for the ark of God is taken.

The ark of God among the Philistines; (3) the humiliation of their god; (6) chastisement of the people; (ch. 6. 2) restoration of the ark; (19) judgment on the men of Beth-shemesh; (ch. 7. 1) removal of the ark to Kirjath-jearim.

<sup>8</sup> They sent therefore and gathered all the princes of the Philistines unto them, and said: What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered: Let the ark of the God of Israel go about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about. <sup>9</sup> And it came to pass, after they had carried it about, that <sup>h</sup> the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction. And he smote the men of the city, both small and great; and emerods broke out upon them.

<sup>10</sup> And they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass, when the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out saying: They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to me, to slay me and my people. <sup>11</sup> So they sent and gathered together all the princes of the Philistines, and said: Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, that it slay me not, and my people. For there was deadly alarm throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there; <sup>12</sup> and the men that died not were smitten with the emerods. And the cry of the city went up to heaven.

<sup>4</sup> Then said they: What is the trespass-offering which we shall return to him? They answered: Five golden emerods and five golden mice, <sup>m</sup> the number of the princes of the Philistines: for one plague is on you all and on your princes. <sup>5</sup> And ye shall make images of your emerods, and images of your mice that mar the land. And ye shall <sup>n</sup> give glory unto the God of Israel. Per-adventure he will <sup>o</sup> lighten his hand from off you, and from off <sup>p</sup> your gods, and from off your land. <sup>6</sup> Wherefore <sup>q</sup> then do ye harden your heart, <sup>r</sup> as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their heart? When he had wrought wonderfully among them, <sup>s</sup> did they not let the people go, and they departed? <sup>7</sup> So now make <sup>t</sup> a new cart, and take two milch kine on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them. <sup>8</sup> And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold which ye return him for a trespass offering in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go. <sup>9</sup> And see, if it goeth up by the way of its own border to <sup>u</sup> Beth-shemesh, it is He that hath done us this great evil; but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that touched us; it was a chance that happened to us.

<sup>10</sup> And the men did so; and took two milch kine and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home: <sup>11</sup> and they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their emerods.* <sup>12</sup> And the kine took the straight way on the way to Beth-shemesh; they went along the highway, lowing as they went, and they turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the princes of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh.

they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. <sup>14</sup> And the cart came into the field of Joshua, the Beth-shemite, and stood there; and there was a great stone. And they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt-offering unto the LORD. <sup>15</sup> And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were; and they put them on the great stone. And the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt-offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD. <sup>16</sup> And the five princes of the Philistines saw it, and they returned to Ekron the same day.

<sup>17</sup> And these are the golden sores which the Philistines returned, for a trespass-offering unto the LORD; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one; <sup>18</sup> and the golden mice according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five princes, both fenced cities and country villages. And the <sup>2</sup> great stone whereon they set down the ark of the LORD is a <sup>y</sup> witness, unto this day, in the field of Joshua, the Beth-shemite.

<sup>19</sup> And He smote among the men of Beth-shemesh because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote among the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men. And the people lamented because the LORD had smitten the people with a great slaughter. <sup>20</sup> And the men of Beth-shemesh said: <sup>2</sup> Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? And to whom shall he go up from us? <sup>21</sup> And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of <sup>a</sup> Kirjath-jearim, saying: The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, fetch it up to you. <sup>7</sup> And the men of Kirjath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of <sup>b</sup> Abinadab on the hill. And they sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

Israel's conversion to God by the ministry of Samuel; (10) victory over the Philistines; (15) Samuel's government.

<sup>2</sup> AND it came to pass, while the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years. And all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD. <sup>3</sup> And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying: If ye <sup>a</sup> return unto the LORD with all your hearts, and <sup>b</sup> put away the strange gods and the <sup>c</sup> Ashtoreths from among you, and <sup>d</sup> prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and <sup>e</sup> serve him only; then he

<sup>7</sup> And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the princes of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard <sup>it</sup>, <sup>k</sup> they were afraid of the Philistines.

<sup>8</sup> And the children of Israel said to Samuel: <sup>l</sup> Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines. <sup>9</sup> And Samuel took a sucking-lamb, and offered <sup>it</sup> whole as a burnt-offering unto the LORD. And <sup>m</sup> Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel; and the LORD answered him.

<sup>10</sup> And as Samuel was offering up the burnt-offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. And <sup>n</sup> the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten before Israel. <sup>11</sup> And the men of Israel went out from Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines and smote them, as far as below Beth-car.

<sup>13</sup> So the Philistines were subdued; and they came no more into the border of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. <sup>14</sup> And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and their territory did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines.

And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

Samuel's appointment of his sons as judges; (3) their wickedness; (4) the people desire a king; (7) God grants their request, warning them of the consequences.

<sup>4</sup> Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah; <sup>5</sup> and they said to him: Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways; now <sup>f</sup> make us a king to judge us, like all the nations.

<sup>6</sup> But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD. <sup>7</sup> And the LORD said unto Samuel: <sup>g</sup> Hearken to the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee; for <sup>h</sup> they have not rejected thee, but <sup>i</sup> they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. <sup>8</sup> According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me and served other gods, so do they also unto thee. <sup>9</sup> Yet now hearken to their voice; howbeit protest solemnly unto them, and show them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

<sup>10</sup> And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people that asked of him a king. <sup>11</sup> And he said: <sup>k</sup> This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: <sup>l</sup> Your sons he will take and appoint for himself, for his chariots and his horsemen; and <sup>m</sup> they shall run before his chariots. <sup>12</sup> And <sup>n</sup> he will appoint for himself captains over thousands and captains over fifties; and some to plough his ground and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war and instruments of his chariots. <sup>13</sup> And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries and cooks and bakers. <sup>14</sup> And <sup>o</sup> your fields and your vineyards and your oliveyards, the best he will take and <sup>p</sup> give to his servants.* <sup>15</sup> And he will take the tenth of your seed and of your vineyards, and give to his officers and to his servants. <sup>16</sup> And your men-servants and your maid-servants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, he will take and put to his work. <sup>17</sup> He will take the tenth of your sheep. And ye shall be his servants. <sup>18</sup> And ye will cry out in that day because of your king whom ye shall have chosen for yourselves, and <sup>a</sup> the LORD will not hear you in that day.

<sup>19</sup> But the people <sup>r</sup> refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said: Nay, but there shall be a king over us; <sup>20</sup> that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles. <sup>21</sup> And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD.

9. NOW there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was <sup>a</sup> Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of wealth. <sup>2</sup> And he had a son whose name was Saul, a choice young man and goodly; and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he; <sup>b</sup> from his shoulder and upward taller than any of the people.

<sup>3</sup> And the asses of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son: Take, now, one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses. <sup>4</sup> And he passed through the hill-country of Ephraim, and passed through the land of <sup>c</sup> Shalisha; but they found them not; and they passed through the land of <sup>d</sup> Shaalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not. <sup>5</sup> And when they were come to the land of <sup>e</sup> Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him: Come, and let us return, lest my father leave caring for the asses and be anxious for us.

<sup>6</sup> And he said unto him: Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and the man is honoured; <sup>f</sup> all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can show us our way that we should go.

<sup>7</sup> Then said Saul to his servant: But behold, if we go, <sup>g</sup> what shall we bring to the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the man of God: what have we? <sup>8</sup> And the servant answered Saul again, and said: Behold, there is found in my hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver; and I will give it to the man of God, to tell us our way. <sup>9</sup> (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, thus spake he, Come, and let us go to the Seer; for he that is now called the Prophet was beforetime called the <sup>h</sup> Seer.) <sup>10</sup> Then said Saul to his servant: Well said; come, let us go. So they went to the city where the man of God was.

<sup>11</sup> And as they were going up the ascent to the city, <sup>i</sup> they found young maidens going out to draw water; and they said to them: Is the seer here? <sup>12</sup> And they answered them, and said: He is, lo, before thee. Make haste now, for he came to-day to the city; for <sup>k</sup> there is a sacrifice of the people to-day <sup>l</sup> in the high place. <sup>13</sup> As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he come; because he doth <sup>m</sup> bless the sacrifice; afterwards they that are bidden eat. Now therefore get you up; for about this time ye shall find him.

<sup>14</sup> And they went up into the city; and when they were come into the midst of the city, behold, Samuel came out to meet them, to go up to the high place.

<sup>15</sup> Now <sup>n</sup> the LORD had told in Samuel's ear, one day before Saul came, saying: <sup>16</sup> To-morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin; and <sup>o</sup> thou shalt anoint him captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines. For I have <sup>p</sup> looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me. <sup>17</sup> And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said unto him: <sup>q</sup> Behold the man whom I spake to thee of; <sup>r</sup> this shall reign over my people.

<sup>18</sup> Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the midst of the gate, and said: Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seer's house is. <sup>19</sup> And Samuel answered Saul and said: I am the Seer. Go up before me to the high place; for ye shall eat with me to-day; and to-morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that <sup>s</sup> is in thy heart. <sup>20</sup> And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom is <sup>t</sup> all the desire of Israel? Is it not on thee and on all thy father's house?

<sup>21</sup> And Saul answered and said: Am not I a Benjamite, of <sup>u</sup> the smallest of the tribes of Israel; and <sup>v</sup> my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

<sup>22</sup> And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into a chamber, and gave to them a place at the head of them that were bidden, who were about thirty persons. <sup>23</sup> And Samuel said to the cook : Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee. <sup>24</sup> And the cook took up <sup>u</sup> the shoulder and what was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said : Behold that which is reserved; set it before thee and eat; for unto this time hath it been kept for thee, since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

<sup>26</sup> And they arose early : and it came to pass about the dawning of the day, that Samuel called to Saul on the top of the house, saying : Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose; and they went out, both of them, he and Samuel, abroad. <sup>27</sup> And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul : Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still now, that I may show thee the word of God.

thee, to offer burnt-offerings and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace-offerings. <sup>m</sup> Seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and show thee what thou shalt do.

<sup>9</sup> And it was so that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel God gave him another heart. And all those signs came to pass that day. <sup>10</sup> And when they came thither to the hill, behold, <sup>n</sup> the company of prophets met him; and the spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

<sup>11</sup> And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another : What now is come unto the son of Kish? <sup>o</sup> Is Saul also among the prophets? <sup>12</sup> And one of the same place answered and said : But who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets?

<sup>13</sup> And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place. <sup>14</sup> And Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant : Whither went ye? And he said : To seek the asses; and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel. <sup>15</sup> And Saul's uncle said : Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you. <sup>16</sup> And Saul said unto his uncle : He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

<sup>17</sup> And Samuel called the people together <sup>p</sup> unto the LORD, to Mizpeh. <sup>18</sup> And he said to the children of Israel : <sup>q</sup> Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you. <sup>19</sup> And <sup>r</sup> ye have this day rejected your God, who himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations; and ye have said unto him, Nay, a king shalt thou set over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD, by your tribes and by your thousands.

<sup>20</sup> And when Samuel <sup>s</sup> had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken. <sup>21</sup> When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of the Matrites was taken. And Saul the son of Kish was taken.

And they sought him, but he was not found. <sup>22</sup> Therefore they inquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered : Behold, <sup>t</sup> he hath hid himself among the baggage; <sup>23</sup> and they ran and fetched him thence.

2<sup>a</sup> And Samuel said to all the people: See ye him <sup>2</sup> whom the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, "May the king live! 25 Then Samuel told the people <sup>2</sup> the manner* of the kingdom; and he wrote it in the book, and laid it up before the LORD.

And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. 26 And Saul also went home to <sup>a</sup> Gibeah. And there went with him a band of men <sup>b</sup> whose hearts God had touched. 27 But the sons of wickedness† said: How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and <sup>c</sup> brought him no presents. But he was as one deaf.

11. AND <sup>a</sup> Nahash the Ammonite came up and encamped against <sup>b</sup> Jabesh-gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash: <sup>c</sup> Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee. 2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them: On this condition will I make it with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it <sup>d</sup> for a reproach upon all Israel. 3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the borders of Israel; and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.

4 And the messengers came to <sup>e</sup> Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people. And all the people lifted up their voices and wept. 5 And behold, Saul came after the oxen out of the field; and Saul said: What aileth the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

6 And <sup>g</sup> the spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly. 7 And he took the yoke of oxen and <sup>h</sup> hewed them in pieces, and sent throughout all the borders of Israel, by the hands of messengers, saying: Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out <sup>i</sup> as one man. 8 And he numbered them in <sup>k</sup> Bezek; and the children of Israel were <sup>l</sup> three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

9 And they said to the messengers that came: Thus shall ye say to the men of Jabesh-gilead, To-morrow, when the sun is hot, ye shall have help. And the messengers came and reported to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad. 10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said: To-morrow we will come out to you, and ye shall do with us all that is good in your eyes.

11 And it was so on the morrow that Saul put the people <sup>m</sup> in three companies. And they came into the midst of the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day; and it came to pass, that they who remained were scattered, so that two among them were not left together.

12 And the people said to Samuel: "Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? Bring the men, that we may put them to death. 13 And Saul said: "There shall not a man be put to death this day; for to-day <sup>p</sup> the LORD hath wrought salvation in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people: Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there. 15 And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king <sup>q</sup> before the LORD in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed peace-offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced exceedingly.

And <sup>d</sup> I am old and gray-headed; and behold, my sons are with you; and <sup>e</sup> I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day. 3 Behold, here I am. up, that I may <sup>m</sup>reason with you before the LORD as to all <sup>n</sup>the righteous acts of the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers. <sup>8</sup>When <sup>o</sup>Jacob had come into Egypt, and your fathers <sup>p</sup>cried unto the LORD, then the LORD <sup>q</sup>sent Moses and Aaron, who <sup>r</sup>brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and <sup>s</sup>made them dwell in this place. <sup>9</sup>But they forgot the LORD their God; and he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of <sup>t</sup>the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of <sup>u</sup>Moab; and they fought against them. <sup>10</sup>And they cried unto the LORD and said: <sup>v</sup>We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and <sup>w</sup>have served the Baals and the Ashtoreths; but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD sent <sup>x</sup>Jrubbab and Bedan and <sup>y</sup>Jephthah and <sup>z</sup>Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe. <sup>12</sup>And when ye saw that <sup>a</sup>Nahash, the king of the children of Ammon, came against you, <sup>b</sup>ye said unto me: Nay, but a king shall reign over us; when <sup>c</sup>the LORD your God was your king. <sup>13</sup>And now behold the king <sup>d</sup>whom ye have chosen and whom ye have desired; and behold, <sup>e</sup>the LORD hath given a king over you. <sup>14</sup>If ye will fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you continue following the LORD your God. <sup>15</sup>But <sup>f</sup>if ye will not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, so shall the hand of the LORD be against you, and against your fathers. <sup>16</sup>And now <sup>g</sup>stand and see this great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes. <sup>17</sup>Is it not wheat-harvest to-day? <sup>h</sup>I will call unto the LORD, and he will send thunderings and rain; that ye may perceive and see that <sup>i</sup>your wickedness is great which ye have done in the sight of the LORD in asking for you a king. <sup>18</sup>And Samuel called unto the LORD, and the LORD sent thunderings and rain that day. And <sup>j</sup>all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel. <sup>19</sup>And all the people said unto Samuel: <sup>k</sup>Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not; for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask for us a king. <sup>20</sup>And Samuel said unto the people: <sup>l</sup>Fear not: ye have done all this evil; yet turn not aside from following the LORD; but serve the LORD with all your heart, and turn ye not aside; for then ye will go after the vain idols, which cannot profit nor deliver, for they are vanity. <sup>22</sup>For the LORD will not forsake his people <sup>m</sup>for his great name's sake; because <sup>n</sup>it hath pleased the LORD to make you his people. <sup>23</sup>Moreover as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you; but I will teach you in the good and the right way. <sup>24</sup>Only <sup>o</sup>fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider how <sup>p</sup>great things he hath done for you. <sup>25</sup>But if ye shall still do wickedly, <sup>q</sup>ye shall be consumed, both ye and your king.

13. SAUL reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel, <sup>2</sup>Saul chose for himself three thousand of Israel; two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the hill-country of Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin; and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

<sup>3</sup>And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba; and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear! <sup>4</sup>And all Israel heard say: Saul hath smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and Israel also is abhorred among the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

<sup>5</sup>And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel; thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea-shore in multitude. And they came up, and encamped in Michmash, eastward from <sup>a</sup>Beth-aven.

<sup>6</sup>And when the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) the people <sup>b</sup>hid themselves in the caves and in the thickets and in the rocks and in the holds and in the pits. <sup>7</sup>And some of the Hebrews went over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. And Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. <sup>8</sup>And <sup>c</sup>he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed; but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people scattered from him. <sup>9</sup>And Saul said: Bring to me the burnt-offering and the peace-offerings. And he offered the burnt-offering.

<sup>10</sup>And it came to pass, that when he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him.

<sup>11</sup> And Samuel said: What hast thou done? And Saul said: Because I saw that the people scattered from me, and thou camest not within the days appointed, and the Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash; <sup>12</sup> therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the LORD; so I forced myself, and offered the burnt-offering.

<sup>15</sup> And Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were found with him, <sup>g</sup> about six hundred men. <sup>16</sup> And Saul and Jonathan his son, and the people that were found with them, abode in Geba of Benjamin.

Devastation of the country by the Philistines; (19) the disarmed condition of the Israelites; (ch. 14.1) Jonathan's faith and heroism; (16) great victory over the Philistines; (24) Saul's rash adoration, and its consequences.

AND the Philistines encamped in Michmash. <sup>17</sup> And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned to the way of <sup>a</sup> Ophrah, unto the land of Shual; <sup>18</sup> and another company turned the way to <sup>b</sup> Beth-horon; and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh over the valley of <sup>c</sup> Zeboim towards the wilderness.

that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour: Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side. But he told not his father.

<sup>4</sup> And between <sup>k</sup> the passages by which Jonathan sought to go over against the Philistines' garrison there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side; and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. <sup>5</sup> The forefront of the one was situate northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Geba.

<sup>6</sup> And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour: Come, and let us go over to the garrison of these <sup>l</sup> uncircumcised. It may be that the LORD will work for us; for there is no restraint to the LORD <sup>m</sup> to save by many or by few. <sup>7</sup> And his armour-bearer said to him: Do all that is in thy heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

<sup>8</sup> Then said Jonathan: Behold, we will pass over to the men, and we will discover ourselves to them. <sup>9</sup> If they say thus to us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up to them. <sup>10</sup> But if they say thus, Come up against us; then we will go up; for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand; and <sup>n</sup> this is the sign unto us.

<sup>11</sup> And they two discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said: Behold Hebrews coming forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves. <sup>12</sup> And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armour-bearer, and said: Come up to us, and we will tell you something. And Jonathan said to his armour-bearer: Come up after me; for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel. <sup>13</sup> And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armour-bearer after him.

And <sup>o</sup> they fell before Jonathan; and his armour-bearer slew after him. <sup>14</sup> And the first slaughter which Jonathan and his armour-bearer made was about twenty men, within as it were half an acre of land.

<sup>24</sup> But the men of Israel were distressed that day; for Saul had <sup>y</sup> adjured the people, saying: Cursed be the man that eateth food until the evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted food. <sup>25</sup> And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was <sup>z</sup> honey upon the face of the field. <sup>26</sup> And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath. <sup>27</sup> But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath; wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in the wild honey, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened. <sup>28</sup> And one of the people answered and said: Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth food this day; and the people are faint.

<sup>a</sup> troubled the land. See, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened because I tasted a little of this honey. <sup>30</sup> Yea more, would that the people had eaten freely to-day of the spoil of their enemies which they found! For now the slaughter hath not been great among the Philistines.

<sup>31</sup> And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Ajalon. But the people were very faint; <sup>32</sup> and the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep and oxen and calves, and slew them on the ground; and the people did eat <sup>b</sup> with the blood.

<sup>33</sup> And they told Saul, saying: Behold, the people sin against the LORD, to eat with the blood. And he said: Ye have acted treacherously. Roll a great stone unto me this day. <sup>34</sup> And Saul said: Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, Bring me hither, every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay here and eat; and sin not against the LORD by eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there. <sup>35</sup> And Saul built an altar unto the LORD: he began to build it as an altar unto the LORD.

<sup>36</sup> And Saul said: Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said: Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee.

Then <sup>c</sup> said the priest: Let us draw near hither unto God. <sup>37</sup> And Saul asked of God: Shall I go down after the Philistines? Wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But <sup>d</sup> he answered him not that day.

But not a man among all the people answered him.

<sup>40</sup> Then said he unto all Israel: Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. 15. AND Samuel said unto Saul: <sup>a</sup> The LORD sent me to anoint thee king over his people, over Israel; now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember what Amalek did to Israel, <sup>b</sup> how he set himself against him in the way, when he came up from Egypt. <sup>3</sup> Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

b Ex. 17. 8—16; Deu. 25. 17—19.

<sup>24</sup> And <sup>25</sup> Saul said unto Samuel: I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words, because <sup>26</sup> I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. <sup>27</sup> Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD. <sup>28</sup> And Samuel said unto Saul: I will not return with thee; for <sup>29</sup> thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

<sup>30</sup> Then he said: I have sinned; <sup>31</sup> honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel; and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God. <sup>32</sup> So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

<sup>32</sup> Then said Samuel: Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of Amalek. And Agag came unto him cheerfully: and Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. <sup>33</sup> And Samuel said: <sup>34</sup> As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be more childless than women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup> Then Samuel went to Ramah. And Saul went up to his house, to <sup>35</sup> Gibeah of Saul. <sup>36</sup> And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death; for Samuel mourned for Saul. And the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

16. AND the LORD said unto Samuel: How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing <sup>1</sup> I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? <sup>2</sup> Fill thy horn with oil, and go; I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite; for <sup>3</sup> I have provided for me a king among his sons. <sup>4</sup> And Samuel said: How can I go? Saul will both hear, and will kill me. And the LORD said, Take a heifer in thy hand, and say: <sup>5</sup> I <sup>6</sup> am come to sacrifice to the LORD: <sup>7</sup> and call Jesse to the sacrifice; and <sup>8</sup> I will show thee what thou shalt do: and <sup>9</sup> thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

<sup>4</sup> And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and went to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the town <sup>5</sup> trembled at his coming, and said: <sup>6</sup> Comest thou peaceably? <sup>7</sup> And he said: Peaceably; I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD. <sup>8</sup> Sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

<sup>6</sup> And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on <sup>7</sup> Eliab, and said: Surely the LORD's anointed is before him. <sup>8</sup> But the LORD said unto Samuel: Look not on his countenance or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him. For <sup>9</sup> I see not as man seeth; for <sup>10</sup> man looketh on the outward appearance, but the <sup>11</sup> LORD looketh on the heart. <sup>12</sup> Then Jesse called <sup>13</sup> Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel; and he said: Neither lieth the LORD chosen this. <sup>14</sup> Then Jesse made <sup>15</sup> Shammah to pass by; and he said: Neither hath the LORD chosen this. <sup>16</sup> And Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel; and Samuel said unto Jesse: The LORD hath not chosen these.

<sup>11</sup> And Samuel said unto Jesse: Are here all the lads? And he said: There remaineth yet the youngest, and behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said to Jesse: <sup>12</sup> Send and fetch him; for we will not surround the table till he come hither. <sup>13</sup> And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was <sup>14</sup> ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance*, and goodly to look at. And <sup>15</sup> the LORD said: Arise, anoint him; for this is he. <sup>16</sup> Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and <sup>17</sup> anointed him in the midst of his brethren. And <sup>18</sup> the spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. And Samuel rose up and went to Ramah.

a javelin of brass between his shoulders. <sup>7</sup> And <sup>e</sup> the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron; and the shield-bearer went before him.

<sup>8</sup> And he stood and cried unto the ranks of Israel, and said to them: Why are ye come out to set the battle in array? Am not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? Choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me. <sup>9</sup> If he be able to fight with me and to kill me, then will we be your servants; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then shall ye be our servants and shall serve us. <sup>10</sup> And the Philistine said: I <sup>f</sup> defy the armies of Israel this day. Give me a man, that we may fight together. <sup>11</sup> And Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, and they were dismayed and feared greatly.

of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the ranks of the Philistines; and he spake according to those words; and David heard them. <sup>24</sup> And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid.

<sup>25</sup> And the men of Israel said: Have ye seen this man that cometh up? Surely to defy Israel he cometh up; and it shall be, the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and <sup>o</sup> will give him his daughter, and make his father's house <sup>p</sup> free in Israel.

<sup>26</sup> And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying: What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and turneth away defiance from Israel? For who is this <sup>q</sup> uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of <sup>r</sup> the living God? <sup>27</sup> And the people answered him after this manner, saying: So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

<sup>28</sup> And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake to the men. And Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said: Why camest thou down hither? And with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride and the naughtiness of thy heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle. <sup>29</sup> And David said: What have I now done? Is it not <sup>a</sup> a command? <sup>30</sup> And he turned from him towards another, and spake after that manner. And the people returned him word after the former manner.

<sup>31</sup> And the words were heard which David spake, and they rehearsed them before Saul; and he sent for him. <sup>32</sup> And David said to Saul: <sup>t</sup> Let no man's heart fail because of him. <sup>u</sup> Thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine. <sup>33</sup> And Saul said to David: <sup>z</sup> Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for thou art a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

<sup>34</sup> And David said unto Saul: Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock; <sup>35</sup> and I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth; and he arose against me, but I caught his beard, and smote him and slew him. <sup>36</sup> Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear. And this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God. <sup>37</sup> David said moreover: The LORD who delivered me out of the paw of the lion and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David: Go, and <sup>v</sup> the LORD be with thee.

<sup>38</sup> And Saul clothed David with his own garments, and he put a helmet of brass upon his head; also he clothed him with a coat of mail. <sup>39</sup> And David girded his sword upon his garments, and he assayed to go; for he had not tried them. And David said unto Saul: I cannot go in these; for I have not tried them; <sup>40</sup> and David put them off him. And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook*, and put them in the shepherd's bag which he had, even in the scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine. <sup>41</sup> And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the shield-bearer before him.

<sup>42</sup> And the Philistine looked about and saw David; and he disdained him; for he was a youth, and his sling was of a fair countenance. <sup>43</sup> And the Philistine said to David: <sup>a</sup> Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. <sup>44</sup> And the Philistine said to David: Come to me, and I will give thy flesh to the fowls of the heaven and to the beasts of the field.

<sup>45</sup> Then said David to the Philistine: Thou comest to me with a sword and with a spear and with a javelin; but <sup>b</sup> I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied. <sup>46</sup> This day will the LORD deliver thee into my hand; and I will smite thee, and take thy head from thee; and I will give <sup>c</sup> the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air and to the wild beasts of the earth; <sup>d</sup> that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. <sup>47</sup> And all this assembly shall know that <sup>e</sup> the LORD saveth not with sword and spear; for <sup>f</sup> the battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hands.

<sup>48</sup> And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted and ran toward the ranks to meet the Philistine. <sup>49</sup> And David put his hand into the bag, and took thence a stone, and he slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, and the stone sank into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth. <sup>50</sup> So <sup>g</sup> David prevailed over the Philistine with the sling and with the stone, and smote the Philistine and slew him. But there was no sword in the hand of David; <sup>51</sup> so David ran, and stood by the Philistine, and <sup>h</sup> took his sword, and drew it out of its sheath, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith.

And when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. <sup>52</sup> And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to a valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down in the way of <sup>53</sup> Shaaraim, even to Gath and to Ekron. <sup>54</sup> And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their camp. <sup>55</sup> And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem; and he put his armour in his tent.

David with Saul and Abner; (ch. 18. 1.) Jonathan's friendship for him; (5) his great popularity; (8) Saul's jealousy of him, and plots against his life.

<sup>55</sup> AND when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the host: Abner, <sup>a</sup> whose son is this youth? And Abner said: As thy soul liveth, O king, I know not! <sup>56</sup> And the king said: Inquire thou whose son the stripling is. <sup>57</sup> And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand. <sup>58</sup> And Saul said to him: Whose son art thou, young man? And David answered: The son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.

<sup>18</sup> And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and <sup>b</sup> Jonathan loved him as his own soul. <sup>2</sup> And Saul took him that day, and did not let him return to his father's house. <sup>3</sup> Then Jonathan and David <sup>c</sup> made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. <sup>4</sup> And Jonathan <sup>d</sup> stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword and to his bow and to his girdle.

<sup>5</sup> And David went forth; in all whereto Saul sent him, he prospered.* And Saul set him over the men of war; and he was accepted in the eyes of all the people, and also in the eyes of Saul's servants.

Saul <sup>g</sup> hath smitten his thousands,
And David his ten thousands.

<sup>8</sup> And Saul was very wroth, and that saying was evil in his eyes; and he said: They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands; and there is only <sup>h</sup> the kingdom more for him. <sup>9</sup> And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

<sup>17</sup> And Saul said to David: Behold my eldest daughter Merab, <sup>q</sup> her will I give thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me, and fight <sup>r</sup> the LORD's battles. And Saul said: <sup>s</sup> Let not my hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him. <sup>18</sup> And David said to Saul: <sup>t</sup> Who am I, and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king? <sup>19</sup> But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given to <sup>u</sup> Adriel the <sup>v</sup> Mecholathite to wife.

<sup>20</sup> And Michal Saul's daughter loved David; and they told Saul, and the thing was right in his eyes. <sup>21</sup> And Saul said: I will give him her, that she may be <sup>w</sup> a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be upon him. Wherefore Saul said to David: Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law a second time.

<sup>22</sup> And Saul commanded his servants: Speak ye to David secretly, saying, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee; so now be the king's son-in-law. <sup>23</sup> And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said: Is it in your eyes a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, and I am a poor man and lightly esteemed? <sup>24</sup> And the servants of Saul told him saying: On this manner spake David. <sup>25</sup> And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David: The king dethither, to Naioth in Ramah. And <sup>o</sup> the spirit of God was upon him, even him; and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. <sup>24</sup> And he also stripped off his clothes, and he also prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and fell down <sup>a</sup> undressed all that day and all that night. Jonathan's last attempt to reconcile his father to David; (42) solemn covenant of friendship between David and Jonathan.

18. 10, 11.

<sup>11</sup> And Saul <sup>b</sup> sent messengers to David's house, to watch him, and to kill him in the morning. And Michal, David's wife, told him, saying: If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou wilt be killed. <sup>12</sup> So Michal <sup>c</sup> let David down through the window; and he went, and fled and escaped. <sup>13</sup> And Michal took <sup>d</sup> the image, <sup>e</sup> and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with the cloth. <sup>14</sup> And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said: He is sick. <sup>15</sup> And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying: Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him. <sup>16</sup> And when the messengers were come in, behold, the image in the bed, with the pillow of goats' hair at its head. <sup>17</sup> And Saul said unto Michal: Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul: He said unto me, Let me go; why should I kill thee?

20, AND David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan: What have I done? What is mine iniquity, and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life? <sup>2</sup> And he said unto him: <sup>a</sup> Far be it! Thou shalt not die. Behold, my father will do nothing either great or small and not inform me; and why should my father hide this thing from me? This is not so. <sup>3</sup> And David swore again, and said: Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is only a step between me and death.

<sup>4</sup> Then said Jonathan to David: What saith thy soul? that I may do it for thee. <sup>5</sup> And David said to Jonathan: Behold, it is <sup>b</sup> new moon to-morrow, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat; but let me go, that I may <sup>c</sup> hide myself in the field until the third evening. <sup>6</sup> If thy father verily miss me, then say, David earnestly asked of me that he might run <sup>d</sup> to Beth-lehem his city; for there is the yearly sacrifice for all the family. <sup>7</sup> If he say thus, Well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, be sure that <sup>e</sup> evil is determined by him. <sup>8</sup> And thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for <sup>f</sup> thou hast brought thy servant into the LORD's covenant with thee. But <sup>g</sup> if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; and why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

<sup>9</sup> And Jonathan said: Far be it from thee, that if I know certainly that evil is determined by my father to come upon thee, then I tell it not to thee.

<sup>10</sup> Then said David to Jonathan: Who shall tell me, if thy father answer thee roughly? <sup>11</sup> And Jonathan said to David: Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

<sup>12</sup> And Jonathan said to David: O LORD, the God of Israel! When I have sounded my father about this time to-morrow, or the day after, and behold, it is good for David, and I then send not unto thee, and inform thee, <sup>13</sup> the <sup>a</sup> LORD do so and much more to Jonathan. But if it please my father to bring evil upon thee, then I will show it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace. And <sup>i</sup> the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father. <sup>14</sup> And thou shalt not only while yet I live show me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not; <sup>15</sup> but <sup>k</sup> thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever, no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.

<sup>24</sup> So David hid himself in the field. And the new moon was come, and the king sat him down to eat his food; <sup>25</sup> and the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, on the seat by the wall. And Jonathan arose, and <sup>o</sup> Abner sat by Saul's side; and David's place was empty. <sup>26</sup> Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing on that day: for he thought: Something hath befallen him; † he is <sup>p</sup> not clean, surely he is not clean.

<sup>27</sup> And it came to pass on the morrow, the second day of the new-moon, that David's place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son: Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday nor to-day? <sup>28</sup> And Jonathan answered Saul: David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Therefore he hath not come unto the king's table.

<sup>30</sup> Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him: Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman! Do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own shame, and to the shame of thy mother's nakedness? <sup>31</sup> For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die.

<sup>35</sup> And it came to pass in the morning that Jonathan went out into the field, at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him. <sup>36</sup> And he said to his lad: Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And the lad ran, and he shot the arrow beyond him. <sup>37</sup> And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said: Is not the arrow away beyond thee? <sup>38</sup> And Jonathan cried after the lad: Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master. <sup>39</sup> But the lad knew not any thing; only Jonathan and David knew the matter. <sup>40</sup> And Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad, and said to him: Go, carry them to the city. <sup>41</sup> And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose from the side of the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times. And they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded.

<sup>42</sup> And Jonathan said to David: <sup>e</sup> Go in peace; forasmuch as we both of us have sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed; and Jonathan came into the city.

David's flight to Nob, (19) to Gath, (ch. 22. 1) to the cave of Adullam, (2) where a large band of men collect around him; (3) thence to Moab, and (6) to the wilderness of Judah.

21. AND David came to <sup>a</sup> Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech was <sup>b</sup> afraid at meeting David, and said to him: Why art thou alone, and no man with thee? <sup>2</sup> And David said to Ahimelech the priest: The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said to me, Let no man know any thing of the business for which I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants* to such and such a place. <sup>3</sup> Now therefore what is under thy hand? Give five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever is found.

<sup>4</sup> And the priest answered David and said: No common bread is under my hand, but there is <sup>c</sup> hallowed bread; <sup>d</sup> if the young men have kept themselves at least from women. <sup>5</sup> And David answered the priest, and said to him: Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out; and <sup>e</sup> the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, though it were hallowed to-day in the vessels.

<sup>6</sup> And the priest <sup>f</sup> gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the shew-bread <sup>g</sup> that was taken away from before the LORD, to put on hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

<sup>10</sup> And David arose and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath. <sup>11</sup> And <sup>n</sup> the servants of Achish said respecting him: Is not this David the king of the land? Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily. <sup>5</sup> And it came to pass afterwards that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. <sup>6</sup> And he said to his men: <sup>f</sup> The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD. <sup>7</sup> So David <sup>g</sup> stayed his servants with these words, and <sup>h</sup> suffered them not to rise against Saul.

And Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way. <sup>8</sup> David also arose afterwards, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king! And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself down.

<sup>9</sup> And David said to Saul: Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt? <sup>10</sup> Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to-day into my hand in the cave; and they bade me to kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth my hand against my lord; for he is <sup>i</sup> the LORD's anointed.

And David arose, and went down to <sup>d</sup> the wilderness of Paran. <sup>2</sup> And there was a man in <sup>e</sup> Maon whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats; and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. <sup>3</sup> And the man's name was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail; and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance; but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was a Calebite.

words in the name of David, and ceased.
<sup>10</sup> And Nabal answered David's servants, and said: Who is David, and who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants now-a-days that break away every man from his master. <sup>11</sup> Shall I then take my bread and my water, and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give unto men whom I know not whence they are?

<sup>12</sup> So David's young men turned their way and went back, and came and told him all those words. <sup>13</sup> And David said unto his men: Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword. And there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred <sup>14</sup> abode by the baggage.

<sup>14</sup> But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying: Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to bless our master, and he railed on them. <sup>15</sup> But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, nor did we miss any thing, as long as we went about with them, when we were in the field; <sup>16</sup> they were a wall unto us, both night and day, all the days we were with them keeping the sheep. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for <sup>18</sup> evil is determined against our master and against all his household; for he is such a son of <sup>19</sup> wickedness that none can speak to him.

<sup>21</sup> And David said: Surely in vain have I kept all that this man hath in the wilderness, and nothing was missed of all that pertained to him; and he hath returned me evil for good. <sup>22</sup> So <sup>23</sup> o and more also let God do unto the enemies of David, if of all that pertaineth to him I leave till the morning light one male.*

be: but let now thy handmaid, speak in thine ears; and hear thou the words of thy handmaid. <sup>25</sup> Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of wickedness, Nabal: for as his name, so is he; Nabal [i. e. Fool] is his name, and folly is with him: but I thy handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send. <sup>26</sup> And now, my lord, <sup>27</sup> as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, because <sup>28</sup> the LORD hath withholden thee from coming with blood-shed and from avenging* thyself with thine own hand, even now <sup>29</sup> let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord be as Nabal. <sup>27</sup> And now <sup>28</sup> this blessing which thy handmaid hath brought to my lord, even let it be given to the young men that walk in the footsteps of my lord. <sup>28</sup> Forgive, I pray thee, the trespass of thy handmaid. For <sup>29</sup> the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house; because my lord <sup>30</sup> fiftieth the battles of the LORD, and <sup>31</sup> evil will not be found in thee any of thy days. <sup>29</sup> If a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy life, yet the life of my lord shall be <sup>32</sup> bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and the lives of thine enemies, he shall sling it out as out of the middle of a sling. <sup>30</sup> And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord <sup>31</sup> according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee prince over Israel, <sup>31</sup> that this shall be no grief† unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged† himself. But when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thou thy handmaid.

<sup>32</sup> And David said to Abigail: <sup>33</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who sent thee this day to meet me. <sup>33</sup> And blessed be thy discretion; and blessed be thou, who hast kept me this day from coming with bloodshed, and from avenging myself with mine own hand. <sup>34</sup> For in very deed, as the LORD, the God of Israel liveth, who hath kept me back from hurting thee, if thou hadst not hastened and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light any male.

<sup>35</sup> And David received of her hand what she had brought him; and he said to her: <sup>36</sup> Go up in peace to thy house. See, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.

<sup>36</sup> And Abigail came to Nabal; and behold, he had a feast in his house, like the king's feast; and Nabal's heart was merry over it, and he was very drunken. And she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light. <sup>37</sup> But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, that his wife told him these things; and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. <sup>38</sup> And it came to pass in about ten days after, that the LORD smote Nabal, that he died.

<sup>39</sup> And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said: Blessed be the LORD who hath <sup>m</sup>pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept back his servant from evil; for the LORD hath <sup>n</sup>returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife. <sup>40</sup> And when the servants of David were come to Abigail at Carmel, they spake to her, saying: David sent us to thee, to take thee to him to wife. <sup>41</sup> And she arose and bowed down herself on her face to the earth, and said: Behold, <sup>o</sup>thy handmaid is a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. <sup>42</sup> And Abigail hastened and arose, and rode upon an ass, <sup>p</sup>with five damsels of hers that went after her; and she followed the messengers of David; and she became his wife. <sup>43</sup> David also took Ahinoam of <sup>q</sup>Jezreel; and they became even both of them his wives. <sup>44</sup> But Saul gave <sup>r</sup>Michal his daughter, David's wife, to <sup>s</sup>Phalti the son of Laish, who was of <sup>t</sup>Gallim.

<sup>5</sup>And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had encamped. And David beheld the place where Saul lay, and <sup>b</sup>Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay within <sup>c</sup>the wagon-defence, and the people were encamped round about him.

son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying: Who will go down with me to Saul, to the camp? And Abishai said: I will go down with thee. <sup>7</sup>And David and Abishai came to the people by night. And behold, Saul lay sleeping within <sup>d</sup>the wagon-defence, and his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people lay round about him. <sup>8</sup>And Abishai said to David: <sup>e</sup>God hath delivered thine enemy into thy hand this day; and now let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear, even to the earth once, and I will not do it twice.

<sup>13</sup>Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of the mountain afar off; the space between them being great. <sup>14</sup>And David called to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying: Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said: Who art thou that callest to the king? <sup>15</sup>And David said to Abner: Art not thou a man? And who is like to thee in Israel? Wherefore then hast thou not guarded thy lord the king? For there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord. <sup>16</sup>This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are worthy of death, because ye have not guarded your master, <sup>n</sup>the LORD's anointed. And now see where is the king's spear, and find the cruse of water that was at his head.

driven me out this day from joining myself in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods. <sup>20</sup> And now let not my blood fall to the earth from before the face of the LORD. For the king of Israel is come out to seek <sup>a</sup> a flea, as when one pursueth a partridge on the mountains.

And David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

<sup>27</sup> AND David said in his heart: <sup>a</sup> I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, to seek me any more in all the border of Israel; and I shall escape out of his hand.

<sup>5</sup> And David said unto Achish: If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the country, that I may dwell there; for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee? <sup>6</sup> And Achish gave him Ziklag that day. (Wherefore <sup>f</sup> Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day.) <sup>7</sup> And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

28. AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies* together for the warfare, to fight with Israel.

And Achish said unto David: Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me in the camp, thou and thy men. <sup>2</sup> And David said to Achish: Therefore thou shalt know what thy servant will do. And Achish said to David: Therefore will I make thee guard for my head for ever.

<sup>7</sup> Then said Saul to his servants: Seek me <sup>i</sup> a woman, mistress of necromancy, that I may go to her and inquire of her. And his servants said to him: Behold, there is a woman, mistress of necromancy, in En-dor.

<sup>9</sup> And the woman said to him: Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off the necromancers and the wizards out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die? <sup>10</sup> And Saul sware to her by the LORD, saying: <sup>11</sup> As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing. <sup>12</sup> Then said the woman: Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said: Bring me up Samuel.

<sup>13</sup> And the woman saw Samuel; and she cried out with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying: Why hast thou deceived me? Even thou art Saul. <sup>14</sup> And the king said unto her: Be not afraid; for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul: I saw <sup>m</sup>gods ascending out of the earth. <sup>15</sup> And he said to her: What is his form? And she said: An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul knew that he was Samuel; and he stooped with his face to the ground and bowed himself down.

<sup>16</sup> And Samuel said to Saul: Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered: "I am sore distressed; both the Philistines make war against me, and <sup>o</sup>God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by the prophets nor by dreams; therefore I have called for thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

<sup>17</sup> Then said Samuel: And why dost thou ask me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy? <sup>18</sup> And the LORD hath done for himself <sup>p</sup>as he spake by me; and the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thy hand, and given it to thy neighbour, to David. <sup>19</sup> Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, and didst not execute his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day. <sup>20</sup> And <sup>r</sup>the LORD will deliver Israel also with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and <sup>s</sup>tomorrow thou and thy sons shall be with me: also the host <sup>t</sup>of Israel will the LORD deliver into the hand of the Philistines.

<sup>21</sup> And Saul straightway fell his full length on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel; and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all that day and all that night.

<sup>22</sup> And the woman came to Saul; and she saw that he was sore troubled; and she said to him: Behold, thy handmaid hath hearkened to thy voice, and I have <sup>u</sup>put my life in my hand, and have obeyed thy words which thou spakest to me. <sup>23</sup> And now, I pray thee, hearken thou unto the voice of thy handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat thou, that thou mayest have strength when thou goest on thy way. <sup>24</sup> But he refused and said: I will not eat. And his servants, and also the woman, compelled him; so he hearkened to their voice; and he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed. <sup>25</sup> And <sup>v</sup>the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted and killed it; and she took flour and kneaded and baked unleavened bread thereof; <sup>26</sup> and she brought them near before Saul and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

<sup>28</sup> And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands; and David and his men passed on in the rearward <sup>z</sup>with Achish. <sup>29</sup> Then said the princes of the Philistines: What are these Hebrews? And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines: Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who hath been with me these days or these years, and I have found no fault in him from the day of his falling off until this day?

<sup>30</sup> And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said to him: <sup>a</sup>Make the man return, and let him go again to his place where thou hast appointed him; and he shall not go down with us to the battle; and <sup>b</sup>he shall not become an adversary to us in the battle. For wherewith shall he reconcile himself unto his master? Is it not with the heads of these men? <sup>c</sup>Is not this David, to whom they sang in dances, saying, <sup>d</sup>Saul smote his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

<sup>31</sup> Then Achish called David, and said to him: Surely, as the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the camp hath been good in my sight; for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming to me unto this day; but in the eyes of the lords thou art not good. <sup>7</sup> So now return, and go in peace, that thou do not evil in the eyes of the lords of the Philistines.

<sup>8</sup> And David said to Achish: But what have I done, and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king? <sup>9</sup> And Achish answered and said to David: I know that thou art good in my sight, <sup>9</sup> as the angel of God; but the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle. <sup>10</sup> So now rise up early in the morning, and thy master's servants that are come with thee, and as soon as ye are up early in the morning, and have day-light, depart.

<sup>11</sup> So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

30. AND it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the South and Ziklag. And they had smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire; <sup>2</sup> and had taken the women captives that were therein, both great and small; they slew not any, but carried them away, and went on their way. <sup>3</sup> So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captives.

<sup>7</sup> And <sup>d</sup> David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son: Bring near to me, I pray thee, the ephod. And Abiathar brought the ephod near to David. <sup>8</sup> And <sup>e</sup> David inquired of the LORD, saying: Shall I pursue after this troop? Shall I overtake it? And He answered him: Pursue; for thou shalt surely overtake, and certainly rescue.

<sup>9</sup> And David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Besor; where those that were left behind stayed. <sup>10</sup> But David pursued, he and four hundred men; and two hundred stayed behind, who were too faint to go over the brook Besor.

<sup>11</sup> And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David; and they gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water; <sup>12</sup> and they gave him a piece of fig-cake and two raisin-cakes. And <sup>f</sup> he ate, and his spirit came again to him; for he had eaten no bread nor drunk water three days and three nights.

<sup>13</sup> And David said unto him: Whose art thou? And whence art thou? And he said: I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me because three days ago I fell sick. <sup>14</sup> We invaded the south of <sup>g</sup> the Cherethites, and upon what belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of <sup>h</sup> Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.

<sup>15</sup> And David said to him: Wilt thou bring me down to this troop? And he said: Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me nor <sup>i</sup> deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this troop.

<sup>21</sup> And David came to the two hundred men who were too faint to follow David; whom they had made to abide at the brook Besor; and they came forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him; and David came near to the people, and he saluted them. <sup>22</sup> And all the bad and wicked men of the men that went with David answered and said: Because they went not with us, we will not give them of the spoil that we have rescued, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away and go.

<sup>23</sup> Then said David: Ye shall not do so, my brethren, as to what the LORD hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the troop that came against us into our hand. <sup>24</sup> And who will hearken unto you in this matter? But <sup>2</sup> as the share of him that goeth down to the battle, even so shall be the share of him that tarrieth by the baggage; they shall share alike. <sup>25</sup> And it was from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

<sup>26</sup> And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying: Behold a blessing for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD; <sup>27</sup> to them that were in Beth-el, and to them that were in <sup>m</sup> Ramoth, of the South, and to them that were in <sup>n</sup> Jattir, <sup>28</sup> and to them that were in <sup>o</sup> Aroer, and to them that were in Siphmoth, and to them that were in <sup>p</sup> Eshtemoa, <sup>29</sup> and to them that were in Rachal, and to them that were in the cities of <sup>q</sup> the Jerahmeelites, and to them that were in the cities of the <sup>r</sup> Kenites, <sup>30</sup> and to them that were in <sup>s</sup> Hormah, and to them that were in Chor-ashan, and to them that were in Athach, <sup>31</sup> and to them that were in <sup>t</sup> Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men went about.

Saul, and the archers hit him; and he was sore afraid of the archers. <sup>4</sup> Then <sup>e</sup> said Saul to his armour-bearer: Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest <sup>f</sup> these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and mock at me. But his armour-bearer would not; for <sup>g</sup> he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took the sword and <sup>h</sup> fell upon it. <sup>5</sup> And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell upon his sword, and died with him. <sup>6</sup> So <sup>i</sup> Saul died, and <sup>k</sup> his three sons, and his armour-bearer, and all his men, that day together.

<sup>7</sup> And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and that were on the other side of the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

<sup>11</sup> And the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard of that which the Philistines had done to Saul; <sup>12</sup> and <sup>q</sup> all the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and <sup>r</sup> burnt them there. <sup>13</sup> And they took and <sup>s</sup> buried their bones under the tamarisk-tree at Jabesh; and they fasted <sup>t</sup> seven days.

1. AND it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David had returned from <sup>a</sup> the slaughter of the Amalekites, that David abode two days in Ziklag; <sup>2</sup> and it came to pass on the third day, that behold, <sup>b</sup> a man came out of the camp from Saul, <sup>c</sup> with his clothes rent and earth upon his head; and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth and did obeisance.

comest thou? And he said to him: Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped. <sup>4</sup> And David said to him: How went the matter? Tell me, I pray thee. And he answered, that the people fled from the battle, and many of the people also fell and died; and also Saul and Jonathan his son died.

<sup>5</sup> And David said to the young man that told him: How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son died? <sup>6</sup> And the young man that told him said: I happened by chance to be upon <sup>a</sup> mount Gilboa; and behold, <sup>6</sup> Saul was leaning upon his spear; and lo, the chariots and the horsemen were pursuing him. <sup>7</sup> And he looked behind him, and saw me, and he called to me; and I answered: Here am I. <sup>8</sup> And he said to me: Who art thou? And I answered him: I am an Amalekite. <sup>9</sup> He said to me again: Stand, I pray thee, over me, and slay me, for anguish is come upon me*, because my life is yet whole in me. <sup>10</sup> So I stood over him, and slew him, because I knew that he could not live after his falling. And I took the crown that was upon his head and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

How are the mighty fallen!

<sup>20</sup> Tell <sup>n</sup> it not in Gath, Publish it not in the streets of Askelon;
Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,

Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

No <sup>p</sup> dew, and no rain be upon you,
Nor fields of offerings!
For there was the shield of the mighty vilely cast away,
The shield of Saul, not anointed with the oil.

<sup>22</sup> From the blood of the slain,
From the fat of the mighty,
The <sup>q</sup> bow of Jonathan turned not back,
And the sword of Saul returned not empty.

<sup>23</sup> Saul and Jonathan, lovely and pleasant in their lives,
Even in their death were not divided:
They were swifter than eagles,
They were stronger than lions.

<sup>24</sup> Ye daughters of Israel, weep for Saul,
Who clothed you in scarlet with splendour,
Who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

<sup>25</sup> How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle!

O Jonathan, slain upon thy high places:
<sup>26</sup> I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan!

Very pleasant hast thou been unto me:
Thy <sup>r</sup> love to me was wonderful,
Passing women's love.

<sup>27</sup> How are the mighty fallen,
And the weapons of war perished!

2. AND it came to pass after this, that David <sup>a</sup> inquired of the LORD, saying: Shall I go up unto one of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him: Go up. And David said: Whither shall I go up? And he said: Unto <sup>b</sup> Hebron.

And they told David, saying: It was <sup>f</sup> the men of Jabesh-gilead that buried Saul. <sup>5</sup> And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them: Blessed are ye of the LORD, who have showed this kindness unto your lord, unto Saul, and have buried him. <sup>6</sup> And now let Wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him <sup>t</sup> in the belly, so that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died on the spot. <sup>29</sup> And Abner and his men went all that night through the plain, and passed over the Jordan, and went through all <sup>z</sup> Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim. <sup>30</sup> And Joab returned from following Abner; and he gathered all the people together, and there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel. <sup>31</sup> But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin and of Abner's men three hundred and threescore men, who died. <sup>32</sup> And they took up Asahel and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all the night, and they came at Hebron at break of day.

<sup>6</sup> And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner was holding fast to the house of Saul. <sup>7</sup> And Saul had a concubine whose name was <sup>a</sup> Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner: Wherefore hast thou <sup>6</sup> gone in unto my father's concubine? <sup>8</sup> Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth; and he said: Am I <sup>k</sup> a dog's head, who do against Judah to-day? * show kindness to the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou visitest upon me the woman's fault to-day! <sup>9</sup> So <sup>i</sup> do God to Abner and more also! For, <sup>m</sup> as the LORD hath sworn to David, surely so I will do to him, <sup>10</sup> to translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, <sup>n</sup> from Dan even to Beer-sheba. <sup>11</sup> And he could not answer Abner a word again, because <sup>o</sup> he feared him.

<sup>12</sup> And Abner sent messengers to David on his own behalf, saying: Whose is the land? and saying, Make thy covenant with me, and behold, my hand is with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee. <sup>13</sup> And he said: Well; I will make a covenant with thee: yet one thing I require of thee, saying: <sup>o</sup> Thou shalt not see my face except thou first bring <sup>p</sup> Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

<sup>17</sup> And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying: Ye sought for David in times past to be king over you: <sup>18</sup> now then do it: for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies. <sup>19</sup> And Abner also spake in the ears of <sup>s</sup> Benjamin.

And Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin. <sup>20</sup> So Abner came to David, to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast. <sup>21</sup> And Abner said unto David: I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with thee, and that <sup>t</sup> thou mayest reign over all that thy heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

<sup>22</sup> And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from the troop, and brought in a great spoil with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace. <sup>23</sup> When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying: Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace. <sup>24</sup> Then Joab came to the king, and said: What hast thou done? Behold, Abner came unto thee; why now hast thou sent him away, and he is quite gone? <sup>25</sup> Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know <sup>u</sup> thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest.

<sup>28</sup> And afterwards David heard it, and he said: I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner. <sup>29</sup> Let <sup>a</sup> it come on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one <sup>b</sup> that hath an issue, or that is <sup>c</sup> a leper, or that taketh hold on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

Should Abner die as a fool dieth?
<sup>34</sup> Thy hands were not bound,
Nor thy feet put into fetters;
As a man falleth before wicked men,
Thou fellest.

David's palace; (13) his wives and children.

<sup>13</sup> And <sup>d</sup> David took more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron; and there were more sons and daughters born to David. <sup>14</sup> And these are the names of those that were born to him in Jerusalem; <sup>e</sup> Shammuah and Shobab and Nathan and Solomon, <sup>f</sup> Ithra also, and <sup>g</sup> Elishua and Nepheg and Japhia <sup>16</sup> and Elishama and <sup>h</sup> Eliada and Eliphalet.

sand. <sup>2</sup> And David arose and went, and all the people that were with him, from Baale* of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, upon which is called the Name, the name of the LORD of hosts, <sup>b</sup> sitting on the cherubim.

<sup>9</sup> And <sup>h</sup> David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said: How shall the ark of the LORD come to me? <sup>10</sup> So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto himself, into the City of David; but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

<sup>12</sup> And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that he hath, because of the ark of God. <sup>13</sup> And David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the City of David with gladness. <sup>14</sup> And it was so that when <sup>j</sup> they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed <sup>k</sup> an ox and a fatling. <sup>15</sup> And David <sup>l</sup> danced about before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with <sup>m</sup> a linen ephod. <sup>16</sup> And David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with <sup>n</sup> the sound of trumpet.

AND it came to pass, <sup>a</sup> when the king dwelt in his house, and the LORD <sup>b</sup> had given him rest round about from all his enemies, <sup>2</sup> that the king said to Nathan the prophet: See now, I dwell in <sup>c</sup> a house of cedar, but <sup>d</sup> the ark of God abideth within <sup>e</sup> curtains. <sup>3</sup> And Nathan said to the king: Go, do all that is <sup>f</sup> in thy heart, for the LORD is with thee. <sup>4</sup> And it came to pass that night, that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying, <sup>5</sup> Go and say to my servant David: Thus saith the LORD, <sup>g</sup> Shalt thou build me a house for me to dwell in? <sup>6</sup> For I have not dwelt in a house <sup>h</sup> since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt even to this day, but have been walking in a tent and in a tabernacle, <sup>7</sup> wherever I have <sup>i</sup> walked among all the children of Israel. Have I spoken a word with one of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded <sup>k</sup> to feed my people Israel, say-	ing, Why build ye not for me a house of cedar? <sup>8</sup> Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant, to David: Thus saith the LORD of hosts: <sup>1</sup> I took thee from the pasture, from following the flock, to be ruler over my people, over Israel: <sup>9</sup> and <sup>m</sup> I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and <sup>n</sup> have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great that are in the earth. <sup>10</sup> Moreover I have appointed a place for my people Israel, and have <sup>o</sup> planted them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; <sup>p</sup> neither shall the sons of wrong afflict them any more, <sup>11</sup> as <sup>q</sup> beforetime, even <sup>r</sup> since the time that I commanded judges over my people Israel; and I have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. And the LORD telleth thee that he will make for thee a house. <sup>12</sup> For when <sup>s</sup> thy days shall be fulfilled, and <sup>t</sup> thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, <sup>u</sup> I will set up thy seed after thee, who shall proceed from thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>13</sup> He <sup>x</sup> shall build a house for my name; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever. <sup>14</sup> <sup>y</sup> I will be his father, and he shall be my son; for if <sup>z</sup> he commits iniquity, then I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the sons of men; <sup>15</sup> but <sup>a</sup> my mercy shall not depart from him, <sup>b</sup> as I caused it to depart from Saul, whom I put away from before thee. <sup>16</sup> And <sup>c</sup> thy house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee; thy throne shall be established for ever. <sup>17</sup> According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David. <sup>18</sup> And king David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: <sup>d</sup> Who am I, O Lord God, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto? <sup>19</sup> And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord God; and thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. like thy people, like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great and terrible deeds, for thy land, before <sup>k</sup> thy people, whom thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, its nations and its gods? <sup>24</sup> For <sup>l</sup> thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people Israel for a people unto thee for ever: and thou, O LORD, art become their God.

<sup>25</sup> And now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, establish thou for ever, and do as thou hast said. <sup>26</sup> And <sup>m</sup> let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel. And let the house of thy servant David be established before thee. <sup>27</sup> For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed in thy servant's ear, saying, I will build thee a house. Therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee. <sup>28</sup> And now, O Lord God, thou art the God; and <sup>n</sup> thy words are true, and thou hast spoken this goodness unto thy servant. <sup>29</sup> And now be pleased to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee; for thou, O Lord God, hast spoken it: and by thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.

8. AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass after this that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them; and David took the power* of the chief city out of the hand of the Philistines.

the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> And from <sup>k</sup> Bethah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass*.

<sup>13</sup> And David made a monument when he returned from smiting the Syrians,† in the Valley of Salt, eighteen thousand men. <sup>14</sup> And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and <sup>o</sup> all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD made David victorious whithersoever he went.

9. AND David said: Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may <sup>a</sup> show him kindness for Jonathan's sake? <sup>2</sup> And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was B Ziba. And they called him unto David; and the king said to him: Art thou Ziba? And he said: Thy servant. <sup>3</sup> And the king said: Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may show <sup>c</sup> the kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said to the king: Jonathan hath yet a son, <sup>d</sup> lame of his feet. <sup>4</sup> And the king said to him: Where is he? And Ziba said to the king: Behold, he is in the house of <sup>e</sup> Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar. <sup>5</sup> And king David sent <sup>6</sup> And <sup>f</sup> Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came unto David; and he fell on his face and did reverence. And David said: Mephibosheth! And he answered: Behold thy servant! <sup>7</sup> And David said to him: Fear not; for I will surely show thee kindness, for Jonathan thy father's sake; and I will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually. <sup>8</sup> And he bowed himself, and said: What is thy servant that thou shouldst look upon <sup>g</sup> such a dead dog as I am?

<sup>9</sup> Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him: <sup>h</sup> All that pertained to Saul and to all his house I have given to thy master's son. <sup>10</sup> Thou therefore, and thy sons and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits; that thy master's son may have food to eat; but Mephibosheth thy master's son <sup>i</sup> shall eat bread always at my table. And Ziba had <sup>k</sup> fifteen sons and twenty servants. <sup>11</sup> And Ziba said unto the king: According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so will thy servant do. But Mephibosheth, said the king, shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

<sup>12</sup> And Mephibosheth had a young son, <sup>l</sup> whose name was Micha. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth. <sup>13</sup> So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem; for he did eat continually at the king's table; and he was lame on both his feet.

The king of Ammon's insult; (6) occasioning war with the Ammonites and the Syrians; (13) ending in their defeat and submission.

10. AND it came to pass after this, that the <sup>a</sup> king of the children of Ammon died; and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

<sup>2</sup> And David said: I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nabash as his father showed kindness to me. And David sent to comfort him, by the hand of his servants, for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon. <sup>3</sup> And the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord: Doth David honour thy father in thine eyes because he hath sent comforters unto thee? Hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee to search the city and to spy it out, and to overthrow it? <sup>4</sup> And Hanun took David's servants and shaved off the one half of their beards, and <sup>b</sup> cut off their garments in the middle, to their buttocks, and sent them away. <sup>5</sup> And they told it to David; and he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed; and the king said: Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

<sup>9</sup> When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians; <sup>10</sup> and the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon. <sup>11</sup> And he said: If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me; but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come to help thee. <sup>12</sup> Be <sup>h</sup> thou of good courage, and let us play the man for our people and for the cities of our God; and <sup>i</sup> the LORD do what is good in his eyes.

<sup>13</sup> And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians; and they fled before him. <sup>14</sup> And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they also fled before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> And the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel; and they gathered themselves to one place. <sup>16</sup> And Hadarezer sent and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river; * and they came to Helam; and <sup>k</sup> Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer before them.

<sup>17</sup> And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him. <sup>18</sup> And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David destroyed seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen; and he smote Shobach, the captain of their host, so that he died there.

<sup>12</sup>And David said to Uriah: Tarry here to-day also, and to-morrow I will let thee depart: so Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day and the morrow. <sup>13</sup>And David called him, and he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and in the evening he went out to lie on his bed, with the servants of his lord; but he went not down to his house.

<sup>14</sup>And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. <sup>15</sup>And he wrote in the letter, saying: Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the strong battle, and retire ye from behind him, <sup>i</sup>that he may be smitten and die.

God's message to David by Nathan; (ch. 12. 13) David's repentance and confession; (15) death of Bath-sheba's child; (29) birth of Solomon.

BUT the thing that David did <sup>a</sup>was evil in the eyes of the LORD. 12. And <sup>b</sup>the LORD sent Nathan unto David; and he came unto him, and said to him: There were two men in one city, the one rich and the other poor. <sup>2</sup>The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds; <sup>3</sup>but the poor man had nothing save one little ewe-lamb, which he had bought, and he nourished it; and it grew up with him and together with his children; it did eat of his morsel, and it drank of his cup, and it lay in his bosom, and it was unto him as a daughter. <sup>4</sup> And there came a traveller to the rich man; and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that came to him; but he took the poor man's ewe-lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

<sup>7</sup> And Nathan said to David: Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, I <sup>e</sup> anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul; <sup>8</sup> and <sup>d</sup> I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom: and I gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that were too little, then I would moreover give unto thee such and such things. <sup>9</sup> Wherefore hast thou despised <sup>h</sup> the word of the LORD, to do the evil in his sight? <sup>i</sup> Thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife for thy wife; and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. <sup>10</sup> And now therefore <sup>k</sup> the sword shall never depart from thy house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife. <sup>11</sup> Thus saith the LORD, Behold, <sup>m</sup> I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and <sup>n</sup> I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them to thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun. <sup>12</sup> For <sup>o</sup> thou didst act secretly; but <sup>p</sup> I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.

<sup>15</sup> And Nathan went to his house. And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was sick unto death. <sup>16</sup> And David besought God for the boy; and David fasted, and went in, and <sup>t</sup> lay all night upon the earth. <sup>17</sup> And the elders of his house stood over him, to raise him up from the earth; but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them.

<sup>18</sup> And it came to pass on the seventh day that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead; for they said: Behold, while the child was yet alive we spake to him and he did not hearken to our voice; and how shall we say to him that the child is dead; and so he may do some harm? <sup>19</sup> But David saw that his servants whispered; and David perceived that the child was dead; and David said unto his servants: Is the child dead? And they said: He is dead. <sup>20</sup> Then David arose from the earth, and washed and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and went into the house of the LORD and worshipped. And he came to his own house; and he required them to set bread for him, and he did eat.

<sup>21</sup> Then said his servants to him: What thing is this that thou hast done? Thou didst fast and weep for the child while it was alive; but when the child was dead thou didst arise and eat bread. <sup>22</sup> And he said: While the child was yet alive I fasted and wept: for <sup>u</sup> I said, Who knoweth but the LORD will be gracious to me, that the child may live? <sup>23</sup> But now he is dead wherefore should I fast? Can I bring him back again? <sup>v</sup> I shall go to him, but <sup>w</sup> he shall not return to me.

13. AND it came to pass after this, that <sup>a</sup> Absalom the son of David had a fair sister whose name was <sup>b</sup> Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. <sup>2</sup> And Amnon was so vexed that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and Amnon thought it difficult for him to do any thing to her. <sup>3</sup> But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab, the son of <sup>c</sup> Shimeah David's brother; and Jonadab was a very subtle man; <sup>4</sup> and he said to him: <sup>d</sup> Why art thou, the king's son, lean from morning to morning? Wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said to him: I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister. <sup>5</sup> And Jonadab said to him: Lay thee down on thy bed, and feign thyself sick; and when thy father cometh to see thee, say to him, Let, I pray thee, my sister Tamar come and give me food, and dress the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat from her hand. <sup>6</sup> So Amnon lay down and feigned himself sick: and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king: Let, I pray thee, Tamar my sister come, and make a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand.

<sup>7</sup> And David sent to Tamar, into the house, saying: Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him food. <sup>8</sup> So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes. <sup>9</sup> And she took the pan and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said: Put ye out every man from me; and they went out every man from him. <sup>10</sup> And Amnon said unto Tamar: Bring the food into the chamber, that I may eat from thy hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber, to Amnon her brother. <sup>11</sup> And when she brought them near to him to eat, he took hold of her, and said to her: Come lie with me, my sister. <sup>12</sup> And she answered him: Nay, my brother, do not humble me; for <sup>e</sup> such a thing is not done in Israel: do not thou this / folly. <sup>13</sup> And I, whither shall I cause my reproach to go? And thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from thee. <sup>14</sup> Howbeit he would not hearken to her voice; but, being stronger than she, he humbled her and lay with her.

<sup>15</sup> Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, for the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said to her: Arise, be gone. <sup>16</sup> And she said to him: Be not the cause of this evil in sending me away, which is greater than the other that thou hast done unto me. But he would not hearken to her. <sup>17</sup> Then he called his servant that attended on him, and said: Send ye now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her. <sup>18</sup> And she had <sup>g</sup> a long tunic with sleeves upon her; for so were the king's virgin daughters apparelled. And his servant took her out, and bolted the door after her.

<sup>23</sup> And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom <sup>k</sup> had sheep-shearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons. <sup>24</sup> And Absalom came in to the king, and said: Behold now, thy servant hath sheep-shearers; let the king, I pray thee, and his servants go with thy servant. <sup>25</sup> And the king said to Absalom: Nay, my son, let us not, I pray, all go, that we be not burdensome unto thee. And he pressed him; howbeit he would not go, but blessed him. <sup>26</sup> Then said Absalom: And if not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said to him: Why should he go with thee? <sup>27</sup> But <sup>l</sup> Absalom pressed him, so that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

<sup>28</sup> Now Absalom commanded his servants, saying: Mark ye, I pray, when Amnon's <sup>m</sup> heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, Smite Amnon, then kill him; fear ye not. Is it not I who have comp ch. 12. 16.	<sup>31</sup> Then the king arose and <sup>o</sup> rent his garments, and <sup>p</sup> lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent. <sup>32</sup> And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said: Let not my lord suppose they have slain all the young men, the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom it hath been determined from the day that he humbled his sister Tamar. <sup>33</sup> And now let not my lord the king lay the thing to his heart, saying, All the king's sons are dead; for Amnon only is dead.	<sup>9</sup> And the woman of Tekoah said to the king: My lord, O king, <sup>f</sup> the iniquity be on me and on my father's house; and <sup>g</sup> the king and his throne be guiltless. <sup>10</sup> And the king said: Whosoever speaketh to thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more.	f Ge. 27. 13. g ch. 3. 28, 29; 1 Ki. 2. 33.

b 2 Chr. 11. 6; Am. 1. 1.	<sup>39</sup> AND King David longed to go forth unto Absalom; for <sup>a</sup> he was comforted concerning Amnon, because he was dead. <sup>14.</sup> And Joab the son of Zeruiah knew that the king's heart was toward Absalom. <sup>2</sup> And Joab sent to <sup>b</sup> Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman; and he said to her: I pray thee, feign thyself to be mourning, and put on mourning apparel, I pray, and anoint not thyself with oil; but be as a woman that hath now a long time mourned for the dead; <sup>3</sup> and come to the king, and speak after this manner to him. <sup>18</sup>Then the king answered and said to the woman: Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said: Let, I pray, my lord the king speak.

And the woman answered and said: As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, there is no turning to the right hand or to the left from all that my lord the king hath spoken. For thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words into the mouth of thy handmaid; <sup>20</sup>in order to turn the face of the matter hath thy servant Joab done this thing: but my lord is wise, <sup>p</sup>according to the wisdom of the angel of God, to know all that is in the earth.

<sup>21</sup>And the king said to Joab: Behold now, I have done this thing: so go, bring the young man Absalom again. <sup>22</sup>And Joab fell to the ground on his face and bowed himself down, and blessed the king. And Joab said: To-day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

<sup>23</sup>And Joab arose and went to <sup>q</sup>Geshur; and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup>And the king said: Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

<sup>25</sup>But in all Israel there was no man to be so much praised for his beauty as Absalom: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. <sup>26</sup>And when he polled his head, (for it was at every years' end that he polled it; because <sup>r</sup>it was heavy on him, therefore he polled it): he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels<sup>s</sup> by the king's weight. <sup>27</sup>And <sup>e</sup>unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar; she was a woman of a fair countenance.

<sup>28</sup>And Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, but he saw not the king's face. <sup>29</sup>So Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king; but he would not come to him: and he sent again a second time; but he would not come. <sup>30</sup>And he said to his servants: See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire. <sup>31</sup>And Joab arose and came to Absalom, unto his house, and said to him: Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire? <sup>32</sup>And Absalom answered Joab: Behold, I sent to thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? It had been better for me to be there still. Now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be iniquity in me, even let him kill me.

<sup>33</sup>And Joab came to the king, and told him. And he called for Absalom; and he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king; and the king <sup>t</sup>kissed Absalom.

Absalom's rebellion; (14) David's flight from Jerusalem; (31) Ahithophel and Hushai; (ch. 16. 1.) Ziba's faithless conduct towards Mephibosheth; (5) Shimei's cursing.

15. AND <sup>a</sup>it came to pass after this that Absalom <sup>b</sup>prepared for himself chariots and horses, and fifty men <sup>c</sup>to run before him. <sup>2</sup>And Absalom rose up early and stood beside the way of the gate; and it came to pass, when any man who had a controversy came to the king for judgment, that Absalom called to him, and said: Of what city art thou? And he said: Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel. <sup>3</sup>And Absalom said to him: See, thy matters are good and right, but there is no man <sup>d</sup>deputed by the king to hear thee.

<sup>4</sup>And Absalom said moreover: <sup>d</sup>Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man who hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice! <sup>5</sup>And it was so that when a man came nigh to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand and took hold of him and kissed him. <sup>6</sup>And in this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came for judgment to the king. So Absalom stole the heart of the men of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>And Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying: When ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say: Absalom reigneth in Hebron. <sup>11</sup>And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem that were invited; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not anything. <sup>12</sup>And Absalom sent for <sup>h</sup>Ahithophel, the Gilonite, <sup>i</sup>David's counsellor, from his city, from <sup>k</sup>Giloh, while he offered the sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong, and the people <sup>l</sup>increased continually with Absalom.

said the king to Ziba: Behold, thine is all that pertained to Mephibosheth. And Ziba said: I humbly beseech thee that I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, the king.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD hath <sup>7</sup> returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and behold, thou art in thy misery, because thou art a man of blood.

<sup>9</sup> Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah to the king: Why should this <sup>a</sup> dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head. <sup>10</sup> And the king said: What <sup>a</sup> have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because the LORD hath said unto him, Curse David; who then shall say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

<sup>11</sup> And David said to Abishai and to all his servants: Behold, my son, who came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life; how much more now this Benjamite! Let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath bidden him. <sup>12</sup> It may be that the LORD will look on mine affliction, and that the LORD will <sup>b</sup> requite me good for his cursing this day. <sup>13</sup> And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side opposite to him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust.

<sup>14</sup> And the king, and all the people that were with him, were weary, and refreshed themselves there.

<sup>15</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

<sup>16</sup> And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom: Long live the king! Long live the king! <sup>17</sup> And Absalom said to Hushai: Is this thy kindness to thy friend? Why wentest thou not with thy friend? <sup>18</sup> And Hushai said to Absalom: Nay, but whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide. <sup>19</sup> And again, <sup>b</sup> whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

<sup>20</sup> Then said Absalom to Ahithophel: Give counsel among you what we shall do. <sup>21</sup> And Ahithophel said to Absalom: Go in unto thy father's <sup>c</sup> concubines whom he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that thou art abhorred by thy father: so shall the hands of all that are with thee be strong. <sup>22</sup> So they spread a tent for Absalom upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines <sup>d</sup> in the sight of all Israel.

<sup>23</sup> And the counsel of Ahithophel which he counselled in those days was as if he had inquired at the oracle of God; so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both to David and to Absalom.

<sup>17</sup>. And Ahithophel said to Absalom: Let me, I pray, choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night; <sup>2</sup> and I will come upon him while he is weary and weak-handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee; and I will <sup>e</sup> smite the king only: <sup>3</sup> and I will bring back all the people unto thee: when the whole turn away <sup>a</sup> to the man whom thou seekest, all the people will be in peace. <sup>4</sup> And the saying was right in the eyes of Absalom, and in the eyes of all the elders of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Then said Absalom: Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he too saith. <sup>6</sup> And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake to him, saying: Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner; shall we do <sup>a</sup> after his saying? If not, speak thou. <sup>7</sup> And Hushai said to Absalom: The counsel that Ahithophel hath given at this time is not good. <sup>8</sup> For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are bitter in their mind, as <sup>f</sup> a bear robbed of her whelps in the field; and thy father is a man of war, and he will not lodge with the people; <sup>9</sup> behold, he is hidden now in one of the pits, or in one of the places. And it will come to pass, when some of them fall at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom; <sup>10</sup> and even the man of valour, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly <sup>g</sup> melt. For all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and the valiants who are with him.

against Israel. And the battle was in the <sup>6</sup> forest of Ephraim; <sup>7</sup> and the people of Israel were there slain before the servants of David; and the slaughter there was great that day; twenty thousand men. <sup>8</sup> And the battle there was spread over the face of all the country; and the forest devoured more of the people that day than the sword devoured.

2 ch. 14. 26.

<sup>9</sup> And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule; and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and <sup>1</sup> his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.

17, 20.

<sup>10</sup> And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said: Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak. <sup>11</sup> And Joab said to the man that told him: And behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? And I would have given thee ten shekels of silver and a girdle. <sup>12</sup> And the man said to Joab: Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hands, I would not put forth my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Take care, each of you, of the young man, of Absalom. <sup>13</sup> Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life; for <sup>14</sup> there is no matter hidden from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me. <sup>14</sup> Then said Joab: I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three spears in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive, in the midst of the oak. <sup>15</sup> And ten young men, Joab's armour-bearers, compassed about and smote Absalom, and put him to death.

n Jos. 7. 26;

<sup>16</sup> And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel; for Joab held back the people. <sup>17</sup> And they took Absalom and cast him into a great pit in the forest, and <sup>18</sup> set up a very great heap of stones over him. And all Israel fled every man to his tent.

o Ge. 14. 17.

<sup>18</sup> And Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a monument, which is in <sup>19</sup> the King's dale; for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance; and he called the monument after his own name. And it is called unto this day, Absalom's memorial.

Tidings of the victory sent to David; (33) his grief for Absalom.

<sup>19</sup> AND Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said: Let me run, I pray, and bear the king glad tidings, how that the LORD hath avenged him of his enemies. <sup>20</sup> And Joab said to him: Thou shalt not be the bearer of glad tidings this day, but thou shalt bear glad tidings another day; but this day thou shalt bear no glad tidings, because the king's son is dead.

<sup>21</sup> And Joab said to the Cushite: Go tell the king what thou hast seen; and the Cushite bowed himself down unto Joab, and ran.

<sup>22</sup> Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab: But howsoever, let me also, I pray, run after the Cushite. And Joab said: Why now wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no glad tidings ready? <sup>23</sup> But howsoever, said he, let me run: and he said to him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain <sup>24</sup> and overran the Cushite.

<sup>24</sup> And David was sitting between the two gates. And <sup>25</sup> the watchman went up to the roof of the gate, to the wall, and lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man running alone. <sup>26</sup> And the watchman cried, and told the king; and the king said: If he is alone, he has glad tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near. <sup>27</sup> And the watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the porter, and said: Behold a man running alone; and the king said: He also bringeth glad tidings. <sup>28</sup> And the watchman said: I see the running of the foremost like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok; and the king said: He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.

<sup>29</sup> And Ahimaaz called and said to the king: Peace! And he bowed down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said: Blessed be the LORD thy God, who hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king.

<sup>30</sup> And the king said: Is there peace to the young man, to Absalom? And Ahimaaz answered: When Joab sent the king's servant and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I know not anything. <sup>31</sup> And the king said: Turn aside, and stand here; and he turned aside and stood.

<sup>32</sup> And behold, the Cushite came; and the Cushite said: Let my lord the king receive glad tidings; for the LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee. <sup>33</sup> And the king said to the Cushite: Is there peace to the young man, to Absalom? And the Cushite said: As <sup>34</sup> the young man, so let the enemies of my lord the king be, and all that rise against thee for evil.

and wept: and as he wept he said thus: My son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! Would that I had died instead of thee, Absalom, my son, my son!

19. And it was told Joab: Behold, the king weeping and mourning for Absalom. 2 And the victory that day became a mourning unto all the people; for the people heard say that day: The king is grieved for his son. 3 And the people entered by stealth that day into the city, as people that are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. 4 But the king hid his face, and the king cried with a loud voice: My son Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son!

5 And Joab came into the house, to the king, and said: Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, who this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives and the lives of thy concubines, 6 in that thou lovest thine enemies and hatest thy friends. For thou hast declared this day that thou regardest neither princes nor servants; for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it would have been right in thine eyes. 7 But now arise, go forth, and speak comfortably unto thy servants. For I swear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, not a man will tarry with thee this night; and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that hath come upon thee from thy youth until now.

8 And the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told all the people, saying: Behold, the king sitting in the gate. And all the people came before the king. But 9 Israel fled every man to his tent.

9 AND all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying:

10 The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land because of Absalom; 10 and Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in the battle; now therefore why are ye silent as to bringing the king back?

11 And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying: Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house, seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, to his house? 12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my flesh; wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king? 13 And say ye to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone and of my flesh? 6 God do so to me and more also if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as one man; and they sent word unto the king: Return thou, and all thy servants. 15 So the king returned, and came to the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over the Jordan.

16 And Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjaminite, who was of Bahurim, hastened and came down with the men of Judah, to meet king David. 17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him; also Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they forded the Jordan before the king. 18 And there went over the ferry boat, to carry over the king's household, and to do what was good in his eyes.

And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, when he crossed the Jordan; 19 and he said to the king: Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did perversely, on the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. 20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned; therefore behold, I am come this day, first of all the house of Joseph, to go down to meet my lord the king.

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said: Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed? 22 And David said: What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? Shall any man be put to death this day in Israel? For do not I know that I am this day king over Israel? 23 Therefore the king said to Shimei: Thou shalt not die: and the king sware unto him.

24 And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king; and he had neither dressed his feet nor trimmed his beard nor washed his clothes from the day the king departed until the day he came in peace. 25 And it came to pass, when the men of Jerusalem came to meet the king, that the king said to him: Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth? 26 And he answered: My lord, the king, my servant deceived me; for thy servant said, I will saddle me the ass, that I may ride thereon and go to the king; because thy servant is lame. 27 So he hath slanbad? Can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any more the voice of singing-men and singing-women?

And why should thy servant become yet a burden unto my lord the king? 36 Thy servant will go a little way over the Jordan with the king; but why should the king recompense it to me with this reward? 37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, c by the grave of my father and my mother. But behold thy servant d Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do thou to him what is good in thine eyes. 38 And the king answered: Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him what is good in thine eyes; and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, I will do for thee.

39 And all the people went over the Jordan.
And when the king was come over, the king e kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned to his own place.
40 Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him. And all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

*Contention between Israel and Judah respecting the king's restoration; (ch. 20. 1) Sheba's rebellion;
(8) Joab's assassination of Amasa; (14) suppression of Sheba's rebellion.*

41 AND behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king:

Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought thee the king and his household, and all David's men with him, over the Jordan? 42 And all the men of Judah answered against the men of Israel: Because the king is near to us.
And why are ye angry for this matter?
Have we eaten anything at the king's cost, or hath he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said: We have ten parts in the king, and also in David we have more than ye; why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? But a the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

20. And there happened to be there a man of wickedness, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite; and he blew the trumpet, and said: We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every b man to his tent, O Israel! 2 So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah clave unto their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem.
And the king took the ten women, c concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and he put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, in widowhood for life.

4 Then said the king to Amasa: Call for me the men of Judah in three days, and be thou here present. 5 So Amasa went to call the men of Judah; but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to Abishai: Now will Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom. Take thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us. 7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites* and all the mighty men; and they went out from Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were near the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa was coming to meet them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it the girdle of a sword fastened upon his loins in its sheath; and as he went forth it fell out. 9 And Joab said to Amasa: Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took hold of Amasa's beard with the right hand to kiss him; <sup>10</sup> but Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so <sup>11</sup> he smote him therewith in the belly, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not a second time; and he died.

And Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>11</sup> And one of Joab's young men stood by him* and said: Who favoureth Joab? And who is for David? Let him go after Joab! <sup>12</sup> And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And the man saw that all the people stood; and he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a covering upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still. <sup>13</sup> When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

<sup>14</sup> And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, even to <sup>k</sup> Beth-maachah, and all <sup>l</sup> Berim; and they were gathered together, and went also after him. <sup>15</sup> And they came and besieged him in Abel, near Beth-maachah; and they cast up a bank† against the city; and it stood in the trench. And all the people that were with Joab were battering the wall to throw it down.

<sup>16</sup> Then cried <sup>m</sup> a wise woman out of the city: Hear ye! hear ye! Say ye, I pray, to Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee. <sup>17</sup> And he came near to her; and the woman said: Art thou Joab? And he answered: I am. Then she said to him: Hear the words of thy handmaid; and he answered: I do hear. <sup>18</sup> Then she spake, saying: They verily speak, saying, They will surely consult‡ at Abel: and so they end. <sup>19</sup> I am of the peaceable ones, of the faithful in Israel. Thou art seeking to destroy a city, even a mother, in Israel. Why wilt thou swallow up <sup>n</sup> the inheritance of the LORD? <sup>20</sup> And Joab answered and said: Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. <sup>21</sup> The matter is not so: but a man from the hill-country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, against David. Deliver ye him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said to Joab: Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

<sup>22</sup> Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom; and they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew the trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem, to the king.

<sup>21</sup> AND there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year. And David <sup>a</sup> inquired of the LORD; and the LORD answered: It is for Saul and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites.

<sup>2</sup> And the king called the Gibeonites, and said to them, (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but <sup>d</sup> of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them; but Saul had sought to slay them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah), <sup>3</sup> and David said to the Gibeonites: What shall I do for you? And wherewith shall I make <sup>e</sup> the atonement, that ye may bless <sup>d</sup> the inheritance of the LORD? <sup>4</sup> And the Gibeonites said to him: We will have no silver or gold of Saul or of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said: What ye say, I will do for you. <sup>5</sup> And they answered the king: The man that consumed us, and that devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining within any of the borders of Israel, <sup>6</sup> let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we <sup>e</sup> will hang them up unto the LORD, <sup>f</sup> in Gibeah of Saul <sup>g</sup> whom the LORD did choose. And the king said: I will give them.

<sup>7</sup> But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of <sup>h</sup> the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. <sup>8</sup> But the king took the two sons of <sup>i</sup> Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal; the daughter of Saul, whom she bare to Adriel the son of Barzillai the <sup>k</sup> Meholathite; <sup>9</sup> and he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites; and they hanged|| them on the hill before the LORD. And they fell, the seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the <sup>l</sup> beginning of barley-harvest.

took sackcloth and spread it for herself upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water poured down upon them out of heaven; and she suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

And after that <sup>q</sup> God was intreated for the land.

<sup>15</sup> AND again the Philistines had war with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines. And David waxed faint; <sup>16</sup> and Ishbi-benob, (who was among the sons of the giant*, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels of brass† in weight, and he was girded with a new sword,) thought to have slain David; <sup>17</sup> but Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore unto him, saying: <sup>a</sup> Thou shalt go no more out with us to the war, that thou quench not the <sup>b</sup> light of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of tall stature, that had on every hand six fingers and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant§: <sup>21</sup> and when he <sup>h</sup> defied Israel, Jonathan the son of <sup>i</sup> Shimeah the brother of David slew him.

David's psalm of thanksgiving for deliverance from all his troubles, and victory over all his enemies.

<sup>22.</sup> AND David <sup>a</sup> spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul; <sup>2</sup> and he said:

The <sup>b</sup> LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer,

And I shall be saved from mine enemies.

<sup>5</sup> For the waves of death compassed me, The floods of wickedness made me afraid; <sup>6</sup> The <sup>h</sup> bands of hell† compassed me about, The snares of death encountered me. <sup>7</sup> In my distress I called upon the LORD,

Even to my God I cried.

And he <sup>i</sup> heard my voice out of his temple, And my cry for help was in his ears.

<sup>8</sup> Then <sup>k</sup> the earth shook and trembled, The <sup>l</sup> foundations of heaven moved, And they shook, because he was wroth.

Lightning, and discomfited them.

At the <sup>t</sup> rebuking of the LORD, At the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

<sup>8</sup> THESE <sup>a</sup> are the names of the mighty men of David:

Joshebbassebet the Tachkemonite was chief of the captains†; the same was Adino, the Eznite; whose spear was against eight hundred, slain†, at one time.

<sup>9</sup> And after him <sup>b</sup> Eleazar the son of Dodo the son of <sup>c</sup> Ahohi, among the three mighty men with David. When they defied the Philistines that were gathered together there for the battle, and the men of Israel went up, <sup>10</sup> he arose and smote the Philistines, until his hand was weary and his hand clave unto the sword. And the LORD wrought a great victory on that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.

<sup>11</sup> And after him Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles: and the people fled from the face of the Philistines; <sup>12</sup> but he set himself in the midst of the ground, and rescued it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD wrought a great victory.

<sup>13</sup> And three of the thirty chiefs went down and came to David in the harvest time, to <sup>d</sup> the cave of Adullam. And the troop of the Philistines encamped in <sup>e</sup> the valley of Rephaim. <sup>14</sup> And David was then in <sup>f</sup> the strong-hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then at Beth-lehem. <sup>15</sup> And David longed and said: Who will cause me to drink water from the well of Bethlehem, which is in the gate! <sup>16</sup> And the three mighty men brake through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water from the well of Beth-lehem, that was in the gate, and took and brought it to David. But he would not drink thereof; and he poured it out unto the LORD, <sup>17</sup> and said: Be it far from me, LORD, that I should do this!

Shall I drink the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? And he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.

<sup>18</sup> And Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was the chief of the three.
 And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, slain*; and he had a name among the three. <sup>19</sup> Was he not most honourable of the three? Therefore he was their captain; howbeit he attained not unto the first three.

<sup>20</sup> And <sup>g</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a valiant man, great in exploits, from <sup>h</sup> Kabzeel, he slew two lion-like men of Moab. He also went down and smote a lion in the midst of a pit in the time of snow. <sup>21</sup> And he smote an Egyptian, a goodly man; and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. <sup>22</sup> These deeds did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he had a name among the three mighty men; <sup>23</sup> he was more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the three. And David set him <sup>k</sup> in his council.

<sup>24</sup> Among the thirty were Asahel <sup>l</sup> the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo

 Baanah, a Netophathite, Ittai the son of Ribai out of Gibeath of the children of Benjamin, <sup>30</sup> Benaiah the Pirathonite, Ithi-

Numbering of the people; (13) judgment by pestilence; (17) David's confession and prayer, and (18) God's answer.

24. AND <sup>a</sup>again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel; and he moved David against them, to say: Go, number Israel and Judah. <sup>2</sup>And the king said to Joab the captain of the host, who was with him: Go about, I pray, through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and muster ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.

<sup>3</sup>And Joab said to the king: Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, a hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may behold it; but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?

<sup>8</sup>And when they had gone about in all the land, they came to Jerusalem, at the end of nine months and twenty days. <sup>9</sup>And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to the king. And <sup>f</sup>there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

<sup>10</sup>And David's heart smote him after he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD: I <sup>g</sup>have sinned greatly in what I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, put <sup>h</sup>away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have <sup>i</sup>done very foolishly.

<sup>11</sup>And when David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet <sup>k</sup>Gad, David's seer, saying: <sup>12</sup>Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

<sup>13</sup>And Gad came to David, and told him; and he said to him: Shall <sup>l</sup>seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? Or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee?

Or shall there be three days' pestilence in thy land? Now advise*, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me. <sup>14</sup>And David said to Gad: I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD, <sup>m</sup>for his mercies are great; and <sup>n</sup>let me not fall into the hand of man.

<sup>17</sup>And David spake unto the LORD when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said: Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly; but these, <sup>s</sup>the flock, what have they done? Let thy hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS,

THE THIRD BOOK OF THE KINGS.

1. AND <sup>a</sup> king David was old, stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he got no heat. <sup>2</sup> And his servants said to him: Let there be sought for my lord the king a damsel, a virgin; and let her stand before the king, and let her be a companion for him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat. <sup>3</sup> And they sought for a fair damsel in all the border of Israel, and they found Abishag the <sup>b</sup> Shunammite, and brought her to the king. <sup>4</sup> And the damsel was very fair, and she was a companion for the king, and ministered to him; but the king knew her not.

<sup>5</sup> Then <sup>c</sup> Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying: I will be king. And <sup>d</sup> he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. <sup>6</sup> And his father had not pained him at any time, saying: Why hast thou done so? And he also was very goodly of form; <sup>e</sup> and his mother bare him after Absalom. <sup>7</sup> And he conferred with <sup>f</sup> Joab the son of Zeruiah and with <sup>g</sup> Abiathar the priest; and <sup>h</sup> they going after Adonijah helped. <sup>8</sup> But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and <sup>i</sup> Shimei, and Rei, and <sup>k</sup> the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. <sup>9</sup> And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fatlings, by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by En-rogel; and he invited all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants; <sup>10</sup> but Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he invited not.

<sup>11</sup> And Nathan spake to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying: Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not? <sup>12</sup> And now come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon. <sup>13</sup> Go and get thee in unto king David, and say to him: Didst not thou, my lord, the king, swear unto thy handmaid, saying, <sup>1</sup> Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and shall sit upon my throne? Why then doth Adonijah reign? <sup>14</sup> Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

<sup>15</sup> And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite ministered to the king. <sup>16</sup> And <sup>m</sup> Bath-sheba bowed and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said: What wouldest thou? <sup>17</sup> And she said to him: <sup>n</sup> My lord, thou swarest by the LORD thy God unto thy handmaid, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne. <sup>18</sup> And now, behold, Adonijah reigneth; and now, my lord the king, thou knowest it not; <sup>19</sup> and he hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath invited all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not invited. <sup>20</sup> And thou, my lord, the king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. <sup>21</sup> Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall <sup>o</sup> sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.

<sup>22</sup> And lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in; <sup>23</sup> and they told the king, saying: Behold, Nathan the prophet. And he came in before the king, and bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

<sup>24</sup> And Nathan said: My lord, the king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and shall sit upon my throne? <sup>25</sup> For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath invited all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and behold, they eat and drink

g 2 Sam. 4. 9.	<sup>28</sup> And king David answered and said: Call unto me Bath-sheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king. <sup>29</sup> And the king sware and said: <sup>q</sup> As the LORD liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all distress, <sup>30</sup> even as I sware unto thee by the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead, so will I do this day. <sup>31</sup> And Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth and did reverence to the king, and said: <sup>r</sup> Let my lord king David live for ever.	<sup>43</sup> And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah: Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king. <sup>44</sup> And the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites,* and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule: <sup>45</sup> and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar; this is the noise that ye have heard. <sup>46</sup> And also Solomon <sup>o</sup> sitteth on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>47</sup> And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne; <sup>k</sup> and the king bowed himself upon the bed. <sup>48</sup> And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who hath <sup>l</sup> given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes also seeing it .
r No. 2. 3; Dan. 2. 4; 6. 21.	<sup>32</sup> And king David said: Call for me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king. <sup>33</sup> And the king said to them: <sup>a</sup> Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son <sup>t</sup> to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to <sup>u</sup> Gihon; <sup>34</sup> and let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet <sup>a</sup> anoint him there king over Israel. And <sup>v</sup> blow ye with the trumpet, and say, Long live king Solomon! <sup>35</sup> And ye shall come up after him; and he shall come and sit upon my throne; for he shall reign in my stead; and I have appointed him to be prince over Israel and over Judah.	<sup>49</sup> And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up and went every man his way.
s 2 Sam. 20. 6.	<sup>36</sup> And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said: Amen; so may the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say. <sup>37</sup> As <sup>a</sup> the LORD hath been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.	<sup>50</sup> And Adonijah feared the face of Solomon; and he arose and went, and <sup>k</sup> caught hold on the horns of the altar. <sup>51</sup> And it was told Solomon, saying: Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon; for lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to-day that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses; that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest and whithersoever thou turnest thyself; <sup>4</sup> that the LORD may establish his word which he spake concerning me, saying, <sup>5</sup> If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth, with all their heart and with all their soul, <sup>6</sup> there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> And also thou knowest what Joab the son of Zeruiah <sup>6</sup> did to me, what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, to <sup>7</sup> Abner the son of Ner and to <sup>8</sup> Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his sandals that were on his feet. <sup>9</sup> Do thou therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoary head go down to the grave* in peace.

<sup>8</sup> And behold, there is with thee <sup>9</sup> Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim; but <sup>10</sup> he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword. <sup>11</sup> But now hold him not guiltless; for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoary head bring thou down to the gravet in blood.

<sup>13</sup> And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said: <sup>14</sup> Comest thou peaceably? <sup>15</sup> And he said: Peaceably. He said moreover: I have somewhat to say to thee; and she said: Say on.

<sup>15</sup> And he said: Thou knowest that the kingdom was <sup>16</sup> mine, and all Israel set their faces on me to be king: but the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's; for <sup>17</sup> it was his from the LORD: <sup>18</sup> and now I ask one petition of thee, turn not away my face. And she said to him: Say on. <sup>17</sup> And he said: Say, I pray, to Solomon the king, (for he will not turn away thy face) that he give me <sup>18</sup> Abishag the Shunammite to wife. <sup>18</sup> And Bath-sheba said: Well, I will speak for thee to the king.

<sup>22</sup> And king Solomon answered and said to his mother: And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask also for him the kingdom; for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for <sup>23</sup> Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

<sup>23</sup> Then king Solomon swore by the LORD, saying: <sup>24</sup> God do so to me and more also; Adonijah hath spoken this word against his own life. <sup>24</sup> Now therefore as the LORD liveth, who hath established me and caused me to sit me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made for me a house, as he <sup>25</sup> promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day. <sup>25</sup> And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him so that he died.

of Jehoiada, saying: Go, fall upon him.
<sup>30</sup> And Benaiah came to the Tent of the LORD, and said to him: Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said: Nay, for I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying: Thus spake Joab, and thus he answered me.

<sup>34</sup> So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him and slew him. And he was buried <sup>i</sup> in his own house in the wilderness. <sup>35</sup> And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host. And <sup>j</sup> the king put Zadok the priest in the room of Abiathar.

<sup>39</sup> And it came to pass at the end of three years, that Shimei's two servants ran away to <sup>n</sup> Achish, son of Maachah, the king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying: Behold, thy servants are in Gath. <sup>40</sup> And Shimei arose and saddled his ass, and went to Gath, to Achish, to seek his servants; and Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.

<sup>41</sup> And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again. <sup>42</sup> And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him: Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protest unto thee, saying, Know for certain, that on the day thou goest out, and walkest hither and thither, thou shalt surely die? And thou saidst unto me, The word I have heard is good. <sup>43</sup> Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I charged thee with?

And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

<sup>10</sup> And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon asked this thing. <sup>11</sup> And God said unto him: Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life, neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself discernment to understand judgment; <sup>12</sup> behold, I have done according to thy words. Lo, <sup>13</sup> I have given thee a wise and understanding heart; so that there hath been none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee. <sup>13</sup> And <sup>14</sup> I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both <sup>15</sup> riches and honour; <sup>16</sup> so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days. <sup>14</sup> And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days. <sup>15</sup> And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream.

And he came to Jerusalem; and he stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt-offerings, and made peace-offerings; and he made a feast to all his servants.

<sup>16</sup> AND there came two harlot-women unto the king, and stood before him. <sup>17</sup> And the one woman said: O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house. <sup>18</sup> And it came to pass on the third day after I was delivered, that this woman also was delivered; and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save us two in the house. <sup>19</sup> And this woman's child died in the night, because she lay upon it. <sup>20</sup> And she arose at midnight and took my son from beside me, while thy handmaid slept; and she laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead son in my bosom. <sup>21</sup> And when I rose in the morning to give my son suck, behold, he was dead; and I considered him in the morning, but behold, he was not my son, whom I bare. <sup>22</sup> And the other woman said: Nay, but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said: No, but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. And they spake before the king.

<sup>23</sup> Then said the king: The one saith, This that liveth is my son, and thy son is the dead; and the other saith, Nay, but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living. <sup>24</sup> And the king said: Bring me a sword; and they brought the sword before the king. <sup>25</sup> And the king said: Divide the living child in two, and give the half to the one and the half to the other.

<sup>26</sup> Then spake the woman whose was the living child unto the king, for <sup>a</sup> her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said: O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said: Let it be neither mine nor thine; divide it. <sup>27</sup> Then the king answered and said: Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it; she is the mother thereof.

<sup>28</sup> And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and <sup>b</sup> they feared the king; for they saw that the wisdom of God was within him, to do judgment.

The <sup>a</sup> son of Hur, in the hill-country of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup> The <sup>e</sup> son of Dekar, in Makaz and in Shaalvim and Beth-shemesh and Elon-beth-hanan. <sup>10</sup> The <sup>f</sup> son of Hised, in Aruboth; he had <sup>g</sup> Sochoh and all the land of Hephher. <sup>11</sup> The <sup>h</sup> son of Abinadab, all the highland of <sup>i</sup> Dor; he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife. <sup>12</sup> Baana the son of Ahilud had <sup>k</sup> Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zartanah beneath Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, as far as beyond Jokneam. <sup>13</sup> The <sup>l</sup> son of Geber, in Ramoth-gilead; he had <sup>m</sup> the villages of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; he had also <sup>n</sup> the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and brazen bars. <sup>14</sup> Ahinadab the son of Iddo had Mahanaim. <sup>15</sup> Ahimaz was in Naphtali; and he took to wife Basmath the daughter of Solomon. <sup>16</sup> Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth.

20 Judah and Israel were many, <sup>p</sup> as the sand which is by the sea in multitude; eating and drinking, and making merry. 21 And <sup>q</sup> Solomon was ruler over all the kingdoms from the river* unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt; they brought presents† and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty measures‡ of fine flour and three-score measures of meal, 23 ten fatted oxen and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and a hundred sheep, beside harts and roebucks and fallow-deer and fatted fowl. 24 For he had dominion over all on this side the river, from Tiphshah even to Gaza, over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace from all his servants round about. 25 And Judah and Israel dwelt securely, 26 <sup>r</sup> every man under his vine and under his fig-tree, <sup>s</sup> from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon. 26 And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And <sup>t</sup> those officers provided for king Solomon, and for all that came to king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they let nothing be wanting. 28 And the barley and the straw for the horses and the swift horses brought they unto the place where it was to be<sup>u</sup>, every man according to his charge.

29 AND <sup>a</sup> God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, as the sand that is on the sea-shore. 30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the sons of <sup>b</sup> the East, and all <sup>c</sup> the wisdom of Egypt; <sup>d</sup> yea, he was wiser than all men; than <sup>e</sup> Ethan the Ezrahite, and <sup>f</sup> Heman and Chalcol and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his fame was in all the nations round about.

32 And <sup>g</sup> he spake three thousand proverbs; and <sup>h</sup> his songs were a thousand and five; 33 and he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is on Lebanon even to the hyssop that springeth out of the wall; he spake also of the beasts and of the birds, and of the creeping thing and of the fishes.

34 And <sup>i</sup> they came from all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth, who heard of his wisdom.

Solomon's preparations for building the temple — His agreement with the king of Tyre for the supply of timber and stone; (13) the tributary labourers out of Israel.

5. AND <sup>a</sup> Hiram, the king of Tyre, sent his servants to Solomon; for he heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father; for <sup>b</sup> Hiram was ever a lover of David.

2 And <sup>c</sup> Solomon sent to Hiram, saying: 3 Thou knowest that David my father could not build a house unto the name of the LORD his God, <sup>d</sup> for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet; <sup>e</sup> but now the LORD my God hath given me

<sup>f</sup> rest on every side; there is no adversary nor evil occurrence. 5 And behold, <sup>g</sup> I purpose to build a house unto the name of the LORD my God, <sup>h</sup> as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build the house unto my name. 6 And now command thou that they hew me <sup>i</sup> cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants; and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt say. For thou knowest that there is not among us any man that hath skill to hew timber like the Sidonians.

7 And it came to pass when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said: <sup>j</sup> Blessed be the LORD this day, who hath given unto David a wise son over this numerous people. 8 And Hiram sent to Solomon saying: I have heard the things which thou sentest to me for; I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of cypress.

9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea; and I will convey them by sea in rafts to the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will break them up there, and thou shalt receive them. And thou shalt accomplish my desire <sup>k</sup> in giving food for my household.

10 And Hiram gave to Solomon cedar trees and cypress trees, according to all his desire. 11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures* of wheat, food for his household, and twenty measures of beaten oil; thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year. 12 And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him. And Adoniram was over the levy. <sup>15</sup> And <sup>1</sup> Solomon had seventy thousand that bare burdens, and eighty thousand hewers in the mountain ; <sup>16</sup> beside the chief of Solomon's officers who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who ruled over the people that wrought in the work.

a see parallel, 2 Chr. 3. 2—4.

6. AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the house for the LORD.

b Ezra 6. 3, 4 ; Eze. ch. 41.

c 1 Chr. 23. 11.

<sup>5</sup> And he built against the wall of the house a lean-to round about, encompassing the walls of the house, both of the temple and of the oracle ; and he made side-chambers round about. <sup>6</sup> The lower lean-to was five cubits broad, and the middle six cubits broad, and the third seven cubits broad. For on the outside of the house he made in the wall set-offs * round about ; so that nothing should be fastened in the walls of the house.

<sup>7</sup> And the house, when it was building, was built of whole stone from the quarry ; and <sup>e</sup> there were neither hammers nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was building.

e comp. Deu. 27. 6, 7.

f Eze. 41. 7.

<sup>9</sup> So he built the house, and finished it ; and he covered the house with beams and boards of cedar. <sup>10</sup> And he built the lean-to against all the house, five cubits high. And he coated the house with cedar-wood.

<sup>11</sup> And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying : <sup>12</sup> As to this house which thou art building, <sup>a</sup> if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them, then will I perform my word with thee <sup>b</sup> which I spake unto David thy father ; <sup>13</sup> and <sup>c</sup> I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

<sup>21</sup> And Solomon overlaid the house on the inside with pure gold ; and he made a partition by chains of gold in front of the oracle ; and he overlaid it with gold. <sup>22</sup> And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house ; also <sup>c</sup> all the altar that was by || the oracle he overlaid with gold.

c Ex. 30. 1, 3. || or, to.

d see parallel, 2 Chr. 3. 10 —12 ; see also Ex. 25. 18 —22 ; 37. 7 —9 ; Eze. 1. 5 —24 ; Rev. 4. 6 —8.

<sup>24</sup> And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub ; from the end of one wing even to the end of the other were ten cubits.

<sup>25</sup> And the other cherub was ten cubits ; both the cherubim were of one measure and one form ; <sup>26</sup> the height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so of the other cherub. <sup>27</sup> And he set the cherubim in the midst of the house on the inside ; and <sup>e</sup> they stretched forth the wings of the cherubim, so that the wing of the one touched the wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. <sup>28</sup> And he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

<sup>29</sup> And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved sculptures of cherubim and palm-trees and open flowers, within and without. <sup>30</sup> And the ceiling of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

<sup>31</sup> And for the entrance of the oracle he made doors of olive-wood; the pilaster and door-posts were a fifth part of the wall*. <sup>32</sup> The two doors also were of olive-wood; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubim and palm-trees and open flowers, and he overlaid them with gold; and he spread gold over the cherubim and over the palm-trees.

<sup>33</sup> So also made he for the door of the temple-posts of olive-wood, from a fourth part of the wall. <sup>34</sup> And the two doors were of cypress wood; the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the second door folding. <sup>35</sup> And he carved thereon cherubim and palm-trees and open flowers; and he covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work.

<sup>37</sup> In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Zif; <sup>38</sup> and in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished, as to all its matters, and as to all the manner of it; so he was seven years in building it.

Solomon's royal palaces.

7. AND Solomon built his own house in <sup>a</sup> thirteen years; and he finished all his house. <sup>2</sup> He built also <sup>b</sup> the house of the forest of Lebanon. Its length was a hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits; upon four rows of cedar pillars, and cedar beams upon the pillars. <sup>3</sup> And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that were on forty-five pillars, fifteen in a row. <sup>4</sup> And there were bars in three rows; and light was against light three times; <sup>5</sup> and all the doors and posts were square with the bar; and light was against light three times. <sup>6</sup> And he made the pillared porch; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits; and a porch was in front of them; and pillars and a threshold in front of them. <sup>7</sup> And he made the porch of <sup>c</sup> the throne where he might judge, the porch of judgment; and it was covered with cedar from the floor to the ceiling. <sup>8</sup> And his house where he dwelt, in the other court within the porch, was of the like work. Solomon made also <sup>d</sup> a house for Pharaoh's daughter whom he had taken, like unto this porch.

<sup>9</sup> All these were of costly stones, after the measures of hewn stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the corbels, and on the outside as far as the great court. <sup>10</sup> And the foundation was costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits and stones of eight cubits. <sup>11</sup> And above were costly stones, after the measures of hewn stone and cedar. <sup>12</sup> And the great court round about was with three courses of hewn stone and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court-wall of the house of the LORD and for <sup>e</sup> the porch of the house.

Building of the temple—(13) The master builder; (15) the pillars at the porch; (23) the molten sea, (27) lavers, and their stands, and (41) other furniture.

[i. e. He shall establish]; and he set up the left pillar, and called its name Boaz [i. e. Strength]. <sup>22</sup> And upon the top of the pillars was lily-work. So was the work of the pillars finished.

<sup>23</sup> And <sup>o</sup> he made a molten sea*, ten cubits from the one brim to the other, round all about; and its height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits encompassed it round about. <sup>24</sup> And under the brim of it round about were wild cucumbers encompassing it, ten in a cubit, encompassing the sea round about; the wild cucumbers were cast in two rows, when it was cast. <sup>25</sup> It stood upon <sup>h</sup> twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward. <sup>26</sup> And its thickness was a hand-breadth, and its brim was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies; it contained two thousand bathst.

<sup>27</sup> And he made ten bases* of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits its breadth, and three cubits the height of it. <sup>28</sup> And the work of the bases was this. They had panels, and the panels were between the ledges; <sup>29</sup> and on the panels that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and so on the ledges above; and beneath the lions and the oxen were garlands of festoon-work. <sup>30</sup> And every base had four brazen wheels and brazen axles; and its four feet had undersetters; under the laver were molten undersetters, at the other side of every garland. <sup>31</sup> And the mouth of it, within the capital and above, was a cubit; and its mouth was round, the work of a basel, a cubit and a half; and also upon its mouth were engravings with their borders, four-square, not round. <sup>32</sup> And under the panels were the four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were in the base; and the height of each wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. <sup>33</sup> And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel; their axletrees and their rims and their spokes and their naves were all molten. <sup>34</sup> And there were four undersetters to the four corners of each base; its undersetters were of the base. <sup>35</sup> And on the top of the base half a cubit high was rounded; and on the top of the base its ledges and its borders were of the same. <sup>36</sup> And on the plates of its ledges, and on its panels, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm-trees, according to the proportion of every one, and garlands round about. <sup>37</sup> After this manner he made the ten bases; all of them had one casting, one measure, one form.

<sup>39</sup> And he put the bases, five on the right side of the house and five on the left side of the house. And he set the sea on the right side of the house, eastward, towards the south. <sup>40</sup> And <sup>k</sup> Hiram made the lavers and the shovels and the sacrificial bowls.

So <sup>l</sup> Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made for king Solomon for the house of the LORD: <sup>41</sup> the two pillars, and the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and the two networks, to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; <sup>42</sup> and four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each net-work, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were upon the pillars; <sup>43</sup> and the ten bases, and the ten lavers on the bases; <sup>44</sup> and the one sea, and the twelve oxen under the sea; <sup>45</sup> and <sup>m</sup> the pots and the shovels and the sacrificial bowls. And all these vessels which Hiram made for king Solomon for the house of the LORD were bright brass. <sup>46</sup> In the circuit of the Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between <sup>n</sup> Succoth and <sup>o</sup> Zarthan. <sup>47</sup> And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed*, because they were exceeding many, the weight of the brass was not ascertained.

<sup>51</sup> So was completed all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD. And Solomon brought in <sup>t</sup> the things which David his father had dedicated, the silver and the gold; and he put the vessels among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that <sup>q</sup> the cloud filled the house of the LORD; <sup>11</sup> and the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; for <sup>r</sup> the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

Dedication of the temple:—(12) Solomon's introductory words; (14) his address to the people, (23) dedicatory prayer, and (25) concluding blessing on the people.

<sup>14</sup> And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the congregation of Israel; (and all the congregation of Israel were standing;) <sup>15</sup> and he said:

Blessed <sup>d</sup> be the LORD, the God of Israel, who <sup>e</sup> spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, <sup>16</sup> Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that my name might be therein; but I chose <sup>f</sup> David to be over my people Israel. <sup>17</sup> And <sup>g</sup> it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>18</sup> And the LORD said unto David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thy heart to build a house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thy heart: <sup>19</sup> nevertheless <sup>h</sup> thou shalt not build the house; but thy son who shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name. <sup>20</sup> And the LORD hath performed his word that he spake; and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, <sup>i</sup> as the LORD promised; and I have built a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>21</sup> And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein <sup>j</sup> is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

O LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>m</sup> there is no God like thee in the heavens above or on the earth beneath, <sup>n</sup> keeping thy covenant and thy mercy for thy servants that <sup>o</sup> walk before thee with all their heart; <sup>24</sup> who hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou spakest to him; yea, thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled with thy hand, as at this day. <sup>25</sup> And now, O LORD, the God of Israel, keep for thy servant David my father that which thou spakest to him, saying, <sup>p</sup> There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only thy sons take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me. <sup>26</sup> And <sup>q</sup> now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father. <sup>27</sup> For <sup>r</sup> will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, the heaven and <sup>s</sup> the heaven of heavens do not contain thee; how much less this house that I have built! <sup>28</sup> But, O LORD my God, <sup>t</sup> have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant and to his supplication, to hearken to the cry and to the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee to-day; <sup>29</sup> that thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which thou hast said, <sup>u</sup> My name shall be there; that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall pray <sup>v</sup> toward this place. <sup>30</sup> And <sup>y</sup> hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place; and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place; and when thou hearest, forgive.

<sup>31</sup> When any man trespasseth against his neighbour, and an oath is laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath cometh before thine altar in this house; <sup>32</sup> then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, <sup>33</sup> condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head, and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

<sup>41</sup> Moreover concerning the foreigner that is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy name's sake; <sup>42</sup> (for they will hear of thy great name, and thy strong hand and thy stretched-out arm); <sup>k</sup> when he shall come and pray toward this house; <sup>43</sup> hear thou, in heaven thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the foreigner calleth to thee for; <sup>l</sup> that all peoples of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, like thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.

55 And he stood and <sup>o</sup> blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying: <sup>66</sup> Blessed be the LORD, <sup>p</sup> who hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised. <sup>q</sup> There hath not failed one word of all his good promise which he spake by the hand of Moses his servant. <sup>57</sup> The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers! Let <sup>r</sup> him not leave us, nor reject us; <sup>58</sup> that he may <sup>s</sup> incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers. <sup>59</sup> And let these my words wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel, as the matter shall require*: <sup>60</sup> that <sup>t</sup> all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is the God, and none else. <sup>61</sup> Let your <sup>u</sup> heart therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

<sup>64</sup> On the same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD; for there he offered the burnt-offering and the meal-offering, and the fat of the peace-offerings; because <sup>c</sup> the brazen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt-offerings and meal-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings.

9. AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and <sup>b</sup> all Solomon's desire*, which he was pleased to do, <sup>2</sup> that the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, <sup>c</sup> as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.

<sup>3</sup> And the LORD said to him: <sup>d</sup> I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast supplicated before me. I have <sup>e</sup> hallowed this house which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever; and <sup>f</sup> mine eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually. <sup>4</sup> And if thou wilt walk before me, <sup>g</sup> as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments; <sup>5</sup> then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom over Israel for ever, <sup>h</sup> as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> But <sup>i</sup> if ye shall indeed turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes, which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them; <sup>7</sup> then <sup>k</sup> will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and <sup>l</sup> the house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and <sup>m</sup> Israel shall be a proverb and a derision among all the peoples; <sup>8</sup> and at this house, exalted though it be, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss. And they shall say, <sup>n</sup> Why hath the LORD done thus to this land, and to this house? <sup>9</sup> And they shall answer, Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, andclave unto other gods, and worshipped them and served them, therefore hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.

rusalem with a very heavy train; camels bearing spices and very much gold and precious stones. And she came to Solomon, and spake to him all that was in her heart; <sup>3</sup> and Solomon told her all her matters; there was not a thing hidden from the king which he told her not.

<sup>10</sup> And <sup>f</sup> she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in very great store, and precious stones. There came no more such abundance of spice as that which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

<sup>13</sup> And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire that she asked, besides what Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. And she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

<sup>14</sup> NOW the weight of the gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold, <sup>15</sup> besides <sup>a</sup> what came from the merchantmen, and the traffic of the traders, and <sup>a</sup> all the kings of Arabia, and the governors of the country.

<sup>28</sup> And <sup>k</sup> the exportation of the horses that Solomon had was out of Egypt, and the company of the king's merchants received the drove at a price. <sup>29</sup> And a chariot went up and came out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. And so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they export out by their hands.

Solomon's polygamy and idolatry; (9) the displeasure of God.

11. BUT <sup>a</sup> king Solomon loved many foreign women, even with the daughter of Pharaoh; women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, Hittites; <sup>2</sup> from the nations as to which the LORD said to the children of Israel: <sup>b</sup> Ye shall not go in to them, nor shall they come in unto you; <sup>c</sup> surely they will turn away your heart after their gods; unto them Solomon clave in love. <sup>3</sup> And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and <sup>d</sup> his wives turned away his heart.

<sup>9</sup> And the LORD was wroth with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>h</sup> who had appeared unto him twice, <sup>10</sup> and had <sup>i</sup> commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he kept not what the LORD commanded. <sup>11</sup> And the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done by thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, <sup>k</sup> I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant. <sup>12</sup> But I will not do it in thy days, for David thy father's sake; <sup>l</sup> I will rend it out of the hand of thy son. <sup>13</sup> But <sup>m</sup> I will not rend away all the kingdom; I will give <sup>n</sup> one tribe to thy son, for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, which I have chosen.

14 AND <sup>a</sup> the LORD stirred up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the king's seed in Edom. <sup>15</sup> For <sup>b</sup> it came to pass, when David was in * Edom, when Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, <sup>c</sup> after he had smitten every male in Edom, <sup>16</sup> (for six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom); <sup>17</sup> that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go to Egypt; Hadad being yet a little boy. <sup>18</sup> And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran; and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt; who gave him a house, and appointed him food, and gave him land. <sup>19</sup> And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh; and he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. <sup>20</sup> And the sister of Tahpenes bare unto him Genubath his son; and Tahpenes weaned him in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh. <sup>21</sup> And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh: Send me away, that I may go to mine own country. <sup>22</sup> Then Pharaoh said to him: What hast thou lacked with me, that behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered: Nothing, but in any wise let me go.

<sup>29</sup> And it came to pass at that time that Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem; and the prophet <sup>i</sup> Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way. And he was clothed in a new garment; and they two were by themselves in the field; <sup>30</sup> and Ahijah laid hold on the new garment that was on him, and <sup>k</sup> rent it in twelve pieces; <sup>31</sup> and he said to Jeroboam: Take for thyself ten pieces; for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee: <sup>32</sup> (but <sup>l</sup> he shall have one tribe, for my servant David's sake, and for Jeru-salem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel); <sup>33</sup> because they have forsaken me, and have bowed themselves down to Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, to Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and to Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes and my statutes and my judgments, like David his father. <sup>34</sup> But I will not take the whole kingdom* out of his hand; for I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David my servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes; <sup>35</sup> but <sup>m</sup> I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee; the ten tribes. <sup>36</sup> And to his son will I give one tribe, that <sup>n</sup> David my servant may have a light always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for myself to put my name there. <sup>37</sup> And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel. <sup>38</sup> And it shall be, <sup>o</sup> if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that which is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did, that I will be with thee, and will <sup>p</sup> build for thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee. <sup>39</sup> And I will afflict the seed of David for this, but not for ever.

<sup>40</sup> And Solomon sought to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose and fled into Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt; and he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

Rehoboam's accession; (2) revolt of ten tribes from the house of David; and (20) division of the kingdom.

12. AND <sup>a</sup> Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel came to Shechem to make him king.

<sup>2</sup> And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt), <sup>3</sup> that they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying: <sup>a</sup> Thy father made our <sup>b</sup> yoke hard; but do thou now lighten some of the hard service of thy father, and of his heavy yoke which he put upon us, and we will serve thee. <sup>5</sup> And he said unto them: Depart for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

<sup>8</sup> But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they gave him, and he consulted with the young men that had grown up with him, who stood before him; <sup>9</sup> and he said to them: What counsel give ye that we may answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, Lighten some of the yoke which thy father put upon us? <sup>10</sup> And the young men that had grown up with him spake to him, saying: Thus shalt thou say to this people that spake to thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but lighten thou <sup>e</sup> it from upon us—thus shalt thou say unto them: My little finger is thicker than my father's loins; <sup>11</sup> and now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

<sup>12</sup> And Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam, on the third day, as the king had spoken, saying: Come to me again on the third day. <sup>13</sup> And the king answered the people roughly; and he forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him, <sup>14</sup> and spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying: My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

<sup>16</sup> And when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying: <sup>g</sup> What portion have we in David? And we have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. To thy tents, O Israel! Now see to thine own house, David! And Israel departed to their tents.

dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

<sup>18</sup> And king Rehoboam sent <sup>i</sup> Adoram, who was over the tribute-service; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. And king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup> And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come back, that they sent and called him unto the assembly; and they made him king over all Israel; there was none that followed the house of David but <sup>k</sup> the tribe of Judah only.

<sup>21</sup> And <sup>l</sup> Rehoboam came to Jerusalem; and he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring back the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. <sup>22</sup> But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying: <sup>23</sup> Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, the king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying: <sup>24</sup> Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this matter is from me. And they hearkened to the word of the LORD, and turned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>26</sup> And Jeroboam said in his heart: Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David; <sup>27</sup> if this people <sup>c</sup> go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then will the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, unto Rehoboam, the king of Judah, and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam, the king of Judah. <sup>28</sup> And the king took counsel, and <sup>d</sup> made two calves of gold. And he said to them: Enough for you of going up* to Jerusalem! <sup>e</sup> Behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt! <sup>29</sup> And he set the one in <sup>f</sup> Beth-el, and the other put he in <sup>g</sup> Dan. <sup>30</sup> And this thing became <sup>h</sup> a sin; for the people went to worship before the one, unto Dan. <sup>31</sup> And he made a house of high places; the carcase; and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

<sup>26</sup> And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof he said: It is the man of God who was disobedient to the mouth of the LORD; and the LORD hath delivered him to the lion, and it hath torn him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which he spake unto him. <sup>27</sup> And he spake to his sons, saying: Saddle for me the ass; and they saddled it. <sup>28</sup> And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase; the lion had not eaten the carcase nor torn the ass. <sup>29</sup> And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back; and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him. <sup>30</sup> And he laid his carcase in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying: <sup>d</sup> Alas, my brother!

<sup>31</sup> And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying: When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones. <sup>32</sup> For the word shall surely come to pass which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of <sup>e</sup> Samaria.

<sup>14.</sup> AT that time Ahijah the son of Jeroboam was sick. <sup>2</sup> And Jeroboam said to his wife: Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that they may not know thee to be the wife of Jeroboam; and go to Shiloh; behold, there is <sup>a</sup> Ahijah the prophet, who told me that I should be king over this people. <sup>3</sup> And <sup>b</sup> take in thy hand ten loaves and cakes and a cruse of honey, and go to him; he will tell thee what shall become of the lad.

<sup>4</sup> And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose and went to <sup>c</sup> Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age. <sup>5</sup> And the LORD said unto Ahijah: Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing of thee concerning her son, for he is sick; thus and thus shalt thou say unto her; for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she will feign herself.

<sup>6</sup> And it came to pass, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, she came in at the door; and he said: Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam! Why feignest thou thyself? And I am sent to thee with a hard message.

king, and sat on his throne, he slew all the house of Baasha; he left him not a male, either of his kinsfolks or of his friends.

<sup>12</sup> Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha by Jehu the prophet; <sup>13</sup> for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in <sup>a</sup> provoking the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger, by their vanities.

<sup>14</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Kingdom of Israel—(15) Reign of Zimri.

<sup>15</sup> IN the twenty and seventh year of Asa, the king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah.

And the people were encamped against <sup>a</sup> Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. <sup>16</sup> And the people that were encamped heard say: Zimri hath conspired and hath also slain the king. And all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel, on that day, in the camp. <sup>17</sup> And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. <sup>18</sup> And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the citadel of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over himself with fire; and he died, <sup>19</sup> for his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, <sup>b</sup> in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, in making Israel to sin.

<sup>21</sup> Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri; <sup>22</sup> and the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath; so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

Kingdom of Israel—(23) Reign of Omri; (24) building of Samaria; (25) Omri's wickedness.

<sup>23</sup> IN the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah Omri became king over Israel, for twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah.

<sup>24</sup> And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill; and he called the name of the city which he built <sup>a</sup> Samaria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill.

<sup>25</sup> And <sup>b</sup> Omri wrought what was evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all that were before him. <sup>26</sup> And he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger, by their vanities.

<sup>27</sup> And the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>28</sup> And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

Kingdom of Israel—(29) Reign of Ahab; (30) introduction of the idolatries of the neighbouring heathen; (34) rebuilding of Jericho.

<sup>29</sup> AND in the thirty and eighth year of Asa, the king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel; and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years.

<sup>30</sup> And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD more than all that were before him. <sup>31</sup> And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that <sup>a</sup> he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, the king of the <sup>b</sup> Zidonians; and he <sup>c</sup> went and served Baal, and worshipped him. <sup>32</sup> And he reared up an altar for Baal in <sup>d</sup> the house of Baal, which he built in Samaria; <sup>33</sup> and <sup>e</sup> Ahab made the Asherah*. And Ahab did more to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

<sup>34</sup> In his days Hiel the Beth-elite built Jericho. He laid its foundation in Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates in Segub his youngest; <sup>f</sup> according to the word of the LORD which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

Ministry of Elijah—(1) After announcing a drought upon the land, (2) by Divine command he hides himself till the end of the judgment; (4) and is miraculously fed, (3) at the brook Cherith, and (9) at the house of a widow; (17) whose son he restores to life.

<sup>17</sup>. AND <sup>a</sup> Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab: <sup>b</sup> As the LORD, the God of Israel, liveth, before whom I stand, <sup>c</sup> there shall not be dew or rain these years but according to my word.

<sup>2</sup> And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying: <sup>3</sup> Go hence, and turn thine eastward, and hide thyself at the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan: <sup>4</sup> and it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there. <sup>5</sup> And he went and did according to the word of the LORD; he even went and dwelt at the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan. <sup>6</sup> And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.

<sup>7</sup> And it came to pass after a while* that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land. <sup>8</sup> And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying: <sup>9</sup> Arise, go to <sup>d</sup> Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there; behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. <sup>10</sup> And he arose and went to Zarephath.

And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow woman there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said: Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. <sup>11</sup> And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her and said: Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thy hand. <sup>12</sup> And she said: As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but a handful of meal in the barrel, and a little oil in the cruse; and behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and for my son, that we may eat it, and die. <sup>13</sup> And Elijah said unto her: Fear not; go, do as thou hast said; but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it out unto me; and afterwards make for thyself and for thy son. <sup>14</sup> For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: The barrel of meal shall not come to an end, nor shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day the LORD sendeth rain upon the ground. <sup>15</sup> And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah. And she, and he, and her house, did eat for days; <sup>16</sup> and the barrel of meal came not to an end, nor did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

<sup>17</sup> And it came to pass after these things, the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was very sore, so that there was no breath left in him. <sup>18</sup> And she said to Elijah: What have I to do with thee, O man of God? Thou art come to me to call my sin to remembrance, and to cause my son to die. <sup>19</sup> And he said to her: Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into the upper chamber where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed. <sup>20</sup> And he cried unto the LORD, and said: O LORD my God, hast thou brought evil also upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by causing her son to die? <sup>21</sup> And <sup>e</sup> he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said: O LORD my God, I pray thee, <sup>f</sup> let this child's soul* come within him again.

<sup>22</sup> And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul* of the child came within him again, and he <sup>g</sup> revived. <sup>23</sup> And Elijah took the child and brought him down out of the upper chamber into the house, and delivered him to his mother; and Elijah said: See, thy son liveth. <sup>24</sup> And the woman said to Elijah: Now <sup>h</sup> by this I know that thou art a man of God, and the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

Ministry of Elijah—(1) His conflict with the prophets of Baal; (30) his sacrifice and prayer; (40) destruction of Baal's prophets; (41) end of the drought.

<sup>18</sup>, AND it came to pass after <sup>a</sup> many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying: Go, show thyself to Ahab; and I will send rain upon the ground. <sup>2</sup> And Elijah went to show himself to Ahab.

And the famine was, strong in Samaria. <sup>3</sup> And Ahab called Obadiah, who was the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly; <sup>4</sup> and it came to pass, when <sup>b</sup> Jezebel <sup>c</sup> cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.) <sup>5</sup> And Ahab said to Obadiah: Go through the land, to all the fountains of water, and to all the brooks; peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts. <sup>6</sup> And they divided the land between them to pass throughout it; Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

<sup>7</sup> And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him; and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said: Art thou here, my lord Elijah? <sup>8</sup> And he answered him: I am: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. <sup>9</sup> And he said: What have I sinned that thou givest thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me? <sup>10</sup> As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee; and when they said, He is not here, he took an oath of the kingdom and nation that they found thee not. <sup>11</sup> And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. <sup>12</sup> And it shall come to pass, as soon as I shall go from thee, <sup>d</sup> the Spirit of the LORD will carry thee I know not whither; and when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he will slay me.

But I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth. <sup>13</sup> Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? <sup>14</sup> And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. And he will say to me.

<sup>15</sup> And Elijah said: As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself unto him to-day. <sup>16</sup> And Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

<sup>18</sup> And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him: Art thou he that troubleth Israel? <sup>18</sup> And he answered: I have not troubled Israel, but thou and thy father's house, <sup>9</sup> in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed the Baals. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore send, gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of Asherah* four hundred, who eat at Jezebel's table. <sup>20</sup> So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and <sup>2</sup> gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

<sup>21</sup> And Elijah came to all the people, and said: <sup>2</sup> How long halt ye between two opinions? If the LORD be God, follow him; but if Baal, <sup>1</sup> follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

<sup>22</sup> Then said Elijah unto the people: <sup>22</sup> I, only I, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men. <sup>23</sup> Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire; and I will sacrifice the other bullock, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire. <sup>24</sup> And call ye on the name of your god; and I will call on the name of the LORD; and the God that <sup>24</sup> answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said: The word is good!

<sup>25</sup> And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal: Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and sacrifice first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your god; but put no fire. <sup>26</sup> And they took the bullock which was given them, and sacrificed; and they called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying: O Baal, answer us! But there was <sup>9</sup> no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made.

<sup>27</sup> And it came to pass at noon that Elijah mocked them, and said: Cry with a loud voice; for he is a god; for he is meditating, or he is gone aside, or he is on a journey; peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked. <sup>28</sup> And they cried with a loud voice; and they <sup>9</sup> cut themselves after their manner with swords and spears, till the blood gushed out upon them. <sup>29</sup> And it came to pass, when mid-day was past, that they prophesied until the offering of the evening sacrifice; but there was no voice nor answer, nor attention.

<sup>30</sup> And Elijah said to all the people: Come near to me. And all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down. <sup>31</sup> And Elijah took <sup>9</sup> twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, (to whom the word of the LORD came, saying, <sup>7</sup> Israel shall be thy name); <sup>32</sup> and with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD. And he made a trench round the altar, as large as would contain two measures* of seed. <sup>33</sup> And he <sup>2</sup> put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid it on the wood. And he said: Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt-sacrifice and on the wood. <sup>34</sup> And he said: Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said: Do it the third time. And they did it the third time. <sup>35</sup> And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled also the trench with water.

<sup>36</sup> And it came to pass at the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said: O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and of Israel, <sup>2</sup> let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and <sup>9</sup> have done all these things at thy word. <sup>37</sup> Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou, O LORD, art the God, and that <sup>2</sup> thou mayest turn their heart back again.

<sup>38</sup> And <sup>2</sup> the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt-sacrifice, and the wood and the stones and the dust; and it licked up the water that was in the trench. <sup>39</sup> And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said: JEHOVAH, he is the God! JEHOVAH, he is the God!

<sup>41</sup> And Elijah said to Ahab: Go up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain; <sup>42</sup> and Ahab went up to eat and to drink. But Elijah went up to the top of Carmel. And <sup>2</sup> he bowed down to the

And he said: Go up, say unto Ahab, Harness, and go down, that the rushing rain stop thee now.

<sup>45</sup> And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heavens were black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rushing rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel. <sup>46</sup> And <sup>2</sup> the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

Ministry of Elijah—His flight into the desert; (9) Divine manifestation and commands at Horeb; (19) call of Elisha to be a prophet.

19. AND Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had slain all the prophets with the sword. <sup>2</sup> And Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying: So <sup>a</sup> let the gods do and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to-morrow about this time.

<sup>3</sup> And when he saw that, <sup>b</sup> he arose and went for his life; and he came to Beer-sheba, (which belongeth to Judah), and left his servant there; <sup>4</sup> and he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness; and he came and sat down under a certain broom-shrub. And he <sup>c</sup> requested for himself that he might die<sup>2</sup>; and said: Enough! now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.

<sup>5</sup> And he lay and slept under a certain broom-shrub; and behold, there <sup>d</sup> an angel touched him, and said to him: Arise, eat. <sup>6</sup> And he looked, and behold, <sup>e</sup> a cake baked on coals, and a cruse of water at his head. And he ate and drank, and lay down again.

<sup>7</sup> And the angel of the LORD came again a second time, and touched him, and said: Arise, eat; because the journey is too great for thee. <sup>8</sup> And he arose, and ate and drank; and he went in the strength of that food <sup>f</sup> forty days and forty nights, to <sup>g</sup> Horeb the mount of God.

<sup>9</sup> And there he went into the cave, and lodged there. And behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and said to him: <sup>h</sup> What doest thou here, Elijah? <sup>10</sup> And he said: I have been very <sup>i</sup> jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and <sup>k</sup> I, only I, am left; and

And behold, <sup>n</sup> the LORD passed by; and <sup>o</sup> a great and strong wind rent the mountains and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind. And after the wind <sup>p</sup> an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup> And after the earthquake <sup>q</sup> a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire a still small voice*; <sup>13</sup> and it came to pass, when Elijah heard it, that <sup>r</sup> he wrapped his face in his mantle; and he went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave.

And behold, a voice came unto him, and said: What doest thou here, Elijah? <sup>14</sup> And he said: I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, only I, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

him there were thirty and two kings, and horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

<sup>2</sup> And he sent messengers to Ahab, the king of Israel, into the city, and said to him: Thus saith Ben-hadad, <sup>3</sup> Thy silver and thy gold are mine; thy wives also and thy sons, the goodliest, are mine. <sup>4</sup> And the king of Israel answered and said: My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.

<sup>5</sup> And the messengers came again, and said: Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, I sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver and thy gold, and thy wives and thy sons; <sup>6</sup> but to-morrow about this time I will send my servants unto thee, and they shall search thy house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put in their hand and take away.

<sup>7</sup> Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said: Mark ye, I pray, and see how this man seeketh mischief; for he sent to me for my wives and for my sons, and for my silver and for my gold; and I denied him not. <sup>8</sup> And all the elders and all the people said to him: Hearken thou not, nor consent.

<sup>9</sup> Wherefore he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad: Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do; but this thing I cannot do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

<sup>10</sup> And Ben-hadad sent to him and said: <sup>a</sup> The gods do so to me and more also if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me. <sup>11</sup> And the king of Israel answered and said: Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on <sup>b</sup> boast as he that putteth off.

<sup>12</sup> And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings, in the pavilions, that he said to his servants: Set ye in array. And they set in array against the city.

<sup>13</sup> And behold, there came a prophet to Ahab, the king of Israel, saying: Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into thy hand this day; and <sup>b</sup> thou shalt know that I am the LORD. <sup>14</sup> And Ahab said: By whom? And he said: Thus saith the LORD, By the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said: Who shall begin the battle? And he answered: Thou.

<sup>15</sup> And he mustered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two: and after them he mustered all the people, all the children of Israel, seven thousand. <sup>16</sup> And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was <sup>c</sup> drinking as a drunkard in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings, that helped him. <sup>17</sup> And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first. And Ben-hadad sent out; and they told him, saying: There are men come out of Samaria. <sup>18</sup> And he said: Whether they come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they come out for war, take them alive.

<sup>19</sup> And these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them. <sup>20</sup> And they smote every one his man. And the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them. And Ben-hadad, the king of Syria, escaped with horses and horsemen. <sup>21</sup> And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and the chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

<sup>22</sup> And <sup>d</sup> the prophet came to the king of Israel, and said unto him: Go, strengthen thyself, and understand, and see what thou doest; for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee.

<sup>23</sup> And the servants of the king of Syria said to him: Their gods are the gods of the hills, therefore they were stronger than we; but if we fight against them in the plain, shall we not be stronger than they? <sup>24</sup> But do this thing: Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put governors in their rooms. <sup>25</sup> And number for thyself a army like the army that thou hast lost; horse for horse, and chariot for chariot; and we will fight against them in the plain, and shall we not be stronger than they? And he hearkened to their voice, and did so.

<sup>26</sup> And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to <sup>e</sup> Aphek, to fight against Israel. <sup>27</sup> And the children of Israel were mustered, and were furnished with provisions, and went to meet them. And the children of Israel encamped before them <sup>f</sup> like two flocks of goats; but <sup>g</sup> the Syrians filled the land.

<sup>28</sup> And <sup>h</sup> the man of God came near, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said: Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is the God of hills, but he is not the God of valleys, therefore <sup>i</sup> will I deliver all this great multitude into thy hand; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

the other, seven days. And it came to pass that on the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians a hundred thousand footmen in one day. <sup>30</sup> And the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left.

And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.* <sup>31</sup> And his servants said to him: Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Let us, we pray, <sup>k</sup> put sackcloth on our loins and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; peradventure he will save thy life. <sup>32</sup> So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel. And they said: Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said: Is he yet alive? He is my brother. <sup>33</sup> And the men diligently observed whether anything would come from him, and hastily caught it.† And they said: Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said: Go ye, fetch him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot. <sup>34</sup> And Ben-hadad said to him: <sup>i</sup> The cities which my father took from thy father I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab: I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

<sup>35</sup> And a certain man of <sup>m</sup> the sons of the prophets said to his neighbour by the word of the LORD: Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him. <sup>36</sup> Then said he to him: Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou departest from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he departed from him, <sup>n</sup> a lion found him and slew him. <sup>37</sup> Then he found another man, and said: Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, smiting and wounding him.

<sup>38</sup> And the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with a covering over his eyes. <sup>39</sup> And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king, and said: Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle, and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me, and said, Keep this man; <sup>o</sup> if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or thou shalt pay a talent of silver; <sup>40</sup> and as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said to him: So hast thou decided thine own judgment. <sup>41</sup> And he hastened and took away the covering from his eyes; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was one of the prophets.

<sup>42</sup> And he said unto him: Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of hand the man of my curse, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.

<sup>43</sup> And the king of Israel went to his house sullen and angry, and he came to Samaria.

Kingdom of Israel—(1) The murder of Naboth, and (15) seizure of his vineyard; (17) the curse on Ahab and Jezebel.

21. AND it came to pass after these things, Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in <sup>a</sup> Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab, the king of Samaria. <sup>2</sup> And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying: Give me thy <sup>b</sup> vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near to my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or if it be good in thine eyes, I will give thee the price of it in silver. <sup>3</sup> And Naboth said to Ahab: The LORD forbid it me <sup>c</sup> that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to thee.

<sup>4</sup> And Ahab came into his house sullen and angry, because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers; and he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

<sup>5</sup> And <sup>d</sup> Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him: Why now is thy spirit sullen, and thou eatest no bread? <sup>6</sup> And he said to her: Because I spake to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, Give me thy vineyard for silver; or else, if thou pleasest, I will give thee a vineyard in its place; and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard.

<sup>7</sup> And Jezebel his wife said to him: Dost thou* now exercise rule over the kingdom of Israel? Arise, eat bread, and let thy heart be merry; I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. <sup>8</sup> And she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, who dwelt with Naboth. <sup>9</sup> And she wrote in the letters, saying: Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people; <sup>10</sup> and set <sup>e</sup> two men, sons of wickedness, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou hast cursed God and the king. And carry him out, and stone him, that he may die.

and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. <sup>12</sup> They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people; <sup>13</sup> and there came in two men, sons of wickedness, and sat before him; and the wicked men witnessed against him, against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying: Naboth hath cursed God and the king. And they brought him <sup>g</sup> out of the city, and <sup>h</sup> stoned him with stones, that he died. <sup>14</sup> Then they sent to Jezebel, saying: They have stoned Naboth and he is dead.

<sup>15</sup> And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned and had died, that Jezebel said to Ahab: Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for silver; for Naboth is not alive, but dead. <sup>16</sup> And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that <sup>i</sup> Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

<sup>17</sup> And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying: <sup>18</sup> Arise, go down to meet Ahab, the king of Israel, who is in Samaria. Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to take possession of it. And thou shalt speak unto him, saying: Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? <sup>19</sup> And thou shalt speak unto him, saying: Thus saith the LORD, <sup>k</sup> In the place where the dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall the dogs lick thy blood, even thine.

wife urged on. <sup>26</sup> And he did very abominably in following after idols, like all that the Amorites did, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

Kingdom of Israel—(ch. 22. 1) Joint expedition of Ahab and Jehoshaphat against the Syrians; (6) the assurances of the false prophets; (15) Micaiah's prophetic warning; (34) death of Ahab.

<sup>5</sup> And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel: <sup>d</sup> Seek, I pray thee, the word of the LORD to-day. <sup>6</sup> Then the king of Israel <sup>e</sup> gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them: Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And <sup>f</sup> they said: Go up; for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king.

<sup>7</sup> And <sup>g</sup> Jehoshaphat said: Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we may inquire by him? <sup>8</sup> And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat: There is one man besides, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD; <sup>h</sup> but I hate him, for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said: Let not the king say so. <sup>9</sup> Then the king of Israel called to a certain officer, and said: Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.

<sup>10</sup> And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a level place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

<sup>11</sup> And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made for himself horns of iron; and he said: Thus saith the LORD: With these shalt thou gore the Syrians until thou have finished them. <sup>12</sup> And all the prophets prophesied so, saying: Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper; and the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand.

<sup>13</sup> And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying: Behold now, the words of the prophets with one mouth are good unto the king. Let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak good. <sup>14</sup> And Micaiah said: As the LORD liveth, <sup>15</sup> what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak. <sup>15</sup> And he came to the king.

And the king said to him: Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him: Go, and prosper; for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king.

<sup>16</sup> And the king said unto him: How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but truth in the name of the LORD? <sup>17</sup> And he said: I saw all Israel <sup>k</sup> scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have no shepherd; and the LORD said: These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace.

<sup>18</sup> And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat: Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

<sup>19</sup> And he said: Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: <sup>19</sup> I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and <sup>m</sup> all the host of heaven standing by him, on his right hand and on his left. <sup>20</sup> And the LORD said: Who shall entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner. <sup>21</sup> And <sup>n</sup> there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said: I will entice him. <sup>22</sup> And the LORD said to him: Wherewith? And he said: I will go forth, and I will be a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all his prophets. And He said: <sup>o</sup> Thou shalt entice him, and prevail also; go forth and do so. <sup>23</sup> And now behold, <sup>p</sup> the LORD hath put a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all these thy prophets; and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

<sup>24</sup> And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said: <sup>q</sup> Where now went the spirit of the LORD from me to speak with thee? <sup>25</sup> And Micaiah said: Behold, thou shalt see in that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

<sup>26</sup> And the king of Israel said: Take thou Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son; and thou shalt say: <sup>27</sup> Thus saith the king, <sup>r</sup> Put this man in the prison, and feed him with the <sup>s</sup> bread of affliction and with the water of affliction until I come in peace.

<sup>28</sup> And Micaiah said: If thou indeed return in peace, <sup>t</sup> the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said: Hearken, ye people, all of you.

And the king of Israel <sup>u</sup> disguised himself, and went into the battle.

<sup>31</sup> And the king of Syria had commanded his thirty and two captains of his chariots, saying: Fight ye neither with small or great, but only with the king of Israel. <sup>32</sup> And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said: Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him; and Jehoshaphat cried out. <sup>33</sup> And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

<sup>34</sup> And a man drew the bow at a venture, * and smote the king of Israel between the fastenings and the corset. Wherefore he said to his charioteer: Turn thy hand, and take me out of the army, for I am wounded. <sup>35</sup> And the battle increased that day, and the king was stayed up in his chariot over against the Syrians, and he died in the evening; and the blood poured out of the wound into the midst of the chariot. <sup>36</sup> And the shout passed through the army, about the setting of the sun, saying: Every man to his city and every man to his country!

<sup>39</sup> And the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and <sup>v</sup> the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>40</sup> So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

<sup>41</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> Jehoshaphat the son of Asa became king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. <sup>42</sup> Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he became king; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

Ministry of Elijah—(2) Ahaziah's illness; (3) Elijah's announcement of his death; (4) divine attestation and protection to the prophet.

1. AND <sup>a</sup> Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

<sup>2</sup> And Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was ill. And he sent messengers, and said to them: Go, inquire of Baal-zebub*, the god of <sup>b</sup> Ekron, whether I shall recover of this disease.

<sup>3</sup> And the angel of the LORD said to <sup>c</sup> Elijah the Tishbite: Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, Is it because there is no God in Israel that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? <sup>4</sup> Now therefore thus saith the LORD: Thou shalt not come down from the bed on which thou art gone up, for thou shalt surely die. And Elijah departed.

<sup>5</sup> And the messengers returned to him; and he said to them: Why are ye now returned? <sup>6</sup> And they said to him: There came up a man to meet us, and said unto us, Go, return unto the king who sent you, and say to him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it because there is no God in Israel that thou sendest to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore thou shalt not come down from the bed on which thou art gone up, for thou shalt surely die. <sup>7</sup> And he said unto them: What was the manner of the man who came up to meet you, and told you these words? <sup>8</sup> And they answered him: A <sup>d</sup> hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said: It is Elijah the Tishbite.

<sup>9</sup> And the king sent to him a captain of fifty, and his fifty. And he went up to him; and behold, he sat on the top of the mount. And he spake to him: Thou man of God, the king hath said, Come down. <sup>10</sup> And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty: <sup>e</sup> If I be a man of God, then <sup>f</sup> let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

<sup>11</sup> And he sent again to him another captain of fifty, and his fifty. And he answered and said to him : Thou man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.

<sup>12</sup> And Elijah answered and said to them : If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

<sup>13</sup> And again he sent the captain of a third fifty and his fifty. And the captain of the third fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him : Thou man of God, let, I pray thee, my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, <sup>o</sup> be precious in thy sight.

<sup>14</sup> Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties and their fifties ; but now let my life be precious in thy sight. <sup>15</sup> And the angel of the LORD said to Elijah : Go down with him ; be not afraid of him.

And he arose and went down with him to the king. <sup>16</sup> And he said to him : Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel, to inquire of his word ? Therefore thou shalt not come down off the bed on which thou art gone up, for thou shalt surely die.

<sup>17</sup> And he died, according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And because he had no son, Jehoram reigned in his stead (in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah).

<sup>18</sup> And the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel ?

Ministry of Elijah.—(1) Accompanied by Elisha, he visits schools of the prophets, (2) at Bethel, and (6) at Jericho ; (8) crosses the Jordan on dry ground ; and (11) is taken up to heaven.

<sup>2</sup> AND it came to pass, when the LORD would <sup>a</sup> take up Elijah into heaven in a whirlwind, that Elijah went with <sup>b</sup> Elisha from Gilgal. <sup>2</sup> And Elijah said to Elisha : Tarry here, I pray thee ; for the LORD hath sent me to Beth-el. And Elisha said : As the LORD liveth and <sup>c</sup> as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el. <sup>3</sup> And <sup>d</sup> the sons of the prophets that were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said to him : Knowest thou that the LORD will take thy master from over thy head to-day ? And he said : Yea I know it ; hold ye your peace.

<sup>4</sup> And Elijah said to him : Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee ; for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said : As the LORD liveth and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they came to Jericho. <sup>5</sup> And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said to him : Knowest thou that the LORD will take thy master from over thy head to-day ? And he answered : Yea I know it ; hold ye your peace.

<sup>6</sup> And Elijah said to him : Tarry here, I pray thee ; for the LORD hath sent me to the Jordan. And he said : As the LORD liveth and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on. <sup>7</sup> And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood to view afar off ; and they two stood by the Jordan. <sup>8</sup> And Elijah took his mantle and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and <sup>e</sup> they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground.

<sup>9</sup> And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha : Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken from thee. And Elisha said : Let, I pray thee, <sup>f</sup> a double portion of thy spirit be upon me. <sup>10</sup> And he said : Thou hast asked a hard thing ; if thou see me taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee ; but if not, it shall not be so.

<sup>11</sup> And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that behold, <sup>g</sup> a chariot of fire and horses of fire ; and they parted them both asunder ; and Elijah went up in the whirlwind into heaven.

<sup>12</sup> AND Elisha saw it, and he cried : <sup>a</sup> My father, my father ! The chariots of Israel, and the horsemen thereof ! And he saw him no more. And he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces. <sup>13</sup> And he took up the <sup>b</sup> mantle of Elijah that fell from him. And he went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan ; <sup>14</sup> and he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said : Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah ? And he smote the waters, and they parted hither and thither, and Elisha went over.

<sup>15</sup> And the sons of the prophets who were in Jericho, on the opposite side, saw him ; and they said : <sup>c</sup> The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. <sup>16</sup> And they said to him : Behold now, there are with thy servants fifty <sup>19</sup> And the men of the city said to Elisha: Behold now, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth; but the water is bad, and the ground barren*. <sup>20</sup> And he said: Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein; and they brought it to him. <sup>21</sup> And he went forth to the spring of the waters, and <sup>e</sup> cast the salt there, and said: Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land†. <sup>22</sup> So the waters were healed, unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

<sup>23</sup> And he went up from thence unto Beth-el. And as he was going up by the way, there came forth little boys out of the city, and mocked him, and said to him: Go up, bald-head! Go up, bald-head! <sup>24</sup> And he turned back and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she-bears out of the forest, and tare forty and two children of them.

Ministry of Elisha—(1) Reign of Jehoram in Israel; (4) revolt of Moab; (6) Joint expedition of the kings of Israel and Judah against Moab; (9) their distress, and miraculous relief.

3. NOW Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel, in Samaria, in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; and he reigned twelve years. <sup>2</sup> And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; but <sup>a</sup> not like his father and <sup>b</sup> like his mother; for he put away the image of Baal <sup>c</sup> that his father had made. <sup>3</sup> Yet he cleaved to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

<sup>4</sup> And Mesha, the king of Moab, was a sheepmaster, and <sup>d</sup> he rendered to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs and a hundred thousand rams, with the wool. <sup>5</sup> But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> And king Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and mustered all Israel. <sup>7</sup> And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying: The king of Moab hath rebelled against me; wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said: I will go up: <sup>e</sup> I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses. <sup>8</sup> And he said: Which way shall we go up? And he answered: <sup>f</sup> The way through the wilderness of Edom.

<sup>9</sup> So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they made a circuit of seven days' journey. And there was no water for the host* and for the cattle that followed them. <sup>10</sup> And the king of Israel said: Alas, that the LORD hath called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab!

<sup>11</sup> But <sup>g</sup> Jehoshaphat said: Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said: Here is <sup>h</sup> Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured water on the hands of Elijah. <sup>12</sup> And Jehoshaphat said: The word of the LORD is with him. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

<sup>13</sup> And Elisha said unto the king of Israel: <sup>i</sup> What have I to do with thee? <sup>k</sup> Go to <sup>l</sup> the prophets of thy father and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said to him: Nay; for the LORD hath called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab. <sup>14</sup> And Elisha said: <sup>m</sup> As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee nor see thee. <sup>15</sup> But now fetch me <sup>n</sup> a minstrel.

And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that <sup>o</sup> the hand of the LORD was upon him. <sup>16</sup> And he said: Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches; <sup>17</sup> for thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see heavy rain; but <sup>p</sup> that valley shall be filled with water, and ye shall drink, both ye, and your cattle and your beasts. <sup>18</sup> And this is <sup>q</sup> a light thing in the sight of the LORD; he will also deliver the Moabites into your hand; <sup>19</sup> and ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all the wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.

Edom, and the country was filled with water.

<sup>21</sup> And all Moab heard that the kings were come up to fight against them; and they were gathered, all that were able to put on armour and upward, and stood on the border. <sup>22</sup> And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side red as blood. <sup>23</sup> And they said: This is blood; the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil! <sup>24</sup> And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country. <sup>25</sup> And they beat down the cities; and on every good piece of land every man cast his stone, and filled it; and they <sup>3</sup> stopped all the wells of water, and <sup>4</sup> felled all the good trees; until in <sup>5</sup> Kir-haraseth they left only the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about, and smote it.

<sup>26</sup> And the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him; and he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through unto the king of Edom; but they could not. <sup>27</sup> Then <sup>2</sup> he took his eldest son that should reign in his stead, and <sup>3</sup> offered him a burnt-offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel; and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

Ministry of Elisha—(1) The widow's cruse of oil; (2) the Shunammite and her son; (38) miraculous relief to the sons of the prophets in time of famine.

4. AND a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried unto Elisha, saying: Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD; and the creditor is come <sup>a</sup> to take to him my two sons to be bondmen. <sup>2</sup> And Elisha said to her: What shall I do for thee? Tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said: <sup>b</sup> Thy handmaid hath not any thing in the house save a pot of oil. <sup>3</sup> Then he said: <sup>c</sup> Go, borrow for thyself vessels abroad from all thy neighbours, empty vessels; borrow not a few; <sup>4</sup> and when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons; and thou shalt pour out into all those vessels, and shalt set aside that which is full. <sup>5</sup> So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons; they bringing the vessels to her, and she pouring out. <sup>6</sup> And it came to pass when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son: Bring me yet a vessel; and he said to her: There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed <sup>7</sup>. Then she came and told the man of God; and he said: Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children on the rest.

<sup>8</sup> And it came to pass on a day, that Elisha passed to <sup>d</sup> Shunem, where was a great woman; and <sup>e</sup> she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was that as often as he passed by he turned in thither to eat bread. <sup>9</sup> And she said to her husband: Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, who passeth by us continually; <sup>10</sup> let us, I pray thee, make a little wall-upper-chamber; and let us set for him there a bed and a table and a seat and a lampstand: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

<sup>11</sup> And it came to pass on a day that he came thither, and he turned into the upper chamber and lay there. <sup>12</sup> And he said to Gehazi his servant: Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him. <sup>13</sup> And he said to him: Say now to her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? Wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered: I dwell among mine own people. <sup>14</sup> And he said: What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered: Verily she hath no son, and her husband is old. <sup>15</sup> And he said: Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door. <sup>16</sup> And he said: <sup>f</sup> About this season, according to the time of life; thou shalt embrace a son. And she said: Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not deceive thy handmaid. <sup>17</sup> And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

<sup>18</sup> And when the child was grown, it came to pass on a day that he went out to his father, to the reapers. <sup>19</sup> And he said to his father: My head, my head! And he said to the servant: Carry him to his mother. <sup>20</sup> And he took him and brought him to his mother; and he sat on her knees till noon, and died. <sup>21</sup> And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut him in, and went out.

<sup>22</sup> And she called to her husband and said: Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come back. <sup>23</sup> And he said: Wherefore goest thou to him to-day? It is neither new moon nor sabbath. And she said: It is well. <sup>24</sup> Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant: Drive and go forward; slack not thy riding for me except I bid thee. <sup>23</sup> So she went and came to the man of God, to mount Carmel.

And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant: Behold that Shunammite; <sup>26</sup> run now, I pray thee, to meet her; and say unto her, Is it well with thee? Is it well with thy husband? Is it well with the child? And she answered, <sup>27</sup> It is well.

<sup>27</sup> And when she came to the man of God, to the hill, she <sup>28</sup> caught hold of his feet; but Gehazi <sup>29</sup> came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said: Let her alone, for her soul is vexed within her: and the LORD hath hidden it from me, and hath not told me. <sup>28</sup> Then she said: Did I desire a son of my lord? Did I not say, Do not deceive me?

<sup>29</sup> And he said to Gehazi: <sup>30</sup> Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thy hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, <sup>31</sup> salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again; and lay my staff upon the face of the boy. <sup>30</sup> And the mother of the boy said: As the LORD liveth and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose and followed her. <sup>31</sup> And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the boy; but there was neither voice nor hearing. And he returned to meet him, and told him, saying: The boy is not awaked.

<sup>32</sup> And when Elisha came into the house, behold, the boy was dead, laid upon his bed. <sup>33</sup> And he <sup>34</sup> went in and shut the door upon them twain, and <sup>35</sup> prayed unto the LORD. <sup>34</sup> And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands; and <sup>36</sup> he stretched himself upon him; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. <sup>35</sup> And he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and he went up, and stretched himself upon him. And <sup>37</sup> the boy sneezed seven times, and the boy opened his eyes. <sup>36</sup> And he called to Gehazi and said: Call to this Shunammite; and he called her; and when she came in to him, he said: Take up thy son. <sup>37</sup> And she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and <sup>38</sup> took up her son, and went out.

<sup>38</sup> And Elisha came again to Gilgal. And there was <sup>39</sup> famine in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him; and he said to his servant: Set on the great pot, and boil pottage for the sons of the prophets. <sup>39</sup> And one went out into the field to gather green herbs; and he found a field-vine, and gathered thereof field-cucumbers, his lap full; and he came and shred them into the pot of pottage; for they knew them not. <sup>40</sup> And they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out and said: Man of God, there is death in the pot! And they could not eat. <sup>41</sup> And he said: Then fetch ye meal; and <sup>42</sup> he cast it into the pot; and he said: Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no harm in the pot.

5. AND <sup>6</sup> Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man in the presence of his master, and honoured, because by him the LORD had given deliverance unto Syria; and the man was a mighty man of valour, but a leper. <sup>2</sup> And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife. <sup>3</sup> And she said to her mistress: Oh that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would recover him from his leprosy.

<sup>4</sup> And he went in and told his lord, saying: Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel. <sup>5</sup> And the king of Syria said: Depart, go, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he departed, and <sup>6</sup> took with him ten talents of silver and six thousand shekels of gold and ten changes of raiment. <sup>7</sup> And he brought to the king of Israel the letter, saying: Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him from his leprosy.

<sup>7</sup> And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said: Am I <sup>8</sup> God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man from his leprosy? Wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh an occasion against me.

<sup>8</sup> And it came to pass, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying: Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.

<sup>13</sup> And his servants came near, and spake to him and said: My father, if the prophet had bidden thee a great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? And how much rather when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean! <sup>14</sup> Then went he down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God. And his flesh came again <sup>h</sup> like unto the flesh of a little child, and <sup>i</sup> he was clean.

<sup>15</sup> And <sup>k</sup> he returned to the man of God, and he and all his company, and came and stood before him. And he said: Behold, now I know that there is <sup>l</sup> no God in all the earth but in Israel; now therefore, I pray thee, take <sup>m</sup> a blessing from thy servant. <sup>16</sup> But he said: As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused.

<sup>17</sup> And Naaman said: And shall there not, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth? For thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt-offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD. <sup>18</sup> In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and <sup>n</sup> he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon; when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing. <sup>19</sup> And he said unto him: Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.

<sup>20</sup> But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving from his hand that which he brought; but, as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat from him. <sup>21</sup> So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said: Is all well? <sup>22</sup> And he said: All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, just now there are come to me from the hill-country of Ephraim two young men of <sup>o</sup> the sons of the prophets; give for them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments. <sup>23</sup> And Naaman said: Be pleased, take two talents. And he urged him; and he bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him. <sup>24</sup> And when he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and laid them up in the house. And he let the men go, and they departed; <sup>25</sup> but he went in, and stood before his master.

And Elisha said to him: Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said: Thy servant went no whither. <sup>26</sup> And <sup>p</sup> he said to him: Went not my heart with thee* when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards and vineyards, and sheep and oxen, and menservants and maid-servants? <sup>27</sup> The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave to thee, and to thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence <sup>q</sup> a leper as white as snow.

<sup>6.</sup> AND the sons of the prophets said unto Elisha: Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too strait for us. <sup>2</sup> Let us now go to the Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us there a place where we may dwell. And he said: Go ye. <sup>3</sup> And one said: Be pleased, I pray thee, and go with thy servants; and he answered: I will go; <sup>4</sup> and he went with them.

And they came to the Jordan, and they cut down the trees. <sup>5</sup> And as one was felling a beam, the iron† fell into the water: and he cried and said: Alas, master! And it was borrowed! <sup>6</sup> And the man of God said: Where fell it? And he showed him the place. And <sup>a</sup> he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and he made the iron to swim. <sup>7</sup> And he said: Take it up to thee; and he put out his hand, and took it.

1. <sup>8</sup> And <sup>b</sup> the king of Syria was warring against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying: In such and such a place shall be my encampment. <sup>9</sup> And <sup>c</sup> the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying: Beware that thou pass not beyond that place; for there the Syrians are coming down. <sup>10</sup> And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God had told him and warned him of, and he was on his guard there, not once nor twice.

<sup>11</sup> And the heart of the king of Syria was sorely troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said to them: Will ye not show me which of ours is for the king of Israel? <sup>12</sup> And one of his servants said: None, my lord the king; but Elisha, the prophet, who is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest <sup>d</sup> in thy bedchamber. <sup>13</sup> And he said: Go and see where he is, that I may send and take him. And it was told him, saying: Behold, he is in <sup>e</sup> Dothan!

<sup>14</sup> And he sent thither horses and chariots and a great host; and they came by night, and encompassed the city about. <sup>15</sup> And when the servant of the man of God was risen early and gone forth, behold, <sup>f</sup> a host encompassed the city, both horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him: Alas, my master! How shall we do? <sup>16</sup> And he answered: Fear not; for <sup>g</sup> they that are with us are more than they that are with them.

<sup>17</sup> And Elisha prayed and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the servant, and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of <sup>h</sup> horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

<sup>18</sup> And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said: Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And <sup>i</sup> He smote them with blindness, according to the word of Elisha. <sup>19</sup> And Elisha said unto him: This is not the way, neither is this the city; follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. And he led them to Samaria. <sup>20</sup> And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said: LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

<sup>21</sup> And the king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them: <sup>j</sup> My father, shall I smite, shall I smite them? <sup>22</sup> And he answered: Thou shalt not smite them. Dost thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? <sup>k</sup> Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master. <sup>23</sup> And he prepared great provision for them; and when they had eaten and drunk he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

Ministry of Elisha—(21) Siege of Samaria, causing terrible famine; and (ch. 7. 1) its miraculous deliverance.

<sup>24</sup> AND it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad, the king of Syria, gathered all his army, and went up and besieged Samaria. <sup>25</sup> And there was a great famine in Samaria; and behold, they besieged it until an ass's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five shekels of silver.

<sup>26</sup> And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, a woman cried unto him, saying: Help, my lord the king! <sup>27</sup> And he said: Nay, let the LORD help thee. Whence shall I help thee; out of the barn-floor, or out of the wine-press? <sup>28</sup> And the king said to her: What aileth thee? And she answered: This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to-day, and we will eat my son to-morrow; <sup>29</sup> so <sup>l</sup> we boiled my son, and did eat him; and I said to her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him; and she hath hidden her son.

<sup>30</sup> And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that <sup>m</sup> he rent his clothes; and he was passing by upon the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh. <sup>31</sup> And he said: <sup>n</sup> God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him to-day.

<sup>32</sup> But Elisha was sitting in his house, and <sup>o</sup> the elders sitting with him. And the king sent a man from before him; but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders: <sup>p</sup> See ye how this son of <sup>q</sup> a murderer hath sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him? <sup>33</sup> While he was yet talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him, and said: Behold, this evil is from the LORD; <sup>r</sup> why wait I for the LORD any longer?

<sup>7</sup> And Elisha said: Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD: To-morrow about this time a seah* of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.

2 And the lord* on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said: Behold, <sup>a</sup> if the LORD made windows in heaven could this thing be? And he said: Behold, thou shalt see <sup>it</sup> with thine eyes, but thou shalt not eat thereof.

3 And there were four leprous men † at the entrance of the gate. And they said one to another: Why sit we here until we die? <sup>4</sup> If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there; and if we sit still here, we die also. But now come, and let us fall into the camp of the Syrians: if they spare our lives, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die. <sup>5</sup> And they rose up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians. And they came to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, and behold, there was no man there. <sup>6</sup> For the Lord had made the host † of the Syrians <sup>k</sup> to hear the noise of chariots and the noise of horses, the noise of a great host. And they said one to another: Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us. <sup>7</sup> And they <sup>l</sup> arose and fled, in the twilight; and left their tents and their horses and their asses, the camp as it was, and fled for their life. <sup>8</sup> And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink; and they carried thence silver and gold and raiment, and went and hid <sup>it</sup>; and they came again and entered into another tent, and carried thence, and went and hid <sup>it</sup>.

9 Then they said one to another: We are not doing right, this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace; if we tarry till the morning light, then mischief will come upon us; but now come and let us go and tell the king's house. <sup>10</sup> So they came and called to the porter of the city; and they told them, saying: We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no man there, nor voice of man; but the horses tied and the asses tied, and the tents as they were. <sup>11</sup> And he called the porters; and they told <sup>it</sup> to the king's house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and said to his servants: I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us: they know that we are famishing; and they are gone out of the camp <sup>m</sup> to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and enter into the city. <sup>13</sup> And one of his servants answered and said: Let them take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it; behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are consumed), and let us send and see. <sup>14</sup> And they took the two spans of horses; and the king sent after the host <sup>n</sup> of the Syrians, saying: Go and see. <sup>15</sup> And they went after them to the Jordan; and lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a seah of fine flour was sold for a shekel and two seahs of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD. <sup>17</sup> And the king appointed the lord † on whose hand he leaned over the gate. And the people trampled upon him in the gate; and he died; <sup>n</sup> as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down to him.

18 And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying: Two seahs of barley for a shekel, and a seah of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to-morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria; <sup>19</sup> and the lord † answered the man of God, and said: Now behold, if the LORD made windows in heaven could such a thing be? and he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof. <sup>20</sup> And so it fell out unto him; for the people trampled upon him in the gate, and he died.

Ministry of Elisha—(1) The Shunamite and her land; (7) Ben-hadad and Hazael.

8. AND Elisha spoke to the woman <sup>a</sup> whose son he had restored to life, saying: Arise and go, thou and thy household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn; for the LORD <sup>b</sup> hath called for a famine; and also it shall come upon the land for seven years. <sup>2</sup> And the woman arose and did according to the saying of the man of God; and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years. <sup>3</sup> And it came to pass at the end of seven years, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines. And she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the king was talking to Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying: Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done. <sup>5</sup> And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored the dead to life, that behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said: My lord the king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life. <sup>6</sup> And the king asked the woman, and she told him. And the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying: Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land even until now.

<sup>7</sup> And Elisha came to Damascus. And Ben-hadad, the king of Syria, was sick; and it was told him, saying: The man of God is come hither. <sup>8</sup> And the king said to <sup>c</sup> Hazael: <sup>d</sup> Take a present in thy hand, and go, meet the man of God, and <sup>e</sup> inquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

<sup>9</sup> And Hazael went to meet him, and took a present in his hand, even every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden. And he came and stood before him, and said: Thy son Ben-hadad, the king of Syria, hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? <sup>10</sup> And Elisha said to him: Go, say unto him, Thou shalt certainly recover; but the LORD hath showed me that he shall surely die. <sup>11</sup> And he settled his countenance stedfastly upon him, until he was ashamed; and the man of God wept. <sup>12</sup> And Hazael said: Why weepeth my lord?

And he answered: Because I know <sup>o</sup> the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong-holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and <sup>h</sup> thou wilt dash in pieces their children, and rip up their women with child. <sup>13</sup> And Hazael said: What is thy servant, <sup>i</sup> the dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered: <sup>k</sup> The LORD hath showed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.

<sup>14</sup> And he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; and he said to him: What said Elisha to thee? And he answered: He told me thou shalt surely recover. <sup>15</sup> And it came to pass on the morrow that he took a thick cloth and dipped it in water, and spread <sup>u</sup> it on his face, so that he died. And Hazael reigned in his stead.

Kingdom of Judah—(15) Reign of Jehoram; (20) revolt of the Edomites and of Libnah; (25) reign of Ahaziah; (28) his alliance with the king of Israel in a war against Syria.

<sup>16</sup> And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab, the king of Israel, (Jehoshaphat being then the king of Judah), <sup>a</sup> Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, became king. <sup>17</sup> Thirty <sup>b</sup> and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

<sup>25</sup> In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab, the king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, became king. <sup>26</sup> Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he became king; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was <sup>k</sup> Athaliah, the daughter of Omri, the king of Israel.

<sup>27</sup> And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab; for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

<sup>28</sup> And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael, the king of Syria, in Ramoth-gilead. And the Syrians smote Joram. <sup>29</sup> And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael the king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab, in Jezreel, because he was ill.

<sup>9</sup>. AND Elisha the prophet called one of <sup>a</sup> the sons of the prophets, and said to him: <sup>b</sup> Gird up thy loins, and take this flask of oil in thy hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead; <sup>2</sup> and go thou in thither, and look out there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and bring him to an inner chamber; <sup>3</sup> then <sup>c</sup> take the flask of oil, and pour <sup>d</sup> it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD : I have anointed thee for king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee and tarry not.

<sup>4</sup> And the young man, the young prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. <sup>5</sup> And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting. And he said : I have an errand to thee, the captain. And Jehu said : Unto which of us all? And he said : To thee, the captain. <sup>6</sup> And he arose and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said to him : Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>a</sup> I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, over Israel. <sup>7</sup> And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master; <sup>c</sup> that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the servants of the LORD <sup>f</sup> at the hand of Jezebel. <sup>8</sup> For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and <sup>g</sup> I will cut off from Ahab every male, and him that is <sup>h</sup> shut up and left in Israel; <sup>9</sup> and I will make the house of Ahab like the house of <sup>i</sup> Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of <sup>k</sup> Baasha the son of Ahijah. <sup>10</sup> And <sup>l</sup> the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

<sup>11</sup> Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord. And they said to him : Is all well? Wherefore came <sup>m</sup> this madman to thee? And he said to them : Ye know the man and his communication. <sup>12</sup> And they said : It is false; tell us now. And he said : Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. <sup>13</sup> Then they hastened and <sup>n</sup> took every man his garment and put it under him on the steps of the stairs; and they <sup>o</sup> blew with the trumpet, saying : Jehu reigneth! <sup>14</sup> So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram.

And Joram was keeping guard in Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria. <sup>15</sup> And king <sup>p</sup> Joram had returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael, the king of Syria. And Jehu said : If it be your mind, let not a fugitive escape out of the city to go to tell in Jezreel. <sup>16</sup> And Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah, the king of Judah, had come down to see Joram.

<sup>17</sup> And the watchman stood on the tower in Jezreel; and he saw the company* of Jehu as he came; and he said : I see a company*. And Joram said : Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace? <sup>18</sup> So there went a horse-rider to meet him, and said : Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said : What hast thou to do with peace? Turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying : The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again. <sup>19</sup> Then he sent out a second horse-rider, who came to them, and said : Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered : What hast thou to do with peace? Turn thee behind me. <sup>20</sup> And the watchman told, saying : He came even to them, and he cometh not again; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he driveth furiously.

<sup>21</sup> And Joram said : Make ready; and his chariot was made ready. And <sup>q</sup> Joram, the king of Israel, and Ahaziah, the king of Judah, went out, each in his chariot; and they went out to meet Jehu; and they found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

<sup>22</sup> And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said : Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered : What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her many witchcrafts continue? <sup>23</sup> And Joram turned his hands*, and fled; and he said to Ahaziah : Treachery, Ahaziah! <sup>24</sup> And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sank down in his chariot.

<sup>25</sup> And he said to Bidkar his captain : Take him up, cast him into the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, <sup>r</sup> the LORD pronounced this sentence upon him : <sup>26</sup> Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this portion, saith the LORD. And now take him up, cast him into the portion, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> And when Ahaziah, the king of Judah, saw this, he fled by the way of the garden-house. And Jehu followed after him, and said : Him also, smite him in the chariot. (It was at the ascent to Gur, which is by Ibleam). And he fled to <sup>s</sup> Megiddo, and died there. <sup>28</sup> And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre, with his fathers, in the City of David. <sup>29</sup> And in the eleventh year of Joram, the son of Ahab, Ahaziah became king over Judah.

Kingdom of Israel—(1) Jehu's extermination of Ahab's descendants, (13) of the brethren of the king of Judah, and (18) of the prophets, priests and worshippers of Baal; (20) and destruction of Baal-worship in Samaria.

10. AND Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria; and Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, to the chiefs of Jezreel, to the elders, and to those who brought up Ahab's children*, saying: <sup>2</sup> Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, also a fortified city and arms, <sup>3</sup> then look out the best and meetest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house. <sup>4</sup> But they were exceedingly afraid, and said: Behold, two kings stood not before him; how then shall we stand? <sup>5</sup> And he that was over the house and he that was over the city, and the elders, and the bringers-up of the children† sent to Jehu, saying: We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou what is good in thine eyes.

<sup>6</sup> Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying: If ye are for me, and ye will hearken to my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me, to Jezreel, by this time to-morrow. Now the king's sons, seventy men, were with the great men of the city, who brought them up. <sup>7</sup> And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and <sup>8</sup> slew seventy men, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him, to Jezreel. <sup>8</sup> And a messenger came in and told him, saying: They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said: Lay ye them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning.

<sup>9</sup> And it came to pass in the morning that he went out; and he stood, and said to all the people: Ye are righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him; but who slew all these? <sup>10</sup> Know ye therefore that there <sup>11</sup> shall not fall to the earth any part of the word of the LORD which the LORD spake concerning the house of Ahab; for the LORD hath done what he spake <sup>12</sup> by his servant Elijah.

<sup>12</sup> And he arose and departed, and went to Samaria. And as he was at Beth-eked* of the shepherds, on the way, <sup>13</sup> Jehu <sup>14</sup> met with the brethren of Ahaziah, the king of Judah, and he said: Who are ye? And they answered: We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we are going down to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen†. <sup>14</sup> And he said: Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of Beth-eked, two and forty men; and he left not a man of them.

<sup>15</sup> And he departed thence, and he found Jehonadab the son of <sup>16</sup> Rechab coming to meet him; and he saluted him, and said to him: Is it right with thy heart, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered: It is. If it be, <sup>17</sup> give thy hand. And he gave his hand; and he caused him to come up to him, into the chariot. <sup>16</sup> And he said: Come with me, and see my <sup>18</sup> zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.

<sup>17</sup> And when he came to Samaria <sup>18</sup> he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had extirpated him, according to the saying of the LORD <sup>19</sup> which he spake to Elijah.

<sup>21</sup> And Jehu sent through all Israel; and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the <sup>c</sup> house of Baal; and the house of Baal was full from one end to another*. <sup>22</sup> And he said to him that was over the vestry: Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal: and he brought them forth the vestments.

<sup>23</sup> And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal; and he said to the worshippers of Baal: Search and see that there be here with you none of the servants of JEHOVAH, but the worshippers of Baal only. <sup>24</sup> And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt-offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said: If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go <sup>a</sup> his life shall be for the life of him.

<sup>25</sup> And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, that Jehu said to the runners and to the captains*: Go in, slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the runners and the captains* cast them out. And they went to the city of the house of Baal; <sup>26</sup> and they brought forth the images out of the house of Baal, and burned them; <sup>27</sup> and <sup>c</sup> they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and <sup>f</sup> made it a draught-house, unto this day.

<sup>28</sup> Thus Jehu extirpated Baal out of Israel. <sup>29</sup> But Jehu departed not from after the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, to wit, <sup>g</sup> the golden calves that were in Beth-el and that were in Dan.

<sup>30</sup> And the LORD said to Jehu: Because thou hast done well in executing what is right in mine eyes, and hast done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, <sup>h</sup> thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. <sup>31</sup> But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart; he departed not from <sup>i</sup> the sins of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin.

Kingdom of Israel—(32) Syrian invasion, and conquest of the country on the eastern side of the Jordan.

<sup>32</sup> IN those days the LORD began to cut Israel short; and <sup>a</sup> Hazael smote them in all the borders of Israel, <sup>33</sup> from the Jordan eastward; all the land of Gilead; the Gadites and the Reubenites and the Massites, from Arzer, which is by the river Arnon, both <sup>b</sup> Gilead and Bashan.

<sup>34</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>35</sup> And Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead. <sup>36</sup> And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

Kingdom of Judah—(1) Athaliah's usurpation; (4) coronation of the heir of the house of David; and renewal of the national covenant with God; (18) destruction of Baal-worship in Jerusalem, and restoration of the worship of Jehovah.

<sup>4</sup> And in the seventh year Jehoiaha sent and fetched the captains of the hundreds, of the body-guard and of the runners, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD. And he <sup>e</sup> made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them, in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son. <sup>5</sup> And he commanded them, saying: This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you shall enter in on the sabbath and shall keep the watch of the king's house; <sup>6</sup> and a third part shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the runners: and ye shall keep the watch of the house, for a defence. <sup>7</sup> And the two parts of you all that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king. <sup>8</sup> And ye shall encompass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he that cometh within the ranges*, let him be slain; and be ye with the king in his going out and in his coming in.

<sup>9</sup> And <sup>f</sup> the captains of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiaha the priest commanded. And they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiaha the priest. <sup>10</sup> And to the captains of the hundreds the priest gave <sup>g</sup> king David's spears and shields, that were in the temple of the LORD. <sup>11</sup> And the runners stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, towards the altar and towards the temple-house, round about the king.

<sup>12</sup> And he brought forth the king's son, and put the diadem upon him, and gave him <sup>a</sup> the testimony. And they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said: 'Long live the king!'

<sup>13</sup> And Athaliah heard the noise of the runners and of the people; and she came in to the people, into the temple of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> And when she looked, behold, the king was standing on the stand, <sup>k</sup> as the manner was, and the captains and the trumpeters by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with the trumpets. And Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried: Conspiracy! conspiracy! <sup>15</sup> And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said to them: Have her forth outside the ranges*; and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest said: Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD. <sup>16</sup> And they laid hands on her; and she went <sup>l</sup> by the way of the horses' entrance into the king's house; and there was she slain.

<sup>18</sup> And all the people of the land went into the <sup>o</sup> house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly; and they slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD. <sup>19</sup> And he took the captains of the hundreds, and the body-guard, and the runners, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came, by the way of the gate of the runners, to the king's house; and he sat on the throne of the kings. <sup>20</sup> And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet. And they slew Athaliah with the sword, at the king's house.

Kingdom of Judah—(21) Reign of Jehoash; (ch. 12. 4) repair of the temple—(17) The king of Syria invades Judah, but (18) withdraws from Jerusalem on receiving all the treasures of the temple and of the palace.

the sight of the LORD all his days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him. <sup>3</sup> But <sup>c</sup> the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

<sup>6</sup> But it was so that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash <sup>i</sup> the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house. <sup>7</sup> And <sup>k</sup> king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest and for the priests, and said to them: Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? And now receive no money from your acquaintances, for ye shall give it for the breaches of the house. <sup>8</sup> And the priests consented to receive no money of the people, and not to repair the breaches of the house.

<sup>9</sup> And Jehoiada the priest took <sup>l</sup> a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD; and the priests that kept the door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD. <sup>10</sup> And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's secretary and the high priest came up, and they tied up and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD. <sup>11</sup> And <sup>m</sup> they gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they gave it out to the carpenters and the builders that wrought upon the house of the LORD, <sup>12</sup> and to the masons and the hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewn stone, to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out on the house for repairs.

<sup>13</sup> Howbeit <sup>n</sup> there were not made for the house of the LORD bowls of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD; <sup>14</sup> but they gave it to the workmen, and they repaired therewith the house of the LORD. <sup>15</sup> Moreover <sup>o</sup> they reckoned not with the men into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on the workmen; for they dealt faithfully. <sup>16</sup> The <sup>p</sup> trespass-

up, and fought against <sup>r</sup> Gath, and took it.
And <sup>a</sup> Hazael set his face to go up against Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> And Jehoash, the king of Judah, <sup>t</sup> took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, the kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold found in the treasures of the house of the LORD and in the king's house, and sent them to Hazael, the king of Syria; and he went up from against Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup> And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>20</sup> And <sup>u</sup> his servants arose and made a conspiracy, and slew Joash in the house of the <sup>v</sup> fortress that descendeth to Silla: <sup>21</sup> for hobab the son of <sup>z</sup> Shomer, his servants, smote him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David; and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

*Kingdom of Israel—(1) Reign of Jehoahaz;
(2) his wickedness, (3) punished by subjection to Syria; (4) his prayer and deliverance; (10) reign of Jehoash; (14) his visit to Elisha;
(15) Elisha's prediction of victories over the Syrians.*

<sup>13</sup> IN the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria, for seventeen years.

<sup>2</sup> And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, <sup>a</sup> and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

<sup>3</sup> And <sup>b</sup> the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel; and he delivered them into the hand of <sup>c</sup> Hazael, the king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazel, all the days.

<sup>4</sup> And Jehoahaz <sup>d</sup> besought the LORD; and the LORD hearkened to him; for <sup>e</sup> he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them. <sup>5</sup> And <sup>f</sup> the LORD gave Israel a saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents*, as beforetime. <sup>6</sup> But they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin, but walked therein; and there remained the Asherah† also in Samaria.

<sup>7</sup> And he left of the people to Jehoahaz only fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and <sup>g</sup> he had made them like the dust for treading on.

<sup>8</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>9</sup> And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria; and Joash his son reigned in his stead.

<sup>10</sup> In the thirty and seventh year of Jo-ash, the king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, for sixteen years.

<sup>11</sup> And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, but he walked therein.

<sup>12</sup> And <sup>h</sup> the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and <sup>i</sup> his might wherewith he fought against Amaziah, the king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
<sup>13</sup> And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne; and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

<sup>14</sup> Now Elisha fell sick of his sickness in which he died. And Joash, the king of Israel, came down to him, and wept over his face, and said: My father, my father!
The <sup>k</sup> chariots of Israel and the horsemen thereof! <sup>15</sup> And Elisha said to him: Take bow and arrows; and he took unto him bow and arrows. <sup>16</sup> And he said to the king of Israel: Put thy hand upon the bow; and he put his hand upon it; and Elisha put his hands upon the king's hands. <sup>17</sup> And he said: Open the window eastward; and he opened it. Then Elisha said: Shoot; and he shot. And he said: The arrow of the LORD's victory*, and the arrow of victory over <sup>l</sup> Syria. For thou shalt smite the Syrians in <sup>1</sup> Aphek till thou have consumed them. <sup>18</sup> And he said: Take the arrows; and he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel: Smite upon the ground.

And he smote thrice, and stayed. <sup>19</sup> And the man of God was wroth with him, and said: Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times; then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: but now thou shalt smite Syria <sup>m</sup> thrice.

<sup>20</sup> And Elisha died, and they buried him.
And the troops of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.

<sup>22</sup> And Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz; <sup>23</sup> but <sup>n</sup> the LORD was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and <sup>o</sup> had respect unto them, <sup>p</sup> because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and would not destroy them; and he cast them not out from his presence as yet.

<sup>24</sup> And Hazael king of Syria died; and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his stead. <sup>25</sup> And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father in the war. Three times did Joash beat him; and he recovered the cities of Israel.

Kingdom of Judah—(1) Reign of Amaziah; (7) his victory over the Edomites; (8) war between Israel and Judah.

<sup>14.</sup> IN <sup>a</sup> the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel, <sup>b</sup> Amaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, became king. <sup>2</sup> He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD; yet not like David his father; he did according to all things as Joash his father did. <sup>4</sup> Only <sup>c</sup> the high places were not taken away; as yet the people sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

<sup>5</sup> And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, that he slew his servants <sup>d</sup> who had slain the king his father. <sup>6</sup> But the children of the murderers he did not put to death; according to that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, wherein the LORD commanded, saying: <sup>e</sup> The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

<sup>8</sup> Then <sup>h</sup> Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying: Come, let us look one another in the face. <sup>9</sup> And Jehoash, the king of Israel, sent to Amaziah, the king of Judah, saying: 'The thorn-bush that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife. And there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thorn-bush. <sup>10</sup> Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thy heart hath lifted thee up. Boast thyself, but tarry at home; and why wilt thou excite thyself for mischief, that thou shouldst fall, thou and Judah with thee? <sup>11</sup> But Amaziah would not hear; and Jehoash, the king of Israel, went up; and he and Amaziah, the king of Judah, looked one another in the face at <sup>k</sup> Beth-shemesh, (which belongeth to Judah). <sup>12</sup> And Judah was routed before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents.

<sup>17</sup> And <sup>p</sup> Amaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, lived after the death of Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel, fifteen years. <sup>18</sup> And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>10</sup> And king Ahaz went to Damascus, to meet Tiglath-pileser, the king of Assyria. And he saw an altar that was at Damascus; and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the likeness of the altar and its model, according to all its workmanship. <sup>11</sup> And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus; so Urijah the priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus. <sup>12</sup> And when the king came from Damascus, the king saw the altar; and <sup>13</sup> the king approached to the altar, and <sup>14</sup> offered thereon. <sup>15</sup> And he burnt his burnt-offering and his meal-offering, and poured his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace-offerings, upon the altar. <sup>16</sup> And he also brought <sup>17</sup> the brazen altar, which was before the LORD, from <sup>18</sup> the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar.

<sup>15</sup> And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying: Upon the great altar burn <sup>16</sup> the morning burnt-offering, and the evening meal-offering, and <sup>17</sup> the king's burnt-sacrifice and his meal-offering, with the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, and their meal-offering and their drink-offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt-offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice; and the brazen altar shall be for me to inquire by*. <sup>16</sup> And Urijah the priest did according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

Kingdom of Israel—(1) Reign of Hoshea; (3) Assyrian invasion; (5) siege and capture of Samaria; (6) overthrow of the kingdom, and transportation of the people to Assyria and Media.

17. IN the twelfth year of Ahaz, the king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah became king in Samaria over Israel, for nine years.

<sup>2</sup> And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

<sup>4</sup> And the king of Assyria found a conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So, the king of Egypt, and he brought no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year; therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

<sup>5</sup> Then <sup>c</sup> the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land; and he went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.

<sup>7</sup> AND so it was that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, <sup>8</sup> and had <sup>a</sup> walked in the statutes of the nations whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and <sup>b</sup> of the kings of Israel, which they had made. <sup>9</sup> And the children of Israel did secretly things that were not right against the LORD their God; and they built for themselves high places in all their cities, from <sup>c</sup> the watchman's tower to the fortified city. <sup>10</sup> And <sup>d</sup> they set up for themselves images and Asherim‡ on <sup>e</sup> every high hill, and under every green tree. <sup>11</sup> And there they burnt incense, on all the high places, like the nations whom the LORD carried away before them; and they wrought wicked things <sup>f</sup> to provoke the LORD to anger. <sup>12</sup> For they served idols, <sup>g</sup> concerning which the LORD had said unto them: Ye shall not do this thing.

he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed <sup>p</sup> vanity and became vain, and went after the nations that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them that they should <sup>q</sup> not do like them. <sup>16</sup> And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and <sup>r</sup> made for themselves molten images, even two calves, and <sup>s</sup> made an Asherah*, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and <sup>t</sup> served Baal. <sup>17</sup> And <sup>u</sup> they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and <sup>v</sup> used divination and enchantments, and <sup>w</sup> sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

<sup>26</sup> Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying: The nations which thou hast removed and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land; so he hath sent lions among them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

<sup>27</sup> Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying: Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land. <sup>28</sup> And one of the <sup>h</sup> priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> But every nation made gods of its own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made; every nation in their own cities wherein they dwelt. <sup>30</sup> And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth; and the men of Cuth made Nergal; and the men of Hamath made Ashima; <sup>31</sup> and <sup>i</sup> the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

<sup>34</sup> Unto this day they do after the former manners. They fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, <sup>l</sup> whom he named Israel; <sup>35</sup> with whom the LORD made a covenant; and charged them, saying: <sup>m</sup> Ye shall not fear other gods, nor <sup>n</sup> bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them; <sup>36</sup> but the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, with great power and <sup>o</sup> a stretched out arm, <sup>p</sup> him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice. <sup>37</sup> And <sup>q</sup> the statutes and the ordinances, and the law and the commandment, which he wrote for you, <sup>r</sup> ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods. <sup>38</sup> And the covenant that I have made with you <sup>s</sup> ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods; <sup>39</sup> but the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. <sup>40</sup> Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

(1) Hezekiah's good and prosperous reign.*

18, AND it came to pass, in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah, the king of Israel, that <sup>a</sup>Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, the king of Judah, became king. <sup>2</sup>Twenty and five years old was he when he became king; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was <sup>b</sup>Abi, the daughter of Zachariah.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD <sup>i</sup>was with him; he prospered whithersoever he went forth; and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not. <sup>8</sup>He <sup>k</sup>smote the Philistines unto Gaza and the borders thereof, from the watchman's tower to the fortified city.

<sup>9</sup>AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, (which was the seventh year of Hoshea, the son of Elah, the king of Israel,) that Shalmaneser, the king of Assyria, came up against Samaria, and besieged it. <sup>10</sup>And <sup>a</sup>in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is, in the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Israel, Samaria was taken.

<sup>14</sup>And Hezekiah, the king of Judah, sent to the king of Assyria, to Lachish, saying: I have offended; return from me; that which thou putteth on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria laid upon Hezekiah, the king of Judah, three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. <sup>15</sup>And Hezekiah <sup>b</sup>gave all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house. <sup>16</sup>At that time Hezekiah cut off the doors <sup>c</sup>of the temple of the LORD and the pillars, which Hezekiah, the king of Judah, had overlaid*, and gave them to the king of Assyria.

Second Assyrian invasion of Judah—(17) Sennacherib's attempt to obtain the surrender of Jerusalem; (ch. 19. 1) Hezekiah's application to the prophet Isaiah; and (6) the Lord's answer.

<sup>17</sup>AND <sup>a</sup>the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rab-saris and Rab-shakeh from <sup>b</sup>Lachish to king Hezekiah, with a great host, to Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem; and when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the Upper Pool, <sup>c</sup>which is in the highway of the Fuller's Field. <sup>18</sup>And they called to the king; and there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

<sup>19</sup>And Rab-shakeh said unto them: Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria: What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? <sup>20</sup>Thou sayest, (but they are but vain words!) I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? <sup>21</sup>Now behold, thou trustest upon the staff of that bruised reed, upon <sup>d</sup>Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand and pierce it: such is Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, unto all that trust on him. <sup>22</sup>But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God; is not that he <sup>e</sup>whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? <sup>23</sup>But now, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord, the king of Assyria, and I will deliver unto thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. <sup>24</sup>And how wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for <sup>f</sup>chariots and for horsemen? <sup>25</sup>Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land and destroy it.

<sup>26</sup> Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh: Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall. <sup>27</sup> But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? Is it not to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung and drink their own water* with you.

<sup>31</sup> Hearken not to Hezekiah; for thus saith the king of Assyria: Make <sup>a</sup> peace with me, and come out to me, and eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern; <sup>32</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, <sup>i</sup> a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil-olive and of honey; that ye may live, and not die; and hearken not unto Hezekiah; for he inciteth<sup>a</sup> ye, saying, The LORD will deliver us. <sup>33</sup> Have <sup>k</sup> any of the gods of the nations at all delivered their land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>34</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and <sup>i</sup> Ivah? Have <sup>m</sup> they delivered Samaria out of my hand? <sup>35</sup> Who among all the gods of the countries are they that have delivered their country out of my hand, that <sup>n</sup> the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

<sup>37</sup> Then came <sup>o</sup> Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah, <sup>p</sup> with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

<sup>19</sup>. And <sup>q</sup> it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard <sup>u</sup> it, that he rent his clothes, and <sup>b</sup> covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup> And they said unto him: Thus saith Hezekiah, <sup>c</sup> This day is a day of trouble and of rebuke and of reproach; for sons are come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth. <sup>4</sup> It <sup>d</sup> may be the LORD thy God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to blaspheme the living God, and will <sup>e</sup> reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard; wherefore <sup>f</sup> lift up thy prayer for the remnant that are left.

<sup>5</sup> And the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. <sup>6</sup> And Isaiah said unto them: Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be <sup>g</sup> not afraid because of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reproached me. <sup>7</sup> Behold, I will put <sup>h</sup> a spirit into him, and he shall <sup>i</sup> hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

<sup>8</sup> And Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish.

Sennacherib's second summons to surrender Jerusalem; (14) Hezekiah's prayer, and (20) God's answer; (35) destruction of the Assyrian army.

<sup>9</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> he heard say of Tirhakah, the king of Ethiopia: Behold, he is come out to fight against thee; and he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying: <sup>10</sup> Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah, the king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup> Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered? <sup>12</sup> Have the gods of the nations which my fathers have destroyed delivered them; Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of <sup>b</sup> Eden who were in Thelassar? <sup>13</sup> Where is the king of <sup>c</sup> Hamath, and the king of <sup>d</sup> Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

<sup>14</sup> And Hezekiah received the letters from the hand of the messengers, and read them; and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and <sup>e</sup> spread them before the LORD. <sup>15</sup> And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said: O LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>f</sup> who sittest on the cherubim! <sup>g</sup> Thou art the God, thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. a perfect heart, and have done what is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore.

<sup>4</sup> And it came to pass, before Isaiah had gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying : <sup>5</sup> Turn again, and tell Hezekiah <sup>c</sup> the prince of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father : <sup>d</sup> I have heard thy prayer, I have seen <sup>e</sup> thy tears ; behold, I will heal thee ; on the third day thou shalt go up to the house of the LORD ; <sup>6</sup> and I will add unto thy days fifteen years. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria ; and <sup>f</sup> I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. <sup>7</sup> And Isaiah said : Take a cake of figs ; and they took and laid it on the boil ; and he recovered.

<sup>8</sup> And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah : <sup>g</sup> What is the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day ? <sup>9</sup> And Isaiah said : This is the sign to thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken. Shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees ? <sup>10</sup> And Hezekiah answered : It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees ; nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees. <sup>11</sup> And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD ; and <sup>h</sup> he brought the shadow backward ten degrees, by which it had gone down in the dial <sup>i</sup> of Ahaz.

<sup>12</sup> At <sup>j</sup> that time <sup>k</sup> Berodach-baladan the son of Baladan, the king of Babylon, sent letters and a present unto Hezekiah ; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. <sup>13</sup> And <sup>l</sup> Hezekiah hearkened to them, and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver and the gold, and the spices and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures ; there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them.

<sup>14</sup> Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him : What said these men ? And from whence came they unto thee ? And Hezekiah said : They are come from a far country, from Babylon. <sup>15</sup> And he said : What have they seen in thy house ? And Hezekiah answered : All that is in my house have they seen : there is nothing among my treasures that I have not showed them.

<sup>16</sup> And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah : Hear the word of the LORD. <sup>17</sup> Behold, the days come that all that is in thy house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, <sup>m</sup> shall be carried to Babylon ; nothing shall be left, saith the LORD. <sup>18</sup> And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, whom thou shalt beget, <sup>n</sup> shall they take away ; <sup>o</sup> and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

<sup>19</sup> Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah : <sup>p</sup> Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said : Is it not, if peace and truth be in my days ?

<sup>20</sup> And <sup>q</sup> the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he <sup>r</sup> made the pool and the conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah ? <sup>21</sup> And Hezekiah slept with his fathers ; and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

21. MANASSEH <sup>a</sup> was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzi-bah.

<sup>2</sup> And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, <sup>b</sup> after the abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>3</sup> For he built up again the high places <sup>c</sup> which Hezekiah his father had destroyed ; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made an Asherah <sup>d</sup>, <sup>e</sup> as did Ahab, the king of Israel ; and he worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them. <sup>4</sup> And <sup>f</sup> he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, <sup>g</sup> In Jerusalem will I put my name. <sup>5</sup> And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup> And <sup>h</sup> he made his son pass through the fire, and <sup>i</sup> used magic and divination, and dealt with <sup>k</sup> necromancers and wizards. He wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

<sup>7</sup> And he set the graven image of Asherah <sup>j</sup> that he had made, in the house of which the LORD said to David, and to Solomon his son, In <sup>l</sup> this house, and in Jerusalem which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever ; <sup>8</sup> and I <sup>m</sup> will not make the feet of Israel to move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers ; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them. <sup>9</sup> But they hearkened not ; and Manasseh seduced them to do evil more than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

Amon's wicked reign.

<sup>20</sup> And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh did. <sup>21</sup> And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them; <sup>22</sup> and he <sup>c</sup> forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD.

dah? <sup>26</sup> And he was buried in his sepulchre, in the garden of Uzza. And Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

Josiah's good reign; (3) repair of the temple; (8) discovery of the book of the law; (12) Josiah's enquiry of the prophetess Huldah; and (15) God's answer.

<sup>3</sup> And <sup>d</sup> it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying: <sup>4</sup> Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum up the silver which hath been <sup>e</sup> brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the door have gathered of the people; <sup>5</sup> and let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD; and let them give it to the doers of the work who are in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house; <sup>6</sup> to the carpenters and to the builders and to the masons; and to buy timber and hewn stones to repair the house. <sup>7</sup> But let no reckoning be made with them as to the money that is delivered into their hand, because they deal faithfully.

<sup>8</sup> And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe: <sup>f</sup> I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.
